VOLUME 68, NUMBER 48

SANDERSON, TERRELL COUNTY, TEXAS 79848

NOVEMBER 26, 1975

LET US BE GRATEFUL . . .

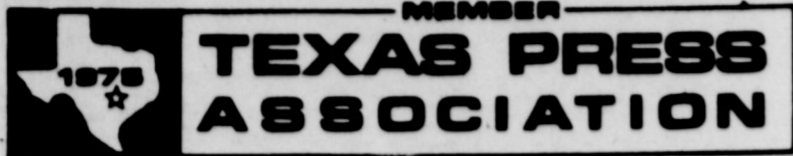

The Seasons come and go,
and go and come . . .
to teach men gratitude.
... Robert Pollock

so thankful for . . .
this Thanksgiving Season,
the joys of living . . .
and wonderful people like you.

Entered as Post Office in Sanderson, Texas, July 22, 1968, as second class mailing matter under Act of Congress March 8, 1879. Published Thursdays at Sanderson, Terrell County, Texas 79848

It Depends on

How You Look At It!

We are not going to say how many or who, but we did get several compliments on what was said in this column last week, and they were purposeful compliments by people who made it a point to come by and tell me.

Those kinds of compliments we appreciate!

The only trouble was, I had to go back and read the column myself, to see what I had said that was so great! I still don't know!

There seldom is a time when we begin to write this column that we do not have some kind of idea in mind about what is going to be said -- or how it is going to be said. We never know how it is going to be taken, but we do have some control over what words are used.

Every once in a while we hear someone say something about our plan for a general "work day" for the cleaning up of the Bicentennial Park. Their remarks are like: "That is a good idea", or "I like that idea", or "Keep pushing for that idea", and those kinds of comments.

When you have some kind of an idea about what the county government -- the commissioners' court -- ought to do, then let the commissioners' court know about it. Write a letter to Judge Charles Stavley or call him and identify yourself and tell him what you want to.

The idea of the "work day" for the park is more than just an effort to save some money, but there's nothing wrong with that ideology. It's more of an effort to get a bunch of people together and working. There is nothing like a common cause and purpose for uniting people.

One of the nice things about the recent Dale Carnegie course that we heard was the pleasure of some in getting to know the other participants better than they would probably have ever known them, and in a way that they would probably not had otherwise.

Working with people is a great experience!

We were almost dumfounded at the recent news about the involvement of the CIA in so many things, and of the accusations against the FBI.

The greatest disappointment is the moral decay and degradation to which people in high places have stooped, and the mistaken notion that "the cause justified the means".

We have opposed this philosophy many years as being unsound, unsafe, and the most arrogant distortion of morality that we could conceive. It goes to show, also, that no person or agency, or thing is above the law, that we all have to answer for deeds and misdeeds.

We read an interview recently when Midland County Judge Barbara Culver was talking about regional councils such as the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission.

The question was asked: "What is the most crucial problem facing regional councils?" Her answer was: "Probably credibility. We need to get our story over to elected officials who don't happen to serve on a council board and to people in the region. This will probably never be fully accomplished, but it must be one of our top goals. We need to get the story across as to what a regional council is, what it can do and what it can't do. But this is very difficult. The regional council

F.G. HARDIN'S BROTHER DIES IN BRADY
Funeral services were in Brady Wednesday Nov. 19, for W.B. Hardin, 87, who died in a hospital in that city Tuesday.
He was a brother of F.G. Hardin of Sanderson but on account of Mrs. Hardin's illness he could not attend the funeral services.
Other survivors are his wife, a son and two daughters; also five sisters and another brother.

doesn't directly affect the voters. They don't have to go to a council for day to day business like getting license tags. So people are suspicious of it. How to explain regional councils to the average person in a way that would be of interest to him is very difficult."

And another question: "Do you feel regional councils are a threat to local government?" And her answer: "Not in our area. We've lost none of our sovereignty by sitting down with our neighbors and talking. It's a voluntary association and we can withdraw at any time. There is no way we would participate if we felt it was a threat. Anything that gives a voice to small cities and rural counties strengthens them. They become a part of something where they can develop some solutions to problems."

We personally favor the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission!

But that too, depends on how you look at it!

FLEDGERS REMINDED
All persons who made pledges to the Terrell Bicentennial Park and Pool are reminded that money is being received from that source any time the pledger wishes to make up a part or all of their pledge.
County Judge Charles Stavley stated that it is absolutely necessary to keep in mind the obligation we have to raise the balance of the $5,000.00 that was pledged, as this was a part of the consideration of the Terrell County Commissioners Court in their contribution of $15,000.00 toward the park-pool project.

Persons who wish to make payment on part or all of their pledge are asked to contact Judge Stavley as he has the only record of the pledges made by interested citizens.

Wayne Shaw of San Antonio visited here Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. W.D. O'Bryant.

TWIRLERS JUDGED AT RECENT UIL BAND EVENING
Twirlers performed before judges at the recent contest in Odessa for bands of this area. The contests were for marching and twirling in university interscholastic League competition.
Susan Walton received a vision II rating in her performance, and Nora Maldonado and Lissa Murr received Division III ratings.

New Directory For Phone Users of Area

A special cover commemorating the nation's bicentennial and the 100th anniversary of the telephone will be on the new directory.

"It's a Happy Birthday, America, present from the Bell System and Southwestern Bell," said Don Lincoln, district manager of the utility. Featured on front and back covers of the directory are four-color likenesses of 26 characters representing figures from American history, messages of family and friends, and mythical personalities. All are, appropriately, talking in various styles of telephones. The cover faces range from Benjamin Franklin to Abraham Lincoln to Shirley Temple to Jackie Robinson. There's also the Statue of Liberty, an astronaut, Will Rogers, Norman Rockwell, George Washington, Merian Anderson, and Uncle Sam -- not to mention Alexander Graham Bell, Betsy Ross, Mark Twain, and various others.

The cover is being used on Bell company directories in the United States through the bicentennial celebration.

The cover first appeared on the Washington, D.C., directory in April. Its usage has just begun in Texas.

A complete identification of each of the 32 characters and a description of the telephones they use is printed on the inside of the back cover of the directory.

The artist is Stanley Meltzoff of New Jersey, who did the artwork under commission of AT&T. His art has appeared in most of the nation's major magazines.

The first combined telephone directory for Alpine, Fort Davis, Marathon, Marfa, and Sanderson will be mailed to customers in those towns beginning November 19.

"Combining listings in the five towns in one directory provides convenience for residents of this region," said Mr. Lincoln.

Communications Company Begins Service Thursday

The Sanderson Communications Co. put their equipment into service Thanksgiving Day for the benefit of local subscribers to the mobile telephone service.

Mrs. Philip Hanson, whose husband furnishes the technical know-how for the installation and operation of the electronic equipment, went to Dallas last week to pick up the last of the parts needed to complete the installation.

The Hansons have a 100-foot tower in their back yard on which is antennae and the balance of the equipment.

The Hansons invite interested persons to talk to them about their service, costs, etc., without any obligation.

Couch Named To Water Board Unexpired Term

Ernest Couch has been named to the directors of the Terrell County Water Control & Improvement District #1 in the position held by James Caroline who died recently.

The appointment is for the unexpired term of Caroline.

The action was part of the business conducted at a recent meeting of the board of directors of that organization.

Don Allen, manager of the water district, was authorized and instructed to erect signs at the boundaries of the district on the highways, marking those bounds in compliance with an order of the Texas Water Rights Commission.

AMONG OUR SUBSCRIBERS
 New subscribers to The Times are Miss Billie Kay Cooksey of Midland, Mrs. Lupe Parada of Fort Stockton, Larry Arhens, Wayne Zachary, and J.C. Horton of Sanderson.

8th Grade Netsters Begin Practice

The 8th grade boys began basketball practice last week under Coach Don Malone.

Coach Malone stated that the roster of aspirants included the following: Milby Winn, Buddy Furman, Aubby Black, Cody Carruthers, Richard Montalvo, Jose Daniel, Rudy Licon, Kade Kothman, Scott McDonald, Rex Holcombe, Charlie Brown, and Ray Villagas.

All-District Team Named in 4B

The All-District football team for District 4-B was named recently at a meeting of the coaches of the district.

Carlos Galvan was named to the honorable mention offensive guard slot and as a line-backer on the defensive unit; Ricky Munoz was named as offensive tackle; Clay Mitchell was named offensive end and defensive end; Marvin Davis was named honorable mention quarterback and honorable mention defensive secondary; Kendall Billings was named as an offensive back and defensive linebacker; Frankie Flores received an honorable mention as a defensive secondary player.

C. T. Holly, 72, Former Teacher, Dies November 6

Word was received last week-end of the death of Charles Thomas Holley, 72, of Grand Prairie. He died at his home Wednesday of last week after a lingering illness. Mr. Holley was a former superintendent of schools in Terrell County.

Born in Cumber, Hopkins County, Texas, November 6, 1903, he had been a resident of Grand Prairie for the past 17 years. He had been associated with the schools at Runge, Premont, Santa Rosa, Pleasanton, Grand Prairie, and Sanderson. He retired in 1968. He was active in Boy Scouts of America, Y.M.C.A., Lions Club, Masonic Lodge, and was a member of the First Baptist Church of that city.

He is survived by his widow, a son, Jay Tom Holley of Richardson, a daughter, Mrs. Joan Couser of Houston, 3 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, a brother, and two sisters.

Funeral services were Friday in Grand Prairie with burial in Commerce.

MITCHELL HONORED BY POLLED HEREFORD ASSN.

N.M. Mitchell was honored recently by the Polled Hereford Association by being named to the National Polled Hereford Hall of Fame.

A picture of Mr. Mitchell was hung in the Hall to name him as a pioneer Polled Hereford breeder.

The facility was recently completed and dedicated last month and Mitchell was one of the initial honorees in the Hall of Fame.

Mitchell has been a breeder of Polled Hereford cattle since 1929.

COURTHOUSE TO CLOSE THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

County Judge Charles Stavley asked The Times to relay the information to readers that the courthouse offices will be closed on Thursday - Thanksgiving Day - and Friday of this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Michael P. Longley and her son, Les Horton, left Tuesday for Little Rock, Ark., and Dallas, and other points on vacation. They will return next weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sullivan are on vacation, visiting with their daughter, Miss Hanna Sullivan, at Texas A&M University, and with relatives in Bryan and Jacksonville.

Eaglettes Play In Ozona Nov. 18

The Sanderson High School Eaglettes played their first basketball games of the current season in Ozona Tuesday night of last week.

The Ozona JV won the opening fray 49-6. Forwards for the Eaglettes included Leticia Galvan, who made 3 points, Theresa Gallardo, who scored 2 points, Lori James, who made one free throw, and Kathleen Cosby. The guards were Paula Castro, Roberta Bell, Vandy Pagitt, LeeAnn Kuethe, and Beth Molitor.

In the varsity game, Sanderson held a slight edge through three periods, but lost out in the final frame 44-37. JoAnn Hagelgans scored 21 points, Bryanann Stavley 2, Gaye TenEyck 8, and Paula TenEyck 6. The guards were Susanna Montalvo, Yolanda Rodriguez, Lisa Stavley, Roberta Bell, and Leticia Galvan.

Jack Cosby is coach of the varsity girls and Bill Ford is mentor for the junior varsity team.

The score by quarters in the varsity fray was:
 Sanderson 10 22 30 37
 Ozona 6 13 29 44

Cage Tourney Slated Dec. 4-6 In Local Gym

Sanderson High School will host their third annual basketball tournament on December 4, 5, and 6, according to an announcement by Bill Anders, high school principal and the coach of the Eagle cage team.

Teams that have been invited include Balmorhea, Marathon, Comstock, Fort Stockton, Alpine B, Ozona A and B in the girls' bracket, and boys' teams will include those from Wink, Comstock, Balmorhea, Imperial, Ozona B.

Trophies will be given in each division to the first three places and to consolation.

Individual trophies will be given to six forwards and six guards named to the all-tournament team with a most valuable guard and most valuable forward named from the two groups.

There will also be an all-tournament boys' team named consisting of 10 players, one of whom will be named most valuable player.

CORRECTION

In the story about the arrests on charges of marijuana possession last week, County Judge Charles Stavley was the magistrate who set bonds on the accused rather than Justice of the Peace W.G. Shoemaker.

Our choice of words in designating the "operator" of the business where the arrests were made, as Thomas Robles, may have been more clearly stated by saying that Robert Morales was the manager of the business which is in the name of Mrs. Robles, according to a long distance phone call by a person who identified herself as Mrs. Thomas Robles.

Thanksgiving Service Thursday

The community Thanksgiving service was Sunday evening in the First United Methodist Church in Sanderson.

Rev. David Treat, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, gave the call to worship, followed by a hymn by the congregation. Rev. Eduardo Rodriguez, pastor of El Buen Pastor United Methodist Church led the responsive reading.

The offering, which goes to help indigent transients who call at the homes of the local ministers, was explained prior to the taking of the offering and offertory prayer by J.A. Gilbreath, treasurer of the local Ministerial Alliance and administrator of the transient fund.

The Thanksgiving sermon was delivered by Rev. Paul Tatum, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

A silent prayer period preceded the benediction by Rev. David Marx, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Sanderson.

Wolfcamp Oil Found In Well On Mitchell Ranch

Third pay, Wolfcamp oil, was opened in the KM (Ellenburger and Wolfcamp gas) field of Terrell County with completion of Mobil Oil Corp. No. 1 State-Mitchell, one mile west of Wolfcamp gas and 28 miles northeast of Sanderson, to pump 18 barrels of 36.8 gravity oil, plus one barrel of load water, with gas-oil ratio of 2,500-1.

Production was through perforations at 6,270-571 feet, which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons and fractured with 82,000 gallons and 43,000 pounds of sand.

Location is 993 feet from the north and 1,417 feet from the east lines of 30-1-CCSD&RG-NG.

Winter's Here!

Winter came to this area suddenly after a long Indian summer. Real winter temperatures, frost, and northers were noted last week with the thermometer showing 25 degrees Friday morning, 30 Saturday morning, and 18 Sunday morning. The weather has been clear and clear cold weather will be welcomed by the deer hunters beginning to converge on the area.

Local residents will be interested to view the numbers of men and vehicles coming into this area this weekend.

NOTICE

Dr. Michael P. Longley will not be in his office until December 8. In case of emergency, call Don Deaton 345-2436.

Good Mule Bucks Hard To Find In Trans-Pecos

Deer season opens in the Trans-Pecos area of West Texas November 29, with prospects for hunters to take some good bucks in excellent condition and with some good antlers, but hunting promises to be harder because of a decrease in the mule deer population.

The season will be open through December 14, except in Pecos and Terrell Counties and that portion of Val Verde County that lies west of the Pecos River, where the season is extended one week, December 15-21 for white-tailed deer only.

The mule deer, however, get most of the hunting pressure during the Trans-Pecos season as this area holds the bulk of the Texas population of this species. Population is estimated at less than 120,000 animals, a 25% decrease from last year. The drop in the mule deer herd is the result of a poor 1974 fawn crop that followed an extremely dry winter, spring and early summer.

Presidio, Brewster, and Jeff Davis Counties probably will offer the best mule deer hunting, followed closely by portions of Pecos and Terrell Counties, according to a news release from Texas Parks & Wildlife Department.

The bag limit is four deer, but only one of these may be a mule deer buck, and only two may be white-tailed bucks. Antlerless permits are issued to landowners in some areas and hunters who are able to obtain one of these may also take only antlerless deer.

Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens reported an unusual number of game law violations just before, and during the deer season that opened two weeks earlier in most counties east of the Pecos River. Hunting at night, discharging a firearm from a public road, and tagging violations were among the most frequent.

According to law, tags must be attached immediately upon possession and remain attached until the carcass has been finally processed. Both sides of the tags must be completed and attached. Hunters with untagged deer in their vehicles or camps are in violation of this regulation, the news release stated.

Help keep Sanderson clean!

Predators plagued ranchers even a long time ago, as witnessed by this photograph loaned by F.G. Grigsby. The bobcat is caught in a trap, very visible in another photograph of the same incident. The man has a long stick he is using to "get things going his way". Another accompanying picture shows the same man with a fox caught in a trap, evidently at about the same time as the picture below.

Culture Club Has Meeting Thursday In Savage Home

The Culture Club met on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W.H. Savage with Mrs. Joe N. Brown as co-hostess. In the absence of the president, Mrs. N.M. Mitchell Jr., Mrs. C.B. Card, vice-president, presided.

After the singing of the National Anthem, Mrs. E.E. Harkins Jr. gave the devotional on "Thanksgiving".

Mrs. Card pinned a red rosebud corsage on Mrs. R.A. Gatlin and welcomed her back into the club membership after a year's absence.

Reports of committee and department chairmen were given. Mrs. Savage, C.I.P. chairman, urged the members to join in the Terrell County family history book project to boost the museum project.

Brochures concerning the fourth and last Bicentennial Commemorative plates were passed out and the group voted to sell the plates at the recommended prices with orders to be given to Mrs. N.M. Mitchell Jr., and anyone other than club members may purchase the plates, including the three previous ones.

After the matter of the trophies for the upcoming basketball tournament was discussed, the group voted to contribute $25 to the project.

Mrs. E.E. Farley was in charge of the program on "Spirits of America". Four of the club members in appropriate costumes, dramatized five female historical figures: Mrs. Farley depicting Deborah Sampson; Mrs. N.M. Mitchell Sr. depicting Mrs. Amelia Bloomer; Mrs. W.W. Sudduth Mrs. Millard Filmore; Mrs. Mary Cox, a Pilgrim woman; Mrs. Farley, with a change of costume, Mrs. Emma Willard. The unusual program proved both entertaining and informative.

For the Bicentennial bonus, many of the members wore clothing, jewelry, etc., typical of the period.

Mrs. Savage wore a chemise and a night gown of white linen with embroidery and tiny pin tucks for trim. They were from her maternal grandmother's wedding trousseau of 105 years ago.

Refreshments were served from a table covered in an ecru linen cutwork cloth with a centerpiece of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Barton Massey served the congealed turkey and cranberry salad on lettuce leaves with pumpkin caramelized pecan pie, George Washington cherries, mixed nuts, and party crackers also on the table. Mrs. Monty Harkins was at the silver tea and coffee service.

Shower Honors Miss Brenda Carter, December Bride-elect

Miss Brenda Carter, bride-elect of Bill Littleton, was honored at a gift tea Saturday afternoon in the Legion Hall. In the receiving line with the honoree to welcome the guests were her mother, Mrs. George H. Carter, her grandmother, Mrs. Olin Cooper, and the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Vic Littleton. Their corsages were in the bride's chosen colors, pink and maroon.

Lynn Sanders of Midland, niece of the bridegroom, and Jeannine Carter, sister of the bride, was at the bride's book to register the guests. The book was on a table covered in an ecru linen cutwork cloth with a decor of a single large pink carnation in a silver vase.

Pink and white carnations, gladiolus and baby's breath formed the centerpiece on the tea table. Covering the table was an exquisite cloth of white net bordered in satin and headed with silver ric rac braid on which were applied a bridal bouquet, love birds, streamers, and bows, all in white. Mrs. Wayne Sanders of Midland, sister of the bridegroom, served pink punch and coffee the first hour and then Selene Farley served. Miss Nancy Harkins and Mrs. James I Payne Jr. of Alpine, sister of the bride-elect, served the white cake squares decorated in pink roses. Nuts and pink mints were on the table also. The white napkins were imprinted "Brenda and Bill".

The hostesses were Mmes. Gilbert Bell, Lewis Cash, Ernest Couch, Gene Black, C.O. Cash, A.N. Farley, W.E. TenEyck, Graham Childress, R.F. Kuethe, H.M. Petty, C.B. Card, Robert Hunn, Roy Deaton, Barton Massey, Austin Chriesman, Lewis James, and Ross Stavley.

Mr. and Mrs. F.M. Wood returned home Tuesday from San Angelo after taking his mother, Mrs. Jack Wood, who had visited here for a week, back to the Baptist Geriatrics Hospital where she has been a patient for several months.

Mrs. Euna Gossett, who has been visiting in Lakeview, Calif., with her daughter and family is visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. H.W. Chamberlain, and family who met her in Midland when she arrived by plane.

Also present were Mmes. A. D. Brown, A.H. Zuberbueler, L.H. Gilbreath, H.E. Ezelle, C. F. Cox, Graham Childress, and two guests, Mrs. Pinky Carruthers and Mrs. E.J. Hanson.

Local Cancer Unit Meets Thursday Of Last Week

Mrs. Web Townsend, president, presided at the meeting of the directors of the Terrell County Unit of the American Cancer Society in the fellowship hall of the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. Jerry Alexander of Midland, executive district director, attended the meeting.

Mrs. A.H. Zuberbueler, treasurer, reported $126 in memorial contributions.

Mrs. Julian Martinez Jr. public education chairman, reported the showing of films at the schools and before several organizations.

In the absence of Mrs. K.H. Stutes, publicity chairman, Mrs. Townsend gave her report with special mention made of the nice comments by J.A. Gilbreath in his editorial.

Mrs. Monty Harkins volunteered to make and distribute posters advertising the annual Hunter's Food Sale on Friday, November 28, at Dudley's.

Mrs. W.J. Ferguson Jr., co-chairman of the sale with Mrs. H.A. Couch, led round table discussion for the culmination of plans for the sale.

The unfinished business items were tabled until the meeting on January 20.

Also present were Mmes. H. A. Mullings, W.H. Savage, Cruz Marquez, W.W. Sudduth, Raymond Fierro, and E.E. Farley.

AOA Sorority

Alpha Theta Alpha had a preferential tea for its new pledges Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L.M. Choate.

Corsages were presented to pledges: Mmes. Anthony Welch, Gene Flores, Tom Lowrance, Larry Jones, and Manuel Parada Jr., and Miss Minerva Martinez.

Refreshments of assorted cookies, mixed nuts, and mints were served. Mrs. Jack Linam was at the silver tea and coffee service. An arrangement of yellow daisies and carnations and white gladiolus was centered on the table which was covered with a heavy ecru lace tablecloth.

Other members present were Miss Linda Ball and Miss Lupe Garza; Mmes. Kenneth Shurley, A.N. Farley, M.E. Morris, W.O. O'Rourke, Larry Seymore, and L.M. Choate.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Chriesman attended the game in Alpine Saturday night between the Sul Ross team and the Angelo State University Rams. Their son, Blain Chriesman, is on the Rams' team.

Natl Jr. Honor Society Inducts Eight New Members

Eight junior high students were inducted into the National Junior Honor Society Friday morning in the Sanderson Junior High School Library. The students inducted were eighth graders Abby Black, Scott McDonald, and Milby Winn; seventh graders Mickey Corbett, Johnny Daniel, Amy Harrison, Leslie Morris, and Shalor Sumrall.

Rex Holcombe, president of the local chapter of the National Junior Honor Society, welcomed the students and guests attending the induction service. Cynthia Hornsby, vice-president, gave a brief history of the organization.

NJHS members Kim Wueste, Jose Daniel, Leticia Esqueda, Pat Molitor, and Tammy Haggans each explained one of the five requisites for membership in the society, these requisites being scholarship, character, leadership, citizenship, and service. As Mary Corbett, secretary, called the new members' names, they came forward, lighted a candle, and stood before the audience. The boys were presented with boutonnieres and the girls with corsages.

A reception for members, their parents, and guests was held following the induction ceremony in room 5 in the junior high building. Punch, an assortment of cakes, mixed nuts, and mints were served from a table covered in a blue damask cloth upon which was a flower arrangement flanked by candles, using the Bicentennial theme.

Sponsors of the National Junior Honor Society are Mrs. L. M. Choate and Jack Cosby.

Mrs. Anthony Welch Honoree At Layette Shower

Mrs. Anthony Welch was honored at a Layette shower Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Marshall Card.

A corsage of pink and blue flowers was pinned on the honoree when she arrived soon after she began to unwrap the gifts. After they been displayed, they were placed in the play pen which was the gift from the hostesses.

In a contest to make the correct words from the jumbled letters of baby accessories, Mrs. L.H. Gilbreath was the winner of the prize and she presented it to the honoree.

Refreshments of lemon nuts, tea, and coffee were served.

Assisting hostesses were Madames Barton Massey, Gene Black, C.B. Card, and Char Hornsby.

There were 25 guests at the shower.

Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Carlton White was hostess last week to the Wednesday Bridge Club with members and guests making three tables of players. She served a luncheon at 1:00 o'clock.

In the card games, high score was held by Mrs. H.E. Ezelle, who shared slam with Mrs. Austin Nance; Mrs. Dan Marx was second high, and Mrs. W.D. O'Bryant, low.

Also present were Mmes. J. Barrett, Weldon Cox, Marj Duncan, Tol Murrach, Vic Littleton, T.W. McKenzie, Harvey Rogers, and R.S. Wilkinson.

ON PICKING UP AND PUTTING DOWN

Someone has said that we are not a nation of consumers but a nation of users. We use then discard what is left over.

This brings up a question of increasing concern. Cities and towns are beginning to run out of room for landfill sites for disposal of their garbage. Even more complex is the problem of industrial wastes, some of which can be toxic, and nearly all of which present disposal problems.

These are commonly referred to as "solid wastes," though, in fact, they can include materials which may be solid, semi-solid, and often-times a form of liquid. Responsibility for seeing that industrial wastes are disposed of properly rests with the Texas Water Quality Board, though in many cases industries dispose of their wastes on their own property. So long as they do it properly, without a threat to water quality, there is no problem.

The big problem arises in trying to find disposal sites for other industrial wastes which may include a variety of materials—chemicals, paint solvents, resins, and other by-products of industrial production.

Even though we live in a very large state, few such disposal sites have been established because of the many factors which must be considered. First, there must be no danger of water pollution, and that includes surface waters in our lakes and streams as well as "groundwaters" which lie beneath the surface of the land.

Closeness to residential areas must be considered, and how close is close is a question which has caused several disposal site proposals to be withdrawn or otherwise side-tracked.

Then there is the economic factor. Many people have suggested that such wastes be hauled out to sparsely populated West Texas where dangers of water pollution are less—a method which would greatly increase disposal costs and ultimately the cost of consumer goods to the public. And—people out there, fewer though they may be, don't want the wastes either.

Some wastes can be reclaimed and recycled, and this is going on now to an extent in Texas, though, again, it can be a costly process.

So the saying goes: "Everyone wants us to pick it up but no one wants us to put it down."

While not all water pollution problems in Texas have been solved, most are on the way to solution. And now the TWQB faces a real puzzle for which solutions must be found soon—how and where to put it down after it's been picked up.

Mrs. Philip Hanson made a business trip to Dallas last week. Mrs. T.W. McKenzie accompanied her on the trip to visit a friend, Mrs. Lucille Hines, formerly of El Paso, who is with her daughter in Dallas and very ill. En route home they spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stavley at their farm at May.

Rev. and Mrs. David Treat and Tricia went to Portales, N.M., Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her grandparents.

Another Fine Texas Recipe

SWEET AND SOUR SAUSAGE WITH RICE

- 1 lb. smoked country-style link sausage
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 can (20 oz.) pineapple chunks
- 1 large green pepper, thinly sliced
- 1 Tbsp. butter
- 1/3 cup honey
- 3 Tbsp. soy sauce
- 1 Tbsp. vinegar
- 2 Tbsp. cornstarch
- 2 tsp. ginger
- 1/2 tsp. garlic powder
- 3 cups hot cooked rice

Cover and simmer sausage in water for about 10 minutes. Drain. Cut in 2-inch pieces. Drain pineapple, reserving liquid. Add water to liquid to make 1-1/2 cups. Sauté green pepper and pineapple in butter about 2 minutes. Add sausage, honey, soy sauce and vinegar. Mix cornstarch with ginger and garlic; blend in measured liquid. Pour over sausage. Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened. Serve over rice. Yield: 6 servings.

BASIC SWEET DOUGH

- 2 pkg. dry yeast
- 1/2 cup warm water
- 4 cups flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup milk, scalded, cooled
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- Butter, melted

Sprinkle yeast over water; stir to dissolve. Combine flour, sugar and salt in large mixing bowl. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add combined milk, eggs and yeast to dry ingredients; mix well. Brush with butter. Cover; chill overnight. Dough can be stored three days in refrigerator.

PECAN ROLLS

- Basic Sweet Dough
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- Pecan halves
- Butter, melted
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
- 1 tsp. cinnamon

Bring dough to room temperature. Combine butter, sugar and syrup; bring to boil. Spoon 1-1/2 tsp. sugar mixture into buttered muffin cups; top with 2 or 3 pecan halves. Divide dough in half. Roll each half in an 18x12-inch rectangle on a lightly floured surface. Brush with butter. Sprinkle with combined sugar and cinnamon. Roll up; cut in 1-inch slices. Place in muffin cups. Brush with butter. Cover; let dough rise in warm place until double. Bake in preheated 375 degree oven 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Invert immediately. Yield: 36 rolls.

APPLE KUCHEN

- Basic Sweet Dough
- 4 cups sliced apples, cut 1/8-inch thick
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. cinnamon

Bring dough to room temperature. Divide in half; spread into 2 buttered 8-inch square pans. Press apples into dough. Brush with butter. Sprinkle with combined sugar and cinnamon. Cover; let dough rise in warm place until double. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 40 to 45 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Yield: 2 coffee cakes.

Homemaking Hints

For Safety & Economy

BATHROOM SAFETY

Accidents do happen all around the house, but they occur most commonly in the bathroom. To make sure that your bathroom is as safe as possible for you and your family, see how it shapes up with this bathroom safety checklist:

- * Date and label all medicines and check their shelf life. Medicines used incorrectly or beyond their expiration date can be more harmful than helpful.
- * Store all medicines and caustic cleaning compounds in locked cabinets to prevent accidental intake by children and pets. And, even when discarding empty and old containers, place them where your small loved ones can't get at them.

* Harsh chemical cleaners can be harmful if accidentally used improperly. Always read instructions before using any cleanser and, whenever possible, avoid using hazardous ones.

* Line your bathtub with a rubber mat or with decorative rubber decals to prevent falls. A handle or rod installed on the shower wall will provide extra protection, too.

* Never use electrical appliances near water or wet surfaces. If you must use them in the bathroom, be sure to unplug them when they're not being used.

HONEY TWIST

- Basic Sweet Dough
- Butter, melted
- 2 Tbsp. butter
- 2 Tbsp. honey
- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- 3 to 4 tsp. milk

Bring dough to room temperature. Shape into 4 rolls, 26 inches long. For each coffee cake, place 2 rolls of dough in a spiral arrangement in bottom of buttered 8-inch layer cake pan. Brush with butter. Cover; let dough rise in warm place until double. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 25 to 35 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from pan. Cool 20 to 30 minutes. Combine softened butter, honey and sugar. Gradually add milk; mix until blended. Spread over warm coffee cakes. Yield: 2 coffee cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. V.E. Keyes moved the last load of their household effects to El Paso last week. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Welch, who bought their home, moved in Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laughlin went to Georgetown Tuesday and will visit with their nephew, J.C. Green Jr., and family. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Green, of Eagle Pass, will join them there for the visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Grigsby were in Odessa last Wednesday when his brother, L.R. Grigsby of McCamey, had major surgery. He has been in the hospital for a month and is reported to be making satisfactory recovery.

Hobby Club Meets November 11 In Langtry

Mrs. Newman Billings was hostess to the members of the Hobby Club in the Langtry Community Center on November 11.

Baked ham and a variety of covered dishes made up the noon menu. Mrs. Billings gave the invocation prior to the meal.

Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Billy Foster and Mrs. Monk Cain, who also won the traveling prize.

Mrs. B.C. Babb Jr., president, conducted the business meeting. Several projects for the year were discussed and plans for the Christmas party were made.

In the social hour that followed the meeting, Ann Shaw was hostess to a home products party.

Guests were Miss Shaw and Mrs. Jeff Owens of Ozona, and Neal Billings Jr. of Langtry.

Members present were Mesdames W.N. Barnes, Guy Skiles, Kelly Goble, Billy Foster, Neal Billings, Andy White, Monk Cain, Newman Billings, B.C. Babb Jr., and Louis Sample.

SPORTSMAN'S CORNER

NEW YORK (ED)—What is a hunter? Ask a cross-section of the population, and you'll receive a variety of answers: "I think hunters are pigs" ... "I don't see any difference between killing a cow for its meat or a deer for its meat" ... "If it weren't for hunters there wouldn't be any wildlife to argue about."

People who don't engage in the sport fail to realize just how true this last statement is, for without strong conservation policies, there would be no game to hunt. In fact, sportsman's license and fees from excise taxes on hunting equipment are a main source of revenue used to purchase real estate set aside for wildlife sanctuaries.

The hunter, while acting in his own self-interest, makes a valued contribution to the conservation effort. And, it's not only hunted species that are protected ... a well-managed wildlife preserve is a sanctuary for all manner of wildlife, many of which are off-limits to the sportsman.

But isn't the hunter cruel? This question, too, prompts varied responses. Those who cry "yes" have never seen deer starve to death in winter, small animals swept away by flood waters. Disease, starvation and Mother Nature herself claim a great number of wildlife.

Who is the hunter? He or she is one of twenty million men and women—businessmen and cab drivers, housekeepers and shopkeepers—who hunt to renew their kinship with the natural world, a world they help preserve for tomorrow's outdoorsmen.

Thursday Bridge Club

Mrs. W.D. O'Bryant decorated the party rooms in her home with African violets when she entertained the Thursday Bridge Club last week.

Mrs. Jack Riggs held high score and shared slam with Mrs. Carlton White; Mrs. Mark Duncan was second high, and Mrs. Diane Andrews was low.

Mmes. R.S. Wilkinson, Weldon Cox, W.H. Goldwire, and Austin Nance were also present.

Cherry pie topped with whipped cream, tea, and coffee were served before the card games.

M. A. Walker Observe 60th Wedding Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. Melvin A. Walker of Sundown celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on October 21 with "open house" in the parsonage.

The Walkers were married in Meridian on October 21, 1915. While in school at Meridian Junior College he served the Meridian circuit as a supply preacher. He served in Methodist pastorates from 1924 to 1942 when he was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference and to the pastorate at Sudan. Later, after serving churches in the New Mexico Conference, he retired to live at Carlsbad but after two years he left retirement to come to Sanderson to serve the Sanderson-Dryden charge. After leaving here they went to Brownfield and then to the Parkview-Wellman charge prior to being appointed to Sundown.

This month marks 52 years that he has been preaching. "Retirement is for old people and I am going to be active and preach as long as I can," stated Rev. Walker.

Weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bendele and her mother, Mrs. Elma Riley, were Mrs. Riley's niece, Mrs. Mildred Mills, of Del Rio, her sister, Mrs. Virginia Haller, of Austin, her son, W.G. Riley, of San Antonio, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cash, of Alpine. Saturday the birthdays of Mrs. Bendele, Mr. Riley, and Mrs. Mills were celebrated with a barbecue dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Black and children, and Mr. and Mrs. O.T. Sudduth joining the family for the dinner.

Lung Cancer Statistics Reveal Dramatic Rise

Fifty years ago lung cancer was a rare disease. While 3,000 lung cancer deaths were recorded in 1930, today there are 25 times that number says the American Cancer Society.

It is estimated that during this year alone, approximately 91,000 Americans will be stricken with this form of cancer.

According to Dr. Clifton F. Mountain, chief of Thoracic Surgery at The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston, "The incidence of lung cancer today is epidemic. Plotted on a graph, lung cancer represents a sharp rising curve with no end in sight."

Despite the grim statistics, Dr. Mountain, a specialist in lung cancer during the last 16 years, remains optimistic. While surgery techniques seem to have reached their technical limits, the ability to diagnose and identify lung cancer has improved significantly in recent years.

"If lung cancer is discovered in an early stage, which we define as a lesion confined totally within one lung, the patient will have a 45 - 50 percent chance of survival five years after surgery," he explains.

If detection is delayed until the cancer has spread to adjoining lymph nodes, the patient's chances of survival fall dramatically to 18 percent. If initial detection is still further delayed, such that the disease spreads to more distant nodes or to organs outside the chest, the chances of survival are even less.

Two of the most promising detection tools at this time are sputum cytology and the flexible fiberbronchoscope. The sputum test, similar to the Pap smear for cervical cancer, allows the doctor to detect malignant cells even before the cancer can be detected by x-ray.

Once malignant cells are detected in the sputum, the fiberbronchoscope, an optical brainchild of Japanese technology, can be used to search the farthest lobes of the lung in search of the pinhead-sized cancer. As an optical probe, the instrument can be inserted into the patient's bronchial tract with the capability to actually turn corners as it moves along the air passages of the lung, thus permitting the doctor to see and photograph those regions where the majority of lung cancers arise.

Although the two used together are primarily experimental at this time, Dr. Mountain notes that testing done to date has revealed that early cancers detected in this manner and successfully treated by surgery may extend the patient's chances for survival to as much as 80 percent.

Concerning drugs, Dr. Mountain says, "As of now, no single drug has shown itself to be highly active in respect to lung cancer. However, there are newer investigational drug agents which may have a higher activity rate with respect to lung cancer than some of the older agents."

He adds that the search is continuing for new agents that may prove active in treating lung cancer. Of special interest at this time is the developing collection of information relating to the use of multiple drugs in combination which may be more effective than single drugs.

Yet another approach under investigation is the concept of using multiple types of treatment, known as adjunctive therapy.

In this way the surgeon, chemotherapist, radiotherapist and immunologist design a teamwork approach to the total disease. For example, instead of depending entirely on surgery for a cure, successful surgery is backed up by drugs to better insure that the disease will not recur.

Presently all of these approaches are being investigated on a global scale in an effort to answer some of the critical questions about lung cancer in hopes that the rising curve of incidence and mortality can be altered.

Although you probably think of cereals as breakfast food, you can use cereals in many recipes, including desserts. CREAM OF WHEAT Cereal, a favorite on chilly mornings, adds iron and B vitamins to Apricot Crunch Squares. In addition, the tangy-sweet filling is chock full of vitamin A. The next time you're baking, make this nutritious dessert. It's delicious too!

APRICOT CRUNCH SQUARES

- 8 ounces dried apricots
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 1/3 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup CREAM OF WHEAT Cereal, Regular or Quick (uncooked)
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- Ice cream, optional

Simmer apricots in water, uncovered, about 20 minutes, or until tender. Mash; then stir in granulated sugar until well blended. In another bowl, combine next six ingredients; cut in 6 tablespoons butter or margarine. Press half of cereal mixture firmly into the bottom of a greased 8-inch square baking pan. Top with apricot mixture, spreading evenly. Cover with remaining cereal mixture and press down firmly. Dot with remaining butter or margarine. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375°F.) 40 to 45 minutes, or until lightly browned. Serve warm or cooled with ice cream, if desired. Makes 16 (about 2-inch) squares.

GIFT IDEAS

SCENTS OF THE OCCASION

To show that special someone just how special she or he is this holiday season, give a gift that's unique.

Try to find an unusual version of a common item, such as antique cards for a big bridge player.

Or give the lady in your life something she could never have gotten before: An attractive bottle of Lady Koscot Bath Kare delicately scented with 50% Oil of Mink. Or a key pendant scented with her favorite perfume.

Your gift should be luxurious and pay a compliment to the recipient. But keep it practical. Don't get something that has to be cared for or is difficult to clean.

If, when you give a gift, you also give something of yourself, the present will be unique and can make everybody's holidays a little happier.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Ray Ross and son have recently moved back to Sanderson from Ozona and he is employed at Barton's Conoco Station. Their mobile home is in Lomita Terrace.

Miss Janet Harrell is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubry Harrell, and family. Miss Harrell, who is a freshman and a pre-vet major at Lubbock Christian College, was recently the recipient of a scholarship from the agriculture department of the college and she is using the scholarship this term.

Thanksgiving

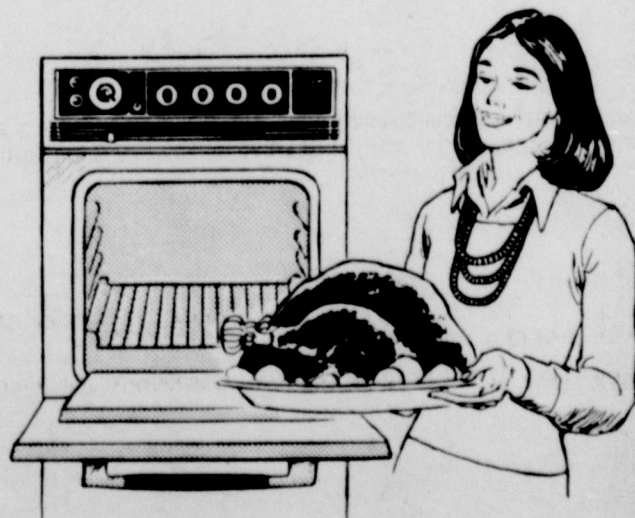

...THANK GOODNESS WE'VE COME A LONG WAY FROM PLYMOUTH ROCK

Try to imagine how difficult it would be for you to prepare a Thanksgiving dinner the way Pilgrims did. In those days, it took a labor of love, a lot of wood chopping and hours of standing over a hot fire to cook a meal. In fact, their cooking and housekeeping chores took lots of muscle and hard work all the time. The lucky modern homemaker! Clean, dependable electricity can cook your family's holiday meals and take care of other household chores, such as dishwashing and laundry. In the meantime, you can relax and enjoy the holiday with your family and friends in a warm, comfortable and well-lighted home. Community Public Service Company will be on hand this Thanksgiving to see that you have the electricity needed to help you enjoy a pleasant, happy holiday.

AUSTIN — The debate goes on over whether the legislature will be faced with a billion dollar tax bill in 1977 — or none at all.

Comptroller Bob Bullock stated that if lawmakers continue their recent spending patterns they will have to pass a record tax measure.

But House Speaker Bill Clayton predicted the legislature will be "trying to maintain the status quo" and will avoid growth of the bureaucracy. In spite of Bullock's repeated warnings, Clayton said he is not convinced that a major tax bill will be required.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe at a governmental conference in San Antonio stated government at all levels must become more economical and efficient. He called specifically for "redirection" of spending for education.

State Sen. Peyton McKnight of Tyler, speaking more harshly, said runaway spending in education may bankrupt the state if it isn't brought under control. He called for a lid on education spending.

Meanwhile, the new Joint Advisory Commission of Government Operations

(Little Hoover Commission) held its second meeting and adopted a time-table for a year's inquiry into 250 state units of government. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby warned members to keep their eyes on the big spending areas and avoid "rabbit hunts."

The prospective candidates are Judge Charles W. Barrow of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals in San Antonio and Martin Dies Jr. of the Ninth Court in Beaumont.

Barrow says he is definitely going to run. Dies says he is "inclined to" but wants to check his bases of support again.

Postponed Again

The Senate for the third time postponed the impeachment trial of District Judge O. P. Carrillo.

By a 16-10 vote, senators delayed the trial until January 5 to await outcome of a Judicial Qualifications Commission hearing and federal court final action on Carrillo's income tax conviction.

Carrillo said he will never resign his post on the Duval-Starr-Jim Hogg counties bench, although he has been suspended since last August following House passage of articles of impeachment.

Court Race On

New Texas Supreme Court Associate Justice Ross E. Doughty of Uvalde decided he will not be a candidate to retain his job in 1976.

Two Court of Civil Appeals chief justices immediately indicated an interest in a race to succeed Doughty who was appointed only about two months ago when Associate Justice Ruel Walker retired.

Courts Speak

Reversing itself, the State Supreme Court agreed to consider whether a landowner, to claim an agricultural tax exemption, must prove 51 per cent of his overall income is derived from farming or ranching.

Third Court of Civil Appeals threw out a State Board of Pharmacy appeal from a district court ruling blocking its enforcement of a limit on advertising prescription drugs. The intermediate court noted an appeal notice already has been filed with the Supreme Court, and two parallel appeals cannot proceed simultaneously.

The Third Court rejected approval by the Savings and Loan Commissioner of a fourth savings and loan association charter for Longview due to rulings on evidence by a hearing officer.

An injunction prohibiting the State Board of Insurance from enforcing a requirement of 90 days' notice for cancellation or premium increases in medical liability policies was upheld by the Third Court.

Improper jury arguments by Dallas prosecutors led to two reversals of cases by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Supreme Court directed an intermediate court to reconsider a workmen's compensation case in which the lower tribunal earlier had held a Brazoria County chemical worker intentionally jumped off a building.

AG Opinions

A blood sample cannot be legally taken without the consent of a person suspected of a traffic-related offense, Atty. Gen. John Hill stated in a recent opinion. A physician, taking the sample without apparent consent, could be subject to civil liability, Hill stated.

In another recent opinion, Hill concluded those acting under direction of physicians in filling prescriptions do not have benefits of statutory exemptions granted doctors, dentists and chiropractors.

Sales Tax Distributed

Six hundred and seventy cities and towns received October city sales tax rebates totaling $14.5 million.

So far in 1975, the cities have taken as their share of the sales levies $223.7 million — only $10 million short of the total for all 1974.

Indications are the collecting cities will get $25 million to $30 million more this year than in 1974.

Short Snorts

Governor Briscoe told a student group he is still thinking about running for a third term.

The Secretary of State's office is looking into corporate contributions to Texas politicians by major oil companies.

Texas Utilities Commission adopted new procedural rules.

Lo-Vaca Gathering Co., which sometimes had trouble supplying its own Texas customers, can start selling surplus gas out of state, under a Texas Railroad Commission ruling.

The State Democratic Executive Committee will meet December 8 in Fort Worth and consider rules which would speed the pace of slow-moving party conventions.

Blue Cross officials resisted a state audit of the insurance firm's internal practices as long as they deliver Medicaid services as contracted.

Texas Education Agency will launch a survey to determine how many Mexican pupils are attending the largest schools in Texas.

Nat'l Park Service Lists Ramp Sites On Amistad Lake

In an effort to keep the public aware of rules and regulations concerning the operation of Amistad Recreation Area, the following information is presented by the National Park Service on designated boat launching areas and public use roads at Amistad.

Listed below are the designated areas at which boats may be legally launched on the Amistad Reservoir:

- Rough Canyon ramp
- Highway 277 North, either side of San Pedro Creed.
- Spur 454, San Pedro flats
- Diablo East ramp
- Air Force site (restricted to military personnel)
- Old steam plant road beyond Air Force Recreation site
- Bridge Highway 90 West either side of Devil's River
- Spur 406
- Pecos River
- Black Brush Point, Highway 90 West.

(This information is the last received or last known piece of information concerning legal launching sites. Individuals are responsible for ascertaining information about the launching of boats into Amistad Lake, weather conditions, etc.)

Launching of boats at sites other than those listed is prohibited. Travel on roads within the recreation area other than those leading to the above sites, to the Diablo East campground, and picnic area, to the Rough Canyon picnic area, and to the recreation lands below Amistad Dam is prohibited.

Those persons holding Special Use Permits for livestock grazing on the recreation area lands are allowed to drive a motor vehicle on lands under permit for purposes incidental to tending livestock.

So that the general public may be cognizant of what lands are administered as part of Amistad Recreation Area, signs have been placed along all roads leading to the lake. These signs are located where the road crosses the recreation area boundary.

Latest information received is that the Pecos River East Side public ramp will be open soon after December 1.

Some difficulty may be encountered in efforts to launch a boat onto the lake at the ramp on the Mexico end of the dam, and caution is urged in launching at that site until the situation is remedied. The expulsion of water from the lake has lowered the water level so that some rocks, etc., at that site prevent easy and safe launching. Information received recently is that work will begin in the very near future eliminating that hazard to make launching at that site simple and safe again.

A marina has been built on the Mexico side of the lake near the launching ramp and boat stalls, gasoline, are now available at that site, with construction under way for a supply concession for fishermen. The facility is expected to be completed soon after the first of the year.
