ISTEN TO LUKE

The Thanksgiving holidays are and there were many visits in and out of Sanderson. It is ant to visit with friends and ed ones and to pause to acwledge the many things for ich we have to be thankful. A good size crowd was at the ial Thanksgiving service on dnesday evening at the Methdist Church. And for this we also thankful.

One thing that happened over holidays that should be the use of great concern is the high ality rate on the highways of - the most of any state the nation

We were thankful that we were out on the highway during weekend of mayhem. And we re prayerful for all of those were on the highways. One thought that always comes

Sanderson seems to be a little er than most other places near in their beginning of prepation for the holiday and for this are also grateful.

We saw the Community Public rvice Co. employees putting up light strings across the main net of Sanderson. This is bedone by that company with Terrell County Chamber of merce sponsoring the project paying for the bulb replacents, so we were told.

These light strings will add ch to the appearance of the on after dark and we will, in other way, get into the swing the coming season.

Mrs. H. C. Goldwire led in prayer after the meeting had been opened with quiet music played by the planist, Mrs. L. G

The part of the five senses in producing an attitude of worship and prayer in our churches were discussed by: Hearing, Mrs. F. E. Curry; tasting, Mrs. W. O. Ray; touch, Mrs. Irvin Robbins; smell, Mrs. Hinkle; sight, Mrs. L. H. Gilbreath. Mrs. Robbins sang a solo. "Evening Prayer", and Mrs. Paul Hatem sang "The Lord's Prayer" to close the program. During the business session, plans were completed for the Christmas dinner to be served to the members of the Ranch Home Demonstration Club on Tuesday, December 4. Members are requested to bring gifts of food for a needy family to the December meeting which will be Monday.

An arrangement of autumn leaves, a white candle and an old Bible, printed in German, formed the worship center beneath a picture of "The Last Supper". Chrysanthemums in a silver bowl were on the speaker's table.
