LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:---
We had no more than gotten last week's paper in the post-office than it began to rain, and before the weekend was over, everything that we said about what was being done in the way of completing the dam easement project, was more clearly realized.

Monday morning, the Commissioners' Court of Terrell County again had a report and discussion of the progress of the project. They are very aware of the need for continued action to bring the project to a speedy end and are working toward that goal.

The Commissioners are also very aware of the need for improvement in drainage of water run-off locally and are doing some work toward improving that situation.

One of the great bottlenecks in drainage in many areas is just that -- a bottleneck! Too small flumes or culverts or pipes have been installed in many instances and they clog up easily or just do not carry enough water.

For instance, where the ditch is sloped across three feet and about 18-inches deep at the deepest point, that ditch may have a flume across a driveway that is 10" in diameter, or in some instances less! A pipe this size or smaller cannot carry the water of the full ditch, thus causing the ditch to overflow on someone's property and causing further trouble or damage. This is not right and it should be corrected by the person who put in the flume, or when a person puts in a flume he should put in a large enough tin-horn to carry the full capacity of the ditch.

Commissioners David Mitchell and Austin Chriesman are taking steps to see that some of these "bottlenecks" are eliminated.

Extensive and costly weed cutting has been going on to rid barrow ditches of obstacles that would deter or prevent the flow of drainage, but this alone is not the answer.

People who put in flumes need to take the responsibility of having a large enough pipe to carry all the water and allow even for some accumulation of gravel in the bottom.

With the advent soon of football season, one thing that we wonder about -- and we wonder about this every year -- is how do the pep squads of some schools handle the names of their towns?

For example: Try to fit Bleiberville into one of the little pep yells! Or what animal or bird name fits well with New Ulm? Can you imagine cheer leaders trying to work up a fight yell for Patricia? We have made up the "Demons" as a fitting nickname for Desdemonia, but it is difficult to think of the students of that school singing: "O Desdemonia, We Love You", or something like that.

And a name like San Ygnacio to us just doesn't lend itself to an arousing, spine-chilling, adrenalin-flowing attitude or effort.

Damaging Rains Fall Last Friday 3 1/2" In 25 Minutes

About 2-1/2 inches of rain fell late Friday afternoon locally, causing some damage locally when high water entered homes and some businesses.

The rain fell in less than 30 minutes.

Water entered the C.G. Morrison Co. store threatening entrance into other buildings on the south side of Oak St. and further east.

Several homes in the eastern end of town had water in them following the downpour.

Run-off was exceedingly heavy and is attested to by the size of the rocks that were washed into the streets by water which overflowed the barrow ditches, particularly on the north-south streets.

With most of the drainage ditches on east-west streets being on the south side of the black-topping, the overflow of water from the north side of the streets often flows across the street and enters the drainage ditches in its southeastward flow.

A deluge of rain that fell west of Sanderson and just west of Longfellow caused some damage to the highway when the black-topping was washed away.

There was no damage reported by water that flowed down the canyon other than to water-gaps.

Heavy clouds and intermittent showers have prevailed since the middle of last week.

The rainfall has been widespread over the county, covering most of the county during the past week with heavy rainfall. All of the major canyons have been reported as having run heavily during some part of the past 10 days.

Mrs. David Cooke of Alpine brought her sons, Kelly and Dean Cooke, to Sanderson Saturday for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Card and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caldwell were in San Antonio for several days last week and visited with a niece while he had treatments by a chiropodist.

In December of 1946 the Princess Theatre marquee was photographed and Manager Carlton White was standing at the entrance. One of Sanderson's four barber shops was also in the building. Mr. White loaned us the picture.

Honor Bride-Elect,
Miss Christine Downie*

Miss Christine Downie, bride-elect of Tyrrell Kott of San Antonio, was honored at a gift tea last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jolly Harkins.

Joining Miss Downie and Mrs. Harkins in the receiving line to welcome the guests were Mrs. W.G. Downie, mother of the bride-to-be, and her grandmother, Mrs. W.T. Bondurant, of San Antonio. Miss Downie wore a pale pink dress and a white orchid corsage.

Presiding at the bride's book to register the guests were Amy Harrison and Jeanette Kerr.

The large assortment of gifts was displayed in the bedrooms where arrangements of fresh garden flowers provided the decor.

A white linen cloth with wide lace insertion covered the tea table which was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli, and carnations in a silver bowl. Silver appointments were used for the serving of salted nuts, mints, cake, and punch emphasizing the colors of pastel yellow and green.

The honoree opened her gifts and passed them among the guests later displaying them on a table in the living room.

An arrangement of white and yellow daisies in a wicker basket provided the centerpiece on the table, covered in an avocado green linen cloth where refreshments of blueberry muffins, pecan rolls, apple-nut cake, fresh strawberries, pineapple chunks, orange juice, and coffee were served.

Miss Christine Downie and her fiance, Tyrrell Kott, were honored at a barbecue supper Friday evening at the Sid Harkins ranch home with Mr. and Mrs. Monty Harkins as co-hosts. Informality prevailed throughout the evening.
