LISTEN TO LUKE

Just learned this week of the death of one of our compatriots, Warren, of Sierra Blanca, publisher of the Hudson County News.

Warren had devoted a life to the newspaper game, and in later years, completely absorbed in the business.

He had many hardships, both personal and in business, but because of his nature was able to overcome the reverses and stand firm at his second love, that publishing.

His column "Sand Dunes" has been talked about (cursed and adored) for many years, but his purpose, that of bringing attention to the attention of the publisher, was accomplished.

He had many hardships, both personal and in business, but because of his nature was able to overcome the reverses and stand firm at his second love, that publishing.

Money Approved For Big Bend Park Improvements

Washington — The Bureau of Budget has given approval to expenditures totaling $1,097,000 for the Big Bend National Park, Congressman J. T. Rutherford announced.

Rutherford said the amount was contained in a revised budget submitted by the National Parks Service, and was given a favorable nod by the budget authorities.

"Of course," he said, "this does not mean the funds will be available immediately, but I feel the committee and Congress will be favorably influenced by the recommendations submitted by Bureau and budget officials."

Rutherford said the money is to be used in 1956-57 according to National Parks Service officials. Some $557,000 is tabbed for roads and trails program in the Big Bend Park. The remaining $540,000 is planned for utility and housing improvements in the headquarters area of the park and for improvements of the camp grounds on the Rio Grande River.

Rutherford feels that the publicity surrounding the improvement of facilities in the Big Bend Park is certain to attract thousands of additional tourists in the future.

RUTHERFORD TELLS OF PLANS FOR SECOND TERM

Congressman J. T. Rutherford of the 16th District announced recently that he will be a candidate for re-election this year. Rutherford, 35, is seeking a second term in the House of Representatives.

Prior to winning a seat in Congress in 1954, Rutherford served six years in the Texas Legislature. He was first elected in 1948, was re-elected to the Texas House in 1950 and two years later won a State Senate seat. Then came 1954 and his winning Congressional campaign.

Congressman Rutherford's single pledge during his campaign for Congress was that he would stay in Washington and attend to business while Congress was in session and return to Texas to talk with people about their problems and issues during recess. He had an attendance mark of 99 per cent, one of the highest in Washington, and visited all of the 19 counties in his district, except Terrell County, during recess.

WINTER WEATHER CAUSES SOME STOCK DAMAGE

Winter weather which prevailed over a large part of Texas last week was relatively light in this area, but some damage was noted from the wintry blasts.

Some extensive damage was done by the cold weather to livestock on area ranches. In addition to President Eisenhower and Sen. Daniel, there was H. E. Butt, Jr., of Corpus Christi noted Baptist layman who made the main address. The fourth Texan was Conrad Hilton, owner of many of the nation's leading hotels, who was host for the annual breakfast.

Daniel also presided at other meetings being held last week during the annual Christian Action Conference sponsored by the International Council of Christian Leadership (USA). The organization sponsors weekly breakfast meetings devoted to prayer. The Senate, House, many government agencies, and business and labor groups have these breakfast meetings each week in Washington.

A daughter, their third child, was born here Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Buster G. Maples. The baby's birth weight was nine pounds and she was named Nancy Ruth.

To Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bigby of Garden City was born a son, their second child, on Wednesday, February 8. The baby, born in a Sterling City hospital, weighed six pounds and three ounces.

W. C. Cargile Develops Device for Easier Trailer Parking

W. C. Cargile has been working on and has applied for a patent on a device which is intended to facilitate the handling of trailers behind light vehicles, such as cars and pickups. The device is intended to make backing easier, primarily, Cargile stated, but it has other advantages also.

The device consists of a metal box, almost as long as the bumper, which has a reversible motor on one end and the other end contains solenoid units for the motor operation. Between the motor and the solenoid controls is a screw about 36 inches long, along which rides a block with the trailer hitch mounted on top. The block is so grooved to fit the mounting box that the pull against the hitch by a trailer will be against the box, rather than the screw. The entire box is mounted behind the bumper but bolts to the car frame.

By the pressing of buttons within the car, the trailer hitch moves to the left or right along the screw so that the tongue of the trailer is moved for easier and more accurate turning. The device, according to Cargile, will permit a vehicle operator to back up with a trailer with much more ease and greater accuracy.

EDUCATION IN SOCIALISM-COMMUNISM

Many people are not aware of the fact that all the Communist leaders, from Karl Marx to Bulganin, have declared that Socialism must be established as the first step into Communism. They have so declared repeatedly in their official textbooks, and they have followed up these declarations with Socialist action. The Communists have worked for Socialism in every country which they have infiltrated or have taken over. In fact Marxian Socialism (not Communism) exists everywhere the Reds hold power!

We call it Communism, but the economic system employed is only the first phase of Communism — which is Socialism. This fact and others on the interrelationship of Communism and Socialism are dramatized in the fifth film of "The America Adventure" educational series just produced by the National Education Program for the schools of America, for TV and other uses. The fifth film is entitled "A Look at Socialism." The interrelationship of the two major Left Wing movements is established out of their own literature and through the activities of the Socialist and Communist movements during the last 100 years.

The Record Speaks
The film on Socialism shows England's Socialist-Labor Party and the record of its administration in England from 1945 until October, 1951, to illustrate both the theory and the reality of Socialism. The Socialist-Labor Party's platform is almost identical plank for plank, with the platform published on page 145 of the Manifesto of the Communist Party (Special Centennial Edition, George Allen and Unwin, Ltd., London).

The Socialist-Labor Party said, in its centennial edition of the Manifesto: "To mark the centenary of its first publication in 1884, the Labor Party issued this important special edition of the Communist Manifesto. The Labour Party regards this statement of Marx and Engels as one of the great historical documents in socialist history, which has had an immense influence on socialism as it is expressed today in so many countries of the world."

Miserable Failure
The film on Socialism shows that at the very heart of the Socialist promise — "we'll make a paradise for the workers"—it has miserably failed. It shows that the living standard of the Socialized Englishman is about one-third as high as that of the American living under capitalism. In the sixth film, "A Look at Communism," the Russian dreamland of "a paradise for the worker" is closely examined. Socialism has progressed in Russia to the inevitable enslavement of the entire citizenry in a brutal dictatorship.

The sixth film, noting the interrelationship of Communism and Socialism, examines the difference. The difference is in theory. The film takes up one by one the three basic elements in the Communist philosophy: (1) dialectical materialism; (2) economic determinism; and (3) atheism. It is vitally necessary for our American boys and girls of high school and college age to understand these facts. Until they do, they cannot intelligently resist Communism and Socialism.

Our Own System
The seventh film of the series, "A Look at Capitalism," recognizes that there is more than one kind of "capitalism." American capitalism is unique. The European form of cartel capitalism and other forms are noted. Then the film builds the basic structure of American capitalism. The pillars are: (1) private ownership of property, (2) the profit motive, and (3) the competitive free market. How each of these elements perform in the working of the American system is shown through illustrations.

To bring capitalism down into the everyday life of everybody, this film shows Dr. Clifton Ganus, the classroom instructor of the series, buying 10 cents worth of clay. With it he molds a child's toy. When it has been baked in his oven, it sells for 39 cents. The cycle, from money (capital) to the marketing of the goods, brings into being all the elements of the great system which has lifted America's living standard so high above that of the rest of the world.

Floyd Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Riley, was brought home Sunday from Fort Stockton where he was hospitalized for treatment for several days. The child had a severe attack of tonsillitis, according to reports.

kids to keep the price up to where there will always be a surplus.

The sale of the milk or giving the milk to the kids does not help relieve the surplus, because I do not think that the kids could drink that much milk. One of the best ways to relieve the surplus is to put the cream back on it and put it back into a glass bottle like it originally comes in and people will buy more of it.

Just let Uncle Sam start putting his financial fingers into a pot and soon the pot is boiling over with a surplus.

More people than ever before, less grass and feed than ever before, less space for dairies, less milk bottles, but more milk than the dairies of the land who keep increasing their milk production know what to do with.

We would still like to have a source of outlet for surplus letterheads and envelopes.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alejandro Escamilla and the bridegroom the son of Mrs. Emilliana Vasquez and the late Alfonso Vasquez of Fort Stockton.

Rev. N. Femenia officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated in arrangements of white gladiolus and candytuft. Sprays of lemon leaves were on the altar rail and the arched entrance was entwined with huckleberry foliage with white blossoms at the top. To mark the pews, white roses and huckleberry leaves were placed in white heart-shaped containers.

Mrs. M. B. Wilson played the traditional wedding marches and was at the organ to accompany the choir and also D. L. Duke, who sang "Ave Maria".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace and satin. The fitted bodice, torso length, was of Alencon lace re-embroidered in sequins and pearls. Scallops outlined the sweetheart neckline and tiny buttons closed the bodice, which had long fitted sleeves, in the back. The skirt, embroidered in motifs similar to the lace, swept into a chapel-length train edged in lace with alternating inserts of lace and pleated nylon net. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a coronet of pearls and she carried a purple-throated orchid atop her mother-of-pearl-covered prayer book with rosary.

Preceding the bride was her cousin, Amelia Escamilla, a dainty little flower girl wearing a rose dress and half-hat similar to those of the other members of the bridal party. Her nephew, Mario Enrique AUSTIN. — An Austin district court has cleared the way for liquidation of the assets of US Trust and Guaranty Co. This means that creditors may get back at least a part of their investments from the defunct concern.

Judge Charles O. Betts ordered the company and two subsidiaries, US Automotive Service and Arkansas Fire and Marine Insurance Co., into permanent receivership. What exact percentage creditors will recover is not yet known. Rep. Bert McDaniel of Waco, US Trust attorney, filed a petition for certified draft holders asking that they be given priority. If the petition is granted, said an Insurance Commission attorney, they will get all their money back. Some 5,600 draft holders put in an estimated $5,800,000. State testimony on US Trust operations cited many examples of unorthodox bookkeeping, annual statements bolstered by borrowing, blown-up real estate values, and minutes of board meetings never held.

Judge Betts released personal assets of six company directors from an injunction banning disposal. But he made it clear they were not dismissed as defendants or freed from liability as directors.

Refund of attorney's fees by members of the Texas Legislature is helping to increase the assets of the defunct US Trust and Guaranty Co. Two state senators started the ball rolling by announcing they were sending to the liquidator all legal fees received from US Trust — to be divided by creditors. Senators William Shireman of Corpus Christi and Carlos Ashley of Llano said they had not been given an opportunity to earn their retainers. Shireman received $3,000 Ashley, $10,000. Both were paid in cash.

A four-pronged investigation is under way by committees from both the House and the Senate to: (1) check functions of the Insurance Commission, (2) study circumstances surrounding operation and collapse of US Trust and Guaranty Co., (3) determine if remedial legislation is needed, and (4) investigate lobbying practices.

A. B. Shoemaker, US Trust president who shot himself through the head Jan. 7 was moved from a private hospital in Waco to the Veterans Administration Hospital in McKinney. Family spokesmen said they were no longer able to pay heavy hospital bills. Doctors would not comment on whether they thought Shoemaker, apparently the only person who knows, or ever knew, the ins and outs of US Trust, would ever recover sufficiently to testify.

Insurance Commissioner Garland A. Smith, hospitalized with a stomach ailment two weeks ago, has resigned. His doctor recommended indefinite rest. Smith said he felt he had been made the "whipping boy" in the current controversy. Critics of the administration had sought to strike at the governor through him, he said.

Governor Allan Shivers and Com. Chmn. J. Byron Saunders refuted "scandal" charges in luncheon speeches last week. "Whenever there is a violation of the law and the commission takes action against a company, there seems to be a 'scandal,'" said Saunders. He predicted results of the "solvent call" due by May 31 will reveal only about 5 per cent of Texas' 1,400 companies to be unsound.

Taking a similar tack, the governor said that in the past six years only 15 out of 29,000 state employees had been fired, suspended or indicted for dishonesty. It is unfair, he contended, to smear the honest majority, because of the actions of a few.

Every day brings with it evidence of the commission's new "get tough" policy.

Hearing was set for April 3 to consider revising credit insurance rates. These have come in for sharp criticism recently as providing a legal means of greatly increasing charges on small loans.

Blunt warnings were issued to persons violating the new securities law. "Although bona fide personal investments are not subject to registration," said a letter to insurance company executives, "securities owned by officers, directors or salesmen cannot be sold unless registered."

Land, Insurance Trials Set

Trials involving two statewide issues, insurance and veterans lands, are scheduled for Austin district courts.

B. R. Sheffield, Brady land dealer, is to be tried March 5 on new indictments charging felony theft in connection with the veterans land program.

Paul and Leslie Lowry and D. H. O'Neil of Beaumont will come to trial April 2 on charges of committing perjury in sworn statements to the Insurance Commission. They were connected with three companies placed in receivership in late 1953.

Short Snorts

February 22 has been designated by Governor Shivers as U. S. Army Reserve Day in Texas. The date, Washington's birthday, also is National Guard Day in Texas and the final day of National Defense Week.

Public Schools Week has been proclaimed by Governor Shivers March 5-10.

License to operate Girlstown USA has been revoked by the State Department of Public Welfare. But enforcement awaits a study by an advisory board. In question is responsibility of management. Girlstown is a home for wayward girls at Whiteface, Texas.

Screening of applicants for its $15,000 a-year directorship is under way by the Texas Commission on Higher Education. Final selection will be made on Feb. 20.

Building material and labor cost were 24 per cent lower in 1950 than in 1955. So, although Texans spent 13 per cent more on construction in 1955, the actual volume of building done was 9 per cent smaller than five years ago.

An improved law to protect fresh water reservoirs from pollution has been suggested by the Texas Water Resources Committee. A bill will be submitted to the Texas Legislature in 1957 specifying that any person or firm found guilty of polluting fresh water shall be fined $100 a day or given 30 days in jail with each day a separate offense. J. Earl Rudder, chairman of the Veterans' Land Board announces acceptance of bids on 14 tracts of land reclaimed by the state under the veterans' land program.

Dr. Frank P. Bertram is the new director of the division of dental health in the State Health Department. He has held a similar position with the Oklahoma Health Department, where he worked for 18 years.

Texas' draft call for March is for 774 men, a substantial increase over 289 for February and 283 for January.

Cities with the highest percentage of employment, according to latest Texas Employment Commission reports are in this order:

Dallas, Houston-Baytown area, Austin, Wichita Falls, San Antonio, Fort Worth, El Paso, Longview, Lubbock, Amarillo, San Angelo, Waco, Corpus Christi, Abilene, Beaumont, Galveston, and Texarkana.

Half a million poll taxes now in control of state labor groups will be used to push for the repeal of the 13 anti-labor laws in Texas. Lester Graham, regional director of AFL-CIO, declared at a labor-law institute held in Austin.

Nine University of Texas athletes became "grade casualities" to participate in sports until grades are back up to standard. Two football players, two basketball men, two track men, a swimmer and a golfer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams turned home Sunday from Easter, Minnesota, where he had a clinical examination in the Clinic.

Prevention for Teeth Small Children

Over 95 per cent of population is afflicted with dental disorder. How parents took advantage of preventive measures available children would grow up free from dental disorders. Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, says these dental disorders start in children, early proper dental health helps the child avoid dental diseases that plague his life. Both decay is probably the widespread dental disorder among children and improper diet can be blamed for the large incidence of the disease. Sugar, one of the main factors in decay, is consumed in 10 times larger quantities today that it was 100 years ago," Dr. Holle said. He urged parents to substitute fresh fruits such as apples and oranges and uncooked vegetables such as carrots and celery for sweets as between-meal snacks for their children. The toothbrush, Dr. Holle points out, is one of the best weapons against decay. He stressed, however, that to achieve maximum benefits the timing and method of tooth brushing are vitally important. He explained that since tooth brushing removes bits of food that have become lodged in the teeth, the teeth should be brushed immediately after eating. The brush, he said, should be firm enough to get to all surfaces of the teeth easily. For best results, he stated that the upper teeth be brushed down and the lower teeth brushed up. Another weapon against decay, Dr. Holle said, is fluoridation of public water supplies. "Scientific studies have shown that fluoridation has reduced tooth

Sweet 'N Sour Pork Chops

"THIS LITTLE PIG WENT TO MARKET"—and to add to the old rhyme we might say that lots of little pigs are going to market right now. This is good news for those of us who enjoy pork chops and other pork cuts. From the test kitchens of Minute Maid-Snow Crop Fresh-Frozen Orange Juice comes a timely recipe for Sweet 'N Sour Pork Chops. This is a delicious way of serving this popular meat—and an easy way, too, since all the cooking is done on top of the range to save fuel. Rice is plentiful now, too, so we suggest a large bowl of fluffy, boiled rice to serve alongside the pork chops. Use the delicious orange-flavored sauce to pour over the rice as well as the meat. A package of Snow Crop Frozen Green Beans, cooked in a small amount of boiling water, following the package directions, and served with your meat and rice will add up to an extra good meal, for the family as well as guests.

- SWEET 'N SOUR PORK CHOPS
- 6 loin pork chops
 - 6 cloves
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons shortening
 - 1 can (6 oz.) Snow Crop Fresh-Frozen Orange Juice—thawed and undiluted
 - 1 tablespoon brown sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Insert one clove in the center of each pork chop. Blend salt, paprika and pepper and rub mixture well into both sides of chops. Melt shortening in heavy skillet or Dutch oven, and when hot, place chops in pan and brown on both sides over medium heat (do not crowd in pan, it is better to brown 3 at a time). Combine thawed and undiluted fresh-frozen orange juice with brown sugar and cinnamon and pour over chops. Cover and simmer about 30 minutes or until tender (Serves 4-6). DID YOU KNOW When braising meat on top of range, a piece of wax paper placed under the pan cover will reduce the loss of liquid which sometimes condenses on the lid and trickles out of the pan.

decay as much as 65 per cent," he said. "No ill effects have been discovered from the measure which is currently in effect in more than 1,100 communities in the United States." In communities that have no public water supply it is suggested that children receive direct applications of a fluoride solution from their dentists. These treatments have been found to reduce decay up to 40 per cent. Parents are urged not to neglect periodic dental visits for their children in order that small cavities and other irregularities can be detected before they become serious. He also advised that early visits tend to eliminate any fears in the child, since little or no discomfort is involved.

TELEPHONE TALK
by Bob Montgomery, Manager

The new year is a good time to look back—and to look ahead—so I thought you'd be interested in some recent statements by R. A. Goodson, general manager of the telephone company in Texas.

Mr. Goodson says that we plan to invest $106 million for new construction in Texas in 1956—the largest telephone construction program in the state's history. This is in addition to $229 million for operating expenses and taxes.

What the Record Shows

The decision to go ahead with an unprecedented construction and improvement program is based on these factors:

The industrial production of Texas is several times greater than 10 years ago. Population has increased 12.25 per cent in five years. The construction industry in Texas remains strong, retail sales continue upward, and business is generally healthy.

Number of Telephones Doubled

Since 1945, the number of telephones in Texas has doubled. There are now more than 2 million telephones serving Texas, and 93 per cent of them are dial telephones.

The telephone company has spent $760 million gross for construction in Texas since 1945. This expenditure has contributed much to Texas' growth. The annual payroll for 26,000 telephone people in Texas is $103 million.

"Despite this growth," Mr. Goodson points out, "some families are waiting for telephones or higher grades of service. We're keenly aware of those people and we're doing everything possible to bring them service as quickly as possible."

Our New Frontier

Texas was born of revolution, grew up with cattle and oil industries, matured and broadened in our generation. Yet, the new frontier ahead has greater promise than had the frontier of the past.

"Texas is facing its most interesting and challenging years," Mr. Goodson says. "The prospects are bright. That's why the telephone company in 1956 will undertake the largest telephone construction program in the history of Texas."

Highway Patrol Puts Clamps On Unlicensed Drivers

Austin — The unlicensed driver was pointed up today as a traffic hazard on Texas highways in a statement by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

In quoting a survey made during the first six months of 1955 by the Texas Highway Patrol, he said the unlicensed Texas driver is two and a half times more likely to be involved in an accident as a licensed driver.

He also said the survey of rural highways showed that when involved in an accident the unlicensed driver's mishap is half again as apt to prove fatal as that of the licensed driver.

In explanation Garrison said "The irresponsibility of the driver in not obtaining a license is a reflection of the character of that driver and his driving habits."

"In most instances the unlicensed driver is deficient in either his physical and learning abilities, or his driving attitude. In obtaining a license and taking the driver tests, his deficiencies are brought to light before an accident occurs. By being aware of his shortcomings and making adjustments for them a driver usually is able to avoid being involved in a costly traffic accident."

Only 3.9 per cent of the driving public is unlicensed, yet 9.8 per cent of the drivers in non-fatal accidents and 13.9 per cent of fatal accidents are unlicensed.

More Pointers On Income Tax Filing

If you are a married man residing in Texas and your wife is not filing a return, then the income tax return which you are filing is a joint one and your wife's name must be shown with your name on the return, even though she has not earned an income. Your wife should also sign the return. Such was the advice of Samuel Haslam, of the Internal Revenue office in Del Rio.

Haslam says the numerous inquiries come from married men who are claiming exemption for a wife but do not show her name on the return. He explained that Texas is a community property state and the income tax return of a married man is in fact a joint return with his wife unless the wife is filing a separate return. If a husband and wife do elect to file separate returns, the total income of both must be equally divided and one-half reported on each return. Mr. Haslam pointed out that under present tax computation laws there is not tax saving in filing separate returns.

Haslam went on to say that the individual income tax forms for 1955 have been changed as to format from prior years and no separate line is now shown for the wife's name in claiming her as an exemption.

Properly prepared forms, it was stated, are processed more speedily than those returns which are not properly prepared.
