LISTEN TO LUKE

Texans don't need the advice of Drew Pearson nor Sec. Brannon on how to vote in 1952. Pearson, in his attack on the Texas tide-lands issue while he was in Texas recently put in a few plugs for Senator Tamm while he was casting reflections on Attorney General Price Daniel. Of course, he only came to Texas for one thing and that was in the interest of the present administration.

We are in bad enough shape with the administration and Supreme Court ganged up to take over Texas what other Supreme courts have held on more than 50 sessions to belong to Texas.

But insult is added to injury when one such as Drew Pearson comes to Texas and deliberately insults the Texans on the tide-lands issue and makes use of his newspaper column in an attempt to throw support to Senator Conally.

Texans don't need the columnist explaining to them about the Delands. It's obvious we know more about the issue than he does, furthermore Texans have had an opportunity for years to follow the congressional record of Senator Tom Conally, and in more recent years the public service record of Attorney General Price Daniel.

Texans have been able in the past to select their own public officials and we believe it can be done in 1952 without the aid of Drew Pearson or any other man from Washington.

Secretary Brannon spent his recent tour of Texas in telling Texans how wonderful Harry Truman is. Of course he stopped in Fort Worth long enough for Tom Carter to give him a big hug. If the hat were of a size to what he thinks is the size of his head, it would be a whopper. Mr. Brannon, Texans are not babies. They can read and can think and have a capacity for looking up their own minds.

Among comments received this week about the new mast-head we are happy to get a nice letter from State Health Officer Dr. George W. Cox.

Have you visited the Big Bend National Park? Everybody in West Texas should make a trip to the big park and be able to tell tourists some of the attractions to be found there. Sanderson is situated so as to profit by the influx of tourists who are anxious to see the wonders of the park area. Let's get on the beam! No news yet in the local political situation. We are working under the supposition that the present incumbents will seek their offices again this year.

We hope to see some interest in politics here this year, as every year, so that the candidates will give the satisfaction that a majority of some 700 voters elected rather than a majority of the 200 of a potential 700 vote strength. If a candidate wins a majority of such a small amount it is small satisfaction to know that no more than the 125-odd people wanted his election.

Let's stimulate interest in all of our governmental functions, from the highest to the lowest, and let our poll tax receipt will also let us license to sit up and cuss those that won regardless of our vote.

ASSES ELECT DELEGATES TO STUDENT COUNCIL

TRIP TO BIG BEND ENJOYED BY LOCAL BUSINESS MEN

A caravan composed of business men of Sanderson left Wednesday morning for the Big Bend National Park. The trip had been planned by W. J. Ferguson, Jr., to acquaint the local business men with the sights of interest in the park and the facilities to be found by tourists so that accurate information could be given in the future to any who might inquire as to the things to be encountered on a trip to the scenic park of the southwest.

Dr. Ross Maxwell, superintendent of the park, and several of the park rangers met the caravan and helped them gain the best picture of the park in the shortest time. The group returned to Sanderson Wednesday night.

The business men of Sanderson became interested in being qualified as park ambassadors after it was learned that comparatively few of the local citizens had taken advantage of the all-weather park that is so near the town, and after reports from tourists to park officials that some of the surrounding towns had not been able to furnish information as to what was to be found inside the Big Bend National Park.

The group hoped that more interest in our own national park could be developed by area citizens, thus increasing the number of visitors to the park from this area of the country.

Statistics have disclosed that the Big Bend National Park is one of the few parks in the nation that is open the year round, and that it is the only area of the southwest that has been preserved in the original state of its being. The park officials have attempted to replace all of the wildlife natural to the area and extreme efforts are being made to preserve the park area in a manner to present to the tourists' eye a true picture of the last frontier.

Dr. Maxwell will be in Sanderson next Thursday to appear before a joint meeting of the Lions and Rotary Club to give an informative lecture on the Big Bend National Park and show a color movie film taken in the park. The clubs will meet at the Turner Hotel at noon for the meeting.

Immediately following the meeting with the clubs, Dr. Maxwell will show the pictures and lecture to the school children at the high school auditorium. It is planned to have another public showing of the film Thursday evening at 7:30 at the school for the citizens of the community. There will be no charge for admission and Dr. Maxwell promises a very interesting and educational film.

Roping Club Makes Plans for Season

The Sanderson Roping Club will begin work on the arena east of town Sunday morning in the first of several plans the organization has made for the coming roping season. The work which will begin Sunday will be the moving of dirt onto the arena. Many of the members of the organization who have equipment that will be useful in this work will bring their machinery into town, but Bill Goodwin, vice president of the organization, stated that much more equipment and the help of more of the members will be needed to complete the work planned for the day.

Calves have been bought by the club and they are expected to be here within the next two or three weeks, according to Goodwin, and the roping club has passed a ruling that calves will not be roped until the dirt work at the arena is completed. He added that the calves would be fed and rested for two weeks after their arrival before they would be roped.

Plans are now underway to secure lights for the arena so that the cowboys can have their fun under lights and in the cool of the evening. No time has been set for the installation of the lights.

Herman Chandler is the newly-elected president of the club, replacing Charlie Gregory. Dudley Harrison is secretary-treasurer.

Certain Drugs Prove Helpful Against TB

Ever since the discovery in 1882 of the germ which causes tuberculosis, an intensive research has gone on for a drug which would effectively combat TB, a disease which kills more young adults between 15 and 35 than any other disease, though no drug which will cure tuberculosis has yet been found.

Certain drugs in recent years, however, have proved of great help in treating certain types of tuberculosis. Outstanding among these drugs is streptomycin.

Streptomycin is neither a specific TB cure nor a substitute for the bed rest which is basic in the treatment of tuberculosis. Instead, it serves a support to nature, impeding the growth of TB germs so that the body can concentrate its forces on fighting the disease.

One major difficulty in the use of streptomycin is the fact that some TB germs develop a resistance to the drug. To counteract this, streptomycin is usually used today with another drug. The drug of choice is usually PAS, or para-aminosalicylic acid, which appears to delay the development of resistant germs. PAS, of itself, has some power against the multiplication of TB germs, but at present its main value seems to be in combination with streptomycin.

The doctor is the one to decide whether or not drugs should be used in the treatment of each patient. However, there are two severe forms of the disease for which the use of streptomycin is almost invariably indicated: tuberculous meningitis and military tuberculosis. Both forms of the disease were practically 100 per cent fatal before the discovery and use of streptomycin.

So far there is no "sure cure" or "magic cure" for tuberculosis, in the form of a drug or otherwise. The discovery of a drug which will kill TB germs swiftly and surely, once they attack a patient, lies in the future. At the same time, progress made in that direction within the past decade holds out every hope that such a drug may be found.

This column is sponsored in the interest of better health by the Terrell County TB and Health Association.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Should a married woman sign important documents with her own given name or use her husband's first name? It "Junior" or "Senior" legally part of your name? Should you sign your middle name or initial? Is "Mr." or "Mrs." part of a legal signature? Lawyers find that people are often at a loss to know how to sign their names to legal documents. And, while signature discrepancies ultimately may be straightened out, the process can be expensive.

In legal effect, a name is used merely as one method of distinguishing one person from another. Under the Common Law, since very early times, a legal name has consisted of one Christian name or given name, and one surname which is the family name. Generally, use of both of such names is necessary for legal identification. The law does not pay too much attention to the middle name or initial. However, although the use of the middle name or initial is not required, it is wise to use it since it may be important for identification in some cases.

According to attorneys, married women have more difficulty with their signatures than most other people. When a girl marries, she of course, takes her husband's name. Thus Mary Lou Jones legally becomes Mary Lou Brown when she marries James E. Brown. But, in practice, she usually does not stop there — she uses his full name as her own, signing herself as Mrs. James E. Brown, instead of Mary L. Brown (or Mary Lou Brown) which is correct. Can this apparently minor error in Mrs. Brown's signature cause any trouble? Let us assume that the Brown's decide to sell their home which they have owned for fifteen years, and move to Oregon. Five years pass, and their former home is now owned by George Smith, who has made a deal to sell it at a nice profit, in checking the title of the property, the name "Mrs. James E. Brown" turns up in Smith abstract, as it appears on the deed by which James and Mary sold their home.

For the title to be clear, the land records must show that the Mrs. James E. Brown who sold the house and lot was the same identical person as the Mary L. Brown or Mrs. James E. Brown whose name appears on the deed conveying the property to the Browns years before.

In order that the purchaser may be safe, lawyers and courts must not overlook the possibility that they may be two different persons. If so, the first Mrs. Brown may have died leaving heirs who have not yet relinquished their interest in the home. Other possibilities would present serious implications also.

Proof of the identity in this case could involve tracing the Browns through several states, or other methods equally or more expensive and time consuming. While waiting for this proof, George Smith might lose his opportunity to take a profit. The intended purchaser may have to begin anew his search for a suitable family shelter. The Browns may be out time and money in correcting the discrepancy. In this situation, the "minor" variation in Mary's signature has resulted in trouble for everyone involved.

Paradoxically enough, other married women feel that their maiden surname is still legal and continue to use it. For instance, a wife may register her automobile in Dancing furnished diversion for the evening.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and cold drinks were served.

About fifty of the high school set were in attendance and all of the high school teachers were invited guests.

her maiden name instead of her married name. This is not in compliance with the law requiring a car to be registered in the name of the owner. Her maiden surname is gone for good, unless she is divorced and wants to resume the use of her maiden name. Then it may be returned to her by a court order.

The law does not consider "Junior" or "Senior" a significant part of the name, as regards identification. However, it will not be incorrect to add such terms to your signature, if you wish. Similarly, "Mr." or "Mrs." are not legally important or necessary.

Honoring Mrs. Campbell Kerr, recent bride, her cousin, Mrs. Bernard Kerr, and her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Joe Kerr, Jr., and Miss Betty Jo Kerr, entertained with an informal tea in the home of Mrs. Bernard Kerr Saturday afternoon.

The occasion also marked the first social event in the new home of Mrs. Kerr and the guests were shown through the house while waiting during the tea hours from three to six.

Joining the hostesses and the honoree in the receiving line to welcome the guests was Mrs. R. McElroy of Pecos, mother of Mrs. Campbell Kerr. All wore spring afternoon frocks and corsages of Spring blossoms in pastel shades. The honoree wore a purple linen jacket with an orange print crepe dress and a corsage of white ranunculas.

Arrangements of Dutch iris and yellow daffodils decorated the spacious living room and also centered the tea table in the dining room. Bouquets of white stock and ranunculas were in the bedrooms.

Signatures of the guests for the bride's register were secured by Misses Betty Ann Peavy, Elizabeth Brown, and Miss Mary Berk. Taking turns at serving the refreshments of tea, coffee, frosted sandwiches, assorted cookies and sandwiches were Mesdames Frank Warren, J. T. Williams, F. M. Wood, W. G. Downie, James Carole and Miss Berk. Yellow napkins bore the inscription "Pat and Campbell."

Other members of the house party were Mesdames F. M. Roark, Roger Rose, G. E. Babb, R. Dyer, Roy Deaton, W. E. Lea, and R. S. Wilkinson, assisted by Mrs. Joe Kerr, Sr., and Mrs. Mes Kerr.

THE 1953 FEDERAL BUDGET OF $95.4 BILLION IS GREATER THAN ALL THE INCOMES OF ALL THE PEOPLE WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI

THIS STARTLING PICTURE is the result of study by the National Chamber's Government Economy Program, based on figures from the U.S. Department of Commerce. Incomes of all people include all money that goes to individuals as wages, salaries, interest, rent, and dividends. Since latest Commerce Department figures available for the map were for 1950, the Chamber estimated total 1953 incomes at 15 per cent higher than those for 1950. Total 1953 spending under the President's budget would equal the incomes of all persons west of the Mississippi plus 99 per cent of the incomes in Wisconsin and all the incomes in Mississippi.

You're off in a Swirl of Power!

WE'RE willing to wager that not one person in a hundred knows what really goes on inside an automobile engine—so let's take this by easy stages.

The instant you nudge Buick's Fireball 8 Engine into action—a whole string of things starts to happen.

Eight sparks begin to crackle in well-timed sequence. Eight pistons start gliding up and down with rhythmic precision. Eight pairs of valves dance open and closed—to let fuel charges in, exhaust gases out of cylinder after cylinder.

All right, you say, what's so complex about that? Can't anyone build an engine that does this to perfection?

Well, we'd better add, these things happen at the rate of more than 10,000 times per mile—and that's 100 times per second at 35 miles an hour!

So—it's important to know that Buick uses a deep-breathing valve-in-head design that shoots a fuel charge in—cleans exhaust gases out—in a hurry.

It's important to know that all the power released by the fuel concentrates its driving force right on the head of each Buick piston. (Everyone who has recently built "new" high-compression engines copied this "Buick first.")

But most important of all—Buick adds one more twist which others still haven't copied.

Every charge of fuel rushing into a Buick engine becomes a twisting, swirling, high-compressed ball that flashes with sudden, consuming completeness the instant the spark sets it afire.

And to add this all up: clean, complete combustion—10,000 times per mile—is the secret of getting more power—more miles—from each gallon of gasoline.

So we're not simply using picture words when we tell you that Buick—and only Buick—has a FIREBALL ENGINE—or that you're off in a swirl of power with one of these high-powered performers under the hood.

1952 has brought a lot of sparkling new improvements which you'll want to see and admire when you come to our showrooms.

But the thrill of thrills is still what you and a Buick—and a Fireball 8 Engine—can do out on the road. When do you want to try a sample?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

A Digest of GOOD IDEAS for Planning, Building, Decorating and Maintaining Your Home

Brought to you each week by Sally and Johnny O'Mala

BUILD IT NOW

Get ready to enjoy more Outdoor Living this summer

There are a lot of things that you can do right now to make next summer a lot more comfortable and enjoyable. You can build that lawn furniture you need so much last summer; you can lay a flagstone or brick terrace; mend old, or erect new fences; build a barbecue; screen a porch; put up an arbor or trellis. All that you do now means more time to enjoy it next summer. More than that, the more you do yourself, the more enjoyment you will get. You can save money, planning carefully, and doing most of the work yourself, you can have a complete outdoor living room at amazingly little cost.

Here's an IDEA for next summer

OUTSIDE STORAGE CLOSET

Build it by the back door or alongside the garage. This outside storage unit holds garden tools and supplies, provides all-weather storage for outdoor furniture, solves dozens of other where-to-keep-it problems.

BARBECUE SHELTER

Even the simplest kind of a shelter will double the pleasure and utility of your outdoor barbecue. Not only does it protect from wind and rain, but it also provides welcome shade. Combined with a paved terrace, it creates a real outdoor living room.

BUILD THIS LAWN TABLE AND BENCH YOURSELF

This all-in-one lawn table and bench is easy to build yourself. All the material you will require for a table 5 feet long is listed below and available at your local lumber dealer.

PART	PINE REQUIRED
A	2 pcs. 2" x 4" 2'-4"
B	4 pcs. 2" x 6" 2'-8"
C	2 pcs. 2" x 4" 5'-8"
D	4 pcs. 2" x 4" 1'-8"
E	2 pcs. 2" x 4" 4'-4"
F	6 pcs. 2" x 4" 5'-8"
G	5 pcs. 2" x 6" 5'-8"
H	2 pcs. 2" x 4" 6'-0"

The only tools you will need are a hammer and saw (and screw-driver, if you put it together with screws).

Lowest priced in its field

This beautiful new Stylized De Luxe 2-Door Sedan — like many Chevrolet models — lists for less than any comparable model in its field. Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.

4-WAY ENGINE LUBRICATION
Chevrolet's exclusive engine lubricating system supplies exactly the right kind and amount of lubrication to each moving part.

CAST IRON ALLOY PISTONS
The same material as the cylinder block, pistons expand and contract at same rate. This reduces wear, lowers oil consumption.

SAFETY PLATE GLASS ALL AROUND
Chevrolet alone in its field gives you safety plate glass in windshield and all windows, for a clearer, truer all-round view.

POWERGLIDE AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION
Simpler with fewer parts to wear. Smoother — no complicated intermediate gears. Optional on De Luxe models at extra cost.

MOST POWERFUL VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
Teamed with Powerglide is the most powerful valve-in-head engine in its field and an outstanding performer in any field!

No other car in Chevrolet's field offers you a single one of these features. Yet you'll find many of them America's most costly cars. Here's proof that you value ahead with Chevrolet . . . again in 1952 the lowest-priced line in its field! Come in and look it over!
