BEARS TO PLAY SEASON'S
LAST GAME FRIDAY
The Baird Bears will face the Early Longhorns Friday night
in the Bears Den for the season's last game.
Hopes are high that the Bears
will make a real good showing against the Longhorns, as they have gained considerable experience the past two months.
The Bears have had quite a handicap this season, beginning with only 19 men and losing 3 due to injuries. Five new players were gained however, but only one of these boys had experience in playing high school

This year Christmas advertising began in August in some cities. Many individuals, like the late Eleanor Roosevelt, start shopping for the next Christmas in January. The last frantic week of activity before Christmas is a fading tradition. The head of a large department store has predicted the eventual elimination of a special Christmas shopping sale. He believes that year-around gift-giving has become so extensive that retailers cannot afford to concentrate gift advertising in any one season.

"Probably the first outlet for surplus income is gift buying. In a prosperous society that means that every occasion becomes a small Christmas. Birthdays, anniversaries, and other holidays have become major occasions for gift giving.
"It has been greatly stimulated by travel. Whenever a person visits or returns home he carries gifts. Airports have become major outlets for variety items," he said.

Apparently, a great latent harket exists which has scarce, been tapped by many retailers who could be serving the onsumer and gaining new busness. It is a market which canot be fully served without exensive advertising.

Their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Merril Eaton and children, Wayne, Marshall and Marilyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Johnson and children, Eddie and Cindy were hosts at an open house in their parent's home. Starting at 2 p. m. guests started arriving and by 6 p. m. approximately 200 had registered. Knowing Mr. and Mrs. Rogers since childhood, I knew it wasn't the receiving table, loaded with gifts, that caused that look of happiness on their faces. It was seeing so many friends at one time. When someone asked Mr. and Mrs. Rogers if they actually knew all of these people, they hastily replied, "Why yes, these are all our friends and we can call most of them by their given name."
