LISTEN TO LUKE

Well, whether we like it or not, whether it is the thing to be done or not — we have had a display of every kind of weather imaginable this week, except rain and the disastrous type of winds that have done an untold amount of damage in two Texas cities, and certainly have been most heart-breaking to the families of those whose lives were taken, and to the families that lost all of their belongings.

Sanderson had its share of dust then scorching, sultry days with no wind, and then Wednesday morning we have very cold weather that put many back into the dark recesses of closets searching for a little heavier clothing. But we don't mind the wind if it would blow up some rain clouds instead of tornadoes or nothing, and we wouldn't mind the dust, if the rain would come to settle it, and we wouldn't mind the cold weather if it would rain, but what we don't like is the lack of rain in this section.

Teachers of the Lakeview school at San Angelo deserve praise for the manner in which they handled the precarious situation when the tornado hit there last Monday. All the children were saved from serious injury by the calm and timely thoughtfulness of the teachers in a terribly frustrating situation.

Just in case any of you parents are wondering what goes on at the two local diamonds several afternoons each week, we would suggest that you come down and see. Little league baseball has gone into full swing and is being received by the boys with extreme enthusiasm. They are going for baseball like the traditional ducks after water.

Those who have backed and are sponsoring the sport are working with the boys because they think the boys will enjoy it and the parents will appreciate it. We hope they are justified in their thinking. Most all of the playing equipment has come in and the caps and jerseys have been ordered and will be in a few days. All of this will cost money and the sponsors are now trying to raise the money. If any of you parents think that your boy will receive $1 or $5 or whatever worth of good from this activity, those who are backing it, would appreciate you dropping in with your contribution.

Much could be written along this line, but if you need any convincing come out with your boy the next time he goes to play and see how much he enjoys it. Then if it's not worthy of your help, they don't elicit it in any way.

We happened to wander off to our neighboring city to the north last week end and saw some local area girls performing in a very good display of "rodeowomanship" at the "All-Girl" rodeo. We were proud of the fact that Sanderson and Terrell County were better represented in numbers in the various arena events, than any of our neighbors. And as far as competition goes, we were very well represented in that department also, from the queen's contest on up. The girls put on a fine show and we enjoyed it.

Trading Post In Big Bend Park Now Re-Opened

Re-opening of the old Hot Springs trading post in the Big Bend National Park has been announced by the Big Bend Park officials. The old trading post was started in 1909 by J. O. Langford, and has been in operation at this location almost continuously since that time. More recently it was operated by Mrs. Margaret Smith, "Senora Maggie" of considerable fame for her friendly working relationships with the Mexican families across the Rio Grande. Mrs. Smith gave up the trading post last January, and it is now to be re-opened by Peter Koch as operator. Mr. Koch, nationally known for his photographic work in the southwest, and for his travelog pictures on Big Bend National Park which he has shown to large audiences throughout the United States, will manage the store of traditional Texas-border style. The old cabins will be renovated and opened to the public for over-night use.

Hot Springs is located on the banks of the Rio Grande where Tornillo Creek enters the river about four miles up stream from Boquillas, Mexico. It is a beautiful location with excellent views of the Sierra del Carmen Mountains in Mexico, and in a very interesting geological setting with curious banded and twisted rock strata.

Park service officials report that old bath house will not be re-opened at this time after its closing by Public Health officials over a year ago. The river has badly damaged the bath house. Both the upper and lower hot springs however, will remain in their natural condition and will continue to be accessible to the public if they wish to visit them. Many fishermen, photographers and those seeking rest and relaxation away from the crowding of today's civilization, come to Hot Springs for vacations, and it is particularly suitable as a winter resort. "It is a lovely spot with a desirable winter climate and plenty of shade for visitors," Park officials report. "This is a beginning on a Park Service program to provide a public use area along the Rio Grande," Park Superintendent Lon Garrison stated. "And we hope eventually to have a larger area for visitor use, probably at the Old Graham ranch location with many cabins, a swimming pool with natural warm water, and many other visitor facilities. In the meantime, until this larger development comes, Hot Springs will continue to provide services for park visitors in an interesting historical location, and with attention to preserving and continuing the old Texas border type of store and type of merchandise."

In the third go-round, Mrs. Riggs roped and tied in 19.5 to win third place. Neither of these contestants placed in the average winners. In the first go-round of the team tying, Riggs and Smith placed first with 30.4 and Mrs. Bobby Walsh, teamed with Mary Dale Miller, won third place with 43.1. The Riggs-Smith team placed third in the average.

In the first go-round of the ribbon roping, Mrs. Smith placed 4th with a time of 18 seconds. In the second event, Mrs. Riggs placed 3rd with 19.9 and placed 2nd in the finals with 66.7. Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Walsh were entered in all the roping events and in the barrel races and all of the local contestants turned in fine performances in all of their events. Mrs. Riggs was arena director of the show and Floyd Smith and Jack Riggs were judges in the events.

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE

No doubt about it...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.

Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Load-master engines in heavy-duty models... the remarkable gasoline economy... the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction.

And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

MRS. WILL J. MURRAH

Rev. H. Conger Jones of Del Rio was the officiant for the wedding of Miss Judith Ann Gibson and Airman 1-c William J. Murrah Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Sanderson. A bit of sentiment was noted in the fact that Rev. Jones had officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Gibson of Ft. Worth and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tol Murrah of Sanderson.

A white satin-covered altar was arranged for the double-ring Episcopal ceremony with the couple kneeling on a white satin pillow. A single Calla lily in a vase and a white candle was on each side of the large styrafoam cross. White Esther Reed daisies were on the altar rail which was twined in greenery with a spray of stephanotis in the center. Branched candleabra were in the background and tall floor baskets filled with Calla lilies in the foreground of the altar space. Esther Reed daisies and Plumosa fern were tied in the bows and streamers of white satin ribbons which marked the pews.

The candles were lighted by Tommy Gibson of Fort Worth, a cousin of the bride.

Miss Margaret Gregory sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me" with Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson providing organ accompaniment and playing the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace with fitted bodice, featuring a jeweled neckline and long petal-pointed sleeves. The three floor-length skirts of nylon tulle over satin were attached to deep yoke of the lace and wore a crinoline. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a headband of white satin leaves and seed pearls. An orchid centered her bouquet of stephanotis and white satin ribbons.

Miss Claudia Gibson, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow net over taffeta and she carried a bouquet of green Esther Reed daisies. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Landon Rose of Sanderson, and Miss Mary Robin Murrah of Pandale, cousins of the bride and groom, and Paula Kay Mayfield, a cousin of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were yellow with white and headpieces of yellow net and seed pearls. They carried yellow Esther Reed daisies.

Danelle Murrah of Sanderson was the flower girl and Travis Williams was the ring bearer.

Sam Murrah of Pandale, cousin of the groom, Dudley Harrison of Sanderson, and Tommy Gibson of Fort Worth were the groomsmen with Dan Murrah II of Pandale, cousin of the groom, serving as best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Legion Hall. White stock and Esther Reed daisies formed the centerpiece on the lace-covered table. A similar arrangement was on the mantle and baskets of Calla lilies on each side of the fireplace. Mrs. Dan Murrah, II, secured the signatures of the guests for the bride's book. Members of the house party were Mesdames Hugh Rose, John T. Williams, John Harrison, C. P. Peavy, R. E. Dyer, Ed Lacy, J. W. Pate, Dudley Harrison, C. G. Riggin, of Sanderson; Mesdames Jack Fokes and Clarence Bushager of Del Rio; Mrs. Dan Murrah, II, of Pandale.

Mrs. G. H. Mayfield, aunt of the bride, served punch from the silver bowl at one end of the table. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow roses and green leaves and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Sam Draper, of Del Rio.

The couple are on a wedding trip to New Mexico and Arizona. For her going-away costume, Mrs. Murrah chose a grey taffeta suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. They will reside in Fort Worth where he is stationed at Carswell AFB.

The bride, the granddaughter of Mrs. Judith Streigler of Sanderson, is a graduate of the Galena Park High School and, after attending the University of Houston for one year, she later graduated from the Twentieth Century School of Commerce in Houston.

Mr. Murrah is a graduate of the Sanderson High School and engaged in ranching until he entered the military service two and one-half years ago. He is a grandson of Mrs. Landon Rose and the late Landon Rose of Sanderson and Mrs. J. R. Murrah of Del Rio.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bushager and son, Joe Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fokes, all of Del Rio; Tommy Gibson of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murrah, I, Mrs. Sam Dameron, Sam and Mary Robin Murrah of Pandale; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brashear of Fort Stockton; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brady of Alpine; Rev. and Mrs. H. Conger Jones of Del Rio; Mrs. Virgil Ogle of Wink; Miss Ginger Magill of San Antonio.

The bride's chosen colors of yellow and green were noted in the floral decorations and appointments for the tea.

An arrangement of summer flowers and greenery centered the tea table which was covered with a grey linen cloth and yellow and green tapers were in silver holders. Lime frosted punch, cake squares iced in yellow and yellow and green, mints were served.

In the receiving line to welcome the guests were Mrs. Williams, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Claude H. Gibson, of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Tol Murrah, mother of the bridegroom-elect. Miss Gibson's dress redingote styled, was of white sheer cotton over yellow and with it she wore a long white coat with a small Peter Pan collar, set-in belt of embroidery and buttoned to the neck. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride's sister, Miss Claudia Gibson of Fort Worth, presided at the bride's book and was assisted by Miss Mary Landon Rose, a cousin of the honoree.

Taking alternate turns at serving were Mesdames James Kerr, John Harrison, Ed Lacy, T. R. Arrington, Hugh Rose, G. H. Mayfield and R. S. Wilkinson. All members of the house party wore white carnation corsages.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Tol Murrah were hosts for the rehearsal dinner, served in their home. The bride and groom exchanged gifts and presented gifts to the members of the wedding party.
