When the monument is presented to the public in memory of those who participated in both wars, it will be a thing of beauty which the residents of the county can view with pride and satisfaction.

BAND CONCERT FRIDAY EVENING

The Sanderson High School Band was presented in the first public concert of the school year last Friday evening in the school auditorium. The band, directed by Paul C. Brake, won much favorable comment from a large audience.

The numbers on the program included: Concert Overture in G Minor (a contest number), Down South, Swanee River, Deep Purple, Carnival of Roses Oevrture, Valse Bluette Margie, I'm Falling In Love With Someone, A Salutation, directed by Jimmie Harris, a trio for two B-flat clarinets and a bass clarinet played by Betty Cooke, Nancy Peavy and Jack Savage.

Realism In Shooting Canon City' Break Carried Too Far

That realism can be carried too far, even in a semi-factual movie, was the lesson learned by the cat and crew of Eagle Lions's exciting, blood-tingling, suspense drama "Canon City", opening Sunday at the Princess Thea-

To match the thrilling action of the real life break of twelve convicts from Colorado State Penitentiary, which astounded the nation last December, Director Crane Wilbur had the actors Bertha Stumberg. and crew go through all the motions of the actual prison escape.

In one of the chase sequences, Bud Wolfe, one of the players, was driving and skidded so badly into a ditch that the car was demolished. Wolfe was badly shaken up and suffered bruises and contusions

Jeff Corey, playing the ringleader of the escape mob, had to smash through a screen door, just as it was done in the actual break. He hit the door hard city. enough to open a wound in his hand which required three stitches to close.

A tumble from a 16-foot embankment caused some torn ligaments in the leg of Robert Bice, another actor, as he was escaping from the screen posse

The scenes recording the break from the prison itself, done in 17 than a dozen members of the "Canon City" crew and cast to the prison hospital to be treated for frostbite and exposure. Because of the sub-zero temperatures more than four hours were of her sister, Mrs. Freddie Talnecessary to film the sequence.

Bryan Foy, who produced this exciting movie, said he was sorry for all the accidents which incapacitated the players and delay- Lee Roy Grigsby, and family for ed production, but after seeing the picture itself declared himself overwhelmed by the stark San Antonio for medical treatrealism of the picture.

... to wash the AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC WAY!

Yes, even little sister can do the washing with an automatic electric washer.

She simply puts in the soiled clothes and soap, sets the controls and the washer does the rest. All by itself, it cleans the clothes thoroughly, triple rinses them in clean water and spins them damp dry. It even drains itself and shuts itself off when the clothes are ready for the line.

You'll be emased at how easy it is to wash with an automatic electric washer. And it costs so little to operate that a few cents worth of electricity will do an entire week's washing. Ask for a demonstration today!
