TEN TO LUKE

Each year the millions who need help and the millions who want to help are brought together through the Red Cross. Last year there were 330 Red Cross disaster operations, the largest number in a single year in the history of the organization. More than 2,000,000 servicemen, veterans and their dependents received Red Cross assistance. The Red Cross trained more than a million persons in first aid, water safety and accident prevention. The Red Cross National Blood Program is already supplying blood and blood derivatives to hospitals in approximately half the states of the nation. These are highlights of the job being done 24 hours a day by your Red Cross.

Happy Birthday to Us!

You probably noticed — or did you? — that in the datelines of this week's paper we pulled out the words "Volume 42", and inserted "Volume 43 — No. 1". Which means that the Sanderson Times is 43 years old, and this week we start on the forty-third year.

Work of ACP Listed For Year Past

Under the 1949 Agricultural Conservation Program a total of $43,827.64 went to Terrell County ranchers to assist them in carrying out approved conservation practices. To this amount, these farmers and ranchers who cooperated in ACP put up another $87,000.00 in cash and labor, according to Miss Louise Klemer, local PMA secretary.

and will try to do a better job next year and the usual blah-blah, which you may or may not believe. To tell the truth we worked like the dickens during the past year. Not because we especially enjoyed it, but because we needed to make a living and keep on paying off that note.

Lots of you helped on that note by way of subscriptions, etc., and we paid off a bunch of them, too. As we indicated, we believe that putting out the paper last year kinda bordered on work, but we won't say we didn't enjoy it.

We didn't run the Sanderson Times — it ran us. It caused us to run here, there and yonder in search of ads and job printing and business, and news, etc. An that, in our language, runs into work.

But we enjoyed it more than picking cotton, digging a ditch and numerous other things we could name. We did enjoy our forty-second year, too. We enjoyed printing the news and ads, receiving your subscriptions, an association with you in many ways.

We tried to share your joys and your sorrows, your good fortunes and your misfortunes with you. We've laughed with you in your happiness. We've wept with you in your sorrow. We expect to keep on doing so in the forty-third year of this paper.

With your friendship and good will — and your subscription money, advertising, stationery and office supply business — we expect to be reasonably happy in so doing.

Barbecue Supper By Local Masons

The annual barbecue supper given by local Masons in celebration of George Washington's birthday was at the Masonic Hall Wednesday evening. Families of Masons and members of the Eastern Star Chapter and their families were invited guests.

J. G. Barry gave a resume of the life of Washington closing his remarks with the statement, "Washington was not famous as an outstanding Mason but as an outstanding citizen exemplifying all the tenets of Masonry."

How to Get That Homework Done

Miss Gilbert, our grammar school principal, spoke the other night at the regular Parent-Teachers' meeting, on getting children to do their homework when they want to listen to the radio. "We mustn't give them a flat 'no,'" Miss Gilbert said. "If we adults really believe in tolerance and moderation, we should instill these qualities in our children. Listening to the radio is fine—in moderation—as long as homework gets done, too."

work problem is a wonderful way to see to it that our youngsters acquire the sensible moderate habits they'll need later on. I've never believed in hard and fast rules—except where absolutely necessary. Let the other fellow do as he likes, as long as he's temperate and tolerant. Guess that's why I've never felt we should quarrel with the fellow who is partial to a glass of beer—the "Beverage of Moderation."

WATHEN WEDDING IN ATHENS SATURDAY

The First Baptist Church of Athens, Texas, was the scene of the wedding ceremony of Miss Mary Elizabeth Wathen, daughter of Mr. Ben H. Wathen of that town and Mrs. A. C. Smith of San Antonio.

Walter E. Floyd, pastor, officiated at the exchange of vows and the double-ring ceremony. The bride wore a gown of Venetian lace outlining sweetheart neckline and petal-point sleeves. Intricate seamwork gave a partial line to the molded bodice which was fastened in the back with small satin-covered buttons. The full circular skirt was worn over hoops and extended to a formal train. Her two-veiled mist illusion was held to a bandeau of satin which were sprinkled with dewdrop pearls. The bride carried an armful of white gladiolus and the bouquet centered with an orchid.

Robert Miles White of San Antonio, sister of the bride, was the best man and bridesmaid. Other bridesmaids were Miss Mary Frances White of Athens, Miss Lida Denney of Wichita Falls and Miss Elizabeth Hodgens of Athens.
