LISTEN TO LUKE

The Texas Press Association gathered some information for presentation to the State Legislature concerning a proposed increase in rates for publication of proposed amendments to the constitution.

The information concerns the rise in prices on a group of commodities and substantiates the TPA's claim that a rise in cost of such publications might be warranted. The prices listed are taken from the Nocona paper this year and in 1941 for comparison.

This is not intended to cast a reflection on any of the business concerned, because we know well that the prices of the things we sell have gone up, also. The items listed are to show the things with which the publisher might be better acquainted in a comparison of ledger sheets, filing equipment, office machines, and other stationery items. (We worked that plug in smoothly, didn't we?)

Apples advertised in 1941 for a pound and 29c a pound in 1961. Plymouth coupes were $640 and now are $2,300; bread, 21c a loaf to 29c a loaf; Stetson hats were $1.95 then and now are $11 according to the Nocona paper. Listerine that was 25c is now 60c; oatmeal that was 29c now is 45c; potatoes were 5c a pound and now are 10c a pound; men's dress shoes that sold for $10 are $18.95; Crisco shortening was 5c for 3-lb. can and is now 12c; spark plugs that were 40c are now $1.00; T-bone steak was 5c and now is 85c — so says the Nocona News.

During all the investigating of the things that need investigating, what we hope will soon mark up to the top of the list is one of the payments of unemployment compensation to people and more intense investigation into why they continue to be unemployed.

There seems to be a well-founded idea in this area by people who are in the know who say that they cannot get working on their ranches always when they need them because it would interfere with the workers' getting unemployment compensation checks.

If these allegations are true in a few instances, we feel that they are too many. Why don't we tend to our own business? — must be the cry of some who read this! That's a good idea for all of us, isn't it? And what are those things that are your business — and ours? We are all citizens of the same country, with the same privileges and the same restraints. The things that affect me, usually affect you — and vice-versa.

Laws of morality and honesty and integrity are like the other laws governing our actions — they are for all of us. Some people are willing to stretch and not see a person doing say — a candy bar out of a store, but will raise sand if it is only if — the store and the candy belongs to him. Dishonesty is condoned by the pathetic public as long as they do not feel themselves the victims of dishonest acts.

We Texans all pay in some way — directly or indirectly — unemployment compensation to those who are unemployed. We have no other axes to grind than the TEC in any way other than the fact that they might be a little too lax in their investigation of proper payments of unemployment compensations and so those who are aiding and abetting such acts in that if they are not dishonest they come too close to being acceptable.

The sand is running out on the days left to make up your minds about the U.S. Senator you wish to vote for next Tuesday. We can say with all true honesty that we are not proud of

Hole Scheduled For B-B Field

Senate Election To Be Tuesday

Voters of Texas will select their choice of 71 candidates for the post of U.S. Senator in an election Tuesday. Polling will be in all four precincts of Terrell County with balloting possible between 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

State-wide publicity has been given the election and several of the candidates have appeared on television programs available in Sanderson and Terrell County, making possible an intelligent opinion of the qualifications of the candidates who were interested in such information.

Most authorities of the state are predicting a run-off situation as the result of the balloting and a still further choice of two of the 71 candidates will more than likely be possible for Texas voters.

As has been pointed out numerous times, the necessity of every qualified voter of the state casting an intelligent ballot in this race is considered a pre-eminent action.

Redistrict Bill Would Shrink Big 16th District

Rep. Malcolm McGregor of the Texas House of Representatives, has presented a bill — HB 484 — which would change the Congressional Districts of the state, including the 19-county 16th Congressional District.

Under the bill, District 16 would be composed of El Paso, Brewster, Culberson, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves and Terrell Counties.

This would be a decrease of 10 counties, nine of which would go into District 17 and Crockett, County would go into the same district as Tom Green County.

The House Committee hearing the bill also considered HB 473 by Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas and HB 824 by Rep. Bill Walker of Cleveland. Lewis' bill provided that Dallas County get the new Texas Senator and the county would be divided by a north and south line. McGregor's bill provided an east-west line, but Lewis said he would back the McGregor bill, if Dallas were divided the way he wanted it. Other than Dallas County, the Lewis bill left the rest of the districts intact.

Under the McGregor proposal, District 16 would have 45,932 votes in El Paso County alone, according to 1960 poll tax figures, and the balance of the district would have only 12,937 votes, according to the same source.

It has also been unofficially rumored that Rep. J. T. Rutherford would move his residence to El Paso if the pending redistricting proposal is passed.

Under the McGregor proposal, all eight counties in the district could vote solidly against a large majority of El Paso County's vote potential and still lack a sufficient number of votes to be heard in an election.

To Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Steelman of Waco was born a daughter, their first child, on Friday, March 24. Her birth weight was six pounds and seven ounces and she was named Susan Gay Mrs. Steelman is the former Miss Diana Duke. Her mother, Mrs. D. L. Duke, is visiting in Waco for the next two weeks.

Rain Falls In County Friday

Light showers leaving 3-inch of moisture in local gauges fell Friday night early. The rain was on the heels of a light cold front which passed through this area earlier in the day.

Some ranchers reported up to 7-inch of rain Friday night, but most of the rainfall was in the east-central and northeast part of the county, according to reports.

All reports available indicate that some rain fell over the entire county.

Local fruit trees are heavy with small fruit and flowers and shrubs are bursting out with new foliage. Mesquite trees have also burst out in new growth which, to some people, indicates the passing of possible frosts or killing low temperatures.

Wednesday morning another cold wave was in the Sanderson and Terrell County area, with a forecast for cooler weather all day Wednesday and Wednesday night, and warming trends Thursday with the possibility of scattered showers.

Ewing Fined $500 And Given 2 Years, Sentence Suspended

Wayne Ewing, Terrell County rancher, was given a $500 fine and two year suspended sentence in conviction of three counts of smuggling a horse across the Rio Grande. The fine and sentence were in federal court last week in Del Rio.

Federal Judge R. E. Thomason presided at the court.

Given a like fine and sentence in connection with the same offense was Jack Holder of Houston.

Also implicated in the offense was Martin Romero, who had been held in jail six and one-half months, and was given a 2-year suspended sentence and ordered deported by Judge Thomason.

The $500 fine against Ewing and Holder were on the conviction of the first count and the two-year sentences which were suspended were on the second and third counts alleged in the indictments, according to reports.

Terrell County Sheriff Coleman Babb, Texas Rangers Forest G. Hardin of Sanderson, and J. S. Nance, of Sierra Blanca were in Del Rio as witnesses for the trial.

New Law Changes Effect Beneficiaries of Social Security

The Social Security Administration is trying to get in touch with about 25,000 people who are now able to collect monthly social security benefits as a result of recent law changes. They are the survivors of workers who died after March 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1940, after working under social security for at least a year and a half before their deaths. Included among the newly eligible are widows, aged dependent parents, and disabled children age 18 and over.

The original Social Security Act provided benefits only for retired workers. The Act amended in 1939 to make benefits payable to the survivors and dependents of workers, but no provision was made to pay monthly benefits to the survivors of workers who died before 1940.

To qualify for benefits under the new provision, a widow or dependent mother of a worker who died before 1940 must be 62 years of age or over. A dependent father must be 65 or over. A disabled son or daughter must have a disability so severe that it keeps him or her from doing any substantial gainful work and the disability must have begun before the child's 18th birthday.

Another group of people made eligible for benefits by the recent changes in the law are the aged dependent husbands of women workers who have died before 1950. To begin collecting benefits, a surviving widower must be at least 65 years of age. However, eligible widowers who are not yet 65 should file proof that they were otherwise dependent upon their deceased wives before October 1962.

If you believe that you may now be eligible for monthly social security benefits as a result of one of these changes in the law, get in touch with your social security office now about making an application. The social security office in Odessa is located at 1428 East 8th St.

Austin—Texas Senate demonstrated its faith in the future by passing an appropriation bill without having the money to meet the obligations.

It calls for spending $2,496,685 during the next two years. It does not include teacher pay raises or medical care for the aged. Senators agreed that they needed to know how much new money could be raised before making decision on these.

The measure calls for spending $376,000,000 from the already overdrawn general revenue fund. That's $103,000,000 more than the comptroller's estimate of general fund revenue for the next two years. This $103,000,000 plus a deficit that is expected to be about $63,000,000 at the end of this biennium, adds up to $166,000,000 in new revenue that would be needed to put the Senate appropriation bill into effect, as it is now.

Panel Okays Teacher Raise
 Senate Education Committee approved the Hale-Aikin school improvement program which includes an across-the-board $800 a year raise for public school teachers.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, sponsors, said he would not ask for floor passage of the school measure until the general appropriations bill has been passed as well as a tax bill that would provide money for it.

Hale-Aikin program would cost about $72,000,000 a year and local districts about $18,000,000 a year. It would set the minimum salary for beginning teachers with bachelor's degrees at $4,914 a year.

Horses Lose Race
 Before a gallery packed with church people, Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry gave up the fight for a proposed constitutional amendment to legalize horse racing.

House vote against the measure was 143-5. Berry, seeing he did not have a chance to get the measure passed, signaled his supporters to vote against it. This, he said, would avoid "putting them on the spot" for a lost cause.

Berry still hopes to get a referendum on the 1962 general election ballot to indicate public opinion on racing and parimutual betting.

Milk Bill "Skimmed"
 One of the most controversial bills of the session, the milk importation measure, was passed by the House by voice vote.

But before the passage, opponents' amendments had skimmed off the cream of the bill the dairymen wanted.

As passed by the Senate, the bill would bar out-of-state milk from Texas unless a Texas inspector certified he had personal knowledge the milk was produced under standards as high as those required in Texas.

Amendments took out the "personal knowledge" phrase and provided that milk could be imported on the certification of out-of-state health authorities after a Texas authority had found the out-of-state producer to be meeting acceptable standards.

Battle is not over since the differences between the House and Senate versions of the bill will have to be worked out.

Taxes Debated
 House Revenue and Taxation Committee is exploring the possibility of raising money through a corporate income tax.

Testimony was heard on two bills. One by Rep. Tony Koriath of Sherman would repeal the present corporate franchise tax (for a loss of $48,000,000 a year) and substitute a three per cent corporate income tax (for a gain of approximately $96,000,000 a year).

Also heard was a bill by Rep. Maco Stewart of Galveston which would levy a ten per cent corporate income tax, repeal the oil well servicing tax and reduce the sulphur tax.

A bill to provide for a $1.00 charge for taking a state driver's license examination was passed by committee and sent to the House. It would raise an estimated $1,250,000 a year.

Meanwhile, Speaker James Turman, addressing a teachers' group, said he felt Texas was close to resorting to the "last resort"—sales or income taxes.

Campaign Limit Passed
 Senate passed 26-to-4 a bill that would limit to $25,000 the spending of any one candidate in a race for the U.S. Senate.

Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin is sponsor of the bill. Limit would apply to money spent for newspaper, radio or television advertising with the candidate's knowledge. All other means of advertising would be exempted.

Attorney General would be responsible for enforcement. If the bill should be finally passed and take effect before the present special senatorial race is over, it could put a lid on spending of candidates in the run-off campaign next month.

Firemen's Bill Killed

CANCER CONTROL MONTH — Governor Price Daniel this week presented the Sword of Hope, symbol of Cancer Control, to the Jack E. Walsh family of Lubbock, Texas' 1961 Cancer Family. Governor Daniel also proclaimed April as Cancer Control Month in Texas. Pictured with the Governor are Mrs. Walsh, Mr. Walsh, John Walsh, David Walsh, and Erik Johnson, Chairman of the American Cancer Society's 1961 Texas Crusade.

a bill that would have set up a procedure for arbitration of wage and hour disputes between firemen and city governments.

Passage was urged by firemen but opposed by city officials.

Bill would have provided for an arbitration board and if necessary an election once a year to consider firemen's requests. Supporters contended it would have enabled firemen and city officials to settle their problems on the local level instead of battling before the Legislature, as in years past.

Opponents objected to the possibility of frequent, costly elections and argued that it would give firemen a privilege not enjoyed by other city employees.

"Kid" Drivers Target
 House Highways Committee is considering a bill that would take 14-year-olds off the road — as drivers of cars or motor scooters.

Rep. Maco Stewart, sponsor, urged the measure to "take the cars out of junior high school ... and get the students' minds on their books." His measure would raise the minimum age at which a driver's license may be issued from 14 to 15 years and would set up the same licensing requirements for motor scooters. In some towns youngsters of 12 and 13 are allowed to ride motor scooters.

A motor scooter seller objected on grounds that many working youngsters, such as newspaper carrier boys, needed scooters for their jobs.

One million Texans can't be wrong. That many citizens of the state and more are served by rural electric cooperatives. These people know what a struggle it was to get electricity in rural areas. They know that many of the homes would still be dark were it not for the electric cooperatives.

These member-owners of the 77 electric cooperatives serving Texas, borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems. They are paying back principal and interest on the loans while enjoying a steady dependable source of electricity from a first rate electric system. The electric cooperatives of Texas are paying their own way with interest while building a brighter tomorrow.

TEXAS LAWMEN
 Captain L. H. McNelly, Ranger

"Speak softly, but say something... You'll be heard!"

One of Texas' most respected Rangers was described by historian Walter Prescott Webb as "a tallish man of quiet manner, with the soft voice of a timid Methodist preacher." It was said that as a scout during the Civil War, L. H. McNelly had been able to disguise himself, successfully, as a woman.

But no one of Captain McNelly's special Ranger force would ever believe it. Some had known him since, at the age of 17, he enlisted in Co. F, 11th Reg., Texas Mounted Volunteers. Many of them were with him during the Civil War, at Val Verde, Brashear City, Lafourche, Mansfield, and knew all about this quiet man's contempt of danger. After the reactivation of the Texas Rangers in 1874, they saw him step into the sizzling Sutton-Taylor feud in DeWitt City, and chill it thoroughly. They went with him to the Rio Grande to suppress border trouble, and saw the border bandits simmer down to drowsy peace. This was the last service he was able to perform for his state. Not long after his outstanding border clean-up, Captain McNelly contracted tuberculosis and died, September 4, 1877, at his plantation home in Washington County. He was only 33 years of age.

Texas lawmen have always served their state well — as have Texas industry and commerce. Providing payrolls and community revenues, one industry has also provided the refreshment of moderation. In Texas the brewing industry "belongs." Brewers, wholesalers, retailers and the United States Brewers Association are working constantly in cooperation with today's lawmen, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

The tables, covered in white damask, were decorated in pink rose trees placed at vantage points. An Easter egg tree was on the guests' table and to further emphasize the Easter motif, colorful Easter eggs were placed down the center for the full length of the tables.

A huge flower cart filled with spring flowers was in the reception hall where Mrs. Ruel Clark registered the guests.

Five little girls from Mrs. J. R. Hodgkins' dancing class provided an entertainment feature—a blue bunny dance.

The invocation was given by Ruel Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanfield and Mrs. Easterling were house guests in the home of Mrs. Lee Grigsby.

Every body. We only hope we do what's best for the nation.

On the front page of The Times is a story about a proposed redistricting bill in the Texas Legislature which would put all of West Texas under the thumb of El Paso County when it comes to voting. We could not help but oppose such a bill and such a move.

El Paso County, with the largest number of votes in the city, and the rest in a rich farming area, could not be any more different to the rest of the proposed district if one tried to make it so. And representation from the vast ranching area out of El Paso County would only be a whisper in the large vote voice of that metropolis. We would then be completely forgotten in legislative matters, even possibly by the candidates.

the choice we have to make. We are not completely sure yet which name will be left unmarked.

We like the conservatism of John Tower, but we know that a conservative Southern professed Republican - if elected - would be about as ineffective in the Senate as would a small puff of breath in a tornado. He would be rejected by the Southern Democrats because he's a Republican; by the Northern Republicans because he's a conservative, and would find his ilk in a small minority of the minorities headed by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. We kinda feel that his election would not send a voice from Texas to the Senate, but only a slight whisper.

In Bill Blakely, we follow his ideas in many ways, but he's a man of 65 years of age who has a long ladder of seniority to climb before he will be in position to wield any weight in that august body - and time has proven that the Grim Reaper swings a sharper, longer, and wider scythe as the sand runs out of the hour-glass in the time of the life of man.

Jim Wright is a professed "new frontiersman" and the Senate is already too full of men running around in circles looking for someone to go.

Our opinion puts Will Wilson, Henry B. Gonzales, Maury Maverick Jr., and the other 66 et ceteras are just that, in our lowly opinion.

We were much happier with Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson as a U.S. Senator than we are under the present set-up - and you can read into that what you will.

Our vote is going to be cast with the idea of helping our nation as much as can be done by our choice of candidates and it is a known fact that what helps a minority group does not help everybody.

ans to start squeaking while there is some possible opportunity that it will be heard. Write your Representative and voice your opinion.

Under the present district, including cities like Midland and Odessa, candidates are forced to seek the small-county vote as a possible offset to split votes in the three cities of El Paso, Odessa, and Midland, with smaller cities like Pecos and Fort Stockton carrying varying opinions. Now, a squeak from out here can get some grease. Under the proposal, a squeak would be hard to hear between Sanderson and El Paso, even if Fort Stockton, Coyanosa, Iraan, and Bakersfield were helping in the squeaking.

These "behind the scenes" improvements come about in two ways. A great many results from the full-time research carried on by telephone scientists. Other improvements come from ideas of telephone people working right here in Texas.

This teamwork between telephone people on the job and scientist in laboratories makes an unbeatable combination. Our goal is simply this: To give you service this year that's better than last year's.

MORE TIME FOR FAMILY FUN

"How do you find time to get everything done and still have time for your family?" I seem to hear that question come up in conversation more and more lately. Here's how one Kansas family found more time to do the things they enjoyed together.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Padgett of Dodge City have full-time jobs and two active school age children. They find time for bowling, golf, American Legion, P.T.A. and church work in addition to scout and school activities for the children.

How do they manage to keep up with everything? The Padgetts have help - two telephones which they use to save time, trips and energy. Mrs. Padgett says, "I believe we save as much as a day a week in needless trips just by telephoning."

Quite a saving. How about you? Could you use your phones to save time for the family? Why not try them and see.

NEW COMMUNICATIONS SATELLITE ON THE WAY

The success of Project Echo - the communications satellite launched last Fall and still orbiting the earth - proved that communications signals may be transmitted over great distances by controlled satellites.

The Bell System plans to launch additional communications satellites throughout this year.

These experimental satellites will test transmission of voice and television signals, as well as other types of communications.

These experiments could lead to a world-wide space communications network capable of handling television programs and overseas telephone calls.
