LISTEN TO LUKE

Albert---

The word coming in from the hit by the storm Camille is the victims need money more than anything else now. Seems that generally, their immediate supply of food and clothing is taken care of. We know that some are going to disagree, but we know of a better way to contribute to the victims now than through the Red Cross. That organization while it has, does, and make some mistakes - because it's made up of humans you and me - seems to be best for this particular pur-would probably be the next thing to taking your contribution there and making it final.

People here are more than familiar with what the Red Cross does in an emergency having seen their work at the time of our flood here in 1953. There were some stories got out that simply were true, and there were some mistakes made. With so much done in such a short time amazing that so much was accomplished.

Anyone has any better idea as to how to try to help those in need, we will open our columns to try to get the word around, because we are trying to be most helpful.

The heat wave which stayed in the country for so long finally was broken and - blessing be - with some good rains. Not only were ranges and crops drying up, but so were the wells.

It is still a mystery to us that the state voted down the water conservation first part of August, there is certainly the need for something to conserve or conserve water when it comes, or a good substitute for it if it doesn't come or when it doesn't.

Rains have not been completely general, even over the state, but they are the closest to general rains that we have in some time.

My friend brought us a most interesting fossil last weekend. At least two 5-inch cork-type shells through it, the appearance almost of a shell held together with pins. This information is not helpful or harmful - but interesting - to conceive a huge sea along all of this area at one time.

The supply of old pictures is still - in fact we are all out - and our continuation of the feature depends upon the cooperation of the owners of old interesting pictures. There have been many nice things by our readers about their interest in the old pictures for this reason we would like to continue the series. We are most grateful if you let us borrow any you have.

Case you are contemplating a move, would you please let us know your change of address as you know it so that we can change our files and you

Orders of the Arrow, an ordeal in Boy Scouting, were earned by Curtis Schrader, Carlos Munoz, and Robert Kline, pictured above, at Camp Sol Meyer recently. The ordeal includes 24 hours of silence, skimpy rations, accomplishing an assigned job, and wilderness camping. Each of the boys trying the ordeal was in the company of an Order of the Arrow member. The ordeal ended with a ceremony and investiture service at the end of the 24-hour period. Darwin Schrader took the boys to the camp for their ordeal.

MONTY HARKINS INJURED IN ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Monty Harkins escaped serious injury Sunday morning when his car hit a bridge on US 285 south of Fort Stockton. He apparently went to sleep while driving back to the ranch after leaving Fort Stockton about 1:00 a. m.

Young Harkins received a fractured right wrist and a crushed vertebra.

He was taken to a Fort Stockton hospital and was expected to be transferred to San Angelo for orthopedic treatment of the back later this week.

The car was demolished, according to reports.

RAUL REYNA WRECKS LOCAL STATION SATURDAY

Raul Reyna ran his car over two pumps at the local C-C service station Saturday night, according to reports. A light pole was also knocked down.

Reyna was not seriously injured in the accident, but considerable damage was done to the station.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bondurant of San Antonio spent a few days at the ranch last week.

Mrs. Claude Garner and her daughter, Kay, of Odessa visited here last week with her mother, Mrs. F. K. Harrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley Haynes of Lubbock were weekend visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haynes, and family and Mrs. E. E. Farley, and Beverly. Mrs. Haynes will be a senior at Texas Tech this term.

Mrs. Bill C. Cooksey made a business trip to Fort Stockton last Saturday.

MRS. WANDAH ALEXANDER RECEIVES MASTER'S DEGREE

Mrs. Wandah Alexander received her Master's Degree after a summer's work at Sul Ross University in Alpine.

Mrs. Alexander is the teacher of homemaking in Sanderson High School.

Eagles Scrimmage Stockton Frosh

The Sanderson High School Eagles scrimmaged the freshmen of Fort Stockton High School in that city Friday night. It was their first contest of the season.

Coach Willie Meyers stated that the Eagles beat the Panther freshmen handily and it was difficult to appraise the offensive or defensive ability of the team other than to say that they did not have a working passing attack against the weaker Panther team, but their ground game and defense worked well against the freshmen.

The Eagles will scrimmage against the Alpine Buck B-team next Friday night there.

EAGLE BOOSTERS PLAN FREE BARBECUE FOR SATURDAY

The Sanderson Eagle Boosters are having a free barbecue on Saturday at 6:00 p. m. at the Legion Hall.

There will be no charge for the meal and all who wish may contribute to the organization which supports the athletic endeavors of the high school over and above budgeted expenses.

Mrs. Timothy Lewis Deveney
...nee Miss Vicki Lynn Allen

Miss Vicki Lynn Allen and Timothy Lewis Deveney exchanged marriage vows Saturday evening by candlelight in the Church of Christ with Joe R. Chisholm, minister, directing the rites and using the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen. The parents of the bridegroom are Robert L. Deveney and Mrs. Kathryn Deveney of Riverside, Calif., who with Mrs. R. L. Deveney were here for the wedding.

A large arch was in the center of the nuptial space. It was decorated in smilax and sala leaves, white pom pom mums, and blue static. Tall white tapers were across the top. At each side was a large white candle and the same greenery and clusters of pale blue grapes decorated the holders. Votive lights were nestled in greenery and grapes arranged in the windows, all emphasizing the bride's chosen colors of white and blue.

Recordings of "Because" and "O, Promise Me" were played prior to the ceremony. Mrs. James Crowder of Abilene and her brother, Bobby Allen, sang "Whither Thou Goest".

At the request of the couple, Mr. Chisholm read the 13th Chapter of I Corinthians.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the A-line gown which she had designed and which was made by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Thurston Smith. The gown of white peau de soie featured a lace bodice and lace border on the front skirt. Long puffed sleeves of silk organza were appliqued with lace motifs and lace scallops on silk organza formed the detachable chapel train.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was caught with silk daisies and organza petals adorned with rhinestones. A cattleya orchid centered her bridal bouquet, bordered with pom pom mums and a cascade of the mums and white satin streamers.

Miss Donna Hardgrave of Abilene, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Johnson and Mrs. Haley Haynes.

Their floor-length sleeveless gowns featuring jewel necklines were of turquoise blue satin with a darker blue velvet sash fastened with a rhinestone buckle in Empire style. They wore long white gloves and flowers in shades of blue held their circular blue net veils. They carried nosegays of blue and white carnations.

The bridegroom's twin brother, Jim Deveney, of Riverside, Calif., was the best man. Groomsmen were Philo Smith of Riverside and the bride's brother, Steve Allen. Tom Allen, brother of the bride, and Kendrick Harrell lighted the candles.

Tom Allen also assisted David Hardgrave, cousin of the bride, in seating the guests.

Gary Allen, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer and Shele McInroe of Abilene was the flower girl. Her costume was similar to the other feminine members of the wedding party and she carried a basket of blue satin and lace filled with white button chrysanthemums.

The reception which had been planned in the garden of the Chisholm home, was moved to the Legion Hall on account of inclement weather.

At the bride's book to register the guests was Miss Patti Brecheen of Abilene, cousin of the bride.

The bride's table was laid with a white net ruffled cloth over blue satin. The centerpiece was three white candles surrounded by the bridesmaids' bouquets. Mrs. Crowder served the three-tiered wedding cake which was decorated in white and a miniature bridal couple stood beneath a blue and white flower-decorated arch on the top layer. Blue mints were on the table and punch was served by Miss Gina Hardgrave, cousin of the bride. A blue cloth edged in white lace covered the bridegroom's table which had three candles in a silver holder for decoration. Coffee was served from the silver service with German chocolate cake. Mrs. Ray Smith of Midland, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Jim McInroe of Abilene, cousin of the bridegroom, served.

The house party for the reception included Mmes. Bob Allen, C. T. Wrinkle, J. R. Chisholm, Jack Hayre, Felix Harrison, Jack Cosby, and Gene McSparran; also Janet Harrell, Roxanne Harrell, and Terry Harrell, who distributed rice bags of blue and white net.

The couple went to Indian Lodge near Fort Davis on their wedding trip, returning to Sanderson before going to Abilene to visit for a few days before going to Riverside to reside at 2052 Linden St., Apt. AA. For her going-away costume, the bride wore a peacock blue wool crepe dress and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Deveney is a graduate of Sanderson High School and

IT IS YOUR MONEY

You have a right to know these facts

You spend a lot of money for auto insurance. You have read wild statements about insurance costs and companies. If you would like some plain talk, here it is.

They say . . . Auto insurance companies are guaranteed a profit.

FACT: Before insurance companies can make a profit they have to first pay to have wrecked cars repaired or replaced, pay hospital and doctor bills for folks injured in auto accidents, pay for stolen or stripped cars, pay for cars damaged by hail, fire, wind or flood waters, pay wages or commissions to 95,400 Texans who give service to policy holders in every county in the state, pay taxes and operate their companies. If there is anything left after all these payments have been made, it is profit.

They say . . . Texas auto insurance rates need to go up 11.1 percent.

FACT: The evidence is very clear. Accidents are up. Medical costs are up. Repair costs are up. Auto thefts and vandalism are both up. All this forces rates upward. Facts and figures prove that a 17 percent increase is needed now.

They say . . . There is nothing you can do to lower your auto insurance costs.

FACT: You can't lower labor and medical costs. You can't lower automobile and parts costs. You can help reduce the number of traffic accidents and crimes against automobiles. The accident that doesn't happen does not boost the cost of auto insurance. The car that isn't stripped or stolen does not increase the cost of your auto insurance.

Let Governor Smith, your Mayor and your County Officials know that you want a stop put to Texas' growing traffic accident and crime tolls . . . that you want the law enforced. Good law enforcement can reduce accidents and crimes against cars.

Lower accidents and crime rates can mean lower auto insurance rates for you. Isn't this worth a little effort on your part?

They say . . . Labor costs are a small part of auto insurance costs.

FACT: Labor costs make up the major part of auto repair bills and in some parts of Texas labor costs for auto repairs have increased in recent time by an amazing 40 percent.

They say . . . Auto insurance companies make too much money.

FACT: Look at this listing of the earnings by major industries in the United States as published by the First National City Bank of New York and as republished in the study developed by the Arthur D. Little Co., an independent research organization then judge for yourself:
