LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:--
Since there has been wide mention and publicity for honors(?) in school boy football scoring, some of the teams have gone almost berserk in their efforts to gain top-ranking in this department.

There was at one time some kind of honors given, even if only verbal, for the sportsmanship of a strong team over a weaker team in their efforts to hold down the score and maybe keeping the match toward the even side in an effort to prevent hurting someone. But in these days of records, such is no longer the case!

There are few who object to the high-score difference except those on the little end of the stick, and this is usually where the "vulgar display of strength" terminology is used.

A case in point is a run-down of the many school-boy games' scores in a paper this week: 54-6, 58-0, 69-0, 51-0, 62-20, 54-0, 86-6, 50-0, 40-0, 59-13, and 50-0. And you will notice that the little instances like 39-0, 34-0, etc., are all omitted, as they are not in the same class as some of the rest.

Maybe there is something about all of this that we don't understand, or maybe it just depends on how you look at it.

One editor of an area paper brought out the fact of the associated danger of an outbreak of rabies and an overpopulation of dogs and cats.

This danger lurks in the mere fact of numbers and percentages.

But dangers of this and other things that are akin, are not to be considered lots of times until the fact of a danger becoming a reality occurs, then there is much alarm, apprehension, etc.

And maybe this is proper! We cannot foresee nor be forewarned or forewarned against every eventuality, so we'll have little more to say about this subject. Some neighborhoods are running over with cats and dogs, though, and the owners of the parent animals have some sort of obligation to keep the neighbors from being pestered by the sheer numbers and their resultant deposits, litter, fights, etc.

More and more area papers, daily and weekly, are passing on the results of the pinch on newsprint production and availability. We nor they are able to foresee the end result, but they are merely counting their sheets of paper left and their promised next-shipment and trying to stretch the first to meet the other.

Thomas Jefferson is credited with saying: "Were it left for me to decide whether we should have government without newspapers or newspapers without government, I should not hesitate for a moment to prefer the latter. But I should mean that every man should receive those papers and be capable of reading them."

At least that's the way he looked at it!

YOM KIPPUR (DAY OF ATONEMENT)

OCTOBER 6, 1973
HEBREW DATE: TISHRI 10, 5734

Inside the old walled city of Jerusalem is the site of the ruins of an ancient temple. A wall of that temple left standing is called the "Wailing Wall". During Yom Kippur (which begins the evening of the final day of the then days of penitence) Jewish worshipers gather at this site of religious pilgrimages which have endured through the centuries. This scripture from The Living Bible is the authority for observance of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

"This is a permanent law: You must do no work on the tenth day of the seventh month (of the Hebrew calendar), but must spend the day in self-examination and humility. This applies whether you are born in the land or are a foreigner living among the people of Israel; for this is the day commemorating the atonement, cleansing you in the Lord's eyes from all of your sins. It is a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall spend the day in quiet humility; this is a permanent law. This ceremony, in later generations, shall be performed by the anointed High Priest, consecrated in place of his ancestor Aaron; he shall be the one to put on the holy linen garments, and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, the Tabernacle, the altar, the priests, and the people. This shall be an everlasting law for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel once each year, because of their sins." (Leviticus 16:29-34)

"Nine days after the Festival of Trumpets, all the people are to come together before the Lord, saddened by their sin; and they shall offer sacrifices by fire to the Lord. Don't do any work that day, for it is a special day for making atonement before the Lord your God. (Leviticus 23:26-28)

from The Living Bible

YOM KIPPUR is the most solemn day of the Jewish New Year. It is a day of fasting and prayer. Yom Kippur is the highest of all holy days in the Jewish Religion.

Do You Know What to Do in Case of FIRE?

If a fire breaks out in your home, get out fast — with your family. Fire can spread faster than you can run.

If you find smoke in an open stairway or open hall, use another preplanned way out. Teach your children how to use the phone to report a fire.

Make sure children can open doors, windows and screens to escape routes.

Make sure your family knows the quickest and safest ways to escape from every room in the house.

DON'T fight a fire yourself.

If you are trapped in a smoke-filled room, stay near the floor, where the air is better.

DON'T jump. Many people have jumped and died — without realizing rescue was just a few minutes away.

Fire! What a frightening word that is . . . and, what a dreadful reality. Fires are costly, often tragic. Should fire strike, be prepared. Check the list printed here for proper procedures in case of fire, and be sure your family knows just what to do. A little forethought now could save your life and the lives of those you love.

Resolve now, during Fire Prevention Week, to practice fire safety every day of the year. Check your home, yard and garage for fire hazards . . . remove rags, papers, other combustibles. Make sure roof, chimney, heating system and electrical wiring are in fire-safe condition. Be careful with fire in any form. Do your part . . . prevent fires!
