THE LOW DOWN

HICKORY GROVE

In today's seminar we will discuss "Education." That, says Henry, should be something — you and education, he says. And that right there shows that everybody don't savvy everything on today's subject. Henry figures that education is something you get only in a book—he don't figure. I reckon, that a kick in your breadbasket by a mule is also education—it teaches you that jeopardy lurks if you don't watch your step when harnessing the critter. But to proceed, somebody is sounding off via ponderous writin' and radio and etc.—and no end—that more schools are the only way to avoid communism. But checking up on the communist culprits of the USA who are being put in the coop, you find no illiterates. So there is more to education than just school houses. It is what you teach in the school house. A young fellow getting his sheepskin at a big university and then proceeding to take off on a scholastic maneuver to lower the boom on private ownership, demonstrates—the young fellow does—that horse sense was not included in his curriculum. And in closing, and to show that I am not against books—and to round out your education—I suggest "Aesop" as one to dust off and peruse — kindergarten to Ph.D.—from 5 years old to 100. Yours with the low down,
 JO SERRA.

Isn't it a perfect example of how even those "little" telephone calls so often reassure and bring peace of mind?

OCT-12-18 THIS IS OIL PROGRESS WEEK

Progress 1952

Texans have a natural interest in the oil industry, which is so important in our State, and in the progress made since Oil Progress Week was last observed.

Here are a few quick facts:

New Wells—During the twelve months ending August 31, 1952, the Texas oil industry drilled 17,000 new wells, at a cost of over $700 million. Most of the heavy expense of drilling these new wells was paid from earnings plowed back into the development of the State's oil resources.

Transportation—The total mileage of Texas' trunk pipe lines for oil and finished products is over 29,000. This low-cost transportation system is a major factor in the maintenance of the low prices you pay for petroleum products.

Production—Production has reached a record level. Texas currently is producing about 46 per cent of all the crude oil produced in the U. S. In the year ending August 31, Texas production totaled about 1,015 million barrels. There are now 133,800 producing oil wells in Texas.

Reserves—Proved oil reserves in Texas of 18 billion barrels represented 57 per cent of the U. S. total at the beginning of 1952. During 1951, the last year for which figures are available, proved reserves increased two billion barrels. These are developed oil reserves and the figure is important: developed reserves supply our needs currently and provide reserve capacity that is immediately available when we need it.

Refining—The Texas refineries will have a big year. They now employ, in round numbers, 46,000 Texans, and process about 28% of all the oil refined in the U. S. The daily refining capacity of all Texas refineries exceeds 2,000,000 barrels. A program to expand and improve these facilities has been general throughout the industry.

Taxes—The Texas oil industry continues to be the largest tax-payer in the State. Through the year ending August 31, gross production taxes alone on Texas oil and natural gas amounted to more than $137 million; in addition, the industry pays large amounts in other taxes.

In brief, the Texas oil industry during the past year continued to do its part in meeting the demand for oil. It has expanded pipelines to provide low-cost transportation. It has improved facilities for making more and better petroleum products for your use. Today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three gallons in 1925; and the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

McCamey Opens County Headquarters For Ike

"Democrats down here want to be Texans, not Trumanites," said L. E. Windham, county Democratic chairman, in announcing opening of Democrats for Eisenhower headquarters Monday.

Purpose of the organization is to reach all county voters with information on why the Texas Democrats are backing Eisenhower and giving instructions on marking the ballot.

Windham and co-chairman C. W. Brown emphasized that "this is a regular Democratic Party movement in accordance with the resolution of the state convention."

Space for the office at 112 E. Fifth St. was donated by Brown. Women volunteers are working with Mrs. David Johnston, head of Womanpower for Eisenhower.

First work by the women has been mailing postcards to voters setting out aims of the Democrats. Personal contacts will be made during the period immediately before the election.

Holding open the office at different shifts during the week are: Mrs. J. C. Guyton, Mrs. W. L. Van Atta, Mrs. E. W. Thorpe, Mrs. L. E. Windham, Mrs. C. A. Janes, Mrs. E. J. Angeloni, Mrs. J. C. Langdon, and Mrs. John Kellerman.

B. S. (Pappy) Taylor is much improved since suffering a severe heart seizure at his home Sunday evening.

Legion Schedules Meet McCamey Baptists Start On New Auditorium

Legionnaires from more than 800 Texas American Legion posts with a slogan "Level for the Legion," will put on their caps and go out and seek other veterans for their organization, Monday, Oct. 20, which has been proclaimed by Gov. Allan Shivers and a number of mayors as "L Day."

That date begins another fiscal year for the American Legion which will start its 36th year as the largest veterans organization in history.

Some of the posts will gather at breakfast for a "skull practice" session before starting out to enlist old members; others will have a luncheon meeting and some have planned evening sessions with barbecues, dances and other entertainment to celebrate the success of "L Day."

McCamey Baptists Start On New Auditorium

Ground-breaking services for a new auditorium for the First Baptist Church of McCamey were held Sunday following the regular worship services. Construction began Monday at the old Parsonage site, in back of the present auditorium.

The new building, to seat over 600 people, going up under the supervision of Cecil Sullivan of Abilene, is to be of brick veneer construction.

Following the morning worship, the congregation marched to the building site for the ceremonies, in which some 17 people took part. The first shovelful of dirt was turned by Rev. A. L. Teaff, pastor of the church, moving to McCamey earlier this year from Midland where he was pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church. The spade then passed to Mr. Newt Key, deacon in the church.

Members of the building committee, M. J. Woodson and Mrs. W. A. Hampton, tried their hand at the shovel, as did C. A. Weddle, one of the church's first members. Others included Lloyd Bowden, treasurer, and representatives of the different church groups and age classes. Mrs. Era Huffman represented the Sunday School, Fush Patterson represented the training union, M. J. Stone came as a Brotherhood member, and Mrs. J. B. Henderson represented the W.M.U.

Age group representatives were George Chisholm (age 2), Sharon McAnally, beginners (age 5), Roger Lyles, primary (age 6), John Carl Jones, juniors (age 9), David Driskell, intermediate (age 14).

Rita Johnson represented the young people and Mr. C. G. Tenneson, the adults.

Mrs. D. O. McKelvey left by plane from Midland on Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rose and little son in Durango, Colo.

Mrs. Albert McKay and grand daughter, Linda Ann McKay, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Yates last weekend. The McKays live in Raymondville, Texas.
