reasured moments

In 1845, just 9 years after the immortal Battle of the Alamo, the greatest of all U. S. Army installations had its inception at this historic mission. Here, Col. Wm. S. Harney of the 2nd Dragoons was ordered to establish a Quartermaster Depot. Here, in 1846, Brig. Gen. John Ellis Wool organized the Army of the Center with Capt. Robert E. Lee as his Engineering Officer. Serving 33 years as the San Antonio Quartermaster Depot, the Alamo also became Headquarters and Supply Depot for 20 other military establishments along the Southwestern border.

Because of Treasured Moments like those of Texas' History, we can enjoy the good things of life today. During our treasured moments now, it's only natural to look for relaxation and refreshment at its best. For taste-wise Texans that means an occasional bottle of tangy PEARL Beer, a superior brew of top quality and finer flavor!
