LISTEN TO LUKE

In recent months the local post of the American Legion, together with the American Legion Auxiliary, jointly had a showing of the picture "Operation Abolition" and planned to get the picture back for a public showing but has been unable to get the film at the proper time. It is hoped that soon it will be available again and it can be shown here.

This picture was ridiculed as an exaggerated portrayal of the effects of the communistic brainwashing in American schools and colleges. It was banned in many places on the pretense that it was radical and would only create more radical thinking on the part of the viewers.

Now we realize that there is a need for an awakening to the real danger of communism and its gains on the thinking of American youth—and many adults. There are those who think "it can't happen here". Ministers have been lax in that they attempt to ignore the threat that has brainwashed millions of Americans by the anti-Christian teachings. Communism is against all the things that our Christian churches profess to believe. Why can't we get the idea to the people of this country without being labeled as a radical? It must be done now. Next year may be too late.

We notice that the town of Breckenridge, Texas, is to have an "Americanism Day" and will show the film which was made on the scene at a college campus in the United States. Burke Mastrov, chairman of the "Americanism Day" celebration, is quoted as follows:

"If we do not act, we may be profaned forever by the interlopers of a ravished planet. We will be reviled, not as fools—even a fool can sense the dangers. We will be reviled as cowards; for only cowards can flee from the awesome facts that command us to act with fortitude."

A new move is to be made to get the film here and it is hoped that there will be no objection to the showing. If there is opposition then those of us who feel the need for the film will see to it that it is shown to those who will come to see it.

This column has at all times tried to keep before the readers the need for constant vigilance for the sake of the welfare of our country. We hope, whatever else you may think of this column, you will never think that we have willingly let an opportunity pass to warn of the impending danger to our freedom and the American way of life.

In this time of imminent danger let us all fly our flag to let the world know that we intend to keep Old Glory waving out to the world that freedom is ours and we intend to keep it. Communism is against God, against righteousness, against liberty, against truth and virtue. Let us show our colors and not compromise with the concepts of appeasement that will only take away the freedom we so proudly proclaim.

Let's pray constantly for the leaders of our great country that they may always be dedicated to the great cause of freedom.

With all the stir and uproar over the international mess, the piling up of reserves, the increase of draft quotas, the concern over the tax situation, and many, many more serious problems that confront the American people—and should weigh pretty heavy on the shoulders of our legislators—there is a great deal of legislative committee time being consumed on the question of "Who is Uncle Sam?"

In a recent news release from our Congressman a great deal of attention is made of the various

The boys have been working out for two weeks under the supervision of Coaches Carlton Smith and Gerald Petersen.

Dove Season Opens Friday

Dove season gets under way Friday in the north zone of the state, which includes Terrell County, according to information received from the Texas Game and Fish Commission. The season runs through October.

According to this information, hunters may kill 15 birds per day and have not more than 30 in possession. The shooting hours are from noon to sunset.

The above laws apply only to mourning doves in the county.

Hunters are asked to contact their game conservator or the digest of game laws to make sure they are familiar with the laws.

Hunting licenses are required to shoot dove anywhere in the state and persons under age or overage, or the ranchers eligible for an exemption may get the required license either from the game conservator, the county clerk, or one of the local license clerks, or from Dudley's Texaco Station. A ranchman who is going to hunt off of his own ranch is required to have a regular hunting license. All hunting licenses are good for all game animals and birds during the hunting season ending August 31, 1962.

Remodelling Done To Dryden Church

Extensive repairs and remodeling have been underway at the Dryden Methodist Church in recent weeks.

Volunteer help from the members of the church and friends, both men and women, led by the pastor, Rev. F. E. Curry, have made the project possible.

The outside of the church has been painted, a new ceiling installed and the interior of the church painted. A partition was put across one end of the building toward the back and provides a restroom, kitchen, and small storage room.

New pews have been ordered for the sanctuary and new linoleum will be laid.

When the work is completed, the renovation will make not only for a cleaner and neater appearance for the building, but will also make it more convenient and useful as a place of worship.

Terrell Well Flows Fusselman Gas

A Fusselman discovery was indicated in Terrell County with the flowing of gas rated at 361,000 cubic feet daily and the recovery of 2,000 feet of gas-cut water blanket and 180 feet of gas-cut mud on a drillstem test at Roden Oil Co., Midland, No. 1 L. H. Hicks, in section CCSD&RGNG, 15 miles southeast of Sheffield in the Brown-Bassett multipay gas field.

Gas surfaced in 10 minutes on the 2 1/2-hour test taken between 12,841-78 feet. Flowing pressure was 950-975 pounds; 30-minute shut-in pressure was 6,225-4,200 pounds.

AUSTIN — Gov. Price Daniel, pointing to the record of most other states that have a general sales tax, warns Texans that without concerted efforts to share state spending the Texas tax could grow to three or four per cent in the future.

More than that, he said, unless there is "prudent economy and reorganization of state funds and services," a state income tax might become law.

To make his point, Governor Daniel reported that two-thirds of the 34 states that have general sales taxes have increased the rate to three per cent or more, and there are now four states charging a four per cent sales tax.

He again made clear his dislike for the two per cent Texas tax, but added:

"So much for the good and bad which will result from the new tax bill. On September 1 it will be the law of our state, and as long as the law is in effect, it behooves all of us, whether we like it or not, to cooperate in its enforcement. This I shall do, and I believe every good citizen will do likewise."

Meanwhile State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert is being swamped with questions about the new tax. After checking with other states which have pioneered in this field, he has become reconciled to the likelihood that confusion will reign for some time to come. A spokesman for his office pointed out that "California and Illinois got a sales tax in 1933, and they're still issuing rulings."

The Texas Research League has noted that the tax bill exempts sales of animals ordinarily eaten by humans. Also feed for such animals. Exempt too are seeds and plants edible by humans and raised for sale, fungicides and insecticides for such plants, and fertilizer used on lands where such food is grown.

But the researchers say this exemption would not apply to tropical fish, grass seed and fertilizer for lawns and rose bushes.

More Work for Next Session
Governor Daniel has found several more items to be submitted to the next special session of the Legislature. He plans to call the lawmakers back to Austin again before the end of the year.

Daniel's expanding package now includes maintenance funds for farm roads, loan shark control, municipal annexation, tourist attraction, lobbyist controls, adding banks to the abandoned property seizure law, improved law enforcement measures, and action on juvenile crime.

"As long as Texas continues to grow," he said, "there will be more problems to solve, but there are some which should not be delayed. It will be my aim to meet the most urgent of these later this year or in January of next year."

Governor Daniel vetoed the second year appropriation of $15,000,000 for construction of new farm-to-market roads, in an effort to free these funds for maintenance. The $15,000,000 for this purpose for the first year of the new biennium was not affected.

A law passed in 1949 provides for the use of this yearly amount for new construction. But the Governor insists, "It is just as important to maintain our vast and important 33,000 mile farm road system as it is to build new roads. Maintenance costs, now amounting to $18,000,000 annually, are taken from the basic intrastate highway fund which is the poorest of all department programs."

Blue Law Confusion
Under the new Texas "Blue Law," shopping for certain items on Saturday or Sunday may prove a chore.

The law that started out as a device to hit the discount houses operating on Sunday was changed to include Saturday as an alternate because the lawmakers felt a straight Sunday closing law might appear discriminatory to some religious groups who observe the Sabbath on other days.

Included in the list of items merchants are not allowed to sell on one of the two weekend days are lawn mowers, toys, rotor vehicles, clothing, furniture, kitchen utensils, air conditioners, home appliances, jewelry, cameras, radios and television sets.

The law has teeth — a fine of $100 is provided for the first conviction, going up to $500 and six months in jail for subsequent convictions.

Selling Texas is Big Job
The State Industrial Commission, given $100,000 by the Legislature and charged with the duty of selling Texas as the place for industries to locate, faces a challenge.

Chairman E. B. Germany told the commission, "It is a challenge to make that $100,000 do what it is supposed to do even though it is not enough to do what we want to do."

Executive Director Walter Dickerson reported 3,000 copies of a brochure entitled "Texas: A Strategic Location" have been printed. Brochure will be distributed to a "very carefully selected group of people who have responsibility for making decisions," says Dickerson.

He appealed to Texas cities to contribute information for the commission's industrial surveys. Such information would be kept on file for the use of industrialists considering Texas sites. This would make it possible for industrialists to choose an area without it being known in advance.

Athletics Not Self-Supporting
State college and university athletic programs, with few exceptions, are not self-supporting, says State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

He made the statement in connection with a report on the operations of Sul Ross State College at Alpine where the athletic program showed a $26,357 loss for the year. Income was $56,245, while expenditures amounted to $80,136.

Cavness noted that athletic scholarships and coaching salaries have been paid from educational and general funds.

Hiked Train Fares Asked
On September 6 the Texas Railroad Commission will consider the request for increased passenger rail coach fares of five railway companies operating in Texas.

Companies asking for the hike in fare include Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, Fort Worth and Denver Railway Company, Gulf Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Company, Missouri - Kansas - Texas Railroad Company, and Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Company.

Duck Hunting Season Set
Ducks will be fair game in Texas beginning at noon on November 18 and ending at sundown December 27, says Howard Dodgen, Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Bag limit will be three ducks per day and six in possession. There will be no open season on redheads, canvasbacks and black belly tree ducks.

Open season on geese will be from sunrise to sunset from November 3 to January 1. Bag limit is five, restricted to one speckled goose and one honker; or two honkers and no specs; plus an aggregate of three snags and/or blues.

Labor Day Traffic Dangerous
Governor Daniel has called for an all-out effort to make this Labor Day week-end the safest ever recorded in Texas.

He has issued a special appeal to sheriffs and police chiefs across the state to join with the Texas Department of Public Safety in a special emphasis program designed to remove law violators from the highways.

Statistics indicate most fatal accidents involve at least one violation of the law, with excessive

Wedding in Bride's Home for Cy Banners

Mrs. W. H. (Cy) Banner

Before a simulated altar, decorated in white gladiolus and purple asters, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Knight of Winters, Miss Sandra Jo Knight and Wilson (Cy) Banner were united in marriage on Saturday morning, August 19, at 10:30 o'clock.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson C. Banner, Merrill County ranchers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white linen sheath with a matching shawl, white satin accessories, and carried a white covered Bible on which were white carnations and purple blossoms with white satin ribbons.

For something old she wore a watch belonging to the bridegroom's mother, the Bible something borrowed. For something blue, she wore the traditional garter and a new penny in her shoe for good luck. Matron of honor was Mrs. Edna Morrison, sister of the bride, who wore a frosted pink dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding. The bride's table, covered with white lace, had a centerpiece of white carnations and crystal ornaments. Mrs. Francis Wooten of Sweetwater served the wedding cake and the punch was served by Mrs. Cloyd Knight of Jal, N.M., sister-in-law of the bride.

For traveling the bride selected a blue linen sheath dress and accessories. After returning from their wedding trip to Ruidosa, N.M., and other points of interest, the couple is at home on the Callahan place north of Dryden, which is operating.

The bride attended the Sweetwater High School where she is a senior. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Sanderson High School and served in the U.S. Army two years of which he was in Japan.

committees from various states to claim a favorite uncle from their state was the real Uncle Sam. So what? What that august Congressional group finally decides will not change the situation one whit, and we believe those congressmen can be kept pretty busy if they only tend to the business at hand.

Uncle Sam is another kind of Santa Claus. What do the American people care where he came from. He stands for the things that Americans stand for. He represents the stalwart, brave, honest, true American, who has no time for using up time and effort at such foolishness as was done by the legislative subcommittee. Uncle Sam that I know must have been looking down at the actions of that subcommittee and the "busy" men from the various states who were devoting their time and effort in such a wasteful manner at a time when the Uncle himself was needing the talents and time of these men in a much more serious effort.

It is the opinion of this columnist that Congressmen should be more interested in what Uncle Sam is today to the world rather than who he was.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Savage and daughters, Melinda and Jennifer, left Sunday for their home in San Antonio after visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Savage. Mr. Savage accompanied them home.
