SANDERSON, TERRELL COUNTY, TEXAS 79848.

DECEMBER 12, 1974

We got this one anonymously: On an especially busy day, the doctor's secretary told the patient: "Dr. Shortly will see you Longly"!

If anyone knows a legal and humane way to get rid of the woodpeckers that destroy houses, please drop us a note or phone call, or something. There are some busy people and some busy woodpeckers around town.

Some enterprising and ambitious soul could do a lot of good, in our opinion, by offering to conduct, organize, and put up with a local group that would like to sing together for special occasions, or just sing together. We read in many area papers where a local group is putting on a Christmas program, an Easter program, or something, and we can remember when there was such a group here that enjoyed singing very much. PLEASE!

The people that helped to organize, worked with, or helped in any way that proved to be beneficial to the success of the invitation basketball tournament should get a vote of gratitude from everyone in town, whether or not you are a basketball fan. It was a success, and only because a lot of people worked at making it

We had occasion to see firsthand some of the damage that was done in October by the several days of rainfall! We never fail to be overwhelmed by the forces of nature. There is no force quite like those and particularly rain!

There are few people in this country who are not happy to see rain start falling. There is something about a shower that is pleasant to see, hear, and realize. Even when accompanied by extremely heavy ! lightning and/or thunder, the falling of rain is usually a soothing display of the gentle side of nature. And there are few who, when awakended by falling rain, are not soon lulled back to sleep by the gentle sound. But these things hold true for the first two or three days and/or nights only, or for the first very few hours, in case the rainfall is close to the "downpour" variety. In these instances, anxiety begins to build up.

The reason anxiety begins to build up is because there are those present, always, who remember other showers that went on and on and on, or other downpours that continued for several hours.

We are awakened from time to time to the reality of the destructive force of gentle-falling rains. And that awakening came recently when we were out in the country in an area that received probably the heaviest damage from the pontinued to second page

County and School To Review Values On Tax Roll Books

An effort will be made to review the valuations placed on property on the school and county tax rolls for the purpose of possibly adjusting inequities that exist between the two tax rolls. The project was instituted by the board of trustees of the Terrell County Independent School District after it had been determined that the figures on the two rolls did not agree on valuations of property in town.

Ernest E. Harkins Jr., tax assessor-collector for the school district, appeared before the court and stated that he had been instructed to point out the possibility of differences in valuations on the two books - county and school tax rolls and asked the court to permit a comparison of the two tax rolls. W.W. Sudduth, commissioner of Precinct 1, asked several questions of Mr. Harkins concerning differences, and Edward Kerr, who was a visitor at the court, was asked some questions, as he had served on a committee to re-evaluate property in the county.

Harkins also presented a table prepared in the office of the school tax assessor-collector, showing the total valuations of the four categories of tax revenue for the school district: city, personal, abstracts (ranch land), and oil. Also on the chart were figures showing the revenue of taxes in each of the four categories, and another column showing the percentage of the total tax revenue collected in each of the four categories.

One of the points discussed between Harkins, Sudduth, and Kerr was the fact that there had been no survey of property in Sanderson and a re-evaluation of property in Sanderson, nor a re-evaluation of ranch land in the county's ranch area since 1956. At that time apprisal of all local property was made by a committee named for that purpose, and lines to divide the three values of the ranch land were re-drawn or re-considered. Harkins stated that since then, A.H. Zuberbueler, the former tax assessorcollector, had done a commendable job in keeping up with changes in valuations of town property, and that a comparison of his records with the tax rolls of the county could show differences in valuations. Tax renditions by ranchmen had kept valuations up to date, Harkins added, and these, too, could be compared to the rolls of the county to discover differences.

One of the suggestions made during the discussion that local property owners be mailed rendition blanks and urged to return them to the tax assessor collector. There was no decision on this suggestion.

for the comparison of the two tax rolls' figures by the school tax assessor-collector.

Methodists Have Pastor Promised On January 19

Dr. Richard Whitwam of El Paso, district superintendent, informed the Methodist church es at Sanderson and Dryden last Thursday that they would have a pastor beginning Sunday, January 19.

Rev. and Mrs. David Treat and their four-month-old daughter, Tricia, will come from Levelland where he has been serving as assistant pastor of the First United Methodist Church in that city.

The Sanderson-Dryden charge has been without a pastor for the past four months since Dr. Edward Lang was transferred to Abilene as minister of education of the First United Methodist Church. Laymen of this area and Rev. Phil Baker of Alpine have filled the pulpit each Sunday morning since the churches have been without a pastor and will continue to do so until the new pastor arrives. Dr. Whitwam will preach on Sunday, December 22, and be incharge of the Christmas communion service.

rains in October. Acres and acres and acres of gravel bars that were once brush-covered draws; mile after mile of damaged or impassable roads that were once passable roads for even cars, and a pick-up could transverse all of them easily; mile after mile of fences newly-dug gullies eroded by the water on the steep and gentler slopes of the mountains and valleys, and the top-soil lost to the sediment of Lake Amistad.

This happened in the same area about 18 years ago and there had been much recovery in some parts before October, but the October incident surpassed the previous one in damage by tremendous proportions, according to what we saw and what we were told.

We don't know if such a thing is feasible, possible, or practical, but a flood-protection project of some kind is needed in the country if loss of property is a consideration.

At least it appears that way to us.

NITE-LITER... your key to nighttime security

An efficient mercury vapor Nite-Liter installed on your property can spread light for safety and security over an area up to 100 yards in diameter. It's a good way to discourage vandals and prowlers and to provide safety lighting for walks and driveways. The Nite-Liter automatically turns itself on at dusk and off at dawn so your home, farm or place of business is safer. Call Community Public Service Company today for more information on the advantages of having a Nite-Liter installed on your property.

Eaglette guards, in the top picture, left, are shown in the game against Ozona on Tuesday night last week. Linda Hagelgans and Vonda Wallace are guarding their forwards, and Janet Harrell is waiting in her zone for the forward to come into the field of play. At the bottom, Elaine Brown passes the ball to Bryanann Stavley as she begins a drive toward the basket. JoAnn Hagelgans is in the background.

Selene Farley registers her disappointment at missing a shot, rebounded by an Ozona JV player here Tuesday night of last week. Sue Ketzler is just behind the rebounder, and Susanna Montalvo can be seen in the white jersey in the rear. Terry Harrell is going after the ball in front of Rosa Carrillo. Christina Escobar is hidden by the Ozona girl at right, who ran across the floor at the right instant to be in front of the camera when the shutter was snapped.

TO COUSIN'S FUNERAL Mr. and Mrs. Carlton White attended funeral services in Fort Davis last Wednesday afternoon for her cousin, Phillip Halker Pruett, 69, formerly of Jeff Davis County, who had died the previous Sunday in Arizona. He was buried in the Pruett Ranch Cemetery on the 06 Ranch.

He had spent most of list life in Jeff Davis County and for 20 years had ranched and live: ed in New Mexico and Arizona.

TO FUNERAL IN OZONA

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Childress visited relatives in Ozona last weekend and attended the funeral services Sunday for his grandmother, Mrs. N.W. Graham, 94, who died Saturday in an Eldorado hospital. She had resided in Ozona since 1905.

STORE HOUSE DESTROYED

The Times was told that a small house used for storage at the Tommy Hayre ranch north of Sanderson toward Sheffield, was destroyed by an explosion this week.

The Hayres are having some remodelling done at their ranch home, according to the informant, and one of the workers walked into the house and lit a cigarette and the explosion occurred. It is supposed that there was a gas lead in the building and the flame of the match caused the combustion.

There was considerable damage to the building and contents, and the worker was taken to an Iraan hospital for treatments for third-degree burns on some portions of his body, according to the story.

BIG TURNIPS--

Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Cox have not been cooking a "bunch" of turnips of late but just ONE turnip from their garden. They brought a sample to The Times office and one turnip,a purple top, with a circumference of 19 inches weighed three pounds. The turnips are very sweet and tender having made rapid growth since the recent rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Arturo Mendoza and baby of McCamey were holiday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijio Bustos, and family.

Mrs. P.M. Vargas and daughter, Brandy, of Clarendon are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K.K. Robinson, and family. On Thanksgiving Day, they went to Del Rio to visit their other daughter, Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, and family, and were accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. J.D. Sandifer, and Jannie.

AUSTIN - Agenda for the 1975 Texas Legislature already is getting stacked high.

At the top of nearly everybody's things-to-do list reform of the public school finance formulas to assure equal opportunities in rich and poor districts.

Complicating the job is expected legislative balkiness toward placing any greater property tax burden on local land and homeowners. Property tax reform is considered an almost-inevitable prerequisite of effective revisions of the school aid system.

A lot of lawmakers are conceding, too, that the fact they are confronted, for a change, with a fat general revenue surplus is almost as big a problem as a modest shortage.

If they spend all the mounting surplus in sight, fiscal realists warn, they will be assured of having to pass a nightmare tax bill of more than $1 billion in 1977.

Creation of a state utility commission is also on many priority lists, although the proposal is certain to set off some bitter opposition.

Prison system reform is another widely-publicized objective. Reformers want to halt construction of large prison institutions and switch to community-based correctional programs, with release of 40 per cent of inmates to the new-type facilities.

In the wake of the 1974 Constitutional Convention's failure, legislators also are seeking a way to salvage some of this year's work and assure eventual revision.

The list will grow longer and longer as January starting date for the 64th Legis-

JOB DATA SOUGHT-Texas Employment Commission has launched a new program to project future workerskill requirements of Texas industries.

The three-year project is designed to assist both public and private educational and training programs, including vocational training. in becoming responsive to manpower needs.

About 5,500 questionnaires were mailed to Texas employers.

JUSTICE GROUP CREAT-ED-Gov. Dolph Briscoe ansed creation of a new Criminal Justice Division Advisory Board to coordinate use of federal funds to improve law enforcement in Texas.

Briscoe named 20 members of the board to assist in administration of $36 million a year of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) and state funds to combat crime at every level, from prevention to rehabili-

Chairman of the panel is O'Brien Thompson of Amarillo. Other members are W. J. Estelle of Huntsville, director of the Texas Department of Corrections; Dallas Police Chief Don Byrd, Sheriff P. L. Flores of Laredo, Dr. Edward Guinn of Fort Worth, Sheriff Robert Gladney of Angleton, Baytown City Manager Fritz Lanham, Department of Corrections Board Member Joe La Mantia Jr. of McAllen, Denton County District Attorney John Lawhon, Palestine Judge Wayne Lawrence;

State Sen. - elect Frank Lombardino of San Antonio, Judge Granger McIlhany of Wheeler, Court of Criminal Appeals Judge Truman Roberts, Nueces County District Clerk Oscar Solis of Corpus Christi, Col. Wilson E. Speir of Austin, head of the Department of Public Safety, El Paso County Commissioner Richard Telles, Fred Toler of Austin, executive director of the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education, Harris County District Attorney Carol Vance of Houston, Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade and Mrs. Ray Willoughby of San Angelo. AG OPINIONS-The University of Texas at Austin can hold a liquor license for its campus, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

-Texas Rehabilitation Commission does not have to advertise for formal bids on property leased for use by its handicapped clients.

-Minors' trust funds invested under court order should be included in annual audits of county funds.

-Counties don't owe taxes on lands they own in another county if the property is otherwise tax exempt.

-The district judge of the 109th district court is entitled to an $1800 salary supplement from Winkler County, but not to another $1200 for county juvenile board chairmanship.

-A city must disclose copies of its blank record and report forms on demand under the open records law.

-A misdemeanor probationer may satisfy terms of the law by submitting an authenticated copy of his fingerprints or by making himself available to the sheriff for fingerprinting.

ANTI-FREEZE WARNING OUT-Agriculture Commissioner John C. White warned Texas motorists to beware of bogus anti-freeze peddlers who may be offering brine water and cake coloring to "protect" radiators against low temperatures.

Anti-freezes must be registered in Texas with the State Department of Agriculture which oversees quality.

White advised car owners to buy only well-known brands. He invited those who feel they may have been duped into buying a faulty product to contact his office. He noted prices are at a record high and supplies are short—a made-to-order situation for gyp promoters to offer cut-rate products.

COURTS SPEAK-The Sueme Court agreed that three football players for the Dallas Cowboys had a legal right to sign with the World Football League before their present Cowboy contracts expired. The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a marijuana conviction because the jury wasn't charged to take into consideration whether the convicted man knew the substance was located in his

CARD OF THANKS

The Eagle and Eaglette bas-

thanks to Ray Hodgkins.

A Christmas card from Mrs. Ray Vissotzky revealed the information that they are now residing in Chattaroy, Wash., where they have an acreage and a recently-completed new home. Maj. Vissotzky retired on September 1. He was a prisoner of war for several years during the Vietnamese conflict. They have five children. She is the former Joan Byrd, daughter of Mrs. J.W. Byrd of Santa Fe, N.M., and the late Rev. Byrd.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith attended funeral services in Cortez, Colo., for Walter Sparra, returning home Tuesday. Mr. Smith was one of the pall bearers.

Mrs. Philip Hanson and her daughter, Dawn, visited in Austin last week with her brother and family.

Miss Brenda Carter, who will receive her degree from Angelo State University in December, visited here last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ayers and daughter, Donna, spent Thanksgiving Day in Alpine and took his mother, Mrs. On Ayers, who is in a nursing Chome there, out to dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Black re. turned home last week after trip of 10 days which took them to San Angelo to visit their son and to Dallas with their granddaughter, Julia Black, of Fort Stockton, who had a medical check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Wrinkle of El Paso, former residents, visited friends last weekend enroute home from a twoweeks' trip to points in Texas Their granddaughter, Deana Wrinkle, of Grand Prairie was with them and will visit until Christmas. There was a cov. ered-dish dinner at the Church of Christ after the morning worship hour Sunday to honor the Wrinkles.

Don Frazor and son, Dickie, of San Antonio visited here last weekend with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. O'Bryant, and also went on a deer hunt.
