LISTEN TO LUKE

Anderson and Terrell County well represented at the dedication ceremonies at Fort Stockton Tuesday evening, County Judge R. S. Wilkinson sat with the invited guests on the platform and acted as spokesman for the Anderson delegation.

Such comment was heard on the streets prior to the celebration.
It was those who felt that Fort Stockton was the place to have the celebration since this is the home of the high school.
Since Fort Stockton was located as the location for the afternoon showed Sanderson it to be the perfect host. Neighboring Fort Stockton never did it. We can do this for the good of the highway. We can do this for the good of the highway through traffic routed on Highway 90.
We have any kicking to do to have to kick ourselves and Fort Stockton.

There would have been a much better representation from Sanderson present at the celebration.
Business men here had closed shops an hour or so early and left the employees to attend.
It is a pity that it has shown an interest in the things that will benefit Sanderson better but it will give a better civic to the employees who help the business in Sanderson.
Time will come when we see the day for a better cooperative That day may come too for some business men who they might miss a sale by early for such an occasion.

There will be two Thanksgiving celebrations this year. There are two reasons for this. Thanksgiving has but it seems we could celebrate it one day as has been the custom for many years. Governor Bullock's proclamation setting aside Monday, November 20, and Tuesday, November 23, as official Thanksgiving leaves the citizens to choose with their choice of the days. We hope both days will be observed as holidays by the banks and other businesses. Since Thursday celebration day we will try to have time to eat a hamburger and one of the turkey days.

One of our readers are never satisfied with what goes in this paper. The other day we customer tell us that our of bulldozing the dump worked in so far as to get done but now some of the is turned up so they will water when and if it rains it furnish a good breeding for mosquitoes. That is an that had never occurred to us. In the first place would a person stick in an pounding the tips of both fingers off on a typewriter to consider what would if it should rain. In the we didn't know that bebulldozing each can was with the open end down to them catching rain water. is a possibility that by political influence and by of the required number of of some form or other and appraising the premises inappraised and transferred bureau to another three times, a crew of men could here from some eastern supervised of course by ten technical specialists. job of turning each can in position could be taken of government expense.
? A few weeks ago this printed a story about the of money that had been of Terrell County by the of the farm and ranch of. If we could have printed out it cost in increased of the citizens of the coun-that amount spent here have been interesting.

What can happen now since Truman flew to Wake to meet General MacArthat is the first time we record of the President anybody half way.

Ranchmen Warned Of Scabies Spread In Texas

West Texas Livestock Weekly

There's a vast and serious difference in the way Texas' sheep scabies situation is viewed in different parts of the United States.
Here in Texas, a committee of ranchers from the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association headed by Penrose Metcalfe of San Angelo met with members of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission in Austin Tuesday. Metcalfe said they were assured by Duval Davidson, director of the Sanitary Commission in Fort Worth, that sheep in "only five Texas counties" were under quarantine and that some of these flocks were under process of being released after their second dipping and observation period.

However, in some other states, including some which regularly buy great numbers of Texas sheep, there's quite a bit of excitement about scab in Texas.

For example, J. C. Petersen, head of the Peterson Sheep Company at Spencer, Iowa, sent the following telegram Tuesday afternoon to West Texas Livestock Weekly:

"Heard Monday five counties in East Texas badly infected. Also 65,000 sheep were double dipped in South Dakota resulting from infection of 6,500 Texas sheep. Scab also found in Sioux Falls market in shipment from Mitchell, South Dakota."

What does scab in South Dakota have to do with Texas. Well, the first scab there was found on sheep shipped from Texas, and from now on every case ever found in the state will be blamed on Texas. The same applies to other states which have been free of scab for many years.

Sheep men all over the United

New Regulations For Re-Contracting Braceros Outlined

Much comment is heard on the processing of braceros by local ranchers. Mrs. C. P. Peavy stated this week that representatives from the Texas Employment Commission of San Angelo were in Sanderson early in October and signed up all ranchmen intending to process braceros. Each rancher will be notified from the processing center of his date to appear to renew and make new contracts.
If the date is not satisfactory it is possible to set another date by writing the processing center.
According to new regulations, any bracero terminating his work with a ranchman may be contracted by another rancher through transfer and the first rancher relieved of any contracts concerning the bracero.

At the end of the contract year, the bracero has to be taken to the bridge at the processing center and the consent of the consul obtained for the renewal of the contract. An effort is being made to have all of the processing made through the center at Eagle Pass.

WEST FAMILY LEAVES FOR EAST TEXAS LAST WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. West and son left Saturday for East Texas and will locate there after viewing several possible locations.
They were accompanied by his father and mother of Alabama, who have made their home here for several months.
Mr. West came here over two years ago from Alabama as an employee of the Interstate Company. Mrs. West joined him later and they managed the cafe for two years.

States know Texas has had scabies for more than a year.

Petersen handles a lot of Texas sheep. He's represented by Theron Weatherby of Big Lake. Other representatives are located throughout the Corn Belt and in the Northwest. Petersen says some of his big customers have told him they don't want any more Texas sheep from anywhere in the state unless they have been dipped at least once at the owner's expense.

Petersen also published a house organ called the Corn Belt Lamb Feeder, a very readable stockman's paper which presumably has wide circulation in the growing as well as the feeding areas of the nation. This week, his paper carries an editorial on scabies. To show how our Texas scab is viewed farther north, we asked Petersen to write it. (Continued to page two)

Twenty-Five Boys Enrolled In FFA Class In Local High School

Sanderson Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has 63 lamb on feed, according to R. M.
Turner, advisor. The unit has 36 of the lambs at the feed barns by the football field and the balance of the animals are on the premises of the boys owning the lambs.

The poultry project has begun in the class and at the present 68 baby chicks are under feed. It is expected that there will be about 250 baby chicks in the chapter after the program gains momentum and Turner stated that by spring it is possible that some calves will be included in the list of projects.
Twenty-five boys are enrolled in the class. The boys and their projects are: Odell Carruthers 2 ewe lambs and 3 mutton lambs, Glenn Chandler 1 mutton lamb, Tommy Mansfield 3 mutton lambs, David Mitchell 6 mutton lambs, Charles Stegall 6 mutton lambs, O. V. Stidham 2 mutton lambs, Jim Turner 3 mutton lambs; Cy Banner 3 mutton lambs; Jimmy Harrison 6 buck lambs; Donald Koeian 2 mutton lambs; Joe Nes-smith 2 mutton lambs; Marion Powers 3 mutton lambs; Gary Vasbinder 2 mutton lambs; Bob Wilkinson 6 mutton lambs; Willie Wolfe 3 mutton lambs. Colby House is feeding the 68 baby chicks.

Boys who have not yet begun their projects are: Nicky Hahn, 50 baby chicks; Douglas Attaway 50 baby chicks; Pablo Flores 25 baby chicks; Jimmy Caroline 50 baby chicks; Manuel Maldonado, 25 baby chicks; Joe Vasquez 25 baby chicks; Roman Zepeda, Raul Flores and Silvestre Silvas have not yet decided on their projects for the current year.

The lamb feeding project is expected to be completed the latter part of February or the first of March in time for the animals to be taken to the San Angelo Fat Stock Show and Sale.

The baby chicks will be raised for egg production and marketing and the proceeds gained from this and the sale of the lambs at the San Angelo show is expected to reimburse the feeder for the initial cost of the stock and feed and return a small profit to the boy for his time and trouble in his endeavors.

The chapter has been organized and is now working under the official FFA system of organization, government and hopes to receive their charter before midterm.

Mr. Turner reports that all of the boys are showing intense interest in their projects and many of the students who are eligible for the course have expressed regret that they did not take advantage of the opportunity this year.
Turner added that he hoped that next year some of the girl students would undertake a project, since so many of the girls of the area are connected directly with the ranching industry and other are definitely interested. It is hoped to soon open a part-time course in vocational agriculture to younger students. This part-time course will give the younger students an opportunity to have some sort of project with which to busy themselves while at the same time learning to earn money for themselves while learning worthwhile information concerning the agricultural industry as pertains to the feeding, fitting, selecting and showing of livestock.

usual determination and the will to win and came out on the top side of the score.

Van Horn scored both of their TDs in the 1st period. The first came from a 30 yard run and the second was from a plunge over the stripe from the 7 yard line.

In the second quarter, Jack Talbot, Eagle right half, scored on a 70 yard sprint and Gene Chandler converted the extra point. Talbot scored again in the 3rd quarter on a 31 yard run with Chandler again converting the extra point.

Juan Olivares, Eagle quarterback, went through the middle for 4 yards and the third Eagle tally in the 4th period. The extra point attempt failed.

Sanderson lost two more possible scores when they fumbled with less than 1 yard to go for a TD and four remaining attempts. Another fumble on the 6 yard line with 1st and goal to go could have netted more points.

The Eagles completed 3 of 8 passing attempts for 26 yards gained aerially and netted 302 on the ground.

According to the coaches Maggie Bustos, Joe Nessmith, Jack

SCABIES

son to wire us his editorial. Unless the message was garbled in the wires, it goes like this:

"Another case of scabies was recently found in Kansas, this from sheep originating in Texas. Stern measures are going to have to be taken to clean up the mess that is being spread to different sections of the country.

"Where it originated in Texas may be a question, but shipments from there are the ones that can be depended on to be less and less clean. Texas lambs were responsible for the outbreak in Idaho, also north of Newell, South Dakota. Thousands of sheep were dipped to clean up the area there.

"Pete Terrell (a Montana representative), coming through Miles City, saw some lambs being dipped there. An outbreak has occurred in Tennessee. Colorado has an embargo against Kansas. Wyoming has instituted an embargo against Colorado. Scabies found in sheep that had passed through the San Angelo, Texas, yards. All in all it seems a clear-cut case that Texas sanitary authorities did not act quickly when cases in that state were first discovered.

Most of the western areas have been comparatively free from scab for at least 30 years and for 15 years we have not had one report of scab in shipments made by our company. But a person can be only about so careful, and through other folk's mistakes an innocent shipper can be penalized.

"There is only one sure way to clean up where it is found, and that is as was done in South Dakota, start dipping immediately. Furthermore, unless sheepmen in Texas want to be penalized by less demand it seems as though all sheep should be dipped in that state immediately.

"At the present time, Dr. Garrett, state veterinarian of Iowa, and head of the sanitary board is gathering information on shipments from that state.

"We had an experience about 15 years ago when 11 native lambs contaminated a western shipment. We learned through experience then that the best way to clean up is to get busy right now and dip the lambs once if exposed, twice when inspection actually shows scab.

"Scab itself only becomes dangerous when people try to move infected sheep contaminating the trails, trucks, railroad cars, feeding pens and markets. Some of the regulations governing shipments of sheep and lambs from state sometimes seem tedious and unnecessary, but sanitary authorities of the various states are charged with keeping the livestock in their state clean, and everyone should wholeheartedly cooperate to help them do the job."

There it is. It means the time is rapidly approaching when every Texas sheepman will be penalized, regardless of whether he ever heard of scab in his life.

As for Texas, the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association Livestock Sanitary Committee in Austin Tuesday of last week recommended that additional sanitary inspectors be employed by the state sanitary commission. The committee urged prompt action and met with Governor Allen Shivers to ask for additional aid to help get rid of the disease. Metcalfe said county commissioners courts in areas of the state affected by the outbreak will be asked to employ inspectors.

Members of the committee in addition to Metcalfe are Fred Earwood of Sonora, Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, Vic Pierce of Odessa and Steve Stumberg of Sanderson. Jake Mayfield of Juno, president of the association. Horace Fawcett of Del Rio, past president; and Jimmy Mills, Del Rio sheep dealer, also attended the meeting in Austin.

Walter C. Wolff of San Antonio, secretary of the Texas Livestock

Auction Association, met with the committee and the Sanitary Commission to extend the assistance and cooperation of auction companies in eradicating scabies from the state.

Want a long run for your money?

Better Buy Buick!

YOU want a new car to be tops in things like style and room and comfort and power——and a thrill-packed fifteen minutes with the nimble number pictured here will show you it has all these things in abundant measure.

So you ask us—how about money? What does it cost to buy a Buick—and to own one?
All right—let us ask you some questions.

Take first cost. Do you know that Buick prices start down at a level below what you'd pay for some sixes—and that every Buick, on a cents-per-pound basis, is a stand-out buy?

Take operating cost. Do you know that the bang you'll get from Buick's Fireball power comes from a valve-in-head engine—recognized by engineers as a thrifty saver of fuel?

Do you know that owners of 1950 Buicks are writing us rave letters, saying that this year's version is the most economical Buick ever built?

Do you know that such comfort features as coil springs on all four wheels protect the car as well as the passengers—and throw in an extra saving because they need no servicing, and are practically breakproof to boot?

Do you know that Dynaflo*—in addition to keeping you fresh as a daisy on a day-long drive—caps its convenience with savings on tires, cuts down the strain on transmissions and engines—and eliminates all friction clutch repairs, because it hasn't any?

Take final cost. Do you know that when the owner of a Buick gets a yen for a later model, the prices that Buicks command on a used-car lot are the ultimate proof of their long-run value?

So if you want a real run for your money, better buy Buick. And the first step is very simple: Go see your Buick dealer—soon—and get an order signed.

* Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on Super and Special models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT—This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.
