1951 POLIO POINTERS

RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

These are precautions recommended by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when polio is around. Also, wash hands before eating and be on the alert for such symptoms as feverishness, sore throat, headache, upset stomach or sore muscles. They may—or may not—mean polio. If the disease does strike, call your doctor promptly, follow his advice. Your local National Foundation chapter will provide needed assistance.

A Digest of GOOD IDEAS for Planning, Building, Decorating and Maintaining Your Home

Brought to you each week by Sally and Johnny Omala

WHY NOT A Vacation AT HOME?

STAY-AT-HOME VACATIONS can be a lot of fun . . . and as profitable as they are relaxing . . .

You can have a vacation that actually lasts for years right in your own backyard. Not only can you enjoy summertime comfort and relaxation, but you can use some of your vacation time to make improvements and repairs that you will continue to enjoy for years.

• MORE TIME FOR YOUR GARDENING

This summer, you can start that new garden project and really get things "growing", you can build yourself a real barbecue, a cool and comfortable outdoor living terrace, or a set of rugged outdoor furniture, and still have plenty of time left for recreation.

• TIME FOR THOSE "LITTLE JOBS"

This is the time to do all those things you were going to do "as soon as you had the time." You can get yourself out of the dog-house by getting Rover into a new one; clean up a dozen jobs you've been putting off.

• TIME TO BRIGHTEN UP WITH PAINT

This is the ideal time of year for painting. Spend some of your vacation hours giving your home, fences, or garage the protective beauty of a new coat of paint. A few hours of your time will protect and increase the value of your home.

• TIME FOR "STITCH-IN-TIME" REPAIRS

Summer is also the ideal time for those fix-up jobs that bring year-round comfort and convenience to your home. Whether it's a new roof, new porch floor, new siding, new garage doors, or new screens . . . save labor and money by doing them now.

Things to do this Summer

- Build a Barbecue
- Repair Roof
- Paint House
- Add new Walk
- Repair Screens
- Improve Driveway
- New Awnings
- Paint Porch Furniture
- Insulate
- Make Garden Pool
- Build a Sandbox
- Screen Porch
- Build new Fence
- Put on new Siding
- Go Fishing

Sally says:

You can straighten your warped phonograph records by placing them between two sheets of window glass, and putting them on a flat surface in the sun. Do not remove glass until the record has cooled.

You can make an unusual window box by having a sturdy shelf built outside the window with holes cut so that the soil will fit down snugly and be held by their rims. Paint shelf and pots to match trim on your house.

Now you can get an electric alarm clock that you do not even have to reset. These newer models sound the alarm at the same time every morning without re-setting. Another alarm!

For a really practical gift for any housewife for most any occasion, how about a Can Opener, a Sharpener, and a Juicer in one lovely gift package. They're on the market . . . look for them where you buy your hardware.

Johnny says:

Try using the claws of your hammer to strip insulation from electric wire. It's easier than using a knife and does not damage the wire. Strip only about 1 1/2" at a time.

Next time you're sanding a curved surface, try using a plastic or rubber sponge instead of a block. The sponge will fit itself to the curve, yet allow you to apply sufficient pressure.

GOING FISHING?

If you're having a stay-at-home vacation, plan some short fishing trips to give you a complete change. Turn yourself to some new equipment. It's surprising the extra thrills you can get out of the same old fishing spots if you're testing out a new lure or a new rod.

If you've got the PRICE of a car— you can afford this BUICK

Do you know what gas mileage owners are getting from its F-263 Fireball Engine—newest of Buick's famed valve-in-head power plants?

Do you know that this is the most powerful engine you'll find in any automobile of the same size and price?

Do you know what headroom and legroom and trunk space this big and beautiful bargain gives you?

Do you know that this SPECIAL has the road-steady ride of soft-action coil springs on every wheel—and the firm keel of Buick's torque-tube drive?

Do you know the lift that you'll get behind the wheel of this trim and talented traveler—as it steps away from a traffic light or rolls up the miles on the open road?

Fact is—by every check, including price—this Buick's a buy too good to miss.

Come in, look it over, and you'll agree.

HAVE you taken a good look at a 1951 Buick SPECIAL?

Have you checked it against the field—for room and power and ride and handling—and all the things that go with a really great automobile?

SHORT LENGTHS

Save you Money!

When you want to repair or build something . . . check first, see how long your lumber actually has to be. Be smart . . . use short lengths when you can and save money.

It's downright silly to pay for long lengths and then cut them up. Sometimes a job can be done entirely with short lengths at a real saving. We usually have a large selection of short lengths on hand, and if they fit your job, you can use them and save. Ask us.

TOO DUMB TO UNDERSTAND
BY DeWitt Emery
President of the National Small Business Men's Association

DeWitt Emery

In a series of statements and speeches since the outbreak of the "police action" in Korea, President Truman has told us what we must all do working together to avert the danger of inflation during this crucial time when defense production must have first call on our economic resources.

He told consumers to buy only what they need. He told business men to cut down and hold down inventories, to increase the efficiency of their operations as much as possible and to conserve manpower. He asked everyone to work harder and longer and to forget about increased wages or profits.

The President said his proposals call for "patriotism and self-restraint" and added, "If we all work together as a team, if everyone does his part we can beat inflation, we can secure the defenses of this nation and keep down the cost of living for the average family."

No one can quarrel with the President's suggestions, but it seems to me that he, as the head of the executive branch of our government, should see to it that every department, bureau and agency of the government puts his suggestions into effect. It seems to me further that since he is commander-in-chief of our armed forces that he should also insist that the Department of Defense follow his recommendations. So let's look at the record.

All departments, bureaus and agencies of the executive branch of our federal government are spending more money today than a year ago and almost without exception have more people on their payrolls than they had when the shooting started in Korea. Some of the non-defense departments spent more than 1,400 times as much in 1950 as they did in 1940.

During the past year an average of 6,073 new employees per week were added to the federal payroll in the executive branch of our government. It costs you and me and the other taxpayers eight billion three hundred million dollars per year to pay the salaries of these bureaucrats.

The Department of Defense does not seem to have taken the President's advice very seriously. Here are a few examples which will show why I make that statement.

Since the start of the Korean campaign, with less than two million men under arms, the Army has purchased 68,000,000 can openers.

During the nine months ended March 31, 1951, the quartermaster corps bought 1,917,000 pounds of black pepper. Maybe this is a new weapon which is used by sneaking up on the Reds and throwing it in their eyes.

The Army set up requirements of 4,363,000 web belts for 1951. This is approximately three belts per man although only one belt is issued per man per year.

On combat boots the Army requirements for 1951 was set at 11,753,000 pairs, of which it is expected to use 4,800,000 pairs during the year.

Last January while the quartermaster was purchasing 5,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine at 25 1/2¢ per pound, the Department of Agriculture was selling 5,500,000 pounds of surplus butter to Italy at 15¢ per pound.

What effect did this large scale "scare" buying have on prices? Since June 1950, the price of Army blankets has risen from $7.82 to $16.00 each. Combat boots went up from $6.03 to $11.63 a pair, army mattresses from $7.83 to $13.42 each and so on and on throughout a list longer than your arm.

How can this terrific waste of money be stopped? There is only one way and that's for the people to tell their congressmen and senators that it's got to stop. Every dime spent by anyone connected with any part of the government must first be appropriated by congress. I have written to my congressman and both of my senators. Will you write your — today?

THE KERR MERCANTILE COMPANY

Listen to Luke

sent a reporter out to get public opinion on the subject by holding impromptu sidewalk interviews. One school teacher (well covered in black dress): "They look perfectly awful. I like to see ladies dressed as ladies. Those sunback things lower mens' opinion of women."

This column is not posing as an authority on what the well-dressed woman will or should wear. In a sense, we would say offhand and off the record, that the teacher is correct in at least one respect — or we might say she is 50 per cent right. Now whether it is lowering the opinion of men or simply lowering their gaze we are not prepared to say.

In our childhood days, where we were brought up, after a fashion, we remember having seen the chickens at a certain age when there were few if any feathers to cover their gangly body. Those chickens presented a poor view in our way of thinking, but, given time, they grew to maturity and were fully clothed with a beautiful covering of plumage. But on the other hand, that same chick would, in time grow to an age where periodically they shed their plumage, the comb drooped over and the general appearance of too much mileage showed in every angle and in every move. That may or may not answer the question we were discussing in the first place, but we still think some chickens look better than others whether their manner of dress has anything to do with it or not.

This column has mentioned the need for organizing a Terrell County Chamber of Commerce. Our only purpose for suggesting the movement was so that if and when such an organization were perfected we could look up to it as one of our very own brain-children.

Since nothing has come of the suggestion we are not the kind to give up and take a licking, so now we suggest another organization to be known as the 3-H Club of Sanderson. All our readers are familiar with the work and accomplishments of the 4-H Clubs throughout the country but it is our sincere belief that a 3-H Club could do far greater good for the country once it is generally accepted. The proposed slogan for the 3-H's would be "Hurry Harry Home."

If we fail to get proper support for this organization we are going to vote for him again and let the whole country suffer.

San Angelo, the city on the Conchos Rivers, is having water shortage trouble. Recently the city commission passed a water shortage prevention ordinance which prohibited the use of water for lawns, shrubbery, etc., on certain days. The first arrest for violation of the ordinance was the superintendent of San Angelo's park system. The second arrest was a fireman employed by the City of San Angelo, who was caught taking water from a fire hydrant near midnight.

A San Angelo newspaper carried a report of the proceedings in the court at the hearing for the first violation at which hearing a county judge used some very profane and abusive language. The judge was not speaking from a street corner, nor over a cup of coffee, but from the bench of a court of justice and was at the time occupying the bench as a dispenser of justice. He was not, at the time, a private citizen. He was cloaked with the dignity of an officer to represent the people in administering justice and to enforce the law, or punish an offender.

We remember when a higher official used some unprintable words in expressing his views regarding a Washington columnist. The only difference in the two cases is in the fact that one of the officials holds the highest office in this nation. The principle of the parallels remain the same.

In the San Angelo case there is no doubt — from the evidence of the arresting officers — that the park superintendent was deliberately using water on the course, an act which was prohibited by the ordinance. The judge claimed the superintendent was his friend and implied that that fact should release him from being bound by any laws of the city.

When the patronage of friends comes above the observance of law in this country we are in a bad way. There is no law on the statutes that is not intended for the observance of all the people. No official has the right to violate the law and should be punished for a traffic violation just the same as John Doe — or for violation of a city ordinance for that matter. The golf course cannot use city water to keep the shrubbery and grass alive and let the private lawn and garden of the taxpayers suffer. A judge who fails his duty by showing special favors to his friends is not worthy of the office he holds.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

What's So Funny?

Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny.

A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter — and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny.

Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him — doesn't it?

From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself — but I promise not to make any "wise-cracks" if you prefer tea.

Mrs. B. C. Henderson Guest Speaker For Methodist W. S. C. S.

Mrs. Chester Smith and Mrs. Wayne Watkins were hostesses for the meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service in the Fellowship Hall Monday afternoon.

Following an organ prelude by Mrs. Olaf Hoggard, Mrs. Irvin Robbins, vice president, read the call to worship and the group sang "O. Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." The poem, "Sermons We See," by Edgar A. Guest, was read by Mrs. A. B. Gates and the hymn "Others" was sung.

Mrs. B. C. Henderson was the guest speaker for the afternoon and answered questions pertaining to the Philippine Islands, her residence there and her three-year imprisonment there during the Japanese occupation.

Following a brief business session, the hostess served punch, cake and ice cream to Mesdames John Neal, Olaf Hoggard, W. F. Frazier, M. W. Duncan, A. B. Gates, F. M. Roark, L. H. Gilbreath, J. W. Pate, H. E. Ezelle, Gene McSparran, H. C. Goldwire, I. B. Rusk, Irvin Robbins, Chester Boyd, and Miss Kate Frazier.

Birthday Party July 21 For Carolyn Martin

Mrs. W. R. Martin entertained with a party at her home Saturday afternoon from four to six to honor her daughter, Carolyn, on her eighth birthday. Following a period of games the little guests enjoyed fortune telling.

Punch was served with the birthday cake and bubble gum and stick candy were given as favors. The guests included Toni Wright, Sharon Wooten, Cinda Martin, Linda Maples, Sarah Herzling, Melinda Gilbreath and Linda Shurley.

MRS. ROGER ROSE ENTERTAINS FOR FRIDAY CLUB

Mrs. Roger Rose entertained the Friday Bridge Club at her home last week. Bouquets of zinnias, marigolds and verbenas decorated the living room. Punch was served to the guests upon their arrival.

High score prize at the conclusion of the games went to Mrs. Mary Lou Kellar; second high to Mrs. S. H. Underwood; low to Mrs. S. L. Stumberg and the slam prize was held by Mrs. I. B. Rusk.

Guests included Mesdames P. P. Courtney, R. G. Stegall, J. D. May, S. H. Underwood, S. L. Stumberg, Austin Nance, Jimmy Martin, I. B. Rusk, J. A. Gilbreath, H. G. Woodward, James Caroline, Ora Quigg, Mary Lou Kellar, M. H. Goode, Jr., Jack Laughlin, and Joe Mayfield.

Bible Study For Baptist W. M. S. Monday Afternoon

The Baptist W. M. S. met at the church Monday afternoon to continue the Bible study course being taught by Rev. Claude Bridges. After singing the hymn "Jesus Calls Us", Mrs. Bridges opened the meeting with a prayer. The group voted to postpone the meeting next Monday afternoon since Monday is the opening date of the Paisano Encampment. Prayer by Mrs. V. E. Keyes dismissed the group and Rev. and Mrs. Bridges served watermelon.

Those present were Mesdames H. G. Cates, Hal Tyler, V. E. Keyes, S. D. Thompson, L. M. Stanley, M. G. Northcut, Jr., T. O. Moore, Gene Thompson, A. D. Brown, Claude Bridges, C. W. Schofield, O. D. Gray, J. A. Mansfield, Rev. Claude Bridges and a visitor, Mrs. Paul Langley, of Ennis.

Mrs. J. A. Gilbreath Has Party For Bridge Club Tuesday

Two tables of players enjoyed a series of bridge games when Mrs. J. A. Gilbreath entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club at her home this week.

Lilliput zinnias in colorful arrangements decorated the living room.

High score prize was presented to Mrs. Ora Quigg, second high to Mrs. Mary Lou Kellar and low to Mrs. W. H. Grigsby. The slam prizes were held by Mesdames Kellar and Quigg.

The hostess served a salad plate with iced tea and coffee to Mesdames Jimmy Martin, J. W. Pate, Mary Lou Kellar, S. L. Stumberg, W. H. Grigsby, Ora Quigg, S. H. Underwood and Austin Nance. Mesdames F. M. Roark and J. J. Harkins were tea guests.

Luncheon Honors Mrs. Marshall Miller, San Antonio Visitor

Mrs. W. R. Stumberg entertained with a luncheon Wednesday to honor her daughter, Mrs. Marshall Miller, of San Antonio, who is visiting here. The luncheon was served at one o'clock at the ranch home of Mrs. S. L. Stumberg, Sr.

Lovely floral decorations were in the party rooms with an arrangement of cerise gladiolus in the sun parlor and rose colored carnations in the living room.

The dinner table, which was covered with a white linen cutwork cloth was centered with an arrangement of asters. Additional guests were seated at quartet tables.

The guests included Mesdames R. S. Wilkinson, Mary Lou Kellar, J. W. Pate, Jettie Peavy, Temple Stumberg, E. A. Kerr, O. H. McAdams, W. G. Downie, Joe Kerr, Sr., Austin Nance, Jimmy Martin, James Kerr, C. G. Riggins, S. L. Stumberg, J. J. Harkins, W. T. Bondurant of San Antonio, W. R. Cochran of Fort Stockton, S. L. Stumberg, Jr., of Marathon, Ben Pruett of Marfa, David Shuler of Alpine, Marshall Miller of San Antonio and Miss Betty Jo Kerr.

Mrs. Sid Harkins Hostess For Ranch Demonstration Club

The monthly meeting of the Ranch Home Demonstration Club was last Friday at the home of Mrs. Sid Harkins. The president, Mrs. J. D. Nichols, called the meeting to order at ten-thirty. Plans were made for the annual picnic on Friday, August 17, at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Couch. Members will bring a basket lunch and their husbands and families will be invited guests.

Two girls from Fort Stockton, Joye Henley and Gwendolyn George, members of the 4-H Club, gave a demonstration on "Milk for Health."

During the recreation period, Mrs. E. F. Pierson conducted a spelling bee.

At noon the hostess served a congealed salad and iced tea with the school girl lunch which the members had brought.

During the afternoon, Miss Dudley Hambricht, demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on "Frozen Foods."

Cake and coffee were served at the conclusion of the meeting to Mesdames Herman Couch, J. D. Nichols, Carl Cochran, N. M. Mitchell, J. W. Byrd, W. J. Ferguson, Sr., Lee Dudley, E. F. Pierson and Miss Dudley Hambricht.

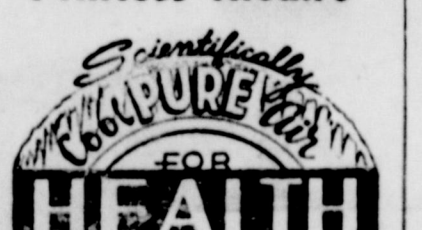

Frankie Turner Has Novelty Birthday Party Sunday at Hotel

The banquet room of the Turner Hotel was converted into a carnival scene Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. George Turner entertained to honor their son, Frankie, on his ninth birthday.

A dart game, coin game, ball game and peg game were arranged around the wall with prizes to the winners. Bubble gum and candy were available during the afternoon. Bingo was played as the concluding diversion.

Gay crepe paper streamers in red, green and yellow and blue added to the decorative note. The beautifully decorated birth-

Mrs. J. W. Byrd Leader Of Program For Presbyterian Women

Mrs. E. E. Farley was hostess when the Presbyterian Women of the Church met Monday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mrs. N. M. Mitchell, president, called the meeting to order and after Mrs. J. W. McKee had led in prayer, the group sang "What A Friend."

Announcement was made of the colored slides on foreign missionary work to be shown at the church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Byrd was leader of the program on "The Loom of Time" taken from the study book "Christian Patterns of Life." Following the singing of the hymn "Jesus, The Very Thought of Thee" by the group, Mrs. Byrd led in prayer and read the 90th Psalm.

Safe Braking Margin Varies

Importance of driving in accordance with highway conditions is illustrated by this diagrammatic view prepared by Chevrolet in the interest of traffic safety. Standard braking tables reveal 190 feet is required for a stop at 50 miles an hour, allowing three-quarters of a second for a driver's reaction to an emergency. When the pavement is wet, however, the distance increases to 258 feet.
