Steer Ropers Prepare For Levelland Show

The country's top steer ropers will be in Levelland, Texas, on Sunday, Sept. 28, to compete in the third annual steer roping and branding event sponsored by the Levelland Rodeo Assn., according to Bert Eads, prominent Hockley County rancher-stockman and the president of the association.

"All trails lead to Levelland for the occasion," said Mr. Eads. "The grounds are in first-class condition and it is expected that the stands of the largest arena in West Texas will be filled to capacity for this crowd-thrilling event," he concluded.

The list of top-notch lariat-ropers who will appear include: Everett Shew of Stonewall, Oklahoma, champion RCA steer roper in 1945-46.

Cotton Lee of Fort Sumner, N. M., winner of the steer roping and branding in Levelland in 1946 which was the first event of its kind held in Texas since 1905.

Howard Westfall of Sheffield, Texas, former world's champion steer roper and one of the oldest hands in the business.

Buddy Neal of Fort Stockton, Texas, one of the youngest and best ropers in the country.

McCamey Bond Sale Pending

At a meeting of the McCamey City Council Wednesday night with bids from bond buyers, the meeting was recessed until sometime Thursday when final arrangements may be made for the sale of the Street Improvement Bonds recently voted by the people of McCamey.

In all probability, the bonds will be sold before the end of the week and plans for letting bids for the improvements will be made at an early date, it was learned.

Mr. Beall Barbee of the Ranchers Wool and Mohair Assn. at Fort Stockton, was a Rankin caller Wednesday.

Weekly Swing Of Southwest Markets

Cotton, grains and livestock showed lower trends this week at SW markets, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Wheat and corn dropped very sharply over the weekend after showing some strength last week. Yellow corn closed Monday 25c a bushel lower than a week earlier at $1.75 to $1.80 at Texas common points. White corn lost 12c, barley 6 to 7, oats around 3 and 4 for the week. Milo fell 10 to 15c a hundred lbs.

Some new crop rough rice went to market last week, but prices remained unsettled. Most feedstuffs sold unchanged to lower, although wheat mill feeds showed further strength. Top grades of hay were in good demand, but wet weather lowered quality in many places. Harvest of early peanuts ended in South Texas.

Cotton netted losses of around $3 a bale for the 7 day period. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 30.30c a pound at Dallas, 30.50 at New Orleans, and 30.55 at Houston.

Cattle sold around 50c to $1 lower for the week at most SW markets. Common and medium cows ranged from $20 down at Houston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Wichita Monday and up to $21 at Kansas City. Denver paid as high as $24 for good cows, which spread from $21 to $23 at Kansas City, Wichita and Fort Worth, and $20.50 to $21 at San Antonio.

Sheep markets tended toward lower levels during the past week. San Antonio turned medium spring lambs at $21.50 on Monday, while Fort Worth took medium and good grades at $25 to $26. Good and choice lots cashed at $25 to $26 at Oklahoma City and Wichita and $23.50 to $29.25 at Denver.

Angora goat raisers asked 40c a pound for adult mohair and 60c for kid.

Hog prices broke all records at many markets but declined later to net only slight changes up or down. Top butcher hogs reached $28 at San Antonio at the high time, and $30 at Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Wichita paid as high as $31, Kansas City $31.75, and Denver $32.25. Sows and pigs showed similar trends.

Better grades of eggs sold a little higher during the past week at some markets. Top quality white eggs brought 45 to 50c a dozen at Dallas, with best mixed lots from 42 to 43c. Ft. Worth paid 47 to 48 for large whites and 40 to 44 for selected mixed colors. Ungraded white eggs ranged from 46 to 48 at Denver. New Orleans bought white extras of 60 per cent A quality at 56c.oultry held largely steady, although spring chickens eased in NW Arkansas.

Demand for peas exceeded the supply at firm prices in Colorado's San Luis Valley during the past week. Cauliflower sold about steady during the week and strengthened over the weekend. Potatoes moved in dull trade from the Gilcrest section in light demand.

"Goat Trial" Is Feature Of Lion Club Meeting

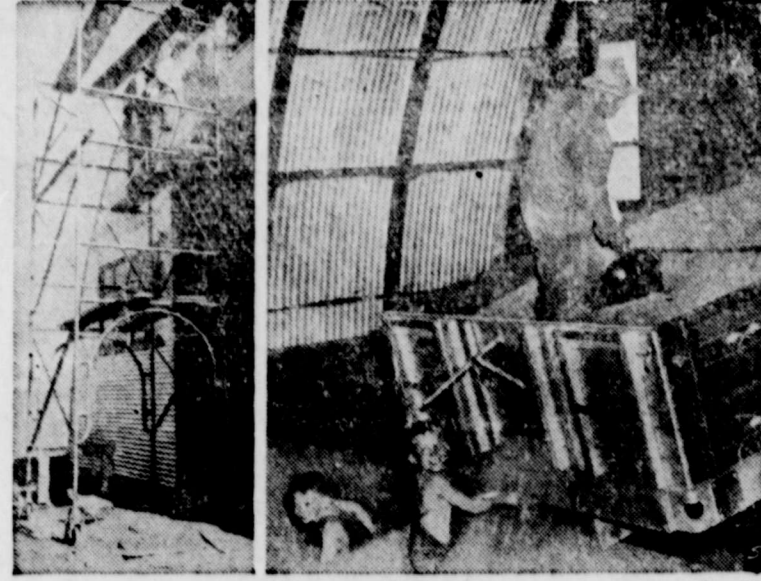

At a recent meeting of Iraan Lions Club, President W. W. Hensley presided over a brief business meeting and then turned the hour over to the trial of Watson versus Jacobsen, in a suit to determine the welfare of the Lions goat.

Jack Kendrick was counsel for the plaintiff and Rev. Lancaster represented the defendant. After a hearing on both sides of the matter, which was carried out in a manner to shame a criminal lawyer, the suit was closed in favor of the defendant. On establishing the fact that the goat added to the commercial value and general attractiveness of the plaintiffs establishment, a fine of ten cents was imposed.

A welfare board for the general health and happiness of the goat has been appointed and any Lion absent without legitimate excuse may find himself, Keeper of the Goat, for the ensuing week.

Charles Vick, new Band Director of Iraan High for the coming term, was accepted in the membership at the last meeting.

THE RANKIN NEWS

Throughout the nation's grain belt, hundreds of buildings like the Quonset under construction near Leoti, Kan. (left) are going up to protect the bumper crop for which there is no elevator space. In another new arch-roofed building near Hemingford, Neb. (right) Harry Cullinan's children romp in grain being placed in safekeeping for government loan of $2 a bushel.

A building boom of record proportions is under way on this area's farms in the wake of Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan's appeal for on-the-farm storage of crops.

The increase in new construction in this area is reported by the Great Lakes Steel Corporation in announcing that shipments of Quonset buildings to the nation's farm territories are running 400 per cent greater than a year ago. The arch-roofed steel structures are being used for storage of grains, soybeans and hay.

A proportionate share of the national increase in farm Quonset construction results from popularity of the buildings in the local territory.

The building boom is reported on the basis of Quonset orders from Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Kansas and Nebraska during July. A survey of Quonset dealers in South Dakota, North Dakota, Idaho, Montana, Washington and Oregon indicated similar building activity developing in these states as harvesting progresses.

Brannan, in his July 27 appeal to grain growers, predicted recurrence of the market glut in future years unless additional storage construction is undertaken, and told all farmers that they "should take prompt steps to put their farm storage facilities in shape" so that they will be eligible for government commodity loans and purchase agreements as a method of price support.

This summer, with the flood of wheat filling all existing storage facilities, the grain was selling as low as $1.60 a bushel. At the same time, the Commodities Credit Corporation was loaning $2 and paying 7c on each bushel of stored grain. With the cost of Quonset construction averaging 22 cents a bushel, the farmer needing storage space netted 25 cents a bushel on this year's crop in addition to paying for the building. Thus he more than paid for the structure, which is suitable for machinery or barn use when cleared of grain.

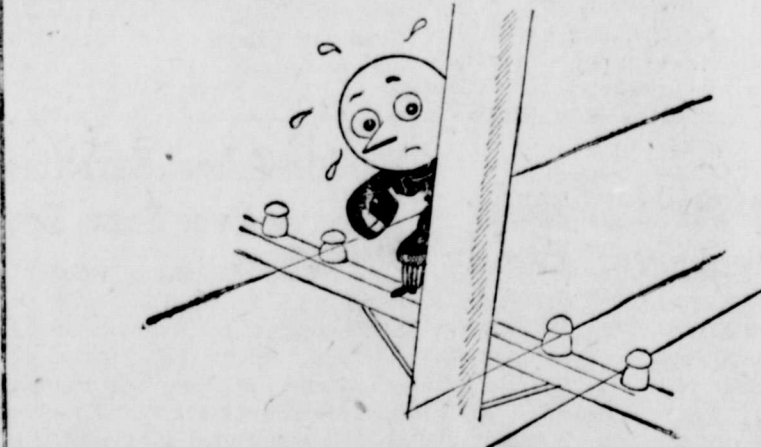

It's easy to figure the total cost of your loan here. There are no "extra" charges or fees. Only the one interest rate.

One Great American Trait

I always think it does a newspaper editor good to get out from behind his desk and see how folks in other parts of America look, and think, and act.

And that's what I've been doing these past weeks, touring the country from Michigan to Texas, California to Maine. It's a mighty encouraging experience. Not only because of the different points of view you run into—but because of the tolerance which reconciles these different points of view.

Pennsylvania farmer for the habits of his city cousin; the tolerance of folks who vote one way towards those who vote another; the tolerance of those who prefer spring water towards those who enjoy a moderate beverage like beer.

From where I sit, it's that great American trait of tolerance—respect for individual tastes and liberties—that makes this country strong. Let's never lose it!

W. Texans Invited To Attend Goodfellows' Field Open House

Jet plane speed runs and acrobatics were added this week to the list of air demonstrations scheduled for Goodfellow Field's Air Force Day Open House on Sept. 18. The famed F-80 Shooting Star, three F-51 Mustangs, a C-82 Packet with glider, and a helicopter have been scheduled by higher headquarters to arrive at the base from other commands to participate in the open house activities.

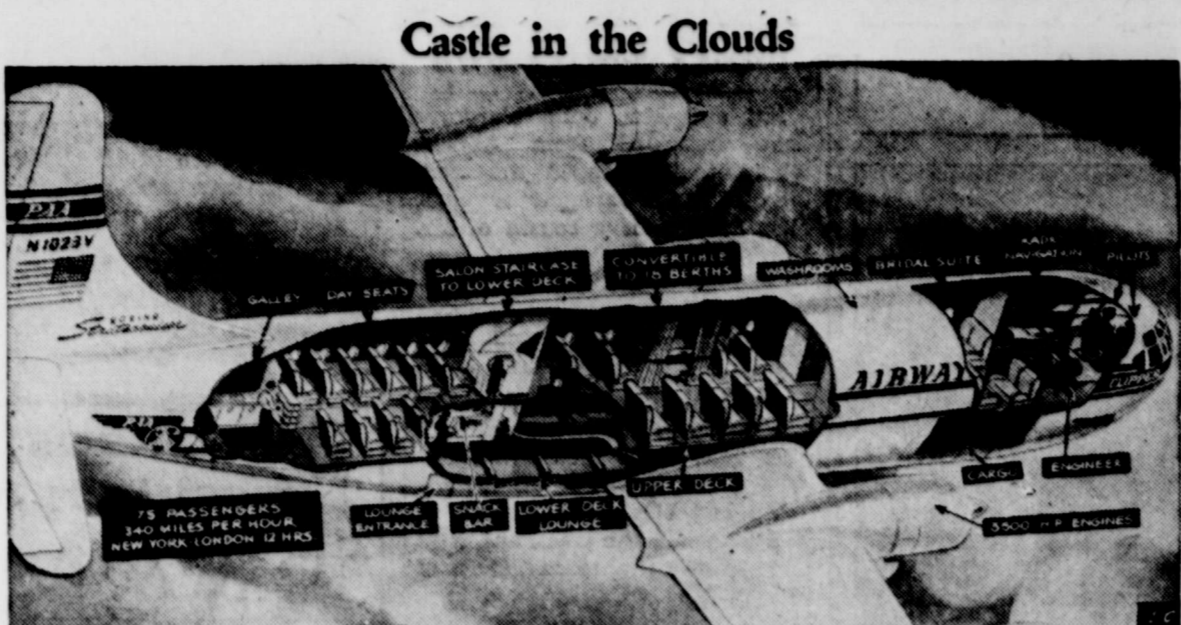

Addition of these aircraft to the original program will enable Goodfellow to put more than a hundred planes in the air in the course of its two hour aerial demonstration.

Featured along with the air demonstrations will be ground exhibits of aircraft engines, and the military and technical training equipment used in the instruction of aviation cadets.

All features of the ground exhibit will be available for public inspection by 12:30 p. m. on Sept. 18, and the air activity is set to start at approximately 2:30, it has been announced by Lt. Col. Elkins Read, project officer for the open house. This will give visitors an opportunity to visit the displays without missing the air show, he explained.

Spectators will be able to take rides in Synthetic Trainers used in instrument flight instruction and to observe the operation of the Altitude Chamber in which pilots receive their high flying orientation.

A model plane contest will be sponsored by the Exchange Club. A display of civilian aircraft and a continuous showing of combat films will make up additional

Sul Ross Lobos Set For Grid Season

On Wednesday, Sept. 1, the Lobos of Sul Ross State Teachers College began regular practice for the third season since World War II. A squad of 40 men is expected to report for practice and of this number, 21 will be lettermen from last season. Coaches Paul E. "Red" Pierce and Jack Perryman have announced that there will be five home games and five games away this season, and that for the second time, the Lobos will compete in the New Mexico Conference where they won the championship last season. With some encouragement, the coaches stated that, as a whole, the 1948 prospects are much better than last year. With a husky line and a fast backfield, it is quite possible that the Lobos will be strong contenders for the Conference championship again. Danny Pollock, Director of Athletics, also expressed feelings of optimism for the coming season.

The Sul Ross College football schedule for the fall of 1948 is as follows:

- Sept. 18—Sam Houston State College at Huntsville.
- Sept. 24—Daniel Baker College at Brownwood.
- Oct. 2—Eastern New Mexico College at Alpine.
- Oct. 8—Panhandle A&M College at Goodwell, Okla.
- Oct. 16—N. M. A&M College at Alpine.
- Oct. 23—U. of Corpus Christi at Alpine.
- Oct. 30—Texas A. & I. at Kingsville.
- Nov. 6—Adams State College at Alamosa, Colo.
- Nov. 13—N. M. Teachers College at Alpine.

For the past three years he has been the Schlitz Beer Distributor for this area.

He served overseas with the Air Forces in World War II and was a member of the American Legion Post in Alpine.

Funeral services were held in Alpine Thursday afternoon from the Methodist Church in Alpine. The body was taken to Cisco for burial Friday.
