LISTEN TO LUKE

This is a perilous time as we have waited for the pronouncement to come from the President of the United States.

What the President has said would well mean the difference between victory and defeat in this cold war. If it is defeat, it will be the end of America as we have always known it. The result of the declarations made by our commander in chief, would well mean that we have a determination to get on the right track and show the world that we are not to be pushed around any more.

Our Senators and Representatives in Washington surely should be able to read the handwriting on the wall and see that a great many things have to be changed from the old vote-getting promises to facing the bare facts.

We noticed this week that there were unpublished novels left in bank vaults by the late Ernest Hemingway because of the tax situation. A Dallas newspaper states editorially that published cotton costs 25 cents near Dallas $73,000,000 yearly and unbought machinery hangs many firms in that area because of federal taxes and depreciation allowances.

The national policies for the past 30 years have been building up and adding on to the hazards caused by this type of policy. So the "New Frontier" has done nothing but add to this dilemma. Unpublished books create no business for printers, booksellers, shippers, or anyone else. Farms that are unplanted dry up industries that serve agriculture and the towns they support.

Far worse is the erosion of the traditional spirit of initiative and aggressiveness.

If the government is to penalize us if we do something, then there is no inclination for anyone to want to do anything.

We are reprinting information from an AP story with a Washington dateline, in which the word spread that Terrell County is eligible for federal aid.

We are wondering who in Terrell County is in such destitute circumstances that they need to go to the federal government for aid. It is strongly hinted that because of the high unemployment rate that the county is eligible. HA! HA! HA!

The people here who don't work don't want work — almost to the man! Or they are to particular!

The few exceptions are the students who are trying to earn spending money during the summer, or transients who come to ask for day work.

Terrell County is not one of the richest but we have been able to take care of our own pretty well. And those who are riding the unemployment insurance benefits, would not work for wages under any circumstances, probably.

Rather than get on the federal program we should claim all use acres as eligible for unassisted cotton and then pay those who didn't help plant cotton, and we would have no low-income difficulties.

Or we could build a federal building to take care of the several federal agencies who surely will be in the county soon to operate our local government and schools. That would get rid of good part of the available sunshine who had a steady growth taking it away from us to give back to us and we are not getting a similar amount back.

When are we going to see the end to all of this?

Ever watch how the state legislature spends money? That's interesting, too!

One current move would permit the expenditure of $50,000

Rural Residents Affected by Most Laws, Report Says

The time has passed when a farmer or rancher could remain oblivious to the activities of the state legislature, according to James D. Gordon, research assistant of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

First, legislation pertaining to agriculture is progressively assuming a greater scope so that at present virtually no participant in agriculture — owner, laborer, or marketer — is exempt from the decisions made at the capitol, says Gordon.

Second, is the inevitable fact that rural representation in the legislature has not maintained its former predominance. This is a natural reflection of the continuing urbanization of Texas and the consequences thereof. A manifestation of the diminishing rural population was the enactment during the last session of House Bill 349 which reapportioned the state into representative districts. The advocates of this measure testified that urban representation in the House has consistently lagged behind its proportional share. The amended bill provided Harris County four new representatives, Dallas two, one each for Travis, El Paso, Taylor, Lubbock, and Amarillo, and one-half each for Nueces, Hidalgo, Ector, and Midland counties. The net effect was the transfer of 13 House votes from rural to urban areas. This adjustment constitutes a substantial loss, taking from primarily pro-agricultural forces while supplementing its opposition.

As a consequence of these two transitions, farmers and ranchers may no longer rest assured that their interests will necessarily be perpetuated by the state legislature. Though it would be inaccurate to surmise that adequate support in the House has been lost, the future will present an abundance of previously unencountered obstacles insofar as the promotion of farm interests is concerned.

During the legislative session just ended the Texas Farm Bureau, the state's most active agricultural lobby, assessed its achievements as follows: bills supported and passed, 20; bills opposed and defeated, 20; bills supported and defeated, 17; bills opposed and passed, three. The more pertinent of these are discussed in the current issue of the Texas Business Review.

In brief, today's farmers and ranchers are discovering that virtually every phase of their operations has or is on the verge of becoming subject to the active scrutiny of the state legislature. This is exemplified by the proposed labor legislation which farm interests were successful in defeating.

Though agricultural interest has in the past been directed principally toward the actions of the federal government, it is becoming increasingly apparent that those engaged in the production and marketing of agricultural goods, must be cognizant of state legislative activities as well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Duncan left Wednesday for San Angelo where he went by plane to Long Beach, Calif., to be a guest on a cruiser making a 12-day cruise along the Pacific Coast and including a water show in Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Duncan will visit her sister, Mrs. Virgil Musick, and family in Abilene.

Mrs. W. E. Lea Jr. and her sister, Mrs. Roy Deaton, were weekend visitors in Alpine with their sister, Mrs. Mildred McElroy, who is attending the summer session of Sul Ross College.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Harper visited in San Angelo Tuesday with their son, Don, who is attending the summer session of San Angelo College.

Federal Aid Offered County

According to an Associated Press news release last weekend, Terrell County is one of 516 localities eligible for federal aid, according to an announcement from the Commerce Department.

The Commerce Department designated 468 rural counties and 48 Indian reservations in 42 states as redevelopment areas eligible for federal aid.

The announcement by Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges also made public standards to be applied to areas of low-income and substantial and persistent unemployment on which the designations were based.

Federal aid available under a new area redevelopment law totals $94,000,000.

The designated areas include several counties in Texas which include only Terrell and Val Verde Counties in this area.

Lamb Prices Down Below Last Year

Lamb prices are down this year lower than for several previous years, according to area ranchmen this week. There has been little interest on the part of ranchmen in efforts to sell lambs because of the low prices and the condition of ranges due to recent rains.

Prices have gone down as low as 10c per pound in some cases, they state, with 11c about as high a price as has been reached for lambs from this area.

Some ranchmen reports exceptionally heavy lambs this year, but most say they have both light and heavy lambs, whatever the buyers want.

E. E. Harkins Works On Prickly Pear Control

Brush control is the conservation practice now in the lime-light in the Rio Grand-Pecos River Soil Conservation District. E. E. Harkins is controlling prickly pear through the use of chemicals applied by hand. The chemical is 2,4,5-T in mixture with diesel oil and water. Harkins says he has been using about 18 gallons of the mixture per acre. Many ranchers have just completed mechanical control of prickly pear and lechuguilla.

Dove Harvest Appears Ample For This Fall

The dove harvest outlook is exceptionally good for this fall, according to all visible indications. The season opens on September 1 this year, but full particulars of the hunting laws for the Trans-Pecos area have not yet been disclosed.

Feed for the birds seems to be plentiful along area highways and in the pastures and, if the birds to be seen along the highway is an indication of the numbers elsewhere, the harvest this fall should be excellent — if the shooters are accurate.

Shooters are warned to be sure and investigate the laws governing bag limit, hours of shooting, license requirements, etc., prior to the season.

Braves Win Pair From Ojinaga

The Sanderson Braves took a twin bill from the Ojinaga baseball team here Sunday afternoon.

In the first, a 7-inning game, the Braves won by an 8-2 score. Celestino Fuentez pitched for the locals and David Flores was the catcher.

In the second game, Gary Cox pitched the Braves to a 7-1 score in a regular 9-inning tilt. Larry Harrell was the catcher.

The games were played to a large crowd and the weather assisted the comfort of players and spectators by affording a cloud covering during most of the games.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murray spent the weekend in San Antonio and brought their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Murray, to Sanderson to accompany their children, who had been visiting here with their grandparents, back to their home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Clark are on their vacation, going first to Odessa to visit with their daughters, Betsy Clark, who has been visiting there, and Mrs. Gene Chandler, and family.

Karen Huey accompanied her aunt, Miss Allen Huey, of Austin on a trip to visit with friends in Hollywood, Calif. They visited places of interest in that area during the three weeks they were gone.

New Arrivals

On July 14, a daughter, the third child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Miguel Quezada. Her birth weight was seven and one-half pounds and she was given the name Hilda.

To Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Maldonado Galvan, Jr., was born a daughter on Saturday, July 15th. Her birth weight was six pounds and twelve ounces and she was given the name Elsa.

To Mr. and Mrs. Malone Mitchell, Jr., (Dippy) of Stillwater, Oklahoma, was born their first child, a son, on Thursday, July 20th. His birth weight was seven pounds and eleven ounces and he was given the name Noah Malone Mitchell, III.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ellison of Tulsa, Oklahoma, are the maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Mitchell the paternal grandparents. Mrs. Mitchell has been with her son and family since July 4th and Mr. Mitchell will go for her next week.

Mrs. A. B. Gowen's Funeral in Del Rio

Funeral services were held in Del Rio Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Annie Brooks Dobbin Gowen, 86, who died in a hospital in that city Thursday evening.

She suffered an accidental fall while visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andy White, on the ranch near Sanderson and was taken to Del Rio for treatment.

A native of Fayetteville, she had resided in Del Rio for many years and was employed for 18 years at the J. C. Penny Co. store. Her husband died in 1924. For the past eight years she had resided with a daughter in Bay City.

Survivors include four sons and two daughters. Miss June Richardson and her roommate, who had been on a tour of the Pacific Northwest for three weeks, came by Sanderson en route to Houston to visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Irl Richardson. Mrs. Richardson accompanied them to visit with another daughter and family in Angleton.

The results of the poll will be published as soon as they are complete. Ballots are already being counted with August 28 the deadline for mailing them.

The poll is being conducted by the newspapers of the nation in cooperation with the Christian Herald Magazine.

Parents Reminded Of Need For Birth Certificates

Parents of children who will enter school for the first time this fall are reminded of the need for birth certificates for the children. Copies are available from the county clerk or from the Texas State Department of Health's Records and Statistics Section.

Persons who must apply to the Texas State Health Department are urged to send $1, the name of the child, place and date of birth, and the parents' names, soon so that the Department will have time to get the copy of the birth certificate back in time for the opening of school.

The school officials will release information soon concerning other necessities for starting first graders.

Nearly 1 Inch Rain Falls Here Over Weekend

Nearly one inch of rain was reported by several local residents from showers over the weekend.

The rains were general over this area, but varying in intensity.

Particularly good rain was reported in the north and northeast parts of the county, becoming lighter to the south.

A light shower fell locally on Tuesday morning, leaving only a trace of moisture in local gauges.

Heavy clouds have prevailed for the past several days indicating a promise of chances for additional moisture.

Tuesday following the shower, heavy thunderheads and clouds prevented the visibility of much blue sky during the day.

Wednesday morning a shower fell before daylight, leaving approximately 20-inch of moisture in local rain gauges.

Reports were incomplete, but indications are that the showers were general over this area.

With the showers of last weekend and the two already this week, ranchmen are again hopeful of an excellent range condition to carry them through the fall.

Reports from areas where rain has fallen in the past several days indicate that the foliage of the rangelands has become green again and adds to the appearance of the countryside, as well as the indication of the increased benefits from the rains.

The showers which fell last weekend amount to 2 inches in some parts of the county, particularly to the north of Sanderson. Wednesday afternoon, heavy clouds covered the sky and gave promise of the possibility of additional moisture.

Vandalism Criticised In Game Magazine

Fortunately for those of us who respect clean highways, attractive parks and recreation areas, and the rights of others, the percentage of people who keep cleanup crews busy is small. What an ugly appearance our great state would have if all its citizens were as thoughtless and irresponsible as the few who dirty up our roads and recreation areas. These are the sentiments of Howard D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, in his editorial in the July issue of Texas Game and Fish.

"There are too many immature, irresponsible people who wilfully and maliciously set about to destroy," wrote Dodgen. "Some seem to do it for the mere thrill. Others perhaps think it smart. A few may do it for personal benefit. Whatever the motivation, there is no place for ruthless and needless vandalism anywhere."

Some typical examples of vandalism mentioned are shooting at mailboxes and signs; the destruction of trees, shrubs, and flowers; breaking out windows in public places, and vacant houses; or writing names on walls, carving them into utility poles, and shooting insulators of telephone and power lines.

Beaches are left littered with bottles, melon rinds and unused food scraps. There are actually drivers who will toss bottles and cans out their windows, as well as tissues and papers.

"Unfortunately," writes Dodgen, "the guilty ones probably won't be reading the editorial. But you may be able to help by reporting the next act of vandalism you see. After all, it's your property they are destroying."

F. M. Weigand was a business visitor in Alpine Tuesday.

March of Dimes Expands Aid for Victims Of Crippling Birth Defects, Arthritis, Polio

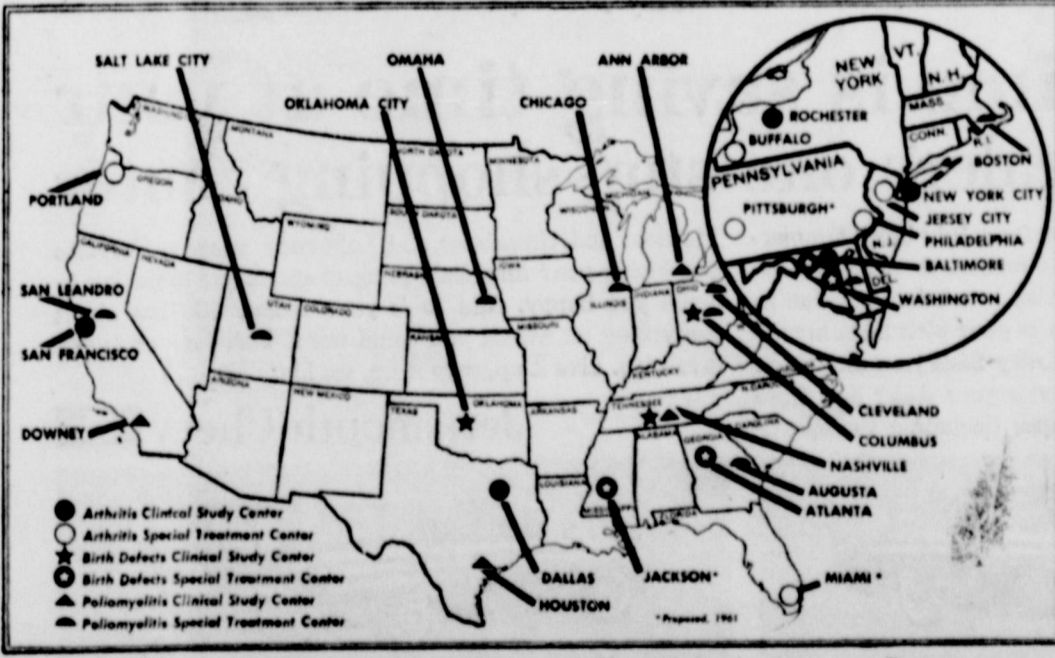

Victims of crippling birth defects and rheumatoid arthritis, among the largest groups of the medically underprivileged in the nation, can soon look for help virtually at their doorsteps, thanks to the March of Dimes.

The National Foundation, supported by March of Dimes funds, has broadened its horizons to give direct aid to children under the age of 19 suffering from all types of birth defects. Aid was previously limited to children with open spine, open skull and water on the brain.

The voluntary health organization has also authorized its 3,100 chapters throughout the United States to use available funds to establish a network of Special Treatment Centers and Evaluation Clinics for birth defects and arthritis. Assistance to polio victims will be continued.

The National Foundation's experience with polio treatment and rehabilitation centers as well as pilot projects conducted in birth defects and arthritis has proved the value of bringing together teams of experts to deal with medical, economic and social problems of chronically disabled patients and their families.

Under the newly expanded program, National Foundation chapters will finance special Treatment Centers at major hospitals in several large cities. These will operate full time and provide treatment for both in- and outpatients through teams of specialists in the medical and allied professions.

For areas isolated from large medical centers, chapters will develop birth defects and arthritis Evaluation Clinics to offer outpatient care only, offering periodic clinics with visiting medical specialists.

Cases that require more extensive care or hospitalization may be referred through Evaluation Clinics to Special Treatment Centers.

On the national level, March of Dimes funds will continue to support and expand Clinical Study Centers which provide exemplary total care for birth defects, arthritis and polio victims and also conduct research in those diseases.

Austin—House members burned midnight oil in an effort to get a tax bill in the Senate before the mid-point of the brief 30-day session.

In the long, long sessions and seemingly endless succession of approaches, amendments, substitutes, and substitutes for the substitutes, it was often difficult to tell who was winning what. Showdown votes indicated that it is still easier for members to agree on what they don't want than on what they do.

Rejected, at least for the time being, was a package bill recommended by the Revenue and Taxation Committee. Its main money raising aspect was a sales tax, with exemptions, on items costing $5 or more. It also included more utilities taxes, natural gas taxes, a transfer of funds from the permanent school fund, a revised franchise tax, and a book-keeping transfer.

Also turned down were proposals for a 4 per cent corporate tax by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston and a 1 per cent general sales tax by Rep. Tom Andrews of Aransas Pass.

Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, chairman of revenue and taxation, was pushing for a package bill that closely tracked Gov. Price Daniel's recommendations at the beginning of the session. It differed from the committee-written package chiefly in that it included a Pennsylvania-type tax, applying only to items listed in the bill.

Despite the House problems, an August 8 finish may still be possible. Senate, generally, is swifter and more nearly of one mind on money matters. It agreed on a tax bill in the regular session in approximately one-third the time spent by the House.

Hardest part is getting agreement on one plan from both the House and Senate — and finally — from the Governor.

Fund Bill Progresses
 House has given reading approval to a bill appropriating $2-527,000,000 for the next two years.

It is slightly higher than the bill passed earlier by the Senate, and eventually differences will have to be worked out by a conference committee of the two houses.

A group of conservatives in the House were foiled — at least temporarily — in an effort to cut the bill by $27,000,000 through economy measures. Among items they felt could be deleted or put off were recarpeting the House chamber and refinishing members' desks for $250,000, adding an office for the governor to the Governor's Mansion for $50,000, installation of a sprinkler system on the Capitol lawn for $20,000, and several other expenses of that nature.

Economy group also wanted to trim back some increases in the bill for salaries and travel expenses for state personnel and eliminate paying legislators a salary for the period between November, 1960, when the annual pay amendment was approved, and the start of the session in January.

A bill to provide additional lobby regulation attracted neither friends nor enemies to a hearing before the House State Affairs Committee.

TEXAS LAWYER

NOAH SMITHWICK
the "Peaceful" Ranger

"With the courage of his convictions . . ."

In 1827, a peace-loving blacksmith of 19 years drifted into Texas. He soon found anything but peace. As a skilled gunsmith and armorer, Noah was on hand to prepare the fighting hardware for the Texas revolutionary battle of Concepcion, and to participate with enthusiasm. Later he was one of the San Jacinto combatants who pursued the retreating Mexicans far south of the Rio Grande. After that he joined the Texas Rangers for a very active two years of frontier duty, leaving the service in 1838 when the force was disbanded temporarily. Then, as a justice of the peace at Webber's Prairie, a Lieutenant of Texas Militia, armorer at Fort Croghan, life continued in a fairly unpeaceful way—until 1861. Because he opposed secession so strongly, Smithwick shook the dust of Texas for California. History does not record his later years, but he found time to record a great deal of history—his highly colorful reminiscences of early days in the Lone Star State.

Texas never could have become a great state without the courage and devotion to duty of her lawmen—nor without the commerce and industry that have provided prosperity and the good life. The brewing industry, too, has had a part in this development. Providing payrolls and the pleasure of moderate beverages, revenue and relaxation—"beer belongs." The United States Brewers Association is constantly at work with brewers, wholesalers, retailers and local authorities to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly and law-abiding conditions.

(yes, that's the right figure) for an office in the mansion for the governor. We thought at first it was going to be a new mansion, or an office-mansion.

No wonder they are fighting over a way to raise money. And no wonder they need money!

It is a strange thing for us, out in this part of the country, to try to fathom the operations of people. And it is strange, at times, for us to see how other people live in other places.

It would seem that the most successful business man is he who owes the most money. It matters not, to some people, whether or not he is solvent, rather how big his borrowing power is.

The best manager is he who can put off the most in weekly installment payments to pay down on something else, and then to work the skipped payments most shrewdly to keep the credit managers off their backs.

A successful man once was measured by his standing in the neighborhood or community and by his physical possessions. Now, to heck with his standing, or how he got it, but by the fact that he has so much.

TELEPHONE TALK
by Matt Butschek, Manager

PROXY MARRIAGE WITH A NEW TWIST
Today it's not unusual for a couple separated by many miles to be married by means of a long distance telephone call. But I recently heard about a marriage conducted in Fort Worth for a couple 5,000 miles away, in Germany, with a new angle.

When Dale Bennett and his fiancée were married in Konigstein, Germany, his father, Rev. Harold O. Bennett, conducted the ceremony from his church in Fort Worth via overseas telephone. By means of special speakers installed in the church, family and friends could hear both ends of the conversation.

The speaker system was arranged by two telephone communications experts who also set up the overseas call. This may be the first marriage of this type in the world.

Operators Use "Overlapping" For Faster Service
Miss Olga McCord, chief operator, revealed that her operators are using a new system called overlapping to speed placing long distance calls. It's a new plan to effectively utilize every second in placing your calls.

Overlapping reduces waiting, and connects parties while conversational thoughts are still fresh.
"The nice thing about it is that customers can help," said Mrs. McCord.

Here is the way the plan works best. Let's suppose you are calling a friend in Fort Worth. When the operator answers, say "Give me Fort Worth, Edison 6-3281." Nothing more.
Your operator immediately keys the call; and while the equipment is making connections, she prepares the ticket, asks and records your number.
Your friend in Fort Worth answers almost instantly.

Put More Fun in Your Trips
One day last week an old friend stopped by to tell me about his vacation plans. He told me where he was going, what highways he'd take and where he'd be staying all along the way.
I asked how he got everything worked out so well.
"It was easy," he said. "This year I made all my plans by phone. We have good accommodations for each night, and I know how much they cost. You just can't beat a phone call for finding out what you need to know."
That's a good idea for you, too, if you're planning a trip or vacation. You can save money by calling on Sundays or after 6 p.m. on weekdays when long distance rates are lower. And on station-to-station calls, you save as much as one-third more.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
