LISTEN TO LUKE

Sometimes when we look at the calendar and see that it is the time of week for us to sit down and write something that may be interesting, or entertaining, or disgusting, or enlightening, or newsworthy, or repulsive, or in whatever vein it may be, taken by each of the individual readers, we shudder at some of the thoughts that come to our mind. Then we have to get up and come back and sit down another time and try to have a more printable thought.

This act is not new to us — either the writing, or the coming back.

The time has not been when any columnist wrote to please all of his readers. Such is not the intent of any columnist. The intent is to try to accomplish some good and to set down something that is worthwhile reading.

It's kinda like a preacher only different. We don't profess to have any call from the Almighty or our vocation. We wouldn't be so critical of a God we try to worship as to blame Him for such a thing.

To some columnists, it was a hell to get out of the cotton field, or out of a saddle. Some were probably even called out of a headline. There probably are some who as a young man felt compelled to begin a crusade to straighten out the world, to be in a Eutopia, or to mold the minds of millions. Those delusions soon mellowed and his endeavors later changed to the satisfaction of continuing a status quo, if possible, and trying to keep things from getting any worse, giving up the idea of doing bigger and better things.

One columnist and one newspaper are not enough to change the ways and ideas of mankind, and usually it's a good thing that they are not, because which one of us is smart enough and suave enough to know which of all things should be changed? We have our own ideas about some things that should be changed and we have good authority for many of those proposals, but some other of our ideas and opinions are opinions only and have no higher authority.

But, being a little different from preachers, in lots of ways, columnists have been granted authority to speak out on lots of different things, where preachers usually are allowed to talk about only one thing.

For example, a preacher who would dare to berate a particular political ideal or philosophy, other than Communism, if that is the current enemy or the U.S. — Nazism, or Fascism, or whatever is the thing to oppose — he is considered completely off base. A columnist is within his bounds. A preacher also must restrict his condemnation of the moral laws to those that are directly opposed to the ten commandments. When he speaks of the immorality of man getting something for nothing, as in a poker game, that's within his range of preaching, but if he is opposed in the pulpit to a man's getting something for nothing from the federal government, that's off base.

A columnist doesn't have those bounds.

We have not received any letters or suggestions on the two plans that have been presented to the readers — the ways and means of keeping an ambulance at Sanderson, and the way to get the P.T.A. re-organized.

We are not saying that either one of these things are absolutely necessary to the community. Most everyone would agree, though, that they are desirable. We have word at this writing that the ambulance service is on the verge of being lost hardily before it begins. Maybe it can

New Phone Book Distribution Locally

The new issue of the Terrell County telephone directory has been received by most telephone subscribers in the county. Matt Butschek, commercial manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, stated that anyone not receiving their directory is asked to call the business office.

Old directories should be discarded as soon as the new ones are received, Butschek stated, but telephone subscribers are cautioned to be sure and thumb through the old directories and check for important notes or papers, and also are reminded to be sure and transfer transcribed out-of-town numbers from the old directory to a more permanent listing.

County employees have been working in recent days in cleaning weeds and trash from gutters of local streets. The work is being done with machinery to increase the speed of the project.

Some chat has also been used on local streets in the residential area where "bleeding" has occurred. This is done to offer greatest advantages in the recent seal-coating of the streets and insures a better base for the local streets.

New Ambulance Service Started By W. V. Munson

Announcement of a new ambulance service for this area was announced this week when W. V. Munson purchased a vehicle equipped for modern, up-to-date road service for any kind of emergency.

Mr. Munson stated that the Sanderson Ambulance Service will be available at all hours and that competent personnel who are experienced in necessary road and trip service for all patients will be on hand to take care of calls. He stated that the ambulance is in excellent mechanical condition and the equipment is equal to any for the emergency trips that may arise.

Sanderson residents may rest assured, said Mr. Munson, that he and his assistant, Joe Fuentes, will do all in their power to render efficient and prompt service where an ambulance is needed.

The phone number for ambulance service is DI 5-2201.

Planning Committee For Emergencies Named by USDA

As a part of their plans to assure continued operations of essential functions during an emergency, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has formed an Emergency Planning Committee in 248 counties in Texas. The committee is composed of federal employees at the local level who represent Soil Conservation Service, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, Farmer's Home Administration, Forest Service, and the County Agent.

The Emergency Planning Committee is responsible for the U.S. Department of Agriculture pre-emergency defense planning at the county level and receives its guidance from the chairman of the U.S. Department of Agriculture State EPC in Bryan. The normal channel of communication between the county EPC and the state will be from the chairman of the state USDA EPC through the ASC office to the county level. Emergency duties of the EPC include control of food at the warehouse level, aid to food producers, administration of food orders, acting as claimant for farm manpower, etc.

Guy M. Wilemon, SCS work unit conservationist of the Terrell County EPC, with F. M. Wood Jr., office manager of the Terrell County ASCS, as the other member and second in line of succession, W. G. Hance, SCS range conservationist, and Mrs. Carlos Dunn, ASCS clerk, have been designated as support personnel.

Members of this committee are prohibited from serving in a Civil Defense position (local or disaster district) which would require their presence in an emergency. However, the USDA has strongly encouraged the committee members to maintain close liaison with local authorities and to assist, if time permits, in Civil Defense training and planning at the local level.

Spills, Thrills In Store For Spectators Here

Plenty of thrills and spills await the spectators at Legion Field on Thursday night, July 27 at 8:00 o'clock when a team from the Lions Club will play a team of all-stars of Sanderson in a game of donkey softball. The game is being staged as a benefit event to raise money to pay for the lights at the field and there will be plenty of fun and frolic go with the game. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Oscar Bendele Improving Site At Meyers Springs

Oscar Bendele was in Sanderson this week with pictures to corroborate recent announcement of the improvements under way at Meyers Springs in the eastern part of the county.

Improvements include the clearing off of a lot of brush and debris from the site and its surroundings, the building of a dam across the canyon below the springs, and generally improving the appearance of the site and some facilities near the site for picnicking or camping.

There are still some standing remains of an old fort at the site of the springs and an old tank built by Gen. Bullis during the time that he and a contingent of cavalry occupied the fort. An inscription on a rock slab dates the construction of the tank as 1901.

Near the springs on the walls of natural caves, are Indian drawings which are plainly discernible and colorful.

It is thought that the springs was once used as a camp for one of the early expeditions into this section of Texas and that missionary priests remained in this area for work among the Indians and used the springs as a base for their operations.

Mr. Bendele stated that soon he would have completed work at the springs to open it to the public for picnicking and sight-seeing, but would have to work out details on how to protect the items of historic interest from vandals and souvenir hunters who could destroy all the historic value of the remains within a very short time.

Softball To Begin Thursday Night

Members of the local Lions Club have issued a challenge to all comers for a softball game to be played at the Legion Field tonight (Thursday) under the lights.

Lights for the field have been installed and ready for night play. All spectators and those interested in playing are urged to be on hand for the first game.

It is hoped that other organizations in town will organize a team for more of the twilight sport for the remainder of the summer.

The first game will be played by volunteer players to get the play started. It is hoped that a good turn-out will show enough interest to justify some regularly scheduled games for the remainder of the summer nights.

Double-Header Set For Sunday On Local Diamond

The Sanderson Braves will meet the Ojinaga, Mexico, baseball team here Sunday afternoon for a double-header with the first game getting under way at 1:00 p.m.

The Braves were idle last Sunday after a game with Barstow there was called off. Two weeks ago the Braves took Barstow to a 15-2 cleaning with J. T. Herring doing mound duty for the entire game. Scoopy Harrell was catcher for the game.

The battery for the two games here Sunday has not been announced, but the Braves have about four good starting pitchers who will be ready for both games.

Admission prices for the two-game session will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Bridge Widening Completion Soon

Work on the widening of the bridge in connection with recently contracted highway projects is expected soon.

The bridge across Sanderson Canyon on the east end of town is the center of current work and completion is expected within the next few days.

Work includes the widening of the roadway on the bridge and installation of a walk on the outside of the barrier on the north side of the structure.

G. H. Geaslin Plans Conservation Program

G. H. Geaslin recently completed the basic conservation plan with the Rio Grande-Pecos River Soil Conservation District, with the assistance of technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. Mr. Geaslin's long-range conservation plan includes proper range use, fence construction and stockwater development. A complete forage inventory of the ranch was made in order to help Mr. Geaslin determine his present range condition and steps to help improve his rangeland.

Car Burns West of Town

A fire in the front seat of an automobile caused some damage west of here Monday afternoon. The fire evidently started from a cigarette, according to Bill C. Cooksey, Texas Highway Patrolman who went out to investigate the fire.

J. Y. Slover of Del Rio, is the owner of the automobile. The fire was extinguished before it destroyed all the interior.

Children Warned Of Dangers Near Local TV Tower

There is a possibility of some danger to children who play near or attempt to climb the TV tower on the mountain northwest of Sanderson, according to Austin Nance, owner of the property on which the tower is situated, and operator of the local cable system.

Mr. Nance asked The Times to relay this information to parents after he found recent signs of children having been near the installations on top of the mountain, and also what was apparently childish attempts to force entry into one of the small buildings there.

Mr. Nance stated that there was nothing in the buildings except television relay equipment and that the high voltage and high frequency on some of the equipment that was always under lock might be extremely dangerous to children who might be tampering with it.

He also related the extreme danger in children trying to climb the tower.

Parents are asked to please keep their children out of the Nance pasture and thus prevent danger to them and possible childish harm and expense to the television equipment.

Clear Skies, Hot Weather Scorches Range

Clear skies and hot weather of the past several weeks have given area ranchmen little hope for ideal range conditions during the remainder of the summer.

Some late afternoon thunderheads have failed to develop into rain-bearing clouds for this area except for a few scattered showers.

Mountains to the west of Sanderson have particularly reflected the benefit of recent rains and showed more greenery than has been seen on area hills for several years. But the hot sun, hot winds, and lack of rain have taken their toll in drying grasses and other foliage.

Albert Appel, who has ranched in this area for many years, stated Tuesday that he did not remember ever seeing his ranch country as green and pretty as now.

That area has had an unusually heavy rainfall.

With the marketing season for lambs approaching, many ranchmen expressed serious doubt of as good a marketing crop of lambs as was anticipated and hoped for earlier in the year after general rains of the greatest benefits.

Cancer Society Asks Memorials In Contributions

The American Cancer Society regularly receives contributions as memorials to deceased persons, according to information from Mrs. C. P. Peavy, local treasurer of the Society.

In the past several weeks, memorials have been given by 19 families at the time of the death of friends, she said.

Such memorials are sought by people on many occasions, Mrs. Peavy stated, and the American Cancer Society makes use of the memorials in research for the cure and prevention of cancer.

Anyone interested in giving a memorial contribution to the American Cancer Society is asked to mail or give their contribution to Mrs. Peavy.

Auditors Check County Records

Auditors from the firm of Cherry, Eckert, and Story are on a routine audit of the records of the various officers of the county as well as the books of the Terrell County Water Control & Improvement District No. 1.

Results of the audit will be received by the various county offices and the water district and available to the public within the next few weeks.

The audit of the school's records will not take place before October probably, the auditors stated, since the close of the fiscal year for the school is August 31.

State Capitol NEWS

AUSTIN—After years of tax argument in Texas, debate now seems to have narrowed down to one question.

It is whether to have a sales tax on specified items or one on all but specified items.

First is known as the Pennsylvania-type sales tax. It is favored by Governor Price Daniel as a means of raising $303,000,000 of the $360,000,000 he feels is needed. It would list the items on which a 2 per cent sales tax would be levied. Goal would be to cover all items selling for 50 cents or more except food to be eaten at home, prescription drugs, clothing costing less than $10, feed, seed, fertilizer, books, farm machinery, livestock and gas and electricity used in manufacturing.

Other approach would be a bill like the Senate passed last session. It does not attempt to list all the items to be taxed but applies to everything except the items exempted, including the usual groceries, drugs, farm needs.

Aim of both bills is the same: To raise a lot of money with a lot of retail sales taxes. There is no serious attempt to raise the bulk of the needed money by any means other than retail sales taxes.

To some it might seem a Tweedle Dee-Tweedle Dum choice. But not to Governor Daniel and to many legislators. A sales tax that applies to everything except exempt items is, in the governor's eyes, a "general sales tax," against which he is dead set.

Objectors to the Pennsylvania tax contend it would be one long pain in the neck, both for state tax collectors and retail merchants, to keep up with what is in the long, long list and what isn't. Too, they point out that new products are constantly coming on the market and would be tax-free.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson appeared at the hearing as one of the critics of the Daniel (Pennsylvania) plan.

Legislature is moving swiftly in its short session, trying to avoid re-ploughing the same ground covered on tax bills last session.

Among revenue raising measures under consideration are these:

Governor's Package Bill, by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger. This would include the Pennsylvania-type 2 per cent sales tax, a provision for a minimum levy of 1 cent per 1,000 cubic feet on gas, a two-factor franchise tax on interstate corporations, a 50 per cent increase in drivers' license fees, a transfer of that portion of gasoline taxes allocated for schools at the end of August each year and a leveling of the tax on coin-operated machines at $10 each per year.

Hinson Package Bill, by Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, frequent sponsor of measures favored by the governor. Hinson's bill would include a sales tax on purchases of $5 or more, a corporate income tax, real estate transfer tax, a severance beneficiary tax on natural gas, a utilities tax and a 1 per cent transfer from the permanent school fund. Estimated yield: $368,000,000.

Gas Tax Bill, by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. Bill is designed to insure that the state would collect a minimum tax of 1 cent on each 1,000 cubic feet of Texas gas. If the present 7 per cent gas production tax did not supply it, the purchaser would have to pay the difference. Estimate yield: $30,000,000. It is included in the Ballman bill.

Selective Excise Tax by Ben Atwell of Dallas. It is similar to the Pennsylvania tax, also, and would yield an estimated $355,000,000.

Escheat Bill, by Rep. Charles Hughes of Sherman. This is the well-worn proposal to provide enforcement procedures so that abandoned property, bank accounts, etc., would go to the state. Battle of the Polls

Two citizens groups are engaged in a duel of poll taking, each trying to demonstrate more public support for its tax plan.

Citizens for a Sales Tax announced that of 11,000 persons replying to its post card poll, 83.6 per cent favored a retail sales tax.

Citizens for Fair Taxation, a group which supports Governor Daniel's tax program, immediately declared that the CST poll was heavily weighted with Chamber of Commerce members and not a true reflection of public sentiment.

Citizens for Fair Taxation is at work on a poll of its own.

Spending Bills Pushed

A general appropriations bill and a bill to raise teachers' salaries are moving through both the houses with little re-hashing. The Senate quickly approved a two-year appropriations bill calling for spending of $2,469,000. It is essentially the same as the Senate appropriations bill in the regular session.

Both Senate and House education committees approved bills that would give public school teachers an across-the-board raise of $810 a year. House passed the teachers' bill on the floor, 141 to 1. Senate committee also approved education bills providing for educational films, driver education, assistant principals for larger schools, and five days sick leave a year for teachers.

Money Needs Upped State Comptroller Robert S.

HORSEFEATHERS!

Calvert had a new revenue forecast for legislators at the beginning of the session that showed an expected revenue from existing sources at $24,000,000 less than the January forecast.

Part of the difference between the old and new forecasts was due to some $6,000,000 in additional school and welfare payments authorized during the regular session. Most of the rest of the drop was attributed to a decline in revenue from auto sales taxes and franchise taxes.

Calvert also estimated that the general fund deficit at the end of the fiscal year August 31 will be $64,000,000. This is $1,000,000 more than his January prediction.

Lobby Regulations Offered

At Governor Daniel's suggestion, a bill to impose further lobby controls has been introduced. Daniel has consistently blamed "lobby interference" for the regular session to agree on a tax plan.

Five House members are co-sponsors of a bill that would require that all contributions of $50 or more to be used to influence legislation be reported. It would also prohibit lobbyists from being on the floor of House or Senate during sessions or calling members off the floor during debate.

Insurance Inquiry Set

House has authorized a special five-member committee to look into the reasonableness of a 15 per cent raise in auto insurance rates recently ordered by the State Board of Insurance.

The resolution expressed concern that the higher rate might cause many drivers to drop their auto insurance and thus become unable to pay for accident damage.

Teacher Training Hit

Member of the Commission on Higher Education looked over a 140-page report on teacher education courses being offered in state colleges and decided that there was too much folderol.

A number of legislators also have been critical in recent months, both of the content and amount of time spent on teaching method courses. State Board of Education has recently reduced the number of method courses required for teacher certification.

Commission on Higher Education members expressed hope that college administrators could and would do for themselves the necessary pruning in education course offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sullivan and daughter, Hannah, visited in Houston last week with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown and Elaine returned home Sunday from Camp Waldemar where they had attended closing exercises at the camp and picked up their daughter, Barbara Brown, for the return trip home.

Vacation time? Yes!

--but not for Reddy!

Summer is vacation time for most folks. But it's the busiest time of the year for your electric servant, Reddy Kilowatt. When the weather is hot, he works harder than ever keeping folks cool with fans and air conditioners. There is usually more washing and ironing to be done. And folks rely on Reddy to provide the extra refrigeration, ice cubes and cold drinks that hot weather calls for. Naturally this extra work is reflected in Reddy's monthly pay. But the difference is small compared to the comfort he makes possible. Reddy is your lowest-cost servant and the more hours he works for you the less he costs you per hour.

Changes in SS Law Are Announced

By H. P. Thomas
Manager of the Odessa Social Security District Office

The new amendments to the social security law, signed by President Kennedy last week, give men early benefit rights similar to those women have had since 1956.

The change applies to men between 62 and 65 years of age, and is designed especially to help those who are unable to find employment because of their age or poor health.

A man now 62 to 65 years of age can start receiving benefits if he retires before he reaches age 65, the monthly amount of benefit paid to him is reduced. He will continue to be paid the reduced amount even after he reaches 65.

Dependent widowers and dependent fathers of workers who have died also can get benefits at age 62. Their benefits, like those of widows and dependent mothers, are not reduced.

Members of the immediate family of a retired worker can get dependents' benefits if the worker retires at 62 or if he waits. Eligible dependents include a wife 62 or older, or a wife at any age if she has in her care children who are eligible for benefits. The child of a retired worker is eligible if he is under age 18, or if he has been totally disabled since childhood.

He stated that the filling of the faculty this year was far ahead of last year's efforts and he was assured of an early completion of the needs of the local system by the number of applicants and interest being shown by applicants for positions in the local system.

of the readers.
Next week is National Farm Safety Week. We don't have a farm, but we think that it is a good week to have every week. Motor vehicle accidents cause nearly one-half of the fatal injuries to farm people. Rural highway accidents kill many people and the injuries to the survivors are generally severe. Three-fourths of all deaths from motor vehicle injuries result from accidents on rural roads. One of every seven persons killed in motor vehicle accidents is a farm ranch resident.

Let's protect our farmers and ranchers, and for goodness sake let's hope they, in turn, try to help protect us.

We city folks have them numbered, and we also have the highest percentages of accidents and fatalities. The odds are pretty strong, too, that when two are involved in an accident one of them is a rancher, the other one will be a city slicker, and it might be you.

Let's all be careful!

WHY ISN'T YOUR CHURCH A BETTER CHURCH?

1. It is because YOU are not a BETTER church member.
2. It is because YOU do not ATTEND ALL of its services.
3. It is because YOU do not PRAY ENOUGH for it and its leaders.
4. It is because YOU CRITICISE it and its leaders and members.
5. It is because YOU ACT in SELFISH and UNCHRISTIAN ways.
6. It is because YOU have depended on others to DO your WORK.
7. It is because YOU do not ESTEEM or VALUE your church highly.
8. It is because YOU ARE WHAT YOU ARE and are NOT SEEKING the Kingdom of God FIRST in your own life.
9. It is because YOU are NOT WILLING to MAKE SACRIFICES for it.
10. It is because YOU do NOT LOVE people ENOUGH to VISIT them.
11. It is because YOU are TOO BUSY with your OWN INTERESTS and NEGLECT the interests of your church.
12. It is because YOU are TOO SELFISH and TOO COVETOUS to support your church and its great work.
13. It is because YOU LOVE yourself and your money and your time MORE than you LOVE the Lord and His Church.
14. It is because it is EASIER for YOU to SHIRK your responsibilities than for YOU to DISCHARGE them.
15. It is because YOU are WILLING to BE a GIANT in all other loyalties, but YOU are SATISFIED to be a GRASSHOPPER in your church ATTITUDES.
