For a good long while now we have been saying that most all newspaper editors were just a little on the "loose screw" side of things. Last week we did a very nice job of proving that point as those of you who read the fine print in the Rankin News probably have already found out.

After printing the ballots ourselves and publishing the constitutional amendments for four weeks we made the flat statement in the News last week that these amendments were to have been voted on Saturday.

Election Judge Higday was mighly close to tossing me out when it came my turn to vote. He informed me that just about everybody else was going to vote on them in lective as the baits and traps ust go along with the rest of 'em regardless of what we put in the paper. After looking foolish for a lew minutes, stammering out some lame excuses and trying to mark our ballot with the wrong end of the pencil, we cast our vote for Cyclone Davis for governor and left there to slink back to the office where we meditated for considerable time on the strange habits of election judges who would not let a fellow vote on amendments in August just because they weren't supposed to be voted on 'till November.

A goodly amount of discussion on what to do about the rabies trouble has been passed back and forth the last few days and everyone seems to have some sort of plan. However, there is general agreement that a definite plan of action ought to be taken.

About one of the best that we have heard and one which seems to us would be the most logical is to get to the point of the trouble. namely the foxes. These animals are of no value to anyone since the rodent problem is not great in this country. They are heavy destroyers of quail and dove and other wild game. To eradicate a few of them would do no harm.

It has been suggested that the county, which pays a sizeable sum of money out for trappers every year, and the two cities of Rankin and McCamey get together and map out some way of killing out the foxes. It should be reasonably easy. A ring of poison baits around the two towns would stop a large numher of the animals from ever getting into town to start with and a little trapping along with the baits could make a definite dent in the fox population.

Another means to the end of a few foxes, but perhaps not as ef-to cover the immediate areas around towns. With a little brush beating and some fox calling, hunters should be able to bag quite a few of the pests. Every so often the idea of building a lake in one of the canyons around Rankin comes to life. It's a good thought but one which, at first glance, seems a little impossible for a country as dry as this. However, there has been some unofficial study on the matter by one engineer who says that it can be done. It is his opinion that there is a location within two miles of Rankin where a dam could he built that would empound enough water to form a lake over two miles long and averaging 30 feet in depth. it would empound enough water to last a town of 2,000 for two years.

It is his further contention that such a lake in the Rankin area

November and he thought he would would be an organized fox hunt would hold water the year around The Rankin (Ter) and could be considered "permanent."

We will grant that an undertaking of this sort would be a rather arge task and would cost several hundred thousands of dollars but it would also, if properly handled, provide Rankin with some mighty nice recreation to say nothing of the amount of money it could possible draw into the town.

We believe that some good thought to the matter would be worthwhile.

Tommy: "Mom, is it true that we come from dust and will return to dust?"

Mom: "Yes, dear, that's what the Bible says. Why?" Tommy: "Well, I just looked under my bed and there's somebody there, either coming or going."

TO EVERYONE INTERESTED IN THE CONTINUED GROWTH AND WELL-BEING OF OUR COMMUNITY

When I announced as a candidate for commissioner I made two promises only:

FIRST: To win or lose on my own merits (if any).

SECOND: That if elected, to do my best.

The first one I have kept.

With your cooperation, the second one will be easy. Without the cooperation of the people one is selected to serve, no man can do his best. So to those who supported me so loyally through two elections, I am very, very grateful and to the others, we sincerely solicit your cooperation.

"And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved" Act 2:47

That there are five religious institutions in our city claiming to be the New Testament Church or a denomination thereof, each honestly and sincerely striving to promote the spiritual welfare of the community and each conflicting with the other in doctrine and practice, all can plainly see. While the five different churches in our city preach five different doctrines, men sav God is pleased. Were I to preach all five doctrines, the same men would call me a dishonest fool. I have found none who could show me the difference between the two or how one could be right and the other wrong. No wonder we have infidels. This confusion could be eliminated by speaking where the Bible speaks and remaining silent where it is silent." Brethren let's GO BACK TO THE 3IBLE.

Then if the new owner sells the lambs with the wool on, the payment will be adjusted downward by the amount due on the weight of lambs when purchased. Likewise, if the new owner shears the lambs either in the feed lot or as a part of his replacement stock, his incentive payment on shorn wool will be adjusted downward by this same amount.

The method of figuring the rate of payment on lambs marketed with the wool on will be the same as for the 1955 marketing year. Lamb's wool, on the average, is coarser in grade and shorter in staple length than the U.S. shorn wool clip. Therefore, 80 percent of the difference between the national average price received by producers and the 62-cent incentive price is used figuring the rate of payments for unshorn lambs. The later feeder or breeder-owner will rate is figured on the basis of 5 pounds of wool per hundredweight ing to the weight gained by the of live lambs, but allowing for the lambs while in their possession. adjustment in price, for easy figur- Slaughterers, marketing agencies hundredweight.

Thus, under the plan for the 1956 marketing year the original producer who sells an unshorn lamb weighing 70 pounds will get a lamb payment for 2.8 pounds of wool (70 lbs. liveweight x 4 lbs. per cwt.) Then the feeder who buys that lamb and brings him up to 100 pounds and sells him unshorn will get a lamb payment for 4 pounds of wool less the 2.8 pounds to be paid the original producer. Likewise, the breeder who buys the unshorn lambs at 70 pounds, puts them in his band or flock, and later shears them along with the others, will get a shorn wool payment for the full quanity of wool he shears and sells, less the 2.8 pounds of wool on the lambs purchased and for which the earlier owner is eligible for a lamb payment.

The adjustment in the payments to later owners will eliminate duplication in the total amounts paid. In effect, the original producer and share in the lamb payment according it is equivalent to 4 pounds per and dealers will no longer need to provide the evidence of sale for slaughter which was required for payments under the 1955 marketing year. All the producer will need in support of his application will be the sales documents showing the pounds and net proceeds of shorn wool sold, the number and pounds of unshorn lambs sold and a record of the number and pounds of unshorn lambs purchased. AT THE DISTRICT REVUE

We were very proud of our girls at the district dress revue in Midland last week even though we missed having a candidate go to the state revue in Dallas this fall by one point. Jacquelyn Lucado of the McCamey 4-H Club, who is chairman of the district 4-H committee presided at the meeting. introduced speakers, and presented ribbons to winners.

Jacquelyn also took part in the revue wearing a two piece black checked outfit of cotton satin with red accessories. Her outfit won much favorable comment and a score just one point below the winning group.

Mary Alice and Joyce Skains also of the McCamey Club were the official song leaders for the occasion and entertained the group for some thirty minutes. Included in th songs lead were old favorites with the 4-H group, stunt songs, and a new one they taught to the group. Joan Lucado entered the dress revue in the junior division and came out at the head of her group. The junior girls do not compete in the state revue. The group decid to ask the ten to twelve year old group to take part in the district revue next year, having three divisions instead of the two.
