LISTEN TO LUKE

In the past few weeks this column has been asked over and over again to favor MacArthur or Truman in the present Washington race. We think what they mean is who has stated the most honest policy for a quick victory to end the Korean struggle. There are many opinions expressed daily and generally speaking, those opinions are given without thought to the issues involved.

While our Congress is trying to find political angles from the testimony of the witnesses they are apparently forgetting that multitudes of the Koreans themselves are dying and some through worse than death. Our country is being devastated, homes blown to bits, children and mothers are innocent victims of a tragedy that was promised to them as liberation.

These great men of ours in the Pentagon and in the halls of Congress seem to have forgotten that the people are not so many robots — they are human beings being slaughtered while we talk about whether the Democrats might or the Republicans are right.

We have friends and loved ones here — they are being asked to shed their blood while the strategists decide whether we are to let a Chinaman in Korea or in Manchuria. We would, if possible, like to see the punishment to the enemy rather than sacrifice the lives of our innocent men, women and children in Korea — the heavy sacrifice of American blood in order to appease our British allies who come to pour war materiel into China while we are at war there.

Our opinion — take it or leave it — is that within three months a foreign policy covering our actions in Korea will be exactly the same as has been recommended by General MacArthur. The same policy as to the blockade of China, proper bombing of the supply lines and assembly points in Manchuria and the strict protection of Formosa.

Decision can cause tragedy. This country needs today is men who are able and willing to make decisions. There is a great difference between "aims" and "policy". Our aim is to win the war without letting it spread to other parts of the world — our policy seems to be to "sweat it out" by continuing to fight a costly war and a costly war and all it is a war.

Every year about this time this country decides to make one of the best gardens in the country and that is a worthy aim, but we manage to fight a delay without a policy — the green beans will just grow without my spading up and planting it. No, it just grows. I have to expect a little labor and use a little common sense and take the horns and go to work. The only way I can hope to get my garden beans unless I am willing to take it easy and buy that have come about by the of other brows.

Commencement time is around the high school graduates and we are learning that he hasn't anything. It is the time when nothing comes to us we are willing to get out and dig — and make decisions to hear a grown man say they are going to but they just haven't made their mind how or when they are going to do something. Too many Americans today depended on the decision of others for too long and failed to make up their minds concerning the importances that affected them. Thinking American should be able and privileged to use his own rights and mind properly and unbiased toward a goal of some kind about the accomplishment of a goal without waiting for someone to show the way and pace.

Mexican Labor Bill Expected to Pass

According to word received this week there was a prediction in Austin that the House will pass a Senate-approved bill authorizing the federal government to recruit Mexican workers to help harvest American crops and assist in ranch countries as laborers.

The Senate passed the bill Monday by voice vote with only a few opposing the measure.

Sponsors of the bill said it was vitally needed in many sections of the country this year to avert a threatened shortage of "stoop labor" for many farm products.

Another measure would authorize the Secretary of Labor to recruit workers in Mexico with the cooperation of the Mexican government and bring them to U. S. reception centers near the border.

The employer would hire the laborers at these centers and pay the government up to $20 of the cost of bringing the Mexican to the center. He also would pay the transportation cost from the center to his farm or ranch. The U. S. government would in turn guarantee the performance of the contract.

This measure is planned to replace the present system of contracting and recruiting laborers from Mexico.

The Senate passed an amendment which would impose a fine of up to $2,000 and a year in jail for any person knowingly employing a Mexican alien who entered the country illegally.

EAGLE BAND HAS ANNUAL CONCERT

The Sanderson Eagle Band was presented in the annual spring concert Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. L. E. Jacob is the band director.

The proceeds of the concert, amounting to $175, will be used in the purchase of additional uniforms for the new members that will be added to the band in the fall. The band members wore white shirts and black ties with jeans or dark shirts as there were not sufficient uniforms for even the senior band members.

Three numbers were played by the junior band, and two each by the beginners "A" band and the beginners "B" band.

Six numbers were played by the senior band with one number "Copa Cabana", featuring Juanita Valdez on the maracas and "Nina Mia" featuring a duet for two cornets played by Humberto Arredondo and Jacky Talbot.

For the final number, Tome Yturbe and Betty Faye Sullivan, seniors, gave their places to replacements, Wanda Morrow and Carlene Werneking, and the fifteen new members to be added to the senior band joined the group to play the school alma mater song, "For Sanderson, We Will."

The fifteen new senior band members will include Bobby Beckett, Jack Vincent, Rolando Flores, Enrique Valdez, Nonney Garcia, Irvin Robbins, Rosa Perez, Rebecca Garcia, Tommy Werneking, Teresita Marquez, Martha Flores, Yolanda Esuquedo, Joe Causey and Si Carr.

Eagle Band To Go To Alpine Saturday

The Sanderson Eagle Band is going to Alpine Saturday to participate in the Band Day festivities at the college. The band will play a thirty-minute concert in the morning. A free barbecue will be served at noon and there will be a parade in the afternoon.

The band members will go in the school bus accompanied by Band Director L. E. Jacob and Mrs. Jacob.

LOCAL BOYS PLAY WITH NAVY BAND

Honors came to two local boys when Jack Savage and Pablo Flores went to Del Rio Saturday to play in the Navy Band which gave a concert in that city. They were accompanied by L. E. Jacob, Eagle Band director.

Flores plays a baritone and Savage plays a bass clarinet in the local band.

Coy Boatner and Kenneth Stutes accompanied the party to attend the concert.

Work Progressing On Remodelling Of Kerr Mercantile

Work is progressing according to schedule on the remodeling of the Kerr Mercantile Co. interior, according to Joe Kerr, Jr. Complete remodeling throughout the store is under way.

Practically all of the work in the grocery department is completed and the stock has been moved into the new compartments and bins. Most of the merchandise will be displayed in bins that are sloped to the rear to facilitate the reading of labels as well as make restocking easier. A new meat and frozen food storage and display has been installed as well as all new fixtures in the grocery department.

The hardware merchandise has been moved into the basement where complete remodeling was done and the stock is now arranged in the shelves and on the island displays in that department, with extra storage space behind the walls containing the shelves.

One of the features of the hardware department, according to Mr. Kerr, is the display of the complete modern kitchen, featuring all steel cabinets and all appliances arranged into the model unit. The stairway to the hardware department is located in the rear of the building.

Practically all of the new fixtures in the dry goods department have been finished and installed and work is underway by the clerks in that department to re-arrange the stock for convenience of the shoppers and clerks. The fixtures of the dry goods department are custom made and are of light color, carrying out the new color scheme of the entire store.

New tile has been laid on the floor over most of the street level portion of the building and is of a light color to match the fixtures, and carpeting will be laid in the shoe department and ladies' ready-to-wear department to add to the appearance. Lounge chairs will also be installed in this portion of the department.

New light fixtures have been installed throughout the store. Some of the light will be indirect and some will be direct from fluorescent fixtures on the ceiling.

The back of the shop windows across the front of the building has been removed to afford more light into the building and to permit a clear view of the entire interior of the store from the sidewalk. Window displays in the future will be very modernistic, it was stated.

The bookkeeping office will be moved into the section of the building formerly occupied by the Sanderson Motor Co. which has been used in recent months as a display room for furniture and appliances. The moving of the portion of the business will facilitate accommodations of customers by saving both time and effort formerly consumed in climbing the stairs as has been necessary in the past.

Kerr stated that he expects the work to be finished within a very few weeks, and that all of the merchandise will be in its place by the time the work is completed. He stated that he hoped the new store would afford their customers more convenience and pleasure in shopping and that the company would attempt to offer a line and variety of merchandise that would be pleasing, both in quality and price.

ROPER PLAN TO REORGANIZE CLUB AT MEETING MAY 6

Steps toward reorganizing the Sanderson Roping Club were taken Sunday night when thirty-five interested participants met at the Roadside Inn. Plans for the purchase of 20 calves which could be used in the July 4th show were discussed and it was decided to meet again on May 20 to complete re-organization of the club.

At least 30 members would be required, it was thought, to make the venture a success. Membership in the club will cost $25 and that will insure sufficient interest to warrant the purchase of roping stock. A committee of five to secure club memberships was named at the Sunday night meeting and they will report back to the May 20 meeting.

The club has been successful in the past and has brought some good roping events to Sanderson. Plans for the July 4th show will be worked out in detail as soon as the organization is completed.

Producer Affected by Beef Price Rollback Ken Regan Asserts

Washington, May 8 — Rep. Ken Regan, 16th District, says the roll back order on beef which is scheduled to go into effect on May 20 will have a higher percentage of effect on the cattle of West Texas and other southern states than any other region. The reason is that they are known as commercial cattle, he states.

Immediate effect of the order may be to force one million or more head of cattle on the market and thus may deprive the country of millions of pounds of meat that might be built into these cattle if left to normal marketing. What is worse, it might be several years before the loss of this extra poundage in beef can be replaced as it takes that much time to build up the number of cattle and get them to beef producing stages.

Normally, the cattle from West Texas and the South should supply this country with 400 to 500 pounds per head of additional meat if permitted to follow normal channels of feeding after leaving the range, but the threat of rollback in price will make the people stop feeding cattle for fear of losses.

This roll back, Regan explained, does not apply to the packer, wholesaler or retailer of meat, but to the producer. This will not bring about lower prices to the consumer, Regan said, but will give a measure of relief to the packer who suffered under the January price freeze.

"It is my opinion that such controls will have the effect of bringing about a black market that will give night clubs, certain black market restaurateurs and other of that type a distinct advantage over the housewife," Regan said.

He and other Texas Congressmen from Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Arkansas and other southern states attended a luncheon this week given by Joe Montague of the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association to explain the disadvantage of the rollback to the cattle industry.

They hope to get something done to change the situation when the defense production act providing for the price control office is before Congress for an extension of authority in June. But some Congressmen fear that the House Banking and Currency Committee before which this law is now pending will delay bringing out an extension until the last minute, on purpose, in order then to say that there is so little time the act must be extended as is, quickly. Considerable plans are being made to revise the act, however, Regan added.

Little Items Grow ...

Figures in the Federal budget have become so awesome in size that many a John Q. Citizen taxpayer who wants to protest waste, extravagance and non-essential government spending finds himself almost speechless. The average fellow is scarcely able to follow the multi-billion dollar lump sum items. As a matter of fact, I recently heard a government official tick off the multi-billion dollar lump-sum figures in the budget, and with an almost defiant air, say: "All right, tell us what YOU would cut it!" This type of using the overwhelming big figures as a psychological trick to would-be critics has frequently been successful.

But in all government budgets, no matter how awesome, the big items are made up of a lot of smaller ones. The following tidbits of information show, to some extent, what goes to make up the figures in the present Federal budget. Any taxpayer who copes with any one of these items — and each item answers the challenge of "tell us where I would cut it!" (Some of the tidbits were dug out by the Foundation, others came from the staff of the Congressional Committee on Reduction of Essential Federal Expenditures, headed by Sen. Harry Byrd; from the Hoover Commission.)

Mismanagement
The new $6,000,000 Veterans Administration hospital at Clarksville, W. Va., opened three and a half months ago. One month later it had 132 employees and total expenses of about $500,000 a year but not a single doctor or a patient! Another brand new $6,000,000 VA hospital at only 120 miles from Clarksville was also dedicated about two months ago, had two doctors but no patients 30 days later. Its 160 employees were cost-taxpayers $40,000 a month. Civilian employment in the Executive branch of the Federal government during the 28 days of pay increase 62,610, bringing the total civilian employment to 207,904. The increase in February averaged more than 2,200 employees each day! The salaries for this army of civilian Federal government employees make a rather awesome figure — $700,000,000 a month, or $8,400,000,000 a year.

Federal budget expenditures for the Department of Agriculture increased 120 per cent from 1941 to 1949, reaching the awesome lump-sum figure of $2,750,000,000. A tidbit from the Agriculture Department's "petty cash" account: For the first five months of fiscal 1951, losses on government dispositions of surplus food — including turkeys — plus carrying charges, amounted to about $22,400,000 a month — or more than enough each month to purchase 100 new light tanks at $200,000 each!

Federal government expenditures for the five years 1929-1933 combined were $4,956,000,000 less than government spending for the single year 1949. A tidbit: The Daily News reported March 11 that the Federal government was "educating" 120 persons at the Wright-Patterson air base who could not type or take shorthand. The government hired them, then sent the 120 to local business colleges, paying their tuition while at the same time paying each of the 120 a minimum of $43 a week salary for learning to type or take shorthand. After the employees got their training, there was no legal barrier to their quitting their "jobs" — thus obtaining a business college course and $43 a week as a gift of Uncle Sam.

Non-Essential Brass
The Overstaffing Subcommittee, reporting on wasteful expenditures for top-heavy government staffs, found that at Coast Guard headquarters there were assigned the following: Eight Admirals, 32 Captains, 59 Commanders, 49 Lieutenant Commanders, 55 Lieutenants and two Ensigns... total 205 officers. During February, 17-

251 additional civilian employees were put on the payroll by the Navy; 8,136 by the Army and 17,416 by the Air Force. Senator Byrd's committee reports there already are 1,250,000 civilian employees on the military payroll almost 400,000 more than a year ago.

It takes more than $10 worth of paper work (Red Tape) to complete a government purchase order — yet half of the 3,090,000 items purchased yearly by the civilian agencies are for less than $10.

If the waste and extravagance were stopped and the non-essential items were trimmed off the Federal budget, the lump-sum items wouldn't be quite so awesome and our tax bill, in time, might even be cut in half.

here is being planned by a committee from the American Legion. Every year this group of veterans have brought a day of celebration to the town. Stores and business men have cooperated wonderfully in making it a gala day. Plans have not been disclosed for this year's annual event soon we will know what to expect. The Sanderson Roping Club furnished a wonderful show the past two years and will help of all it can do it again, even in the face of high roping stock. Let's all back two organizations and help put on a gala celebration.

Drivers Warned of Playing Children During Summer

Summer is here, and boys and girls will soon be out of school. More people usually drive in summer than at other times. There are more ball games and opportunities for chasing the ball into the street to regain it, and many other summer activities, call for added caution. Keep people safe, says Dr. G. W. Cox, state health officer.

According to statistics, pedestrians were killed in vehicle accidents in our county a year, and 250,000 persons injured in a single year. These figures would indicate that drivers and pedestrians have much to learn.

The pedestrian is often his worst enemy. Ignorance of the rules of the road, failure to understand the problems of the driver and carelessness about signs and observing safe walking habits are the causes of many pedestrian accidents.

Children interested in a game or absorbed in a certain act are apt to run out into the street from the walk, or from behind a parked car and pay dearly for this action. People do not want to make children fearful but they understand practices want them to be confident and responsible for themselves.

Those who ride bicycles as a cause of certain types of accidents. A few safety rules for them: ride close to the right curb, the right side of the highway, obey all traffic rules, refrain from hand-biking, refrain from hitch-hiking to buses or trucks.

When walking on a highway at night, wear or carry some white. This should be worn carried as low as possible so car headlights which are directed downward will pick them up.

Miss Mary Nell Gates spent week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gates. She is junior at Sul Ross College.

Miss Betty Jo Kerr spent week end in Del Rio with Betty Zuehl.

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

WHEN you look at all a ROADMASTER has to offer, it's only natural to conclude that it's priced with the rest of the fine-car field. Sweeping proudly past you, it has a distinction that few cars can equal.

Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a 152-horsepower Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes Buick ever developed.

Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which bespeak the custom standards to which it is painstakingly built.

All you could want in a fine car is here in abundance. But don't let that fool you into deciding "it's too rich for me."

If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this: You can own a ROADMASTER for just a shade more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine-car field."

Why not look into this today?

Beef Regulations Effective May 9

Office of Price Stabilization officials of the Far West Texas district, which includes Terrell County, prepared this week to put into effect the new beef regulations.

"The new orders covering beef, which makes up nearly half the nation's best diet," District Price Executive C. J. Taylor said, "were the highlights this week of the rapidly expanding and developing government price program."

"The new regulation will regulate the price of beef from cattle on the hoof to the steak and hamburger at the corner grocery," he said. "The only unregulated prices will be those between producers. The program begins with the pricing at the stockyards."

"The regulations are designed to check advancing prices in live cattle and bring them in line with wholesale and retail prices," Taylor said, "thus restoring an operating margin for those slaughterers and retailers who have experienced a price squeeze in the last few weeks because of uncontrolled cattle prices."

In a further move the OPS regulations provide for lower retail prices in the fall, the first reduction coming on August 1 when retail prices will be reduced by approximately 4 cents a pound, followed by a similar rollback October 1.

The wholesale ceiling prices became effective May 9, and the retail prices will go into effect May 4. However, retail stores have until June 2 to post their ceiling prices in their stores on beef.

Highlighting other pertinent pricing regulations, Taylor emphasized that the general ceiling price regulation, or "freeze" still covered practically every merchant who sells either goods or services — unless he has been specifically removed by subsequent "tailored" regulations.

Although the deadline for filing pricing charts by retailers of consumer goods (wearing apparel, furniture, notions, department store goods, etc. under CPR 7 and amendments) has been postponed until May 30, OPS officials are urging they be sent to the district office, Broadway Building, 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas, as soon as possible so that they may be acknowledged, processed, and filed.

There's a deadline for grocery stores too, Taylor points out. Grocery stores are scheduled to begin their operation under tailored regulations CPR 15 and CPR 16 by Monday, May 14. They are required by the federal pricing program to be in complete compliance by that time.

They were supposed to have filed their category report (form 5) in the district office by April 28. Taylor said a large percentage of them have done so; but he urged those who had not, to do so immediately.

And there was a filing deadline for restaurants, soda fountains and other eating and drinking establishments, too. It was April 30 under CPR 11 when they were scheduled to have filed their food cost per dollar of sales with the district office. Although the deadline is passed, however, the reports continue to come in and OPS officials are urging that they be filed.

Another development of the past week was the extension of Ceiling Price Regulation which means passenger automobiles will stay under present price ceilings indefinitely.

Officials reminded again that most businesses were covered by the General Ceiling Price Regulation, or "freeze" and that until they comply with the tailored regulations removing them from the freeze they remain under it and are required to comply with it.
