Annual King Mountain Sunrise Service To Be Held Easter Morn

The Annual Easter Sunrise Service will begin on Easter morning at 6:15 a. m. at the foot of King's Mountain. It is a community-wide worship service to which residents of the entire county are invited. The site of the yearly program is at the foot of King's Mountain on the Rankin Highway, about four miles east of McCamey.

It will include participants from all the McCamey churches as well as out of town guests.

The McCamey Ministerial Alliance is the sponsoring organization this year and is being assisted by a committee of workers who have dealt with the Easter Sunrise Service for a number of years.

For anyone who desires transportation to the mountain on Easter morning, school buses will be provided leaving the First Baptist Church and the Bender Hotel, the Assembly of God Church, and the Negro Baptist Church at 5:45 a. m. For those who drive out, a guide will be stationed on the Rankin Highway to indicate the turn-off.

The program for the morning has been planned under the direction of a committee headed by Rev. A. R. Vaughn of the Assembly of God Church. Working with him on this committee have been: Rev. H. L. Holland of the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. F. R. Barnett, Mrs. J. W. C. Hayes and Mrs. Buryel McCollum.

A fanfare of trumpets by members of the McCamey High School Band will announce the opening of the service and the program will proceed as follows:

Invocation—Rev. Ross T. Welch Hoym—"Low In The Grave He Lay."

Scripture Reading—Rev. Howard L. Holland.

Rankin Study Club Has Reports On Thursday On Statehood Question

Vice president Mrs. R. O. White presided for the meeting of the Rankin Study Club Thursday afternoon in the absence of the president, Mrs. W. A. Hudson. Prior to the business meeting, hostesses Mrs. Carl Keys and Mrs. Max Lewis served punch and cookies. The St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in decoration and color, providing a dainty and attractive refreshment table setting.

In the business session, arrangements were made for the furnishing of used current magazines to the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring. It has been learned by the club that current magazines are badly needed by the patients at the hospital and anyone having such reading material they would like to contribute may leave it at the Rankin Library. The library is open six days a week from 12 to 6 o'clock in the Park Building and the attendants will be very happy to receive and take care of the magazines. It is planned to send them on to Big Spring often and regularly.

Marlene Holmes, Rankin High School senior, read her essay on "Why I Intend To Continue My Education In College Or University," which won first place in the local contest among seniors sponsored by the Study Club.

"The 49th State" was the program for the afternoon, with Mrs. Tom Workman leader. Mrs. Workman explained the procedure required for the granting of Statehood in the U. S. A. and pointed out some of the arguments for and against granting Statehood to the territories of Alaska and Hawaii. She spoke on "Alaska, The Land Of Tomorrow," and Mrs. Dan Runyan spoke on "Hawaiian Americans."

Attending Thursday's meeting were Mesdames Herbert Hurn, Runyan, Dunn Lowery, Zack Monroe, Tom Mitchell, Hamilton Still, R. H. Johnson, Carl Keys, Max Lewis, Workman, White and Marlene Holmes.

James had been in ill health for six months, and had been critically ill for one week.

Death Comes After 26 Months Unconsciousness

Joan Edwards' long fight for life and consciousness is over—Joan died at 5 a. m. Wednesday.

Her two years, four months and four days of unconsciousness had touched the hearts of the entire nation.

She died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Edwards, in Rankin. She was 25 years of age.

It was at 8 p. m., Jan. 17, 1949, that the pretty young West Texas woman was knocked into unconsciousness in an automobile accident two miles east of Odessa in ice storm weather. She never regained consciousness.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Thursday from the First Baptist Church of Rankin, with interment to follow in the Rankin Cemetery. The Spalding Funeral Home of McCamey was in charge of arrangements.

Rev. A. B. Lightfoot, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Big Lake, and Rev. W. L. Capps, pastor of Rankin First Baptist Church, officiated.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Edwards of Rankin; a grandfather, H. W. Baker, of Altus, Okla.; and the following aunts and uncles: Mrs. G. R. Cearley, Mrs. Glenn Hunter, B. H. and M. L. Baker all of Austin; Mrs. C. F. Wilkes of El Paso, P. H. Baker in Korea; Mrs. L. H. Baker, Lorenzo, Texas; Mrs. Paul Romine, Matton, Ill.; L. N. Edwards, Vallejo, Calif.; and I. L. Edwards, Albuquerque, N. M.

Joan Edwards was born April 25, 1925, in Los Angeles, Calif. She was graduated from the Rankin High School in 1942 and Texas Tech in 1946. She was employed by the Midland-Reporter-Telegram March 10, 1947, and was an employee at the time of her accident.

Joan began sinking last Friday. Her condition became worse over the weekend.

A severe ice storm gripped West Texas in January of 1949. Joan was with a group of young people enroute to Odessa from Midland when the tragic accident occurred. Their car slid into a culvert and overturned.

Five young people were lifted from the wreckage. They were Joan Edwards, William Davidson and Carroll Sanders from Midland, and David L. Johnson from Odessa, and Donald M. Starnes of Penwell.

They were rushed to an Odessa hospital. Joan suffered head injuries. Davidson suffered fractures of both legs and internal injuries. Miss Sanders received slight head injuries Johnson and Starnes received only slight injuries.

Davidson, 23, an employe of S&Q Clothes of Midland, never regain consciousness. He died Jan. 21 a few days after the accident.

The others, except Joan, recovered.

Joan lay still. A brain surgeon was flown from Dallas to perform surgery on Jan. 8. It was to no avail. She remained unconscious. Friends were called in as blood donors. She underwent several transfusions.

In the summer of 1949, Joan was taken to Dallas. Everything in medical science was done for her. A brain specialist performed surgery. He shook his head. There was nothing to be done for the brain injury.

The long trip back to Rankin and home was made with Joan. Then began the long vigil, weeks upon weeks of anxious bedside hours by the grief-stricken parents and friends.

Generous Midlanders, West Texans and others rallied to help. A Joan Edwards Recovery Fund was started. It reached approximately $5,000 over the two years. There were personal contributions and there were benefit events of all kinds.

Joan was taken to San Angelo for a brief period, but did not regain consciousness.

She was returned to her home in Rankin.

She weighed 110 pounds at the time of her accident and wasted away to less than 40 pounds.

Joan was fed intravenously for a period and then fed for a number of months through tube in the nose. For the last several months, she was able to chew food to some extent and was fed by mouth.

She lay motionless most of the time. However, she was restless at times. The parents occasionally thought she showed signs of recognition, but she was never able to speak. She sometimes made a "crying" sound.

Her faithful parents have felt the vigil. Her father, postmaster at Rankin, only recently was released from a hospital following a serious illness.

Mrs. Edwards said Wednesday: "We have had all the help human hands could give. Joan's case attracted wide attention and people have been more than kind and generous. They have done everything possible to make it easier on us and their contributions made it possible to provide the best of medical care. We are more than grateful to friends and fellow citizens for everything they have done."

Joan Edwards went into her last decline at noon last Friday. A big change for the worse came at midnight Monday. The last food was taken at 8 a. m. Friday, when she was fed a few spoons of oatmeal gruel.

Her mother said, "She slept away peacefully."

What They Didn't Say---

Upton County and the Sinclair No. 1 McElroy Ranch Ellenburger discovery was brought to the attention of the financial world last Wednesday afternoon.

The 350-word comment was broadcast over the New York Exchange ticker, to all corners of the financial world. The report noted that the strike was a "very interesting well with a high flow . . . seemingly located on the top or near the top of big underground structure."

But the story that it didn't tell would probably have caused much more interest in many of the financial circles . . . especially those who are looking for areas into which to expand their business.

Look what the report overlooked: Besides the highly-important Benedum and Pegasus Fields, both major discoveries the past year, Upton County has thrown open the entire northeast section with an important Spraberry pay;

The Flat Rock Field that opened in the southeast part of the county some two months ago and promises to spread over a wide area and into adjacent counties;

The Sweetie Peck Field is looming as a tri-county affair, with wells now being drilled within one mile of the northwest part of the county line;

And most of all, of the opportunities that lie for expansion in the two communities of McCamey and Rankin, the only two towns in the county that holds all this vast oil potential.

Right now, both towns are searching vainly for houses to meet the needs of ever-increasing numbers of workers in the above fields, and fields that lie within working distances of the communities, but are located in other counties.

Additions of homes have been developed in both communities, and building is still in progress, but is far from satisfying the demands for housing. A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR AN INVESTMENT OF MASS BUILDERS OF HOUSES AND APARTMENTS.

Many of the industries in the east and midwest are searching for new locations to erect plants of industry. A GREAT OPPORTUNITY, WITH PLENTY OF SPACE, ADEQUATE UTILITIES, AND SUFFICIENT WATER SUPPLY.

Many of the major companies are seeking for new locations for refineries in order that they will not be too close together in the event of war. WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY FOR LOCATING SUCH FACILITY, BEING LOCATED IN THE MIDST OF PRACTICALLY ALL OIL PRODUCING AREA IN WEST TEXAS, WITH ACCESS TO THE OILFIELD LABORER WHO UNDERSTANDS THE OILFIELD WORK AND PROBLEMS WITH RAILWAY FACILITIES TO HANDLE SHIPPING OF REFINED OILS.

Many of the retail agencies of the county are seeking new places to locate and expand. WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY THESE COMMUNITIES OFFER, BOTH MORE THAN 50 MILES FROM MAJOR RETAIL CENTERS, AND SERVING AN AREA HAVING SOME 10,000 POPULATION.

Both cities have excellent school systems, and have adequate facilities to handle immediate growth; they have a cross section of the churches of our nation to serve the spiritual life of the community; they are filled with conservative-minded West Texans that have tempered their way of living to develop a stable progress for their communities.

An investigation by any of the above would disclose that the tax rate of the county and school districts are lenient indeed, which contribute greatly to industries ability to expand, pay high wages, and still make a fair margin of profit.

Of course, none of the above-mentioned projects would make any difference to the New York Stock Exchange, so that is probably why they weren't included in the report . . . but we feel that it is the type of report that would do a little good to help McCamey and Rankin, possibly in the near future, secure some of the ever-expanding American industry for their respective communities and Upton County.

But before our communities will ever receive any consideration, we must find some way to keep Midland from adopting the Benedum Field; Odessa from adopting the glory of the Pegasus Field; and let the financial world know that we have something to offer . . . let them know that McCAMEY AND RANKIN ARE IN UPTON COUNTY AND THAT THESE MAJOR FIELDS ARE NEAR US, AND HERE TO AID IN OUR GROWTH AND EXPANSION.

ANOTHER PRESIDENT IN '52?

The people of the United States, and their government, are confronted by the gravest possible problems—war and peace, ever-rising taxes and inflation, more schisms between management and labor, the possibility of having to support a great military force here and abroad for many years, and so on down an almost endless list. But, in this as in the other democratic countries where free elections are still held, such problems never obscure the great old game of politics. So the question of who is going to run for President in unpredictable 1952 is beginning to be a hot topic of conversation among professionals and the rank-and-file alike.

First of all, the feeling is very strong, in both Democratic and Republican circles, that Mr. Truman will not run again. The Constitutional Amendment restricting any President to not more than ten years in the job has been passed and, while it specifically exempts the incumbent, it is an indication of public feeling. Moreover, men close to the President say he has had enough of the job, and that his family, whose wishes he respects very strongly, are fed up with it. Mr. Truman has intimated that he would like to return to the Senate. No one knows if he really means this or not, but, if he does, he would have a famous precedent in the case of John Quincy Adams, who retired from the Presidency and spent the rest of his life as a member of the House of Representatives.

The great question mark is the appealing and somewhat confusing figure of General Eisenhower. As Newsweek put it, "If Washington is right about Harry S. Truman, there is a good chance that General Dwight D. Eisenhower can get the Democratic nomination for President in 1952 just by asking for it. Quite a few Democrats think he can get it even without asking. . . . Strangely enough, some of the most powerful leaders of the Republican Party want Ike just as desperately as the Democrats do."

In other words, no one knows whether the General is a Democrat or a Republican. A professional soldier has no politics. After he left the Army, he gave no public evidence of an attachment to either party. And now he is back in uniform again, so there is small chance of his clarifying his political position in the near future.

Newsweek explains the Democrats' keenness for the General in these words: "The Democratic Party is split wide open on almost every conceivable domestic issue. On foreign policy, in contrast, the party is almost completely united. Ike's very vagueness on domestic problems, therefore, makes him an ideal Democratic candidate. There is nothing in his record that could alienate any of the groups which compose the Democratic Party; the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) liberals, the conservative Southerners, the big-city bosses, the labor union leaders, the Negroes." That is certainly not true of any other potential Democratic candidate now visible to the eye.

On the Republican side of the fence, he has the strong support of such still-potent figures as Gov. Dewey. But here he runs into the powerful Senator Taft, who clearly wants the nomination for himself, and who in the view of millions is now "Mr. Republican." The probabilities are that the Senator now has the inside track, but many a change could occur by convention time.

One more quotation from Newsweek indicates the odd possibilities: "If the parties follow custom, the Republicans will hold their national convention first. And as things stand now, the choice will be Taft or Eisenhower. . . . If Taft gets it, the Democratic convention may well open with Ike the almost unanimous choice."

SPORTS AFIELD

BY TED KESTING

Does shooting have a future? You might as well hazard a guess as to the future of our latest breakfast food, claims Edwards Brown, noted arms authority. He says shooting won't end, but it could develop to the point where it is no longer a sport.

Stop a moment and think. What has happened to our constitutional right to bear arms? It is no fantasy that a law-abiding man, in most parts of our country, is prohibited from having a gun in his car ready for the protection of his life.

If you are stopped by a bandit on the highway, of course you don't have to submit. Instead you can choose to be clubbed or shot to death. Naturally—and here's the irony—the bandit can have a gun because he isn't a law-abiding citizen!

Most of us are engaged in shooting because we're interested in it as a sport. A vast majority channel their enthusiasm into hunting because it gets them out in the open and they like the spirit of the chase. Killing game does not breed a lust to kill—most humans feel a pang of sympathy for game they have killed.

Many who are against hunting try to outlaw guns because they regard them as dangerous. But are they as dangerous as many household risks—steps, bathtubs and butcher knives? Accident records indicate that they are not. Frankly, we'll never eliminate a few accidents with guns—but legislating against them isn't the answer.

If you love shooting, only you can do something about the preserving of its future. The answer to the firearms question is not narrow-minded gun legislation. The answer is education. Teach everyone—boys, young men, adults—how to use a gun. Then gun handling will be safe.

Not long ago an officer's report from Korea complained about the lack of GI experience in gun handling. If ever there was a time when Americans should be able to handle a gun—then it is now!

MIDLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET

The market at the Midland Live Stock Auction Co. sale on Thursday, March 15, was steady on 455 head. Stockers especially were in strong demand. Steer calves were bid as high as $45 cwt.

Steer yearlings sold for $32 to $36 and heifer yearlings drew the same. Stocker cows went at $22 to $26.

Fat butcher calves and yearlings drew $32 to $34, mediums $28 to $32. Fat cows ranged from $23 to $26, mediums $21 to $23, canners and cutters $17 to $21. Bulls auctioned for $26 to $28.50.

A group of 32 good white-faced heifer yearlings that weighed 650 lbs. brought $34 cwt. Another smaller package of heifers that weighed 500 lbs. sold for $36.

Calves that failed to place in the Midland Live Stock Show were sold at the auction and drew an average price of $35.55 and up to $37. On resale after Livestock Show auction Friday, CJM Packing Co. bought all the calves at $37.75 and all the hogs at $22. The lambs on resale went to N. J. Alden, Jr., of Big Spring at $39. McElroy Ranch Co. of Crane sold six head.

Registrants Should Notify Draft Board Of Any Status Change

AUSTIN, Tex., March 16.—Brig. Gen. P. L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, today reminded all men registered with local draft boards that the law requires them to report any change in personal status to their respective boards.

"Young men have asked us by telephone and letter just what changes are required to be reported," Gen. Wakefield said. "Generally, anything which may have a bearing on classification should be reported."

The state director pointed to the following things which would be regarded as a change of personal status:

1. Change of address. This is a change in the address at which a man expects to receive his mail.
2. Change in marital status. If a man marries, he should advise the local board of the name of the person he marries, the place and date of marriage, and name of county in which the marriage is recorded. If he has children, the date and place of birth should be named, and place where birth is recorded. If he becomes separated, divorced, or his wife dies, this should be reported.
3. Change of job. The local board should be advised only if this is a permanent change.
4. Change in physical status. If a man has had a serious injury or has otherwise acquired a physical defect, it should be reported. It should be reported whether it is permanent or temporary.
5. Students. If a man becomes

Sister's Advice Proves Helpful To Mrs. Macaure

Mrs. J. P. Macaure, 408 Radstone St., New Orleans, La., can't imagine a person not taking HADACOL who is sick and run-down due to deficiencies of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Nicotin and Iron. She says she continually praises HADACOL to all her friends. Mrs. Macaure was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Macaure's own statement: "I have taken at least 50 bottles of HADACOL. Before I took HADACOL, I was very nervous. My family was affected, too, because I was so irritable. Then my sister suggested I take HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I felt like I had taken all the troubles of the world off my shoulders. My nerves are now as steady as ever. My family thinks HADACOL is wonderful because my disposition is 100% better and I am not the least bit irritable. That's because I always have a bottle of HADACOL on the kitchen shelf. HADACOL is the most wonderful product on the market."

Buy HADACOL today. Trial size bottle only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $2.50. Refuse substitutes. There's only one true and genuine HADACOL. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corp., Lafayette, La., Conv. 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation a student in a school, college, or university, this fact should be reported.

6. Members of armed forces reserves or National Guard. If a man enters any of these, he should advise the local board, giving date of entry and name of organization.

7. Rejections by armed forces. If a man has attempted to volunteer for the army, navy air force, or any other branch of the armed services and has been rejected, he should advise the local board.

Much of this information is vital in determining proper classification of any man. The law requires men to keep local boards advised about such matters.

All such information, if submitted by letter or card, must be signed by the man himself.

Garden HD Club Meets Regular Session

When fitting garments, there are five factors involved in the fitting problem. They are ease, grain, set and balance. This is a part of the demonstration "Fitting the Garment," given by the agent, Miss Myr-Helman, when the club met Wednesday, March 14, at the Building.

The demonstration was given to members and two visitors, D. Gilliland and Mrs. I. L. Lewis, with fitting problems. These present being discussed. The next meeting, "Finishing the Garment," will be March 29 at the clothing leaders at the Building.

TEXAS LEADERS confer on civil defense. Texas Congressmen, State Representative J. T. Rutherford, and Chester Nimitz, U. S. Navy Fleet Admiral, retired, discuss ways of coordinating national and state civil defense efforts at a recent meeting in Washington. Rutherford, who is chairman of the Texas House Military Affairs Committee, flew to Washington from the State Capitol to get advice of military experts and defense officials on civilian defense legislation now pending in the Texas Legislature. Gov. Allan Shivers has asked for a $2,000,000 appropriation to make Texas ready for war.

Heart Disease Not "Spell of Doom" Says State Health Head

AUSTIN—Too prevalent today is the belief that heart disease is the spell of doom and that one must cease all work and activity. Modern medical knowledge easily disproves this notion, and thousands of case histories bear witness to its falsity.

Heart disease, medical science now knows, is not a single ailment. Many troubles can afflict the heart—some less serious than others. While some restrictions are necessary, it is now generally true that patients with any form of heart trouble should be active within the limits of their capacity.

Not all persons with heart ailments can continue working at their same pace. Obviously there are those who require bed rest and often a very strict limitation of physical and mental activity. But there are many who can continue working, performing some type of useful or productive activity, without fear that their hearts will suddenly give out.

No individual with a heart condition, it should be cautioned, should determine for himself whether he is able to work or not and how much work he can do.

Just as there are many who become cardiac invalids because of fear, there are those at the opposite extreme who ignore proper medical advice and subject their hearts to unnecessary strain and abuse by overactivity. Only a competent physician is qualified to say what are the limits of an impaired heart.

Depletion Tax Decrease Would Curb Oil Exploration Seen

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Five billion barrels of oil must be found to support defense emergency production, and the tax revenue from the sale of this oil would greatly outweigh the tax gains resulting from a cut in the oil depletion allowance, Jno. R. Lynch, president of the La Gloria Corp., Corpus Christi, Texas, told the House Ways and Means Committee recently.

"If percentage depletion were reduced, the price of oil would have to be increased," Lynch said. "However, more important than the price increase would be the fact that taking away percentage depletion would be cutting the ground from under the operator, as percentage depletion is his special and direct incentive to explore for oil."

"Our country now needs another million barrels of oil per day for its national security. In my opinion, five billion barrels of oil in reserve must be found to provide and support this production."

Oil production costs have soared since 1935 because of inflation and the necessity to drill deeper to find oil, Mr. Lynch pointed out.

"In 1935, the average cost per well, for exploratory wells, in the N. S. was $32,578," he said. "In 1948, it cost $87,337 for an exploratory well. At the same time, the number of wells required to discover one million barrels of new reserves has doubled."

"As a result, the average cost of finding one million barrels of new reserves has increased in excess of 500 per cent. Only one out of 44 wildcat wells discovers a field which results in more than one million barrels of oil; only one out of 245 discovers a field which results in more than 10 million barrels of oil; and only one out of 966 finds a field with more than 50 million barrels."

After discovery of a field, thousands or millions of dollars have to be spent for drilling of producing wells, pipe lines, tank farms, and other physical equipment necessary to recover the oil.

Publicity attached to a few phenomenal successes in oil discovery has promoted a popular misconception that is "particularly unfair to those hundreds of honest, hard-working independent operators who for years have struggled their assets without any substantial gain," Mr. Lynch said.

"We have grocers, merchants, bankers, ranchers and farmers in our own town (Corpus Christi) of 100,000 population, supposed to be primarily an oil town, who have all had a greater degree of financial success in their own businesses than most of our independent oil men."

The Shell Pipe Line Corp. has won first place in the National Safety Council's 1950 Petroleum Contest, Pipe Line Division, R. G. Benson, staff representative of the National Safety Council, has announced.

MORE FLOWING OIL IN UPTON WILDCAT

More flowing production has been developed in the Ellenburger at Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. No. 1 McElroy, NW Upton County wildcat discovery 18 miles NW of Rankin.

The important new field opener took a 4 hr. 38 min. drillstem test at 12,212-278 ft. A 1,456-ft. water blanket was used. There was a one-inch top choke and a 3-4 in. bottom choke on tester.

The water blanket started flowing out in 30 min. and oil came to the surface in 38 min.

During first hour the section produced 162 bbls. of oil; in second hour flow was 146 bbls.; in third hour the flow was 130 bbls. and in fourth hour the well made 135 bbls. of oil. There were no signs of water.

Gas-oil ratio averaged 275-1. Gravity was 54 deg. Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 4,450 lbs. The bomb failed to work in the try for a shut-in pressure gauge and there was no reading. Operator is to core 50 ft. deeper and then will probably take a drillstem test.

Top of Ellenburger is at 12,042 ft. Elevation is 2,781 ft. Top section at 12,042-110 ft. unloaded oil while the drill pipe was being pulled after a drillstem test.

The first actual flow from the Ellenburger came in a test at 12-102-149 ft. From there on down each zone which has been tested has flowed oil in heavy amounts.

The wildcat also showed as a flowing discovery from Pensylvanian lime at 9,376-9411 ft.

Location is 660 ft. from south and 1,980 ft. from east lines of sec. 129, blk. D, CCSD&RGNG survey. It is 23 miles NE of McCamey and 12 1-2 miles SW of the Pegasus field.

Operations have been started at three offsets to the discovery. Wilshire Oil Co. No. 24-129 McElroy, a one location west offset had spudded and was making below 508 ft. in shale.

Wilshire No. 23-129 McElroy was moving in rotary equipment. It is 1 location NW of the Sinclair discovery.

Sinclair No. 1 J. B. Windham, 1 location south of field opener, is rigging up rotary tools.
