LISTEN TO LUKE

It is hoped that something will come of the cease-fire conferences now in progress in Korea. This country is inclined to believe that the communists are the ones to gain most or they will refuse.

Something to think about is the propaganda being spread through out the communistic countries that United Nations were the ones to ask for the truce. They claim we, as the aggressors, have come to a stalemate and are willing to throw in the towel. American military leaders have never been put behind the eight ball like they are now. Our casualties have been enormous, yet small compared to that of the enemy. We have done this to "keep out of war", so our leaders say. Soviet Russia, our sworn enemy, is the only one to win in such a conflict. Russia has not lost a single man while we have expended great military force and material.

Never before have our field officers been called upon to go into combat with a white flag. It is very much in their favor that we send unarmed men into an armed area of the enemy asking for a truce. We could have had them coming into our camp just as easily and with possibly a lighter casualty list if our troops had been permitted to carry the war to them wherever they were. We are not trying now to live in the past world of "what might have been" but our officers are at a new stand.

Things are in a mess and the people have been warned of what was coming for a long time. There is no assurance to be had from a cease-fire order in Korea that Russia will call off all of her threats to the Western world. We are still facing a danger of war more than ever before. Russia isn't hurt by the Korean conflict. She is in better war strength now than ever before and we have lost considerable. What can we stand to gain?

There will be a mass meeting at the Terrell County courthouse Friday morning. This meeting is designed to awaken the people to some of the dangers we are facing. You may be completely oblivious to the matter and say "what can we do about it?" If you are willing to come to that meeting with an open mind it is possible that you will find there is something to be done about it. The Democrats of the South who are real Democrats have taken all there is any need of taking from the so-called Democratic machine of the present administration. No Democrat of the South can allow this bureaucratic form of machine politics that has been handed down from the national party leaders. We can get something done about this mess. The new law passed by the last legislature will enable Democrats to register "straight" and yet vote for a man who is big enough for the job. That will be done in Texas in 1952. There is a tendency to try to control the county affairs of the state capitol. We are as much against that as we are against control of state affairs in Washington.

One of the President's urges is now to saddle on the cities a government aid program for defense. We can see where, with government aid, cities can build bomb shelters. That would call for many fat contracts let at administration patronage and at tax-payer expense. Suppose the city of San Antonio should go for that and build a bomb shelter, say Alamo Plaza. How many San Antonians would be able to get the shelter in case of a raid, with the fast planes and the severity of the effects of an A-bomb, there would be little chance that they could get shelter. It is absurd to think of it. President Truman has used nothing but fear to sell the people on his hair-brain ideas. American was not built on fear nor shall it survive fear. This nation can meet any emergency in a brave and courageous way and we don't have to go to the enemy with a white flag. Our people have always been proud of the heritage of a proud and resourceful nation able to meet emergencies and stand with fire. We don't want to see American youths spill their blood to appease the political aspirations of the would-be leaders. We want our leaders to be men of valor and stamina who are willing to put the welfare of the country above self-aggrandizement.

When a little former artillery captain shows a yellow streak it is time we put somebody in command who has the intestinal fortitude to face issues in the true American spirit.

Anyway, a man can still light a cigar without first offering one to a lady.

Post Office To Be Doubled In Size

Plans have been approved to practically double the floor space of the local post office, according to Postmaster Clyde Griffith. The extension is proposed in the same location which now houses the offices in the Turner Hotel. George Turner, hotel owner, has proposed to lighten the office to practically 63 feet where it is now 33 feet and the width will remain as it now stands.

The extension north in the building will include what is now the men's rest rooms and the sample room. Arrangement for the fixtures will be worked out later, Mr. Griffith said, but there will be approximately 100 new boxes available for the patrons.

All outgoing and incoming mail will be handled from a rear door on the west side of the building and the front door will be open at all times for boxholders' convenience, Griffith said. It is hoped that the new space will be opened up before Christmas. At present many boxes accommodate two or three patrons, and the added boxes will eliminate some of the inconveniences.

Draft Law Is Amended And Extended to 1955

Austin, July 10 — The draft law scheduled for expiration July 9 has been extended in amended form to July 1, 1955, Brigadier General P. L. Wakefield, state draft director, reminded Texas people this week.

General Wakefield noted the following important changes in the Selective Service act:

Men inducted will serve 24 months as compared to 21 under the old law. Males must register at the age of 18 as formerly.

Men are liable for induction at the age of 18 1-2 instead of 19. No man below 19 can be inducted so long as a board has eligible older men.

Physical and mental standards for service have been lowered, with the result that some men now classified IV-F will be found suitable for I-A.

The present strength of the armed forces can be raised to 5 million men.

Except for cases of extreme hardship, a man may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone.

Men now or hereafter deferred on educational, farming, or dependency grounds will remain liable for service until age 35. Men not deferred are liable only to 26th birthday.

Conscientious objectors to military service shall be ordered by local boards, subject to regulations prescribed by the President, to perform civilian work in the national interest for 24 months.

Men entering the service by way of a draft board are obligated to serve six years in the reserves after discharge.

High school students will be deferred until graduated, until they attain age 20, or until they fail high school work.

Some college students may be deferred on the basis of class standing during last completed school year, or on the basis of a government-sponsored test. The local board is not bound to defer on the basis of this information, but can defer on consideration of it. Some other college students may be deferred on a less competitive basis.

No inducted man may be assigned overseas until he has had four months training.

All enlistments in the armed forces, reserve and regular, which expire after July 9, may be extended by the President for one year. No person shall have his enlistment extended a second time.

HERMAN COUCH TO FUNERAL OF AUNT

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Couch returned home Friday from Zypher, Texas, where they attended funeral services for his aunt, Mrs. Mollie Coffey.

Mrs. Coffey died at her home Tuesday, July 3, after a three month's illness.

Mrs. G. E. Babb visited in Alpine several days this week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford and baby.

WALKING WITHOUT AID of crutches or braces these days is Robbie Boler, the Easter seal boy of the Texas Society for Crippled Children. His picture, with crutches, appeared on some 500,000 letters of appeal sent out in February by the society. Since then, he has learned to walk alone for a few steps. He is demonstrating his skill here for Martin Rieker, executive director of the society; his mother, Mrs. W. E. Boler, Jr., who is kneeling, and Mrs. Betty Massey, therapist. The letters that used his signature brought in approximately $182,000 which will be used throughout the state for the benefit of handicapped children.

REGAN EXPLAINS VOTE AGAINST DEFENSE BILL

Washington, July 11 — Rep. Ken Regan, 16th District, Midland, gives his reasons for voting against the largest money raising bill in this country's history. The bill, which calls for raising $7.2 billion for national defense and to meet governmental expenses has passed the House. The Senate will have hearings throughout the summer and it is expected that the bill will be on the la books by fall.

Regan was brief and concise in stating his reasons for opposition. He was one of the few Democrats who voted against the bill. Another was Rep. John J. Dempsey, New Mexico.

Both Regan and Dempsey worked with the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee to some extent during the time the bill was being developed. Both were in favor of keeping the oil depletion allowance of 27 1-2 per cent. Regan particularly was interested in getting the Committee to refrain from raising higher the tax on automobiles as had been contemplated and he opposed the tax withholding provisions on Christmas savings funds, bank savings accounts, and dividends of credit unions. Since the committee met these demands of Regan's, he did not vote for a recommitment of the bill. But he did vote against it on final passage.

"In doing so, I followed closely the statement made by the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, Rep. Bob Doughton, of North Carolina, who in his argument on the tax bill said frankly that it was the worst

Middle Dam Not Ruled Out Yet On Rio Grande

Laredo — The so-called Middle Dam on the Rio Grande has not been definitely ruled out, according to Lawrence M. Lawson, of El Paso, chief of the U. S. section of the International Boundary Commission.

Lawson said it was "too early" to decide on the Middle Dam however.

The Middle Dam would be constructed upstream from Laredo and would give the Laredo area the same benefits the Lower Rio Grande Valley will get from the Falcon Dam now under construction 75 miles downstream from Laredo.

The 1944 water treaty with Mexico authorizes construction of three dams on the Rio Grande, one downstream from Laredo, one upstream from Laredo and one in the Big Bend area.

Lawson said around 1,000 men are now employed on the Falcon project. He said construction work is progressing satisfactorily and that the dam is now about 20 per cent complete.

Pouring of concrete on the spillway was to get under way this week.

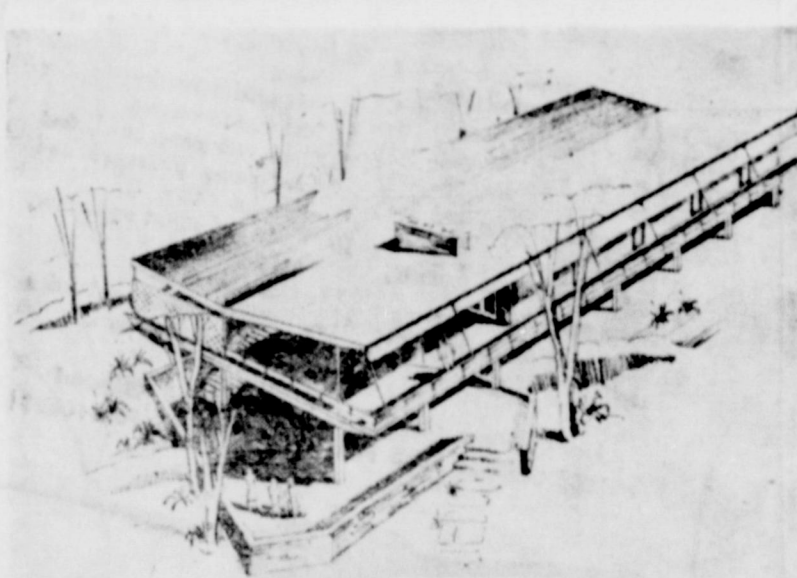

Mrs. P. B. Lowry Dies In El Paso Sunday

Funeral services were held in El Paso Tuesday morning for Mrs. P. D. Lowry, 54, who died in a hospital in that city Sunday.

Mrs. Lowry, the former Miss Mary Landers, resided here for many years with her parents and also after her marriage to Mr. Lowry, who was a T&NO employee. Mrs. Landers was also employed as a stenographer in the roundhouse here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry were in business in El Paso and he is also a former county clerk of El Paso County.

USEFULNESS AND ADAPTABILITY TO BE FEATURED IN MO-RANCH BUILDING

Spurred on by the modern trend to functional-style buildings to accommodate large groups, the Board of Trustees of Mo-Ranch, Hunt, Texas, has approved of the plans of architects for a new dining hall. Ground was broken last week by leaders of the Presbyterian Synod Council of Texas during a three-day record-breaking conference of laymen.

O. O. West, manager of the Mo-Ranch, explained that "While the facilities of the present two dining rooms and kitchens are adequate for serving the guests of all denominations that come up to the ranch for vacations during the entire year, when the Presbyterians come in for their conferences during the three summer months, more than the present 300 seating capacity is needed."

I. Roy Kline, President of the Board of Trustees of Mo-Ranch, declared that "We have sought to utilize every foot of construction made possible by the paid pledges of our Presbyterian people, and feel that this building, which combines the usefulness of modern construction with its adaptability to the native terrain, gives the most for each dollar spent. In its site on the slope between the Manor House and catwalk leading to the youth building, it is complementary to the native-stone construction of the other 35 buildings,

The addition of the Dining Hall will mark the first major step in the expansion of the ranch which covers 377 acres. The little community in itself has everything but its own post office, getting mail at Hunt, Texas. It was purchased by the Presbyterian Synod of Texas from the estate of the late Dan Moran, and includes its own commissary, book store, 75-foot tiled swimming pool, water and ice plants, laundry, infirmary, gymnasium which substitutes for an auditorium, where dances as well as meetings are held, chapel, gas pumps, firefighting equipment, tennis courts, bowling alley and water front facilities with a 300-foot high coaster slide. This is an addition to the Manor House, Guest Lodge and the many dormitories which are available the year round for groups or individual families by making reservations for days or week ends. Mr. and Mrs. West combine the role of manager and wife that of gracious host and hostess.

Jack Savage and Bob Wilkinson attended the camp last week returning home Monday. Judge R. S. Wilkinson took the boys down the first of last week and Mrs. W. H. Savage and her mother, Mrs. J. W. McKee went down last Friday to get the boys. They returned home Monday, visiting in Kerrville, Rocksprings, Uvalde and Del Rio en route to Mo-Ranch.

TOM HURD TO BE HERE TO INTERVIEW REA APPLICANTS

Tom Hurd, official of the Rio Grande Electric Co-operative, Inc., will be at The Kerr Mercantile Co. on Thursday and Friday of next week to interview all persons interested in securing rural electrification.

According to Mr. Hurd, the lack of applications for rural electrification on the line as was originally proposed made it necessary to seek another route for the line and all who have not yet signed up but who are interested in obtaining the service are asked to contact him at The Kerr Mercantile Co. on one of the two days.

He pointed out that a certain number of subscribers would be necessary on any proposed line and that the co-operative would attempt to secure the prescribed number by moving the location and direction of the proposed line until the prescribed number of subscribers could be obtained.

The direction and length of the new proposed line will depend on the number of applicants within servicing distance of a line in any given direction.

Hurd added that many of those who had already signed up could possibly be included in the new proposed route of the electric service line, and that those persons would be contacted if and when the prescribed number of users was obtained.

Antelope Hunt Open This Year To Lucky License Applicants

Austin, July 11 — The Chief Clerk of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission announced that a prong-horned antelope season for the seven-county area West of the Pecos has been authorized.

He suggested that hunters interested write the commission in Austin for a permit blank to make formal application. A limited number of permits will be issued and the license distribution will be made by drawing since there always are more applications than licenses. The dates will be October 1, 2 and 3 for the first hunt period; October 4, 5 and 6 for the second hunt period and October 7, 8 and 9 for the last period. The season is arranged in periods to permit supervision by the game wardens.

Each licensee is entitled to one male antelope. After he has shot his limit he is not permitted to hunt even though other members of his party have not been successful.

Last year 426 permits were issued with a total kill of 375. In 1948, the last previous shoot before 1950, 702 permits were issued and the total kill was 629.

A survey now is underway in Brewster, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Reeves, Presidio, Hudspeth and Culberson Counties to check the antelope herds as a means of getting a figure for the number of permits to be issued.

Ranchers are allotted 20 per cent of the permits which cost $5. Ranchers may charge each hunter not more than $40 for permission to shoot on their land.

Persons awarded the licenses and then finding they cannot join the hunt may make way for hunters unsuccessful in the drawing by writing the commission.

Last year 1000 hunters applied for the special licenses.

New Postal Money Order Goes Into Use Making Changes to Simplify Exchange

Patrons of more than 42,000 Post Offices found the new and more convenient money orders available last week across the nation. Principal changes in the new money order system will make it possible to have a money order cashed at any of the nation's post offices numbering 42,000 in all, or through any bank in the same manner as the depositing or cash-ing of a check.

The new money order appears in the form of a punched card instead of the customary paper slip and purchasers will fill out same form and pay the same fees as has been required in the past.

The regulation that money orders must be cashed at specific post offices has been eliminated. Under the old system, a money order had to be cashed in the office to which it was issued.

Inauguration of the new system is said to be the largest single accounting change ever made in postal history. Users are urged to remember that the new money orders must not be folded, stapled, spindled or mutilated in any way since they are to be used on punch cards and processed by machinery.

The new system makes available to the Post Office Department the most advanced electronic business machines. One machine, the IBM Type 808 Proof Machine, has been especially developed for the new money order purposes and it constitutes a combination of all the advantages of the modern proof machine in widespread use by banks and large department stores throughout the country. Another of the principal machines to be used with the new system is the Electronic Statistical Machine, workhorse of the 1950 Census tabulation.

The new money order system will be under the management and supervision of Assistant Postmaster General Osborne A. Pearson who directs the Department's Bureau of Finance.

All new money orders will clear Federal Reserve Banks in the same manner as Treasury checks or other cash items. The Federal Reserve banks will then turn over the paid money orders to the proper regional Post Offices.

The new money order system is in keeping with the program to modernize and improve the operation of the postal service, as well as to effect economy and better to serve the general public.

Last year more than 300,000,000 money orders, totalling upward of five billion dollars were issued and paid by the Post Office department.

MORE GOVERNMENT WASTE

"Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, saying, 'The scribes and Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not.'"—Matthew 23:23. From this admonition of Christ has grown a popular precept, usually reserved for mortals who haven't formed the habit of practicing what they preach. It goes like this: Do as he says, not as he does.

Leland Burress, editor of the Gooding (Ohio) Weekly Leader, thinks the precept might well apply in the case of Edward H. Foley, a Federal Treasury official, and what happened recently at Sun Valley. Mr. Foley had come out to Sun Valley from Washington to tell the Idaho bankers what this country needs and what each citizen should do. Mr. Burress, the reporter-editor, got the facts.

What Mr. Foley said: "One major financial mobilization need at this time is that each individual citizen be made acutely aware of the desirability of curtailing his own expenditure programs so far as they fall outside the defense area." In other words, we citizens must cut down on non-essential expenses, tighten up the old belt, cheerfully sacrifice our pleasures so that we can meet the tax bill for the nation's defense.

What Mr. Foley did: He took with him to Sun Valley his wife and Preston Delano, Federal comptroller, and Mrs. Delano. The Foley party disdained use of commercial transportation. They decided to make the trip a pleasure junket supreme! A 40-passenger four-motored Coast Guard transport, with a crew of six officers and enlisted men, became the private airliner for the party of four. The Foley party remained at the swank Sun Valley resort altogether four days — and so did the flight crew of six. Just the gas, oil and lubrication for the party's junket cost an estimated $1,945 and the crew's pay and maintenance expense for the transport must, of course, be added to the cost which the citizen-taxpayer must "tighten up the old belt" to pay!

Mr. Burress, the Idaho newspaperman, wasn't searching out secrets at all. The story of what Mr. Foley said and what Mr. Foley did was dropped in his lap. The big C-54 came down on the Gooding field near his newspaper office and stayed four days while the Foley party enjoyed the Sun Valley scenery and the famed cooking. The several thousand dollars waste of taxpayers' money and the inconsistency in what this Federal Treasury official said and what he did is but a tidbit example of all that's transpiring on a huge, and wholesale scale in our government.

Before the Communists invaded South Korea and drew the United States into the war, the Hoover Commission had turned up sufficient evidence of bureaucratic mismanagement and waste to warrant recommendation of $3 to $4 billion reduction in Federal spending; and in the President's present $72 billion budget for the coming fiscal year qualified authorities on Federal finance have said $9 or $10 billion of unnecessary spending could have been saved by the institution of common-sense economic measures—without hurting the defense effort.

"Strict economy in non-defense spending is required", said President Truman in his budget message. And Secretary of Defense Marshall echoed: "We must avoid waste of the productive energies that have helped make our nation powerful." That's what they say. But where are the economy measures? Well, the Secretary of the Treasury has just renewed a request for $100-billion in new taxes — which would hit the earnings of everyone a severe blow.

It is true (as Secretary Snyder says) that we should balance the budget. This is a basic need to halt ruinous inflation. But is it also true that present tax revenue would be more than sufficient to meet all the real needs of the government — IF capable management and strict economy were applied throughout the whole extravagant and seemingly heedless Federal bureaucracy. It's a big "IF." Tightening up the old belt seems to be a slogan meant only for taxpayers. For government employees and bureaus it just simply doesn't mean what it says. Mr. Foley's under-secretary of the Treasury, has demonstrated that fact. It is high time the taxpayers called a halt to the gross extravagance in our government, for it is robbing us all and dissipating the productive energies of the whole nation. Unless we do the outcome could be very serious.

Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Buick models.

PARDON us if we play switchman with a familiar railroad phrase, but we aim to flag down some certain people . . .

Those folks who've always had a great big yen for a new Buick, but a big worry that Buick prices ran too high for their budgets.

Now we'll have to grant you that — on style and beauty and size and impressive appearance — a 1951 Buick looks like a pretty high price tag.

And we'll have to grant, too, that the zooming power and the luxurious ride and the heavyweight steadiness you get in a Buick would also indicate prices beyond the reach of most people.

But honestly, you'll find nothing farther from the truth when you note the price tags on 1951 Buicks.

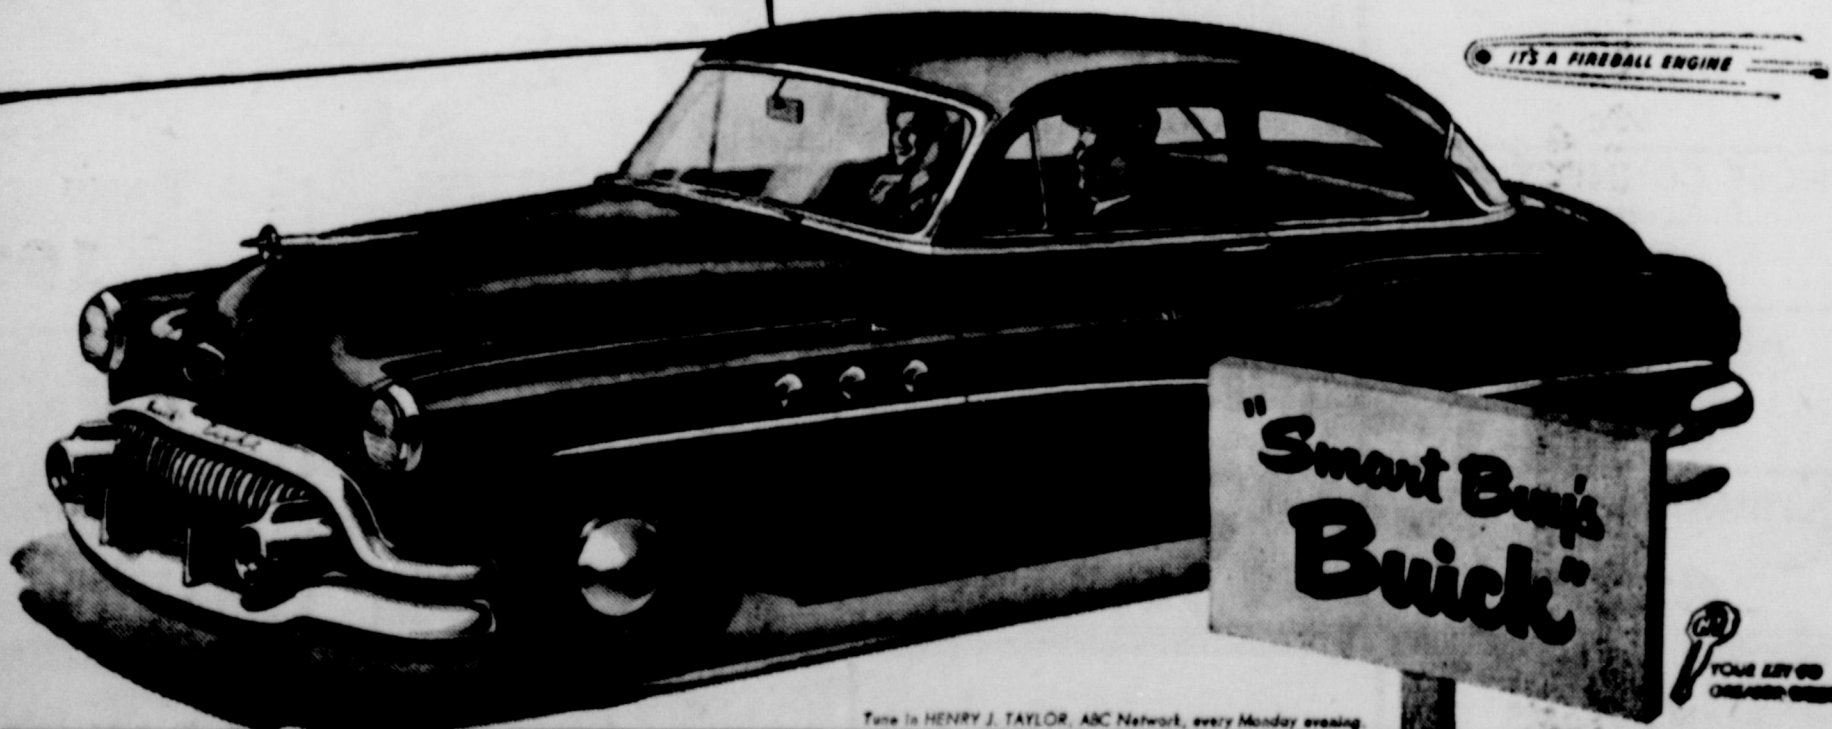

You'll find that beauty with the big-power, big-mileage, valve-in-head Fireball Engine is really within your budget picture—with prices starting below those of many of today's sixes.

And you'll have to admit then and there that you can have Buick room and comfort, can have Buick ride and handling, can have Buick style and size—for little, if any, more than you've been paying for lesser cars.

That leaves the next step up to you—stopping in to see us.

Come in soon, look over the SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER you've always wanted — and let that happy glow go surging all through you as you sign up for your smart-buy Buick.

These are days to try the mettle of a man. There's his world to worry about—his country—his business—his family. And there are his own hopes and aspirations.

And, yet, a man must go on. Everything he plans for demands a tilt to his head and a lilt to his spirits.

And that's where his Cadillac comes into the picture—here, beyond all question, is one of the world's great therapeutics for a world-weary man.

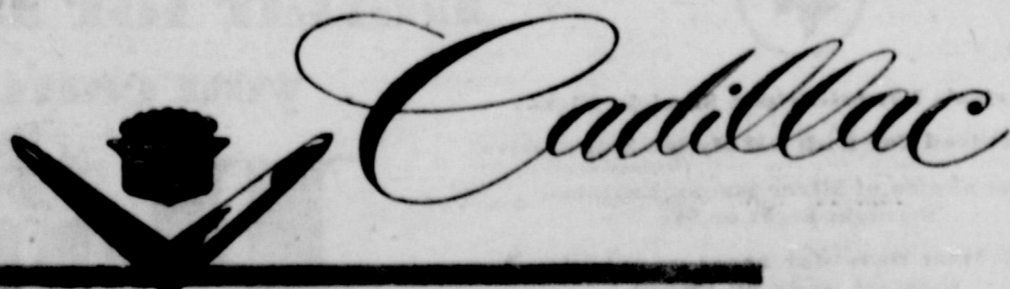

Just to look at it, in the driveway, is an inspiration—proud, beautiful, eager and substantial.

And, oh, how you rest when it takes to the highway!

There's the deep-throated lullaby of its powerful engine; there's the soothing, restful, relaxing ride; and there's the soft swish of the wind as it flows past the streamlined body. Men look forward to it throughout the day.

We have it on the word of a great statesman, and a great surgeon, and a great general—and simply thousands of others who are weary with the heavy burden of things as they are—that the hour at the wheel of a Cadillac is the relaxing one of the twenty-four.

So there you have the prescription. Better come in and see us today—and arrange to have it filled.

Our greatest trouble today is that our neighbors are always buying something we can't afford.

Furriers don't sell women's coats C.O.D. any more. Now they peddle 'em R.F.C.

Might Say The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies.

Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look, before you jump to conclusions.
