LISTEN TO LUKE

by Albert: ---

Last week we were only remotely involved in an incident that brought a fact home clearly to us - but a fact that nevertheless exists and one which should get some thinking from some residents of our town.

There has been a noticeable decrease in the population of Sanderson. This has been apparent in the drop in school students and its resultant facts. There has been a decrease in the number of people attending church services and in the number of church members locally, and this has its resultant effects on those organizations. There has been a decrease in the number of businesses in Sanderson and also a decrease in the amount of business done by local businesses and this has had its apparent results.

These decreases have caused some concern, some alarm, some interest, and some indifference, depending on how close the person is to an individual business.

These decreases should have the concern, alarm, and interest of more people, in our opinion, than they now have.

The incident referred to clearly showed that some people would not want to be said to be responsible directly for the closing of a local business, but they do not want to trade with local merchants for whatever reason.

It has been a long time since we had a "trade-at-home" column. And we don't know that this one will do any good, but it was brought out too plainly to us to overlook completely this opportunity - or obligation.

Just how far do my obligations go to my neighbors? How far do his go to me? Name any business in town -- and can you truthfully say you would like to see that business close? We know that the exception to this is the business involved in what is considered by some to be the sale of immoral-inducing intoxicants, but even those merchants are spared the complete lack of concern for the welfare by their neighbors, surely!

Each person has a scale of values to the community for each business, and we realize that it would be difficult to get along without many of our local business. But how many of them do we want to get along without - and how much do we do, individually, to help that neighbor in his efforts to make a living here and add whatever he might to the community life?

Personally, we have not found the limit of our obligations to our neighbors yet. We will not know that until we have met all of our obligations.

We saw a sign the other day that caught our eye and made us think. We tell you what the sign says and hope that you, too, will think! This is opportunity with the opening of school right upon us. "Be Careful - Dear Crossing"

Grand Jury Meets Monday This Week

The Terrell County grand jury returned an indictment of murder with a motor vehicle against Leroy Yates Byrd of St. Paul, N. C., when that group met on Monday.

The indictment was the result of an accident about 16 miles west of Langtry on May 15 in which two Roswell, N. M., youths were killed.

The grand jury also requested The Times to publish a resolution which is printed below:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Sheriffs of Texas recognize their responsibilities to improve their capabilities to detect, apprehend and prepare cases for prosecution; and

WHEREAS, we are concerned that an ever increasing number of cases are being indicted by grand juries now where prosecution never ensues.

WE THEREFORE call upon the prosecutors and the judges of the criminal courts of Texas to support our efforts by speedy trial and vigorous prosecution of all grand jury indictments.

We further call on the members of the Texas legislature to take cognizance of the slow pace of criminal justice in our state and create additional courts and staff prosecutors sufficiently, and further enact legislation to require county attorneys to give full time to the duties of their office and be prohibited from engaging in the private practice of law; and that the salaries of such officials be raised by proper legislative action and/or commissioners courts order to a level consistent with their public responsibilities.

Now be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the governor of the State of Texas, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the Texas House and the President of the State Bar Association of Texas.

The above resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Grand Jury of Terrell County, Texas on the 17th day of August, 1970, and it was requested by the Grand Jury of Terrell County, Texas, that it be published in The Sanderson Times, Sanderson, Texas.

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members."

"(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature."

"B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature."

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court."

"(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission."

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary."

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed."

"(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal."
