LISTEN TO LUKE

Christmas cards have begun to arrive at the home of this columnist that brings to mind that the holiday is just around the corner. With things as they are we can't get too pepped-up as the season approaches. Good cheer should prevail throughout the world at this holy season of the year, but there are many saddened hearts and many anxious souls thinking of their loved ones who are not near them. You know, that should make Christmas mean more than ever. Can't we look about us and see someone we could help to make their Christmas more bright? There are so many people in this world this year who could bear to have a friendly word and a cheerful smile that challenge for us is greater than any year that it has been for several years back.

There are those who will do the things which may bring more hurtaches. Careless, unthoughtful individuals will get under the wheel of a car and kill some person and blight a merry season for an entire family and bring remorse and regret to himself. It is hoped that every driver in Terrell County will make a special effort to see that they are not responsible for any accidents that would take any of the joy from the Christmas holidays.

Along the safety subject, there is a move now going around to take extra precautionary steps toward the safety of school children at and near the public school buildings. It is planned to mark lanes for the children to use in crossing the streets and, with that taken care of, a student patrol is trained to assist in directing the students across.

This program may save a life. We have seen some parents park at the school grounds and as soon as their child is in the car make a quick getaway as if their lunch were burning. That is a dangerous practice. Every driver should take care that all the children are safely across the street before the car is started in motion. So far there has been no serious accidents at the school but now would be a good time to take measures to prevent child being hurt seriously.

December seventh has come and the Fires of Freedom were lifted at Sanderson and over 700 other Texas towns as a symbol of faith in the democratic principles to prevail over the Communistic doctrine. Sanderson Legionnaires sponsored a program at the school and at the football field. Speakers of local talent — made an impressive appeal to the people for an awakening to their citizenship responsibilities. It may have done some good. We feel that the fact that our own people did the talking did more good than to have a half-dozen imported talkers who have no personal interest in our local citizens.

Things are in a mess. We are starting out here to howl — we are just tightening our belt and facing the facts. Conditions demand the united support of every American in every walk of life. There can be no shirkers in our midst.

This column, as has been stated before, believes that there must be an awakening to our stewardship in regard to the way we have handled those things placed our trust by the Creator of the universe. We cannot go on ignoring the rules of the game as laid down by the Great Referee of the game of life.

A Congressman suggested that a day of prayer be established throughout the United States asking for divine guidance for the political and military heads of our nation. This column would write a letter in that regard only for the possibility of added governmental expense by the use of the franking privilege of a certain individual and the possibility of an accusation of an attempt to seek national publicity.

Every citizen of the United States should bow humbly before Almighty God for some of our mistakes that can be rectified by a complete about-face in our way of thinking.

Mark Twain once said: "If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything."

EAGLES WIN CONSOLATION BRACKET IN MARATHON TOURNAMENT FOURTH TIME

For the fourth year running the Sanderson Eagles won the consolation bracket at the Marathon basketball tournament last week end. Alpine was the winner of the tournament.

MANY RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT WOOL GROWERS' MEET

The statements on tariffs, and price controls and the various phases of transportation for livestock occupied the limelight among the many resolutions adopted and discussed at the National Wool Growers Association convention in Casper, Wyoming, last week, S. L. Stumberg and John T. Williams attended the national meet from Sanderson. Stumberg is on the board of directors of the national organization.

The leading resolution adopted emphatically reaffirms the organization's position that "an adequate tariff on wool, lambs, and sheep is the bulwark of strength for our American sheep industry."

The wool committee submitted a resolution declaring that it would be unfair and unreasonable for the government, which is buying wool in foreign countries, to fix prices of domestic wools at levels lower than those of comparable foreign wools landed duty-paid in this country.

The wool committee also urged compilation of new uniform wool purchase contracts for various areas, commended the Department of Agriculture, state universities and other agencies for work in core testing, expressed accord with the CCC's announcement of their wish to purchase foreign wools for the military in normal channels of trade with as little disruption of domestic markets as possible.

It commended the NWGA woman's auxiliary for its wool promotion work, commended AS, Al-

NORTH ENTRANCE BEING BUILT TO TURNER HOTEL

Work has been started on a new entrance to the Turner Hotel Cafe. An awning eight feet wide by twenty feet long will protect the double-door entrance on the northeast corner of the hotel building.

Heretofore patrons were required to enter from the front of the building or the east entrance and both entrances were not very accessible to highway trade. With the new work completed and lighted the cafe will be easily observed from the highway.

George Turner, who recently purchased the hotel property from J. W. Downum, says that many more improvements are being planned for the convenience of the customers of the hotel and cafe. It is planned to make the lot north of the building accessible for parking.

Dick Corder, local contractor, is doing the construction work on the building.

FIRES OF FREEDOM PROGRAMS WELL RECEIVED LOCALLY

With the entire student body and teachers as an audience last Thursday morning, the Legion-sponsored "Fires of Freedom" program proved inspiring. The program, in the high school auditorium, was opened by the Sanderson High School Band playing the national anthem, and the advance of the colors. Marshall Cooke acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers.

Rev. John W. Byrd pronounced the invocation and was followed by an address by Supt. Matt Bader. Miss Barbara Clark gave a talk on the "Outlook of Youth." Walter G. Downie addressed his remarks, in an interesting talk, on the economic world in contrasting the countries under Communistic influence with those of this country. Rev. Olaf Hoggard spoke on the influence of the two political tendencies on religion.

After the benediction was said by Rev. Byrd, the colors were retired and the band closed the meeting by playing "America."

At the fire lighting service at 7 o'clock, the band played several numbers and the "Fires of Freedom" were lighted as the flood lights of the football stadium were extinguished.

Mrs. W. H. Savage addressed the large crowd at the stadium and her message was well received. Mrs. Savage told of the many blessings to be had in a democracy that are denied the citizens of other countries.

L. H. Gilbreath spoke of the need of an awakening in the United States if the Democratic form of government is to survive.

There was a large crowd attending this impressive service and Legion officials expressed the belief that it was a worthwhile contribution to the community.

Johnny Whistler, post commander, expressed his thanks to all who helped to make the event a success.

K. E. Dick was general chairman for the arrangements of the program.

Sanderson To See Santa Saturday

Del Rio, Dec. 13 — A strike of some 150 members of the Local 2589 of Communications Workers of America (a CIO affiliate) is imminent as bargaining sessions with local officials of the Del Rio and Winter Garden Telephone Co. go into their fifth week of deadlock.

No progress has been made in the bargaining for a new contract to insure higher wages which began Oct. 9 and deadlocked Nov. 5. A recent near-unanimous strike vote has not yet gone into effect due to hopes that the controversy could be arbitrated.

The company, which operates 23 exchanges ranging from Alpine to San Diego, Tex., last week refuted a union proposal that they arbitrate rather than let employees go into strike action. A Federal Communications Commission report indicates that the company is entirely owned by outside interests, the majority of stock held by the St. Louis Union-Trust and the St.

Louis office of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. It is felt by union officials that though it is operated as an independent company, it is controlled by Bell and wages should be scaled more similarly to Bell-owned companies.

The union has made no definite plans to strike and will not do so until it becomes absolutely apparent that there is no alternative course by which to settle the matter, a union spokesman said. At present, employees are engaged in an effort to acquaint the public with the facts of the controversy and have pledged to try everything else before calling a walk-out. A petition has been circulated which asks that the company send a representative to negotiate.

No other issue is at stake except the requested 10 cents-an-hour pay-hike. Wages are now based on exchange volume. In some of the smaller exchanges, employees are started at 35 cents an hour. In others, they are started at $30 a week with a top maximum pay of $61 per week after eight years of service and specialized work.

Members of the union from Del Rio and Carrizo Springs were in Sanderson last week end helping local telephone union members in their endeavors to tell the people of Sanderson just what the grievance was between the employees and employers. They passed out tracts and posters to tell their side of the differences.

It is understood that if the employees call the strike the local union members will be called out along with them.

Average Daily School Attendance Up In '50

Records from the local school superintendent's office indicated that the monthly average daily attendance for the county schools has been on the decrease during the last three months. The average daily attendance for September was 545.22. The average monthly membership during these three months has been 591.41, 584.96 and 571.24, respectively, which also indicates a decline during the first three months of school.

However, the average daily attendance for the first three months of this school term is greater than the average daily attendance for the first three months of last year. The average for the three-months' period last year was 525.326 while the average for the first three months this year is 563.06, an increase of 37.74 which would be enough for the school to qualify for an additional teacher next term if this rate of increase over last year can be maintained throughout the school term.

An increased enrollment is anticipated for the future since the compulsory school attendance law is being enforced. However, the average daily attendance of a school can still be low, even if the enrollment is up, if there are a great number of daily absences from classes. The number of teachers allowed the system for next year is based on this year's average daily attendance.

BARGAINING CONTINUES IN DEL RIO AND WINTER GARDEN PHONE CO. DISPUTE

AREA CHILDREN INVITED TO LIONS' CHRISTMAS PARTY

At the regular meeting of the Sanderson Lions Club last Thursday in the Turner Hotel, definite plans were made for the annual Christmas party for the children of the area and the personal visit of Santa Claus to the town. Recent word received from the headquarters of Santa Claus stated he would be here Saturday afternoon, December 16, at 3:45 p. m. and added that he was expecting all of the children of the area to be on hand so that he could give them one of the sacks that he had prepared, each containing fruit, candy and nuts.

Santa will be at the corner of the Turner Hotel block across the street from Spears Drug Co. at 3:30 promptly.

The Lions Club is preparing the bags of goodies for the old man to give the local kids and is paying for the sacks with the money contributed by local citizens into the jars that are placed around town at the various business houses.

EAGLES LOSE TO MARATHON 30-31 IN BASKETBALL

The Sanderson Eagles lost their first conference basketball game to Marathon Tuesday night of this week when the two teams played on the hardwood in Marathon. The score ended 38-37.

According to basketball coach C. W. Snowden the boys played a good game of the fast sport and lost the fray in the last 10 seconds of the game when Marathon intercepted a long down-court pass and, from a distance of about thirty feet out, dropped one through the basket for the winning point. The game stayed close in scores throughout the periods with Marathon only one point in the lead at the half — 13-12.

Olivares maintained his accuracy on basket shots to sink 17 points for high scorer for the local team. Bustos was second high with 11 points and Flores was in third place with 7 points.

The Eagles meet the Blackwell team here Thursday night in their second game. Sanderson defeated Blackwell in the Marathon tourney and are favored to win in the game here.

Next Tuesday night Sanderson plays Presidio here before the Christmas holidays begin. Their next game will be January 9 with Fort Davis on the local court.

Fans of the fast sport are urged to attend the local game as lots of fast court action is promised. Coach C. W. Snowden says that the Eagles are playing a good brand of basketball this year since many of the boys are returning from last year's squad with more experience.

SAFE HOLIDAYS

Deaths and injuries due to avoidable accidents are not confined to any one season of the year, but accident figures usually do take a sharp upward turn during the Christmas and New Year holiday season.

High on the list of killers during this time is automobile accidents. Snow, sleet and ice and long hours of darkness can mean hazardous driving throughout the winter. But there are obviously extra hazards during the Yuletide season.

Many people do more drinking during this holiday season than at any other time of the year. Automobile accidents during Christmas and New Year's could be cut down considerably if motorists stayed out from behind the wheel of the car when they had been "celebrating."

While on the subject of automobiles, those who have neglected "winter conditioning" could give their cars this holiday gift which might be the means of avoiding an accident and saving a life. The tires, brakes, and windshield wipers should be in top-notch condition for winter driving. It is also good to have tire chains and windshield defrosters in places where hard winters are common, and sleet and snow interfere with the tires' traction and the drivers' visibility.

A total of 18,200 deaths in 1948 was due to accidental falls. While fatal or serious falls can happen at any time of the year, they are apt to increase during the holidays. Bad falls are often the result, for example, when housewives stand on unsteady surfaces to hang their "Christmas curtains" and fathers decorate the top of the Christmas tree from the summit of a broken ladder. Outside the home, excitement and the rush of the holiday season can increase carelessness about their footing on wet or icy pavement.

Deaths from burns are also high on the list of accidents annually — burns and scalds kill or hurt more children under 14 years of age than any other type of accident. Special precautions must be taken against fire during the holiday season. Lighted candles used as part of decorations, for instance, should be firmly based, carefully checked from time to time, and kept far from curtains and other easily-ignited materials. Most of the holidays accidents, of course, are foreseeable and avoidable. But many of them are the result of carelessness and impatience. The Christmas season can be a happy, "accident-free" one for the great majority of us if we exercise a little care and common sense.

Many Resolutions —

exander, under-secretary of the army, for a statement on the use of 100 per cent wool in military scouring plants in Texas, Wyoming and Denver.

Principal statement of the general resolutions committee was that "the rapid decline in (the sheep and wool) industry began with imposition of price controls and other restrictive programs, and our recovery in numbers has started only since those controls have eased."

The membership reaffirmed opposition to "infringement of the states' rights by proposed valley authorities" and insisted that orderly development of water resources be carried on through existing agencies. The general resolutions included one request to the NWGA officers to appoint a special labor committee at any time wool growers' labor problems are threatened with further curtailment, such as the cessation of the importation of Mexican nationals.

Because of reservation of mineral rights by the federal government in Western states, the NWGA recommended that owners of surface lands receive a 3 per cent royalty on mineral production in lieu of payment of surface damages.

The general resolutions committee the joint Livestock Tax Committee, the foot and mouth disease commission in Mexico, and organization of shearing schools.

The lamb committee asked USDA to take all steps necessary to eliminate the sheep scabies menace. It asked for a committee of producers, feeders, packers, retailers, and consumers to consider a new set of grade specifications for government lamb grading.

It requested the executive committee of the NWGA to keep a close watch on the importations of foreign dressed lamb, the day it is marketed and its effect on the domestic market. It favored continuation of the present 75 cents per car deduction being collected by lamb handlers for the meat board.

It opposed granting of any rate increases on wool and sheep charging that further increases in rates will "price railroads out of the market." It reaffirmed opposition to repeal of the "28-36" hour law rates and fares.

Charging that many railroads pay no more than 50 per cent of the actual damage to livestock killed or injured in transit, the transportation committee asked Congress to make carriers liable for court costs in suits to recover the full actual loss.

It requested that the public be given a voice in future railroad wage controversies on grounds that the shipping public must pay for wage increases through higher rail carriers. It asked legislation to guarantee shippers the privilege of shipping livestock by the shortest possible routes, charging that railroads sometimes require more devious routes.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's An "Expert" Example!

When our Main Street parking problem cropped up again, we announced a strict one-hour parking policy, and swore in extra deputies to enforce it.

We also sent over to the State Capitol for a traffic expert, to give us pointers. He turned out to be real helpful—spent a whole afternoon with us talking about zoning and such. And when he left the building he found a ticket on his car for overtime parking!

Could have gotten sore, I guess—or asked us to "fix" the ticket. But instead, he insisted on going over to the Sheriff's Office and paying his fine.

From where I sit, it's good to know people, like that young fellow, who refuse to be treated any different than anyone else. City people and farmers—those who prefer cider and those who rather have a cool glass of temperate beer—we're all entitled to the same privileges. That is, so long as what we do doesn't conflict with the law of the land.

Music Pupils Give Christmas Program At P-TA Meeting

The Sanderson Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday afternoon in the high school auditorium for regular monthly business meeting and program.

Deanna Moorefield and Geraldine Carter played a piano duet "The Skaters' Waltz". A group of little boys, Richard Haley, Perry Finger, Buddy Monroe and Freddie Monroe, music pupils of Miss Myrtle Harrell, sang "Rudolf, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "Upon the Housetop". Diana Duke played the piano accompaniment and Monte Arledge and Weldon Wer-neking, the guitars.

A Christmas playlet was given by Miss Betty Jane Boggus' second grade pupils.

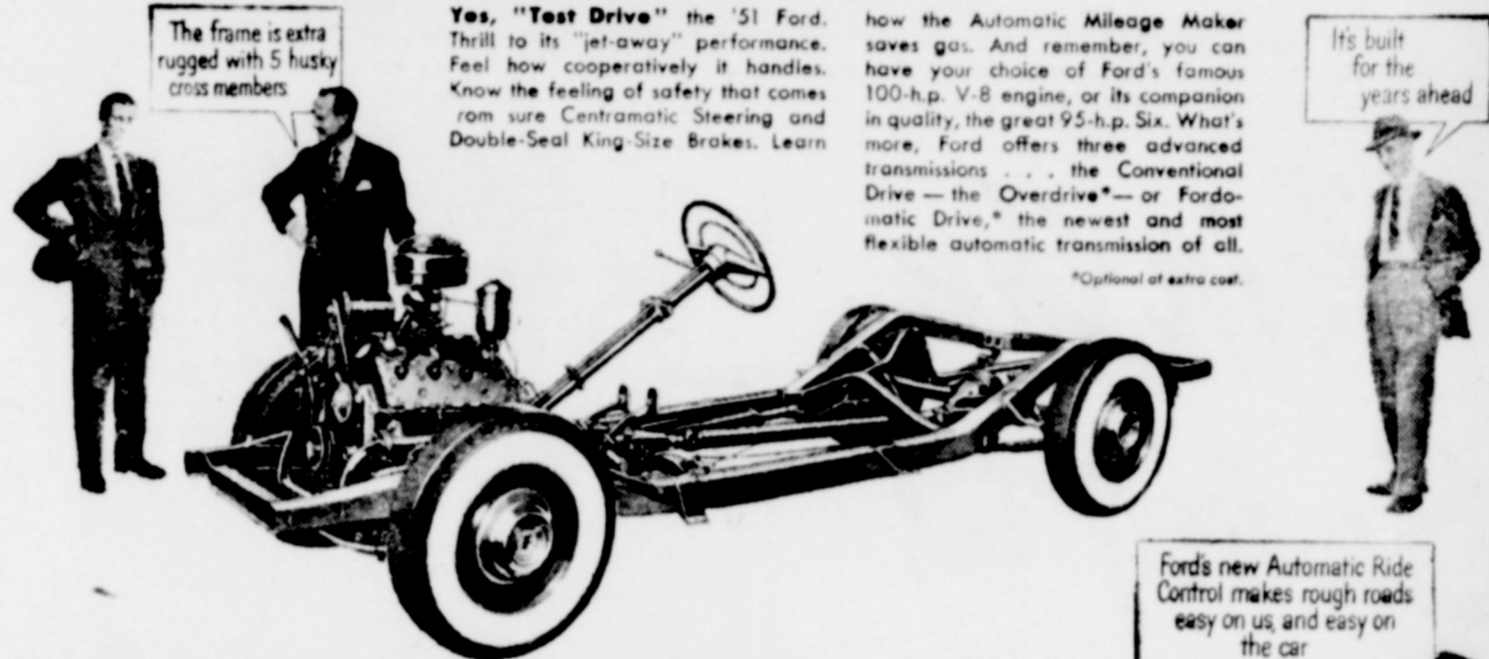

Mrs. Vic Littleton, program leader, presented Mrs. J. H. Loehausen who stated: "It is a twenty-four hour job, this duty of building a sense of honor and honesty in children", adding "the responsibility rests first with the parents, then the teacher and then the church."

The P-TA voted to buy band instruments to cost approximately four hundred dollars. One hundred dollars will be spent for the high school library and the same sum for the library in the elementary school. The announcement was made that the school board is matching the P-TA's two hundred dollars, making four hundred dollars to be spent on the libraries.

Since the January meeting date is on the day school opens after the Christmas holidays, the group voted to have the January meeting on Thursday afternoon, January 11.

Miss Boggus' room won the attendance prize.

There were thirty girls and mothers present and the home economics teacher, Mrs. V. E. Wattner.

KITCHEN MEMO BY JEAN CLARE

FOR a more pleasing blend of flavor combine two kinds of meat when making meat loaf. Veal and ham complement each other in Mushroom Veal Loaf and it will not be hard or crumbly if you follow these proportions. Combine 2 1/2 lbs. ground veal, 1/2 lb. ground ham, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped mushrooms, 1 minced green pepper, 1/2 cup ketchup, 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce, 1 well-beaten egg. Mix well and shape into loaf. Arrange 4 slices bacon in pan, place meat loaf over them and top with 2 slices bacon. Bake in moderately heated oven at 375°F. about 1 1/2 hrs. Yield 6 portions. Serve with sour cream sauce if you like.

Chill candies in your gas refrigerator for several days before using so they'll harden more slowly.

Griddles on some automatic gas ranges are equipped with heat indicators — important to those cooks who use varied temperatures for top burner griddle cookery.

Crumble a few crisp slices of bacon into pancake batter and use bacon drippings instead of shortening for added flavor.

Three loads of laundry washed and rinsed in an automatic washer use up to 60 gals. of hot water. And you'll still have a whole tankful of hot water in your automatic gas water heater because gas heats water so quickly.

HEALTH FOR ALL —

Along with parlor tricks during the holiday season, the testing of reflexes frequently adds hilarity to gatherings. It is always amazing to find out that parts of your anatomy do things you're unaware of, when you think you have yourself quite under command.

Reflexes are those actions of muscles that respond to a stimulus without sending the message to the brain. While the testing of these reflexes at a party seems to add to the enjoyment, the testing in the doctor's office is sometimes a vital part of your physical examination.

Blinking the eyes when a piece of cotton is stuck in your eye, gagging when something touches the back of the mouth, and bending the big toe down when a finger or a stick is stroked across the sole of the foot all come under the heading of superficial reflexes. Reactions of the skin and mucous membranes.

Arm, leg and foot reflexes are tested only for enough reaction but for exaggerated reaction too which may be significant of nerve path disorder. The foot jumps out when you tap the knee just below the kneecap, the foot jerks down when you tap the back of the ankle, the forearm and hand jerk up when you hit the biceps muscle on top of the upper arm, and the forearm and hand pull down when the triceps muscle on the bottom of the arm is tapped. These muscles all have to be nicely relaxed to give any medical information as to reflex.

One of the favorite "tricks" in sociable testing of reactions is standing with the arm and shoulder against the wall for a period and then stepping back from the wall and watching the arm float up.

The sense of pain, touch and temperature are part of the skin sensations which may be tested if conditions suggest it advisable. The degree of pain may be important whether it be lacking entirely or unduly exaggerated. Numb portions of the skin where nothing is felt are always important, though they may be numb only to touch of normal objects and still react to pain and heat or cold.

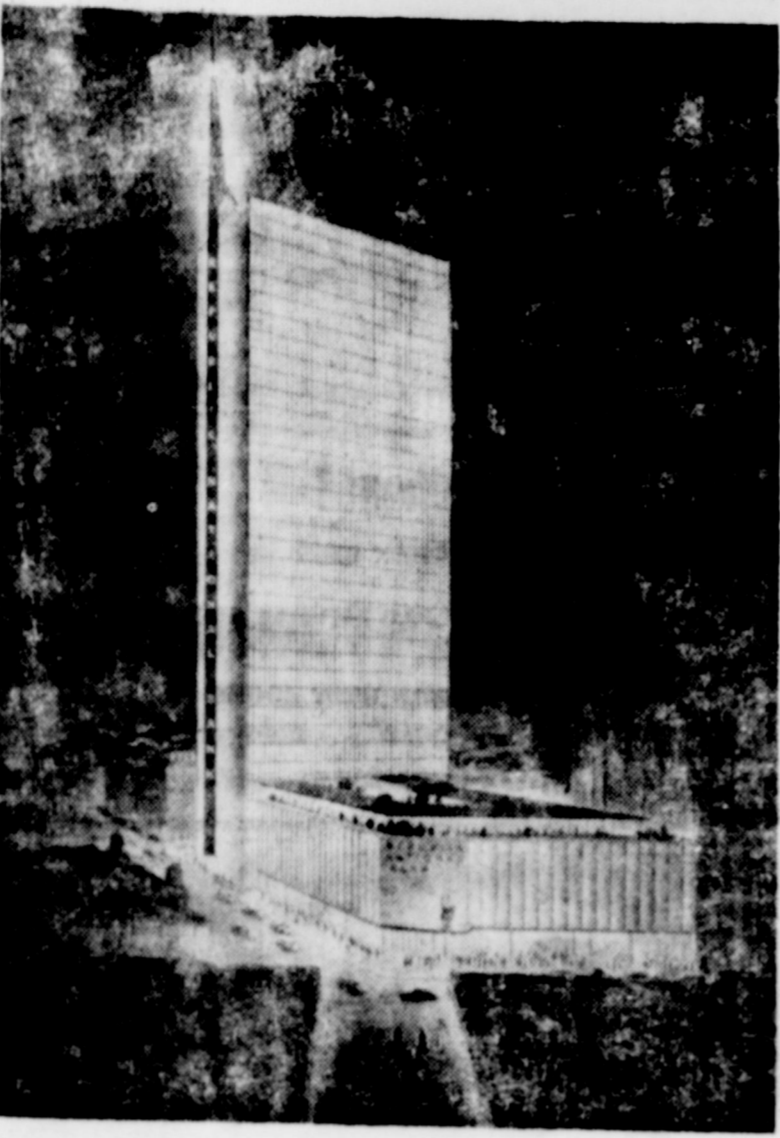

Buttoning or unbuttoning your coat with your eyes closed may be a part of the deep sensation examination; it's really not as easy as it sounds. If you dress in the mornings before you get your eyes open real good, though, you have had lots of practice for that.

Standing with the feet and ankles close together is another of the deep sensation tests. Easy? You're supposed to close your eyes while you do it. Not so easy, huh?

These deep sensation tests are all done with the eyes closed. With the arms extended as far apart as possible bring the forefingers together in a quick sweep or bring the forefinger in to your nose in a quick eye-closed motion. With your eyes still closed, no peeping, put the heel of one foot on the opposite kneecap and run it down the front of the leg.

Since relaxation is an important

CONSTRUCTION OF $17,500,000 DALLAS SKYSCRAPER BEGINS

In addition, there will be four stories below ground. Motor banking and parking facilities will be included. The building is expected to be completed in about two years.

part of reflex and sensation testing in the physical examination, you aren't likely to be able to tell much about your own testing during the merriment and exhilaration of a party. In your doctor's hands, this testing may result in definite information as to whether the nerve path and mechanism is in proper order.

TEA AND SHOWER HONORS BRIDE, MRS. L. G. HINKLE

A tea and miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. H. C. Goldwire Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 honored Mrs. Lavoy Glen Hinkle of Kermit, a recent bride.

Attractive Christmas decorations made from sotol spoons, cedar boughs, Christmas balls, pine cones, holly wreaths, and candles were noted throughout the Goldwire home. A winter scene on the piano featured silvered greenery with snow and deer around a lake.

A bridal doll was on the table where guests registered in the bride's book.

Mrs. Goldwire, Mrs. Hinkle and her mother, Mrs. Clyde Higgins, greeted the guests. Mrs. Hinkle wore an afternoon frock of gold crinkled nylon and a purple orchid corsage.

The gift display was shown under the direction of Miss Marinell Gates. Miss Betty Paul Schweikert of Alpine and Mrs. E. F. Pierson.

Piano selections were played by Mrs. Olaf Hoggard during the tea hours and popular songs were sung by a trio, Mesdames P. V. Corcoran, H. E. Ezelle and L. E. Arledge. Mrs. J. H. Loehausen gave a reading in Italian dialect.

Colors of blue and white were noted in the decorations and appointments for the tea table covered with a hand crocheted cloth which featured an unusual centerpiece. Small bluebirds were attached to a misty cloud of angel hair studded with blue stars and a miniature bride and groom stood in the midst of the cloud flanked by white tapers in silver holders with a base of ruffled white net. The entire scene was reflected in a blue mirror.

Blue satin ribbon was festooned and caught to the cloth with large bows in the middle and at the corners.

"Mary Nell and Lavoy" was inscribed on white napkins in blue and the same colors noted in the cookies and mints which were served with canapes, salted nuts, tea and coffee.

Assisting hostesses were Mesdames J. O. Little, Jr., A. J. Hahn, A. E. Gates, E. F. Pierson and H. E. Ezelle. Mrs. C. L. Surratt and Mrs. Harold Surratt of Alpine were also members of the house party. All wore white mums corsages.

Accomplishments Of Pecos County H-D and 4-H Clubs Listed

The Pecos County Home Demonstration Clubs and Girls' 4-H Clubs have finished the year's work of 1950.

Living room improvement was one of the phases of home demonstration work studied by the women. Demonstrations were given by the agent on color harmony in walls and furnishings, good lighting, floor covering and floor finishes, making rugs, refinishing and arranging furniture. Leaders in each club gave demonstrations on making lamp shades, care of the floors and what to look for in selecting furniture. In the meat phase, preparation and serving a roast and preparation of low-cost meat were given by the agent. The leaders gave demonstrations on the care and storage of meat in the home, preparation and serving of liver, and served a buffet luncheon. Textile painting, copper foil pictures and ceramics were the crafts demonstrated this year.

The 4-H Club Girls had demonstrations on color, design, selection and construction of clothing. They prepared and served green vegetables. Accident prevention and safety was another demonstration carried by the girls. The 4-H girls also had training schools on recreation.

There were 12 kitchens improved in the county, 80 living rooms and 10 bedrooms were materially improved. 102 families added some large pieces of equipment, 10 families added built-in cabinets, 100 woolen bed covers were made, 150 cotton household articles added, 6 mattresses added, 50 pieces of furniture refinished and 4 sofas upholstered. Ten lawns were sodded, 5 drives made, 10 sidewalks made, and 25 shade trees and 340 shrubs were planted.

Of the 158 club members, 35 now have deep freeze units. It was reported that an average of 300 pounds of beef and 150 pounds of pork per family was preserved by freezing. An average of 25 chickens per family were put into deep freezing units. Of the 158 members 60 reported a home supply of eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith left Wednesday for San Antonio for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. W. McKee Leads Program For Presbyterian Women

The Presbyterian Women of the Church met Monday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall, with Mrs. C. C. Mitchell serving as hostess.

Mrs. N. M. Mitchell, presiding, opened the devotional service with prayer after which "Silent Night" was sung. Mrs. J. W. McKee conducted the program using the general subject "O Come, Let Us Adore Him." The program dealt with caring for displaced persons where possible, making a happier Christmas for shut-ins and for overseas relief and inter-church aid. She also brought out the very special privilege of remembering the ministers of the church who have retired from active service on account of their age; the Joy Gift each year going to this very worthy cause. She was assisted in the presentation of the program by Mrs. N. M. Mitchell and Mrs. E. E. Farley.

During the worship service, "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "Joy To The World" were sung. Mrs. A. W. Pope read the Christmas story from Luke 2 and Mrs. McKee gave an inspiring talk on "Giving". The Joy Gift to be sent to Ministerial Relief was taken and Mrs. J. W. Byrd closed the meeting with a prayer.

The hostess served pecan topped chocolate cake with whipped cream and coffee and tea to Mesdames H. E. Schroegler, Mary E. Mitchell, E. E. Farley, J. D. Nichols, E. F. Pierson, B. L. McCue, A. W. Pope, N. M. Mitchell, J. W. Byrd, W. H. Savage and J. W. McKee.

We have gold ink to use on your Christmas cards. The Sanderson Times. Mrs. W. T. Frazier, Jr., and her little daughters of El Paso are here with her mother, Mrs. Rose Adams, and Mr. Adams.

Alien Registration Required by Law

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath today directed attention to the requirements of the Alien Registration Act of 1940 as amended by the Internal Security Act of 1950.

The Attorney General said that under the amended law any alien residing in the United States on January 1, 1951, except one lawfully here on a temporary status, must notify the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C. of his current address within ten days thereafter and during the same period in each succeeding year.

A. R. Mackey, acting commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, cautioned all aliens that failure to comply with these provisions of the law will subject them to prosecution. Mr. Mackey also said that an address report card known as Form I-53, should be used in making the required reports, and that alien registration numbers should be printed on the forms. Form I-53 may be obtained at any Immigration and Naturalization Service office or any U. S. Post Office.

This registration requirement does not apply to braceros in this country on contract.
