LISTEN TO LUKE

A move is being discussed on the part of the city with the idea of having a public meeting in the near future to discuss what the public thinks of the possibility of incorporating the city of Sanderson.

One of the most active citizens bringing this question to the people of Sanderson is Buddy Sudduth. He says that he has had the opportunity for such a meeting by a large number of citizens. Mr. Sudduth pointed out that there are advantages and disadvantages, and the purpose of this proposed meeting is to discuss both sides and what the people think will be best for the community.

This column is dedicated to the interests of this area. It shall our purpose to assist in any way that can prove beneficial to the community. It will be noted that this move is being made for an open and above-board discussion. There is no inclination on the part of those interested to cover anyone or to get a small group to "railroad" their plans. It is felt that the majority wants to feel they need.

We will not attempt at this writing to point out redeeming features for or against the proposition. We do want everybody to get into a frank discussion so that something worthwhile may be accomplished.

Sanderson should be awake to any of its possibilities to gain recognition as a health center and a place for perfect retirement. We have a young couple here now who are to be with us for some time with the idea of gaining back health or better health. This man is leaving from a good job in Houston and is here because of his health. He and his charming wife have been loud in their praise for the improved health and his fast recuperation.

Not only Sanderson, but this entire section of West Texas, could much better by letting the people know what we have here for recuperative powers. We should let those people feel welcome and let them know we recognize them as a part of our community. Where on earth can people find more hospitable people than in West Texas and of course our altitude and year-round mild climate makes this a perfect place for vacationists who want and need relaxation.

Next year holds little promise of the usual political pot-boiling. There are so few local officials to be filled this year, it is not likely that there will be much activity. Only the newspapers suffer from the loss of political advertising. Maybe we can garner a cup of coffee from those who don't like any politicking expense this year.

DROUTH DISASTER LOANS ARE AVAILABLE FOR SMALL BUSINESSES AFFECTED IN TEXAS

The Small Business Administration is now prepared to make drouth disaster business loans in officially designated drouth areas. Congressman J. T. Rutherford of the 16th Congressional District has been informed.

Under the law enacted by the last session of Congress, the SBA

The Small Business Administration is now prepared to make drouth disaster business loans in officially designated drouth areas. Congressman J. T. Rutherford of the 16th Congressional District has been informed.

Under the law enacted by the last session of Congress, the SBA

has been given authority to make drouth disaster business loans at 3 percent interest to firms able to show they have actually suffered economic injury attributable to the drouth.

Rutherford has been told that all of the 254 counties in Texas, except, have been designated drouth areas.

Businesses may show their injuries due to the drouth conditions in the form of comparative operating statements, excessively large accounts receivable, a decline in sales volume because of the drouth or similar information.

Loans may be for a term of 10 years, and the proceeds must be, for the most part, confined to working capital. However, refinancing of indebtedness (except bank loans) on which delinquencies are directly attributable to the drouth, is permissible, according to the information Congressman Rutherford received from SBA authorities.

SBA officials said no drouth disaster business loans will be made for the expansion of facilities, and that the collateral requirements are the same as for other types of disaster loans. Neither will loans be made available when credit is otherwise available or to any business established during a drouth period.

SBA officials said no drouth disaster business loans will be made for the expansion of facilities, and collateral requirements Rutherford received from SBA authorities.

The authorities told Rutherford farmers and stockmen are not eligible for drouth disaster business loans. They should apply to the Farmers Home Administration for assistance, just as in the past.

Wendell Barnes, Administrator of SBA, said that banks in the drouth area have been urged to participate in the program. Barnes pointed out that the loan applications should not be made to Congressmen or other public officials, but to local banks participating in the program or directly to the Small Business Administration.

TURKEY SHOOT SUNDAY, NOV. 13

The Sanderson Volunteer Firemen planned a turkey shoot for Sunday, November 13 at their meeting Monday night. The turkey shoot is an annual affair for raising funds for the department.

Turkeys have already been contracted and are of a size worthy of the efforts of local marksmen. The rifle range will be 100 yards as usual with the turkey's head as the target.

There will also be competitive shooting with .22-calibre rifles at a close range at paper targets. A turkey will go to the high score shooter and $10 will be charged for each round of contestants. The contestants at this range will put up their proportionate share of $10 for entry and this contest is open to all entries with a limit on the number of wins possible for any one person to two turkeys.

There will be ladies' and men's separate contests as well as any matched shoot.

Pistol targets will be fired at late in the afternoon.

An added feature this year will be the gift of $35.00 worth of groceries as an attendance prize. Each person shooting on the 100-yard range is eligible and the winner of the prize must be present to claim his reward. The groceries will be given away at 5 o'clock.

Each shooter is requested to make arrangements for his own gun and ammunition before the shoot as the price charged by the firemen to shoot does not include the gun or ammunition.

As always in the past, every effort will be made to see that contestants observe every safety precaution in the handling of the firearms. Parents are asked to please keep their children well back of the firing line and not under the elbows of the shooters or at the side of the table at the firing line.

Tests will be run in the near future to possibly extend the shooting to the use of scopes, a practice which has been prohibited in the past. Further information will be disclosed in the near future.

GIRL SCOUT FUND DRIVE BEGINS SOON

Within the next few days, citizens of Terrell County will receive a letter requesting contributions for the maintenance of the local Girl Scout organizations.

This move was decided by the Girl Scout Council at a meeting Monday night.

Mrs. T. R. Arrington, president of the council, asked that the people of the county remember that it has been over three years since funds were solicited for the local Girl Scout units and that the treasury is now down to where additional funds are needed. "This money," Mrs. Arrington stated, "is to be used for the maintenance of five local Girl Scout units, comprised of approximately 50 girls and headed by able, competent and well-qualified leaders for every unit." None of the money, she said, would be used for any purpose other than supplying arts and crafts material, and other related items necessary for the carrying out of Girl Scout activities on a local basis.

The wide range of age of the girls and their diversified activities pertaining to Scouting has been increased this year by the addition of interested girls and the acquisition of willing leaders for the various troops, the president said, and concluded her request for whole-hearted cooperation in the fund drive with the statement: "Only through your support in our drive for funds, can the leaders plan and carry out an instructive, helpful and recreational program designed for the girls."

Herbert Brown is treasurer of the council and all checks should be mailed to him.

WOOD NEW HEAD LOCAL LEGION POST

F. M. Wood, manager of the local ASC office in Terrell County and a rancher, was installed as commander of the Clarence Hallie Mulkey Post of the American Legion at a regular meeting at the Legion Hall last Thursday night.

Other new officers present to be installed were Troy Druse, finance officer; Sam Carta, sergeant-at-arms; and Gene Litton, member of the executive committee. The adjutant-elect Walter Downie and first vice-commander Walter Pauli have indicated that they would not be able to serve and their posts will be filled by the executive committee and submitted to the membership at the next regular meeting.

Commander Wood stated that he was inexperienced in the office to which he had been placed, but would do his best to revive interest and plan for programs that would create new interest in the organization.

The regular meetings of the post are on the second Thursday night of each month. A drive for new members is being waged at the present and it is hoped that the membership may be built up along with the interest and enthusiasm, Wood said.

SWOPE BROS. LOW BIDDER ON FM 1217 PROJECT

According to County Judge R. S. Wilkinson, Swope Bros. contractors, were low bidders on the proposed construction of 10 miles of FM 1217, filling the gap of paved highway between Dryden and Sheffield. Their bid was $167,000, according to Wilkinson.

The contract has not yet been awarded.

One hundred and ten workdays have been allocated for the project, but no time for starting has yet been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Harrell and their families visited with relatives in El Paso last week-end.

MCCAMEY DOWNS EAGLES BY 39-6; WINK TO PLAY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The McCamey Badgers still loom as the big gun in District 5-A football though their defeat of Sanderson last Friday night was not surprising to the local fans. The Sanderson Eagles lost by a score of 39-6.

McCamey's first TD came in the first quarter and was their only tally of that frame. The second period yielded two more scores for the Badgers, both on long runs.

The Badgers also scored three TDs in the third period, all but the last on long runs.

Sanderson's score was in the final frame by Pres Escamilla who got loose on a 47-yard run.

The Badgers held their top-spot rating in the win over Sanderson but fell short in scoring honors to the Reagan County Owls who led Marfa to a 61-0 defeat. The Owls also contenders for the title and pre-season favorites, are not drawing off their big guns in the wins they are able to stack up and the Eagles can expect plenty of competition when they meet the Owls later in the season.

The Wink Wildcats, also district title contenders, will be here Friday night to play the Eagles in a conference game. It will also be the night for the Badger-Owl fray in McCamey, a possible decisive game for both teams.

The game here will get underway at 8 p. m.

MARTIN BODKIN, JR. INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bodkin went to Del Rio Monday morning after receiving word that their son, Martin, Jr., had received injuries in an automobile accident in that city about 6 a. m.

Mr. Bodkin will be hospitalized for several days for treatment for fractured ribs and multiple abrasions and contusions about the forehead, according to reports, and his mother remained at his bedside. He is a T&NO operator.

Bodkin apparently went to sleep while driving and smashed into a trailer-truck loaded with hay. The truck was parked near the curb at the time of the accident, investigating officers reported.

ALBERT APPEL IMPROVING

The condition of Albert Appel who is hospitalized in Fort Stockton, continues to improve, according to reports.

Mr. Appel developed pneumonia following an appendectomy over two weeks ago and has been seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gates returned home Sunday night from Houston where they had visited with their son, A. B. Gates, Jr., and family and with other relatives.

Plans For US90 Extension Talked In Tucson, Ariz.

A Texas delegation attended a meeting last Wednesday in Tucson, Arizona, which seeks to extend the U.S. 90 Highway designation to San Diego. The group was headed by John L. Dodson, Jr., of Del Rio, president of the Travel U.S. 90 Highway Association. Gene Hillier, Alpine, chairman of the association's extension committee, B. Y. Walker of Alpine and Peter K. Schaefer, vice-president of the association. Sixty-five representatives of cities and towns in four states attended the meeting.

The plans for procedure were adopted at the meeting and the U.S. 90 Association was elected to lead the work. A committee with C. Edgar Goyette, manager of the Tucson, Calif. as chairman, was elected to work with the association.

President Dodson expressed great optimism concerning the project and outlined the advantages such a designation would bring to communities on U.S. 90. He also read telegrams from Florida, Mississippi, and from the larger cities in Texas.

"We are all agreed that this extension will not only be of great advantage to the communities on the proposed route but also to the areas and states involved. Perhaps the greatest advantage will be to the motorist faced by a confusing maze of highway numbers. It makes his transcontinental trip from West Texas to the Pacific. There seems to be no reason why such a condition should continue to exist. We can rely on the numbering committee to look at the facts but it will be up to all of us to see that these facts are presented to the proper state officials," said Dodson.

On the U.S. 90 extension committee for the state of Texas are Dudley Baker of Columbus and E. W. Pierson of Sanderson in addition to those attending the meeting.

U.S. 90 now runs from Jacksonville, Fla., to Van Horn, Texas, and the promoting organization for its eastern section is known as the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Association. The highway links such cities as New Orleans, Mobile, Houston and San Antonio. Texas citizens have been seeking the extension to the West Coast since 1946.

Koch explained that the approval of the highway commissions in all states on the proposed route is necessary, and that when these are secured, the proposal can go to the numbering committee of the Association of State Highway Officials, which meets in New Orleans in December. Commissions in Arizona and Texas have already approved the extension, and approval is being sought in New Mexico and California.

California representatives at the meeting proposed two routes and caucused to agree on one that would be proposed for the extension. A resolution favoring California state route 98 was adopted. This route goes from Yuma to Mexicali and follows the border at a minimum of two miles inside California to a junction with U.S. 80 at the foot of the mountains.

Under the extension plans US90 would hit the coast somewhere between San Diego, a t either Chula Vista or National City.

'A Man Called Peter' Booked for Oct. 26-27

The management of the Princess Theatre announced this week the booking of "A Man Called Peter" for presentation on Wednesday and Thursday, October 26 and 27. This picturization of Catherine Marshall's biographical novel, which has been on the best-seller list since it was first published in 1951, has been hailed as one of the most unusual pictures to come out of Hollywood in a long time.

Richard Todd and Jean Peters are the stars in this story of Peter Marshall, the Scottish immigrant who came to America, dug ditches, stoked furnaces, corrected proofs on a Southern newspaper, was staked to $50 a month by his Bible class for his first two years at Columbia Theological Seminary at Decatur, Ga., preached in Covington, Atlanta and within 10 years of his arrival in the United States became the minister of the New York Avenue Church in Washington, D. C., where eight presidents, including Abraham Lincoln, worshipped.

Peter Marshall, known as "the charming young Scot with the silver tongue," wound up as the elected chaplain of the U. S. Senate and was known as the conscience of the Senate. The picture has the tender love touches with every possible advantage in talent and technique. The show is one of the hits of the decade, according to Carlton White, and furnishes one of the best types of entertainment for the entire family.
