A NEW DAY

NOVEMBER 11, 1954

In a democracy, that is only natural. We have no militaristic tradition and we do not want one. The citizen-soldier steps forward in emergency to do his duty-doing it so heroically and faithfully, incidentally, that to date he has always turned out to be a better fighter than the hopped-up, over-drilled professionals from the totalitarian states —and then he goes back to civilian life. His war-time experiences belong with the past.

They become part of the haunting and abiding memories that go to make up our

November II is Veterans Day: a day set aside, by act of Congress and Presidential proclamation, to honor the memory of those who served in war. It has particular reference to the living—for it is on Memorial Day that we pay our tribute to the men who never came back—and unless the day is to be a complete mockery it must include a renewed awareness of our obligation to the disabled ex-soldier. The Disabled American point to discharge that obligation in the attitude that we carry over into our regular workaday routine, life for the disabled veteran will be a good deal easier and happier.

There could be no better time than Veterans Day for us to renew our awareness of

ANNUAL TURKEY SHOOT SUNDAY

The annual turkey shoot sponsored by the Sanderson Volunteer Fire Department will be at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the ange east of town near the old highway maintenance barn. The turkeys will weigh between 12 and 15 pounds.

All sportsmen and gun enthusiasts are urged to be present and try to get a tukey to aid the local firemen in their annual fund-raising endeavor.

Those desiring to participate in the shooting events will be asked to furnish their own guns and ammunition,

Every precaution possible will be observed to prevent any accidents which would spoil the perfect record of previous years.

The Panthers did not let up in the third quarter which produced a 48-yard run by Mitchell; a 59yard run by Allison and another pass good for 46 yards and another score.

The final tally was on a 15-yard run by Huckaby in the fourth period and Allison converted one of the extra points.

In line smashing and off-tackle plays Sanderson linemen and the backfield were an even match for the Panthers who found their only gains in passing and outrunning the Eagles.

They used wide end runs with lateral options and effective blocking to get around the defensive ends and showed no mercy in the use of their fleet backfield.

Sanderson's hard-charging and effective-blocking line worked offensively against the Panthers but the Eagle ball-toters were not Juniors End Season able to get beyond the Panther defensive men to break into scoring position.

Fort Stockton gave their second strings a little work-out in the final period, but called upon the first stringers to stem a scoring threat by the Eagles and to also punt on the fourth downs, when their second stringers failed to make necessary yardage. The first stringers went into the ball game in the final minutes of play to put place in district competition. the finishing touches on the lopsided score.

Sanderson made nine first downs to 13 for Fort Stockton; the local boys completed three of 12 passes and had two intercepted while the Panthers completed two of six and had two intercepted.

TODAY electric bedcovering pre-warms your bed at the turn of a dial

No more "cold sheet shock" . . . no more huddling under mounds of cover when you sleep the modern electric way. You just set the controls of your electric blanket or sheet before you retire and your bed is warm when you get into it. And it stays the same even warmth all night long, because your electric blanket or sheet automatically adjusts to weather changes. See the new electric bed covering at your appliance dealer's or our office now. Electric blankets as low as $39.95; electric sheets, $24.95.
