Grading Work At Pecos River Bridge Said To Be 80 Per Cent Complete

All work in connection with the construction of the new bridge over the Pecos River on U.S. 90 has ceased except grading, according to information received last week-end. Contractors are now working on rock on both sides of the canyon and this work is approximately 80 per cent complete, according to a story in the Del Rio Evening News.

"Originally steel for the truss spans was to start leaving the plant at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 23, but this date has now been advanced to between May 10 and 15. However, we have been advised that some time between these two dates the shipments will be started by rail. All steel will be unloaded at Comstock and hauled to the site of the work," M. B. Hodges, division engineer of the State Highway Department said last week.

Steel erection is expected to begin about June 1 with the completion date expected to be early in January or February of next year.

McCollum Seismic Exploration Crew Brings New Technique Here for Survey

The McCollum Exploration Co. crew with offices in Houston, moved into Sanderson this week for an extended tour of exploration duty. The crew is working under contract for the Magnolia Petroleum Co., under the supervision of the oil company's Midland office.

W. H. Franz, Magnolia's permit man, was here the first of the week to arrange permits for the crew to begin work immediately.

Roy Turner heads the 14-man crew which will work out of Sanderson.

The crew is composed of L. D. McIntyre, John Jurack, W. R. Anderson, B. W. Lang, J. N. Lang, H. L. Horne, C. K. West, Gus Jones, D. W. Hoeker, Roy Willman, Don Bodle, Ken Whitewood, and Fred Phillips.

The technique which is employed by this crew is "weight drop" and is considered more applicable to this area because of the poor seismic interpretations where there exists a cavernous condition of limestone below the surface. The near-surface caverns often absorb nearly all of the vertical energy from a charge of dynamite and at the same time act as reflecting sources to increase the horizontal waves. The 6,000-pound weight is dropped and all reactions recorded by the intricate machinery mounted on the truck.

It was also pointed out that the "thumper" did very little or no damage to the ground where it hit, leaving only a dent where the weight dropped, rather than a shot hole left by a seismograph shot.

These crews have successfully operated in more than 25 counties, including Scurry, Reagan, Irion, Crockett, Schleicher, Edwards, Pecos, Sutton, Upton, Crane and Reeves Counties and in New Mexico, Kansas, Florida and Mississippi.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that state-wide examinations would be given late in June and the successful candidate will be selected to begin training in September to fill the remaining original vacancies authorized by the past Legislature when the Patrol strength was increased by 200 men.

The public safety director invited all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make application as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive; have a high school education, or equivalent; be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height; and weight must be in proportion to height.

Bucks Kick Eagles By 10-7 Score
The Alpine Bucks baseball team won over the Sanderson Eagles by a 10-7 score last Friday in Alpine.

Errors accounted for the loss to a great extent as Sanderson miscued eight times, and each team got nine hits.

Roland McDonald got debited with the Sanderson loss.

The Eagles scored two in the third and five in the seventh for their seven total. The Bucks scored one in the first and second, four in the third and four in the sixth.

Gary Harrell and Julian Rodriguez, Eagle first sacker and short stop, were out of the lineup because of injuries.

Local 'Braves' Lose To Stockton Team
The Sanderson "Braves" who recently changed their names from "Chiefs" lost their first game of the season to the Fort Stockton by a 5-4 score. The game was played in Fort Stockton last Sunday.

The Braves will have a local game Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Juan Ramirez is the pitcher and Higinio Pena is catcher.

Local baseball fans are advised that the Braves have a good team this year and will afford lots of competition with opposing teams.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: — "We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, I will give it you; come thou with us, and we will do thee good." — Numbers 10:29.

RAIN DRENCHES PARTS OF COUNTY

Rains in recent days have given beneficial moisture to most of Terrell County with some portions of the county getting drenched by rain water.

Heavy clouds hung in the west and north all day Monday and beginning at approximately 4 p.m. Monday until about midnight, 1.26 inches of rain and some hail fell in Sanderson. The hail was not damaging.

Extremely large hailstones were reported at Emerson section and on the H. A. Smith ranch where fruit trees, garden and flower beds were ruined.

Henry Scruggs reported 3.1 inches of rain on the West-Pyle Cattle Co. at headquarters with less reported at Longfellow. The rain did not extend much farther west than Longfellow and not much south. Web Townsend and Malone Mitchell reported 2.1 inches of rain Monday afternoon and Monday night. W. G. Downie reported only .9.5 inches at his ranch house but said heavier rains fell to the north.

The clouds which came up late Monday night were accompanied by extremely heavy electrical storms and heavy thunder.

There was no damage reported by the lightning locally, which was said to have been as heavy as any witnessed for many years.

Big Canyon was reported to be running "bigger than ever" at the U.S. 285 crossing and Downie Draw completely covered the bridge at the bottom of Big Hill, piling stumps and roots up over the railings on the bridge.

No reports were available on the extent of the rain in the eastern part of the county, but it was reported that no rain fell south and east of Dryden.

The rain in Sanderson Monday night was accompanied by some soft hailstones.

There were heavy clouds hiding the sun Tuesday morning and lasted until mid-afternoon when all signs of clouds disappeared from the sky and it was warm and sunny.

Wednesday morning dawned cloudy and light mists had fallen in the night. There was some more light mist Wednesday about mid-morning. Heavy clouds cleared and reappeared several times during the morning but only a trace of moisture was reported. There were signs of rain north, west and east of Sanderson, but the clouds did not appear to be too heavy with moisture.

Through Wednesday there was still no report of rain from the Dryden area or south of the tracks completely across the southern end of the county.

If you have a bit of imagination you can see a huge "help wanted" sign hanging over the capitol dome.

Some mighty important jobs are to be filled. Salaries ranging up to $25,000 a year. And some of the jobs are as yet unclaimed.

Top job of course is that of Governor. It is a two year job paying $25,000 a year. The incumbent has announced his resignation.

Next highest in the pay bracket is that of Attorney General. There is a vacancy there too. John Ben Shepperd also is resigning on January 1. The pay is $20,000 a year and it is a two year job.

There are four good jobs at $17,000 a year. These positions include Land Commissioner, Comptroller, Treasurer, and Railroad Commissioner. Here the incumbents, J. Earl Rudder, R. S. Calvert, Jesse James and W. O. Murray, have either little or no opposition. Just ask for it and the job is theirs. They are in like Flynn, unless other job applications arrive before the May 7 deadline.

There are several $15,000 jobs available, such as Agriculture Commissioner, three places on the Supreme Court, and one on the Court of Criminal Appeals. The Agriculture Commissioner's job is another two-year job, but the court jobs are for six years.

Ag Commissioner John White hasn't said whether or not he wants to be re-hired, but most of the Justices have. Re-applying are R. W. Calvert and Mendie Griffin on the Supreme Court, and W. A. Morrison on the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Not an applicant for re-hiring is Supreme Court Judge Will Wilson. He has filed for John Ben Shepperd's job as attorney general. It pays $5,000 more a year.

Then there are nine places on the Court of Civil Appeals, each paying $12,000 a year. Most of these incumbents are seeking a renewal of their contracts.

Lots of State Senators expire, too, along with 150 House members. These are just part time job paying $25 a day for 120 days, normally only every other year. The Senate job lasts four years.

however, to the House's two. Along with the House and Senate jobs is that of Lt. Governor. His salary is the same as the legislators. Ben Ramsey who now holds the position, says he likes the work and would like to be re-hired.

Because most of these jobs pay well and carry with them honor and recognition, there is a penalty attached. You have to pay to apply, and the application fee is in proportion to the salary. Unfortunately you don't get a refund if you aren't selected for the job. This discourages a lot of applicants.

Those filing for the Governor's job pay an application fee of $1,250 for Attorney General, $1,000; Land Commissioner, Comptroller, Treasurer, Railroad Commissioner, $875; Agriculture Commissioner $750 — and the same for Judges of the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals. Civil Appeals Court Judges pay a fee of $600 as does the Lt. Governor.

Applicants for House and Senate jobs pay $1 to $100 per county, the amount being determined locally.

There are several other jobs of a similar nature opening soon — such as that of Congressman-at-Large. The application fee for this post is $1,125. Martin Dies has the position now. Incidentally, it is the highest paying job next to the Governor's salary is $22,500 a year with a two-year contract.

Texas has 21 Congressional job openings coming up too. Salaries are the same as Congressmen-at-Large, but the application fee is less. It varies with each area. And these jobs are for two years.

Another job is opening possibility is that of U. S. Senator from Texas. Here there are some "ifs" attached. If Price Daniel resigns and maybe Lyndon Johnson, too. Both are campaigning now for other openings — Daniel for Governor and Johnson for President. U. S. Senators draw $22,500 a year for six years; filing fee, $1,125.

Applications for statewide jobs are filed with George W. Sandlin (I. Austin, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. If you want to apply for any one of these positions, you'll have to file your application not later than Monday, May 7, and pay your application fee not later than May 10.

These jobs differ radically from labor and industry posts in that the job holder must apply again and again if he wants to keep the job indefinitely. And he must compete with all comers. Of course, the application fee is just the beginning of the expense of getting the job. Also there are more bosses than employees, because the public, after all, has not only the first but the final say.

However the pay is good, and there is a guaranteed annual wage.

Personnel will be selected in July, August and November, with the public making the selection.

Polling Strength Increases
 Texas potential voting strength hit an all-time high this year. According to the state comptroller, the 1956 voting total ran 2,410,188. Previous record was 2,338,261 in 1952.

Precinct Conventions
 Saturday will tell the story on who controls the Texas delegation to the national Democratic conventions. Tension is mounting as spokesmen for each faction barnstorm the state. In some cases rival rallies have been held in the same town only hours apart.

Probable key to the outcome lies in the way some 10 or 12 counties go. These are the ones in which major cities are located. They control about 1,000 of the state's 1,898 delegate votes. Harris County (Houston) alone has 270. But rural counties are not being neglected. In a photo finish — not unlikely — they might make the difference.

Churches of Nation To Have Services On Soil Stewardship Sunday May 6

Sunday, May 6, will be Soil Stewardship Sunday and the beginning of Soil Stewardship Week, May 6-12.

Most churches in Sanderson and throughout the nation will hold special services to recall man's duty to the land.

In 1955 for the first time Soil Conservation Districts throughout the nation suggested to their local churches that this Sunday be observed on the fifth Sunday after Easter.

The purpose was to remind people in all walks of life that man is but a steward, not owner, of God's soil, water and plants.

The response far exceeded the fondest hopes of those who serve as volunteer officials of 2700 local Soil Conservation Districts in all corners of our country.

In Sanderson this year the supervisors of the Rio Grande-Pecos Valley Soil Conservation District secured selected sermons and other information in booklet form for distribution to the pastors of all churches, which were asked to hold special services to Supervisors of this area urge all citizens, whether or not they are actively engaged in agricultural businesses, to attend the church of their choice on Sunday, May 6.

Miss Lupe Cardenas Married Sunday
To Frank Rodriquez of San Antonio

MRS. FRANK RODRIQUEZ

Rev. N. Femenia was the officiant for the nuptial mass in St. James Catholic Church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Guadalupe Cardenas became the bride of Frank Rodriguez of San Antonio. The double-ring ceremony was used for the exchange of the marriage vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of French lace over satin. The molded bodice had a sweet heart neck line and the long sleeves which extended in petal-points over her hands were buttoned with tiny buttons. A bouffant skirt was attached at the long-torso waistline. Her wedding veil of French lace, finger-tip length, was attached to a tiara of pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls and pearl ear clips. Her bridal bouquet was atop her prayer book.

Miss Carman Ramirez was the first madrina. The five bridesmaids included Misses Nieves Lopez, Concha Ramirez of Alpine, Anita Cardenas, Ruby Hinojosa, and Estela Flores. They wore gowns of sky blue crystallette with matching half-hats and shoes. Their bouquets were of pink carnations tied with pink satin ribbons.

Miss Elida Cardenas was her sister's maid of honor and her gown was of pink crystallette fashioned similar to those of the other female members of the wedding party. The little flower girl, Maria Hilda Lopez, was also dressed in pink silk.

Henry Trevino was the best man. The rings were on a satin pillow carried by Manuel Oliver, Jr.

The ushers included Eleno Marquez, Dickie Escamilla, Higinio Pena and Juan Ramirez.

A reception in the V.F.W. Hall followed immediately after the wedding. The refreshment table was covered in a lace cloth over white with a centerpiece of white gladioli. Punch and cookies were served with the bride's cake.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in San Antonio where he is a civilian employee at Kelly AFB.

The bride is a daughter of Da-

Has Nite Club Theme
For Gala Evening

Using a color scheme of black and white, the V.F.W. Hall was converted into a night club for the annual Junior-Senior banquet last Thursday evening.

The guests entered under a canopy and "The Stork Club" was on a sign at the entrance. A billboard was on one side at the entrance and a hat check stand at the other. Jessie Mae McDonald was the hat-check girl and later distributed favors which were carried with black and white ribbons.

Top hats were suspended from the ceiling and cut-outs of storks and hats were on the black and white paper covering the windows. During the evening balloons were released from a large bag suspended from the center of the room.

Pres Escamilla was the doorman and the banquet was served by seven waiters, Irvin Robbins, Jr., Alberto Cobos, Ramon Martinez, Horacio Olivarez, Jerry Monroe, W. D. O'Bryant, and Si Carr.

A skyline in the chosen colors was at the back of the stage where a band from Sul Ross College furnished music during the evening.

Norman Rath gave the invocation. Armando Ochoa, master of ceremonies, gave the welcome for the junior class and the response for the seniors was given by Darrell Glen Cox. Doris Jones gave the class prophecy and the farewell was given by Maida Moore. Supt. Matt Bader was the speaker for the occasion. Elizabeth Lopez gave two dance numbers.

The menu consisted of pineapple juice cocktail, veal cutlets, gravy, creamed potatoes, green beans, pineapple-cottage cheese salad, hot rolls, butter, iced tea and lemon custard.

Ninety-one guests attended the banquet, including the members of the school board and the high school faculty members with their husbands and wives.

Soil Conservation Drawing Attention On National Scope

D. A. Williams, Administrator U.S. Soil Conservation Service

Something more than material benefit is impelling American landowners and operators to become conservation farmers or ranchers. Something more than the established fact that soil and water conservation increases farm and ranch buying power is motivating businessmen and countless others to support conservation work.

A rancher finds pleasure in the beauty of his conservation-treated pastures and wildlife areas. And I feel that all the rest of us share his pleasure as we drive by his land.

But there is another important motivating force for conservation. I believe it is the fast-growing realization in every community I know about that wise use and treatment of soil is a moral responsibility — that soil is a gift of the Creator, and that we, all of us, have a steward's responsibility for it.

Unless we pause to consider the spiritual man, we may be amazed by this spread of the soil stewardship concept in a time when we are troubled by temporary crop surpluses and when only one person in 25 actually tills the soil for a living.

Unless we accept as a fact that men do recognize the spiritual values of soil and water conservation, we are unable to explain fully the personal sacrifices thousands of them make to serve as members of governing boards of nearly 2,700 locally-organized and managed soil conservation districts. These men — and there are some women on these governing boards — already are conservation ranchers. They already are, personally, reaping the material benefits of greater net income, lower production costs, and greater efficiency in the use of labor and machinery that comes with conservation.

But these local leaders cannot, and do not, expect material gain from their services as district supervisors, commissioners, or directors. They receive no salaries. In some states, they are not even reimbursed in part for their expenses.

And throughout the nation, ministers are providing the spiritual leadership of soil stewardship.

CARD OF THANKS

The people of Sanderson will always hold a warm place in our hearts because of the kindness and thoughtfulness shown toward our sister, Mrs. M. B. Wilson, during her many years of residence in your community. The place she and Mr. Wilson held in your hearts was evidenced in many ways at the time of her death. May God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guynes.

Thousands of them each year take soil stewardship as the text of their sermons, and provide a continuing leadership among their congregations for recognition that the earth is truly the Lord's.

To those of us who are soil conservationists by profession as well as by conviction, this expanding conception of soil stewardship is indeed heartening.

For we know that man and the soil remain inseparable, all technological and cultural advances notwithstanding.

Man still obtains his food and most of his clothing and shelter from the dust of the earth. And this dust of the earth, when kept in balance of its creation is a wonderful composit of minerals and myriads of living, decaying plants and animals. It is a storehouse of abundance for past, present and future generations — a tremendous reservoir to trap and store for use more of the water which at one time may come in tagging floods and at another season become insufficient for the needs of thirsty crops, animals, cities, and industries, and man himself.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd returned to their home in Fort Worth Sunday coming down to visit their daughter, Sharon Ann Hill, and to attend the dance recital Saturday evening.
