AUSTIN.— Texas politics, long brewing, boiled over with the announcement of Reuben Senterfitt that he intends to run for governor next year.

That puts the 1954 campaigning actively in motion.

It means that prospective candidates for governor must seriously consider making up their minds now about next year's plans.

Most of them have been waiting for Governor Allan Shivers to declare his intentions.

But Senterfitt, by his announcement, placed himself in the forefront of gubernatorial candidates — for the time being at least.

What will he do if Shivers comes out for re-election? Said Senterfitt: "I'm just going to wait and see what he does, and then I'll talk about that."

Senterfitt placed himself in this position: If Shivers runs again, Senterfitt can get out of the race — or stay in, depending on how he feels about it. If Shivers decides not to run, Senterfitt has a head start on the other candidates.

Obviously, Senterfitt thinks Shivers will not be a candidate for governor next year.

Reporters asked Shivers for his comment on the situation. The reply was, "No comment."

Senterfitt has served two terms as speaker of the house. Conservative, quiet and an able organizer, Senterfitt, who is serving his seventh term as a representative of the San Saba district, is highly regarded by fellow-members of the Legislature.

Others who have been named as possible candidates for governor include Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey, former district judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin, Senator A. M. Alkin, Jr., of Paris, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, Mayor Roy Hofheinz of Houston, Congressman Lloyd Bentsen, Jr., of McAllen, and secretary of the navy R. B. Anderson of Vernon.

There were developments also in the prospective race for U. S. Senator.

Lyndon Johnson, the incumbent, has visited widely over the state. He has said that he expects no major opponent next year.

But Jack Porter of Houston, Republican national committeeman, has promised that there will be someone running against Johnson.

Several prospects have been mentioned for the senatorial race, including Congressman Martin Dies and Robert Stripling, former chief investigator for the House Un-American Activities committee.

Reliable inside information is, however, that the anti-Johnson people have just about settled on their man. They are working behind the scenes and preparing a smash announcement.

They think the candidate is a natural who will appeal strongly to the voters.

Everything is set for the visit of President Eisenhower to the home of Governor Shivers at Sharyland, near Mission.

Arriving on October 17, the president will remain there until the 19th, when he will attend dedication ceremonies of Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande.

President Ruiz Cortines of Mexico will also take part in the celebration.

Half a million acres of the Texas tidelands will go on the auction block December 1.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles says that the sale will be bigger than "anything we have ever done before."

Giles asked the oil companies about the land on which they would like to make bids. Fourteen companies responded, asking that 650,000 acres be put on sale.

Giles' recommendation, approved by the School Land Board, was that 500,000 acres be auctioned.

There were two changes in the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Governor Shivers appointed Garland A. Smith, who had been casualty commissioner, to be life commissioner and chairman of the board.

Smith replaces George Butler, who died recently.

Taking Smith's place as casualty commissioner will be J. Bryon Saunders of Tyler, a practicing attorney who will resign as chairman of the state board of public welfare.

Quit talking about a recession, Governor Shivers advised Texans at a speech in Dallas.

There is more danger that Americans will talk themselves into a depression than there is that the economy itself will bog down, the governor told an audience of 700.

Texas' industrial growth will continue at ever-increasing rates, Sanderson holds etaoSEHRADO the governor predicted. The Gulf Coast is becoming the nation's chemical center, and Dallas will be the nation's textile manufacturing center, Shivers said.

He cited other signs to indicate that the state is in good financial condition.

Three new members were appointed to the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

They were Henry Coffield, Marfa ranchman; Henry Le Blanc, Sr. of Port Arthur and Robert Frenshley of Houston.

These men succeed Richard M. Kleberg, Sr., of Kingsville, Shelby Kritser of Amarillo and V. F. Neuhaus of McAllen.

Vaughn Bryant resigned as executive director of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission.

Neville Penrose of Fort Worth, chairman of the commission, accepted the resignation "with regret." Bryant gave "financial reasons" for leaving the job. He did not announce his plans.

Bryant set up his office so that all correspondence was written in English and Spanish interchangeably. All members of the staff speak and write Spanish.

Former Governor Dan Moody suffered an attack of acute indigestion in Federal Court at Alexandria, Va.

Carried from the courtroom on a stretcher, Moody said, "I've gone out of a lot of court rooms, but I've never gone out like this."

Moody went to Virginia to be defense counsel for Jack Cowart, former agriculture department official charged with receiving compensation from a company doing business with the government.

Emanuel Coutlakis of San Antonio lost in the state supreme court his efforts to get a union organizer's permit.

Representing the International Fur and Leather Workers Union, Coutlakis sought to compel Secretary of State Howard Carney to issue the permit.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd obtained injunctions against Coutlakis and the union, preventing attempts to organize tannery workers in San Antonio.

Shepperd charged the union was "Communist-dominated."

Cigarette, liquor, and wine tax stamp sales brought the state $4,183,567 during September.

Treasurer Jesse James said the revenue was less than that collected in September of last year, but higher than this year's August revenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Haley and baby daughter returned home last week from Houston where the baby had medical examinations and treatment for two weeks. She is much improved from a kidney infection, gaining eleven ounces while she was away.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh Modern Art Takes a Licking! Did you know we had a real artist in town? Yes sir! Handy Jackson was a contributor to the Sculpture Exhibition at the Centerville Fair last week. His work was streaky pink and curved all around - sort of streamlined. Caused quite a stir. Nobody was sure what it was supposed to represent, but some liked it and thought it was good art. Handy gave me the lowdown? "Why, it was nothing but a piece of cattle salt our cows have been lickin' at for months. I just had it mounted. Fooled a lot of folks - one fellow even wanted to buy it!" From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts" - especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing, say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other! Joe Marsh
