LISTEN TO LUKE

This week The Times is printing some concrete plans of the school board in regard to the building and administrative proposals of that group. This will be interesting reading to all citizens of the county in that it will be an enlightening bit of news of some of the board's plans.

There have been rumors in the past on some of their proposals. Some of these rumors have been unfounded and some have not.

The school board is interested in giving news of their decisions on these matters so that the voters and school patrons may know exactly what the plans are and may discuss them intelligently for their own benefit.

We hope that everyone who has a stake in these matters in any way will go to the trouble to try to learn as much about what the plans and proposals are so that when the time comes for voting on these issues they will be enlightened to the fullest possible extent.

We all know that the recent growth of the town and of the school has made it imperative that the school board begin making immediate decisions for an enlarged school plant. Such proposals and thoughts and plans of the board have been in the making for several months.

The workings have been slow and deliberate in their planning as to come up with the best possible solution and the most desirable manner for handling the needs.

If it is worth anything, we can give our assurance that we feel the board is doing their absolute best to take care of the situation in the best manner for all concerned.

Dog License Law Interest Shown

Numerous inquiries have been made at The Times in regard to the registering of local dogs.

We have this information to pass on to readers:

The law was enacted by the legislature and adopted by a vote of the people of the county many years ago. The law provides for the registration of every dog in the county, for penalties for failure to have the dog registered, and other things related.

The law does not make it compulsory for the animal to be vaccinated for rabies, nor for the animal to be muzzled, leashed or penned.

The original date of the registration requirement was in May of each year, thus all dogs in the county should bear tags now. The February 1 date was set by Sheriff Lee Billings as the date for the beginning of law enforcement on the tag requirements in order to give dog owners an opportunity to purchase tags for the dogs that are not now tagged, and registration will be due again in May, 1959, but will be for one year's registration at that time.

The rigid enforcement of the dog registration law was brought about by the damage and depredations being committed by supposedly stray dogs to sheep flocks on surrounding ranches.

With the coming of lambing season and the extent of damage already done by dogs to sheep, ranchmen insisted on the enforcement of the law in an effort of protection to their property.

Sheriff Billings stated that after the grace period to February 1, all dogs found without registration tags will be destroyed, in compliance with the law.

Lawrence Janes Completes School For Morticians

Lawrence (Hub) Janes last week took his state board examinations and will serve a year's apprenticeship under a licensed mortician before getting his license as a funeral director and mortician. It has been many years since Sanderson has had a licensed mortician and, when embalming was done, a mortician had to be called in from a neighboring town.

Mr. Janes graduated from the Commonwealth School of Science in Houston and passed his national board examination. He is a member of Psi Sigma Eta, a national fraternity of morticians.

He is a partner of Mrs. Winnie Magill in the Janes & Magill store and funeral home.

Mr. Janes is a son of George Janes who makes his home here with his daughter, Mrs. Herman Couch, and family. His wife is a teacher in the local schools and the couple has two daughters.

School Enrollment Up 77 In Year

The enrollment of the county schools has increased 77 pupils since January 1958, according to Superintendent Matt Bader. Most of this enrollment is in the elementary grades, Bader stated.

The figure now is 665 students as compared with 588 for this time last year.

Of this total figure, 510 are in the elementary grades and 155 are in the high school.

In three sections of the first grade, currently in the Lamar Elementary School, there are 24, 24, and 37 pupils.

The 2nd grade has two sections of 31 and 32; 3rd, 36 and 36; 4th, 32 and 33; 5th, 37 and 38; 6th, 32 and 32; 7th, 21 and 21; 8th, 44; 9th, 57; 10th, 43; 11th, 30; and 25 in the 12th grade.

Mr. Bader stated that the lower five grades were considered at approximately maximum capacity for the facilities and teachers now available and that the school board was watching any increase in student population with wary eyes.

Funeral Rites Wednesday For Gabriel Falcon

Funeral services were held here Wednesday morning for Gabriel M. Falcon, 72, who died at his home Monday morning. He had been in failing health in recent years.

Rev. N. Femenia officiated at the funeral rites in St. James Catholic Church and burial was made in Santa Rita Cemetery. The Janes & Magill Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Falcon came to Sanderson in 1922 and had worked as a ranch laborer. His wife preceded him in death in June of 1957.

He is survived by two sons, Jesus and Gabriel Falcon, Jr., three daughters, Maria Falcon of Sanderson, Mrs. Josefa Villarreal of El Paso, and Mrs. Eloisa Moreno of Sanderson; also 14 grandchildren.

Only 298 Voters Have Paid Poll Tax

Unless there is a rush for poll taxes in the next ten days, many Terrell County residents will not be able to participate in the several elections already scheduled for 1959. And there is always a possibility of any number of opportunities to vote.

A check with Mrs. Tol Murrah deputy tax collector, Tuesday indicated that 298 poll taxes had been issued to that date. The voting strength of the county is potentially near 1,000.

Saturday, January 31, is the last day to buy a poll tax receipt.

J. W. Happle, County Pioneer, Dies on Friday

James Wilson Happle died in a Uvalde hospital Friday night following a long illness. He had been in a rest home in Sabinal for a year and was moved to the Uvalde hospital a few days before his death.

The body was brought here Saturday and the Janes & Magill Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Rev. John W. Byrd, pastor, officiated at the rites Sunday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church. Burial was made in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers were E. F. Pierson, F. G. Hardin, Troy Druse, J. M. Hayre, F. B. Pyle, J. J. Harkins, G. E. Babb, and W. E. Grigsby.

Mr. Happle was born February 5, 1875, in Prairie Lea, Texas, the son of William Henry Happle and Virginia Smith Happle.

He was married to Mary Elizabeth Royal of Fort Stockton on April 3, 1901. They moved to Sanderson in 1906 and Mr. Happle was in the continuous employ of The Kerr Mercantile Co. until his retirement ten years ago.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Mary Royal Happle, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Kurt H. de Cousser of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Web Townsend of Sanderson; a granddaughter, Miss Denise de Cousser of Lansing, Mich., and several nieces and nephews. A son, Chief Petty Officer Carl Happle, died of pneumonia in a hospital in Charleston, S.C., in 1936.

The passing of Mr. Happle adds to a rapidly diminishing list of pioneer residents of the county. He was considered historian of Terrell County and had a well-spring of information concerning names, dates, and occurrences or happenings in this county since he first came here. He was often called upon to provide information about early days in the county when no other source of information was available. When time came for the county's 50th anniversary celebration he was consulted often as histories and records were prepared for the event.

Mr. Happle served for a number of years as county parole officer and was the Terrell County Democratic Chairman for many years. He always took an active part in all levels of politics and was well versed in current events.

Among out-of-town relatives here for the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Grossenbacher of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. William Milton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniel of Fort Stockton; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Manning of Luling; John Elmo Manning of Bishop; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Townsend of Del Rio.

Cold Winds Hit Tuesday

A cold norther blew in here late Tuesday afternoon and sent the mercury plunging in local thermometers. The wind hit in Sanderson at about 7:00 p.m.

Chilly weather had prevailed most of the week but Tuesday was mild and shirt sleeve weather. There was a sudden and balmy calm late in the afternoon Tuesday just before the norther hit.

A strong wind and dust storm had blown in about noon Tuesday but did not last very long.

There were some snow flurries in the pre-dawn hours Wednesday with some evidence left on cars which had been left out.

The thermometer was in the mid-20s Wednesday morning and little likelihood of warming up for several days.

No Exclusions Asked From Water District At Hearing Here

There were no applications for exclusion from the Terrell County Water Control and Improvement District at the hearing set for last Thursday. The board members were at the courthouse at 10 a.m. to hear any pleas for exclusion from the district.

Board President Greene Cooke stated that efforts would be initiated for the bond election which was the next step in the purchase of the local water utility from the Community Public Service Co.

No date has been set for the bond election, Cooke stated, but it would be held as soon as was practical and feasible.

Mrs. J. B. Pruett Dies Tuesday in Big Spring

Mrs. J. B. Pruett, 74, of Marfa died in a Big Spring hospital early Tuesday morning after suffering a heart attack. She had been in the hospital for treatment for several weeks.

Funeral services were held in Marfa Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church.

A native of Masula, Mont., Mrs. Pruett had lived in Marfa since 1912, moving there from Fort Davis. She had been a frequent visitor here in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Peavy, and family.

Besides her husband and the daughter, she is survived by two sons, Ben R. Pruett of Marfa and Ed J. Pruett of El Paso; two sisters; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Attending the funeral services from Sanderson were Mr. and Mrs. John Reininger, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Sudduth, Mrs. W. W. Sudduth, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Riggin, Mrs. Winnie Magill.

DOC MISSES DEER — OR VICE-VERSA

Dr. Gene Richardson reports a peculiar occurrence — and brought back evidence to substantiate his story.

On his way to Fort Stockton one night last week-end, he was a near-victim of an accident when a big buck deer jumped up out of the bar ditch and ran in front of his car. Dr. Richardson turned sharply trying to miss the buck and thought he had, but heard a slight thump on the left rear of the car and supposed it was a bumper that had scraped the buck as he went by. After he arrived at Fort Stockton, he and W. G. Downie were talking about the incident and upon investigating found about four inches of an antler stuck in the glass channel at the rear of the left rear window.

He was still carrying the stub of the antler in its lodged position this week.

The Dr. said it was closer than he came to getting a buck during hunting season.

Girl Scouting Growing In Area

Girl Scouting is growing in the Permian Basin Girl Scout Council, according to figures released by Mrs. Olene Paxton, registrar. A tally of figures as of Dec. 31, 1958, show a registration of 5,638.

This does not include the 50 troops with a membership of 580 who failed to meet their December deadline for registration. It is expected that the count will reach 6,219.

The registration for Sanderson is 60. District I currently shows the largest membership of any of the six districts in the council, with a total of 2,051 Girl Scouts.

The jurisdiction of the Permian Basin Council is 15 counties.

With the increased activity concurrent with the building of a new lodge at the Girl Scout Camp at Mitre Peak, registration figures are expected to reach 6,500 by May 1.

School Board Reveals Plans In Meeting Here Tuesday Night

The immediate plans of the school board of the Terrell County Common School District were revealed by action of that group Tuesday night in a regular session.

The firm of Thos. Y. Pickett of Dallas was contracted to do as tax valuation engineer for the district pertaining to the oil and gas industry within the district. Public utilities were excluded from the contract as the equalization board will do valuations of this nature.

The contract is to cover a three-year period beginning in 1959 and will be no cost to the school for the services of the firm during 1959, the board stated. During 1960 and 1961 the district is to pay a fee of 2c per $100 valuation on all properties pertaining to the oil and gas industry on the tax rolls of the district.

It was the opinion of the board that it would be advantageous to the district to secure expert advice along with scientific and technical knowledge pertaining to oil properties within the district, which was the basis for retaining the firm. The firm will act only in an advisory capacity to the district's tax assessor and to the district board of equalization which is appointed by the school board. It was stated that most school districts in the state which have oil and gas production within the district employ such firms to assist them in placing valuations or mineral properties, drilling rigs, equipment and producing wells.

The board discussed at length the over-crowded conditions in the elementary schools and decided to complete transactions for possible building sites.

A general administrative organization plan was accepted by the board. This calls for having the first five grades in a school on a separate campus away from the present campus, a junior high school, to include the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades, on the campus where the present elementary school is located, provided additional land can be purchased east of the present campus on 2nd Street, and the third phase of the program, would be to have the upper four grades in the present high school building.

The board estimated that the first five grades will need 16 classrooms. This building probably will be built on a site purchased in the north part of town from the Joe Kerr Estate and is situated between 4th and 5th Streets. Plans are to keep the present first grade building in reserve to handle any overflow that might result from the sudden influx of students into the district.

The board stated that if the present valuation on the taxable property in the district would not permit the district to vote a sufficient bonded indebtedness for the construction of a junior high school building, then the two lower floors of the present elementary building could be converted into a junior high school building until the valuation of the district is large enough to support sufficient indebtedness for such a new building. The present needs for a junior high school would be six rooms.

The board also feels that there is the possibility for the need of a gymnasium in connection with the junior high school to take the load of usage from the present gymnasium. The present gym is being used for a physical education program for both high school and junior high school students and basketball teams use the gym for practice until about 9:30 p.m. each school night when there is not a local game. An additional gym would permit a broader program in all gym events.

The board stated that there is also an urgent need for a new shop building which should be located on the high school campus. The present shop building is in poor condition, they stated and is also located too far from the high school campus for proper administration. The board felt that there will always be a need for a shop program whether it is provided through vocational agriculture or industrial arts.

The board agreed that the most pressing and immediate need of the district now was the first five grades elementary building and shop building. The balance of the building program can be carried out within the next few years as the financial condition of the district will allow.

A representative from a bonding company met with the board in the interest of carrying on a bond issuing program and offering financial advice. Representatives from other companies are being asked to meet with the board in the near future.

The board is also contacting architectural firms with the idea of contracting with one for plans for the new elementary building.

Following the completion of architectural drawings, the board will have some idea of costs for their consideration.

The board will have their next meeting on Tuesday night of next week for further decisions.

Some cheered and some wept but none will soon forget the eventful, suspenseful opening day of the House of Representatives of the 56th Legislature.

Wagoner Carr became the 3rd man in recent history to win a second term as Speaker of the House; and Joe Burkett became the only one in many years to lose by so close a vote — 79 to 71.

Burkett and Carr had been in a hard-fought contest for a year and a half. Burkett from Kerrville is a staunch conservative. Carr from Lubbock had more liberal support.

When the day came, every representative was present, and the floor and galleries were jammed with spectators. Secretary of State Zollie Steakley served as temporary presiding officer. An elaborate voting procedure was agreed upon to safeguard secrecy and assure fairness.

Representatives filed to the front of the chamber, one by one had their folded ballots initiated by the clerk and then placed them personally in the ballot box. Six watchers, three representing each candidate stood by.

The ballot box was opened and results called out, one by one. Only sound in the large chamber was the scratching of the pens of many score keepers, and the occasional fidgeting or gasping as the lead sea-sawed between the candidates.

A cheer went up as Carr received his victory-assuring 78th vote. A round of hand-shaking back slapping and congratulating began. Following the final count a procession composed of Carr's family and supporters escorted the Lubbock representative to the rostrum for the oath of office.

On With the Show
After the opening dust had settled, Legislators turned to their everyday concerns.

Most immediate and pressing problem was finding money to operate the Legislature. Since the state's main monetary cupboard, the general revenue fund, was bare (worse still, in debt) there wasn't so much as a nickel on hand to pay salaries of the lawmakers and their helpers, nor even for stamps, stationery, travel and phone calls. A bill was offered to appropriate $2,300,000 that had accumulated in two special funds.

Several plans were being talked about to solve the even more vexatious long-term problem of overall budget balancing. To do so will involve finding money to pay off an expected general fund deficit of $65,000,000 plus some $130,000,000 in new money to meet expected expenses for 1960-61. Only alternative would be numerous and painful economies.

Generally, there seem to be two schools of thought developing on taxation: (1) those who hope to avoid a new tax by upping many present levies, such as selective sales taxes, removing several exemptions and re-shuffling funds here and there and

(2) those who say the present tax blanket can't be stretched any further and that "pot shot, patch work" taxation should be replaced by an overall plan to distribute the increasing cost of government among more people. Panorama

Other items for the record of what promises to be an historic Legislature.

Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas is new president pro tempore of the Senate, and as such, third in line to the governor. An outdoor advertising executive, Parkhouse is beginning his third Senate term.

No Free Overtime, resolved Senators in one of their first official acts, a resolution to quit on the dot May 12 when the 120-day pay period runs out. House members cheered the announcement.

A Famous Name returned to public life as Martin Dies, Jr., of Lufkin took the oath as Senator. Former Congressman Martin Dies, Sr., long identified with the Dies Un-American Activities in investigating Committee, came to see his son sworn in.

"Baby of the House" is Rep. Jack Connell, Jr., of Wichita Falls, youngest person ever to sit in the House. Connell was 21 years old plus 14 days on general election day.

A Football Star when he's not a lawmaker is Yale Lary, freshman representative from Fort Worth. Lary, a defensive back for the Detroit Lions pro team, was a college star for Texas A&M.

One Governor's Son succeeded another as W. P. Hobby, Jr., was named parliamentarian of the Senate a post held last session by Dan Moody, Jr.

An Early Crisis was averted when the House sergeant-at-arms rushed a spittoon to the desk of snuff-dipping Rep. Jerry Sadler of Pecos. Sadler, once a standard accessory, had gotten lost in the chamber's revamping. Folks With Money-Spending Ideas had best be armed with money-finding ideas when they come to the Legislature this year. Tais warning was issued by Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria in an Austin address.

Third House has its own ceremonials this year as, for the first time, lobbyists are required to register under the new law. From the length and variety of the list there's a lobbyist for practically everything and everybody — teachers, farmers, firemen, policemen, labor unions, industries and even church groups.

Governor's Appointments
Gov. Price Daniel has appointed Secretary of State Zollie Steakley to a second term and promoted two assistants in the governor's office.

George Christian, former press assistant, becomes executive assistant, taking over non-legal duties of Jake Jacobsen. Jacobsen left to enter private law practice. John Goldsum was promoted to administrative assistant and will take over Jacobsen's legal duties.

Pay for Secretaries Debated
One of the first issues for debate in the 56th Legislature was pay for secretaries of Senate and House members. Generally accepted rate is $14 per day for Senate secretaries and $10 for the House. But a resolution must be passed setting amounts of the session. Rep. Obie Jones of Aus-salaries at the beginning of each tin said House secretaries should receive $12 a day because the $10 a day figure was embarrassing to House secretaries when they met their Senate counterparts during coffee breaks. Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria pointed out that the state couldn't afford the increase. "Maybe," he said, "we'll have to pay them out of our own pockets," and he pointed out that not all Senate secretaries received $14 — that some of them were paid as little as $7 a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murray visited in San Antonio last week-end with their son, A. E. Murray, and family and she remained for a longer visit.

Barbara and John Cates spent the week-end in El Paso with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kelly.

This has possibilities for some things that up to now have been dreams of those who operate the county's finances.

We are happy to be living at about this time and in this place so that we can watch what happens around here in the next few years. We think it will be interesting and enlightening.

It has been our privilege to live in other places during the time that they were enjoying the benefits of a growing wealth caused by such things, and it was interesting then, to see how schools and people, and towns, generally are affected in that manner.

The people of this county have worked and sweated for many years to pay taxes to afford some of the things which were considered luxuries, both in the school and in the county. They have tried to supply the residents of the county with basic needs and some non-essentials without causing undue burdens on the taxpayers, and this we think is commendable.

Let's all unite in our efforts to stay behind or with the powers that be who are truly public servants and aid them in their efforts to see that we have as good a county and school system as possible.

An editor died after a lingering illness. His savings barely covered hospital and doctor bills leaving nothing for funeral expenses. A friend, after soliciting funds all day, lacked only $1 of having enough. Wearily, he said to a stranger, "Could you give me a dollar to bury an editor?" The stranger pulled out a $5 bill, and said, "Here — bury five of them."

Jimmie Loden, who is on leave from the VA hospital in Temple, has been visiting here with his family and will return to Temple for a bone fusion operation. Mrs. Loden and the children will remain here with relatives while he recuperates from the operation.

Vets' Survivors' Suggestions Offered For Compensation

Survivors of deceased veterans were offered four suggestions this week for assisting them in filing claims for Veterans Administration compensation or pension.

Fred Nelson, officer in charge of the VA office in Del Rio, said that adjudication of their claims will be expected if survivors follow the suggestions.

He listed them as:
1. If the veteran's death certificate does not contain a statement as to cause of death it should be accompanied by a certificate from the attending physician, showing dates of treatment.

2. A widow filing a claim should furnish the record of her marriage to the veteran. If she or the veteran were previously married, she should — if possible — furnish copies of death or divorce certificates to establish that previous marriage was dissolved.

3. If minor children are among the survivors, birth or baptismal records should be furnished, containing the names of both parents and date of birth. In the case of adopted children, a copy of the court orders should be provided.

4. Dependent parents filing a claim must establish their relationship to the veteran by furnishing VA with a certified copy of the veteran's birth or baptismal certificates containing the names of both parents.

Detailed information about compensation and pension claims is available at the VA office.
