The write-in effort for the The write-in effort for the school board race fell short of strength necessary for unseating the incumbent members who were seeking re-election. Who were seeking re-election There are very few efforts for a write-in campaign in the for a write-in campaign in the 25 years we have been here 25 years we have been here that were successful. Off-hand we can think of only one and it was only within a precinct - and not in precinct 1.

And we always wonder, here in precinct 1, why those who want someone to run for a post do not announce themselves or do not officially announce the candidate of their choice so candidate of their choice so that they will have some time to put out their campaign pitch, if any We heard, unofficially, that there was some rumors that there was some rumors that the salaries of the thers the salaries of the teachers Was going to be cut by the present board. But since the present board. But since the laws of the state have a built-in raise for the teachers every year for 10 years, we hardly think that the board would try to buck the state on this matter, so we just couldn't be - lieve that!
Another fact is that the incumbent members of the boand tracts of the teachers next year and the newhy- elected boice members would have no voice in that decision, as it would have already been done ledge of a wh the know and work with the school to benefit them.
There is much to the financ ing of the school that is not main reason is public - and the tailed, complicat is deis ever-changing, and few school patrons would take trouble to find out about the financing of the schools and keep current on the processes. ways favor a anyone would always favor the cutting of the going to agree on the nonessentials. We have already been through this once reCently.
While
While there is no direct coning organizations the two taxand organizations of the schoo and the county - there is the inescapable connection of the fact that it is local pockets that are emptied to get both! there is no way to figure that of expenild be some balance but there is some the two, efforts to try to curtail expens es during times of necessity. While we will get some disof nement that this is a time penditusity for watching exare those, we feel that there And even though agree, too: dsagree or agree, each is endtled to his opinion!
