YOUTH CENTER TO HOLD SATURDAY BAKE SALE

Members of the Red Devil Lounge local youth center club, will hold a bake sale at the post office on Saturday, August 31.

Funds derived from the sale are to be used in the center's activities. Increased interest in the Red Devil Lounge has made it necessary for an order for more membership cards be made up.

team will be playing a schedule which includes some of the favorite in West Texas. Among these will be Iraan and Ozona. Only Eldorado and Marfa are said to be suffering for talent this season.

Not So Large 'Way Back Then

TAKEN IN THE EARLY 30'S this old picture is one of a group belonging to Grace Roach and proving that classroom conditions have not always been crowded in Rankin. In fact, this picture shows the entire high school student body at that time—hardly more than is found in any one of the classes of the school this year.

Red Devils Take Training In High Spirits And Hustle

With over 40 boys undergoing workouts twice a day, the Rankin Red Devil football prospects this year point to a team long on fight and spirit, but short on depth and experience.

Opening workouts this week indicate that the group of boys who will be playing for the maroons of Rankin is the 1957 season are willing and eager. First day blocking practice was hard and rugged with plenty of spirit from all sides. However, a number of boys are working in new positions this year, along with a large group moving up from last year's "B" team.

These position changes, plus a new coach who stresses the fundamentals of blocking and tackling over all else, is expected to slow up practice somewhat as more time is given to individual players. Opening tilt for the Red Devils will be on September 6 when they go to Iraan to meet one of their oldest rivals.

GOOD SPIRIT

Coch Leach, after his first two days of working with the team, stated that he was well pleased with the spirit and cooperation shown by the boys. He pointed out that a lot of work had to be done but that he felt the squad was willing to do their best.

This year, along with head coach Leach and assistant Bill Cook, who has worked with the Red Devil team for several years, Euwell Kelly is also making his first appearance as an assistant with the team.

Information available at the present time on coming opponents of the Red Devils indicate that the local been unofficially reported agreement has been reached between parties of the contested election whereby the contest may be withdrawn. The parties who filed the suit with the commission last week and discussed the improvements. Minutes of the meeting were not kept and no record is available as to what was decided by this group. It has been said that an agreement was reached and that the suit will be withdrawn, thus clearing the way for work to begin on the improvements of the courthouse and other new improvements.

FARMERS NOW G CANTALOUPE

that Northern Upton County is now producing farming products too well known by even the most casual observers. That one of the products now being harvested is cantaloupe is even more of an un- known fact. In the local stores this season the first quality cantaloupes are being sold from the farms located in the northern corner of the county. One farm is said to have 80 acres in cantaloupe and two others have about 20 acres. In addition to truck farming, the area has a nice cotton acreage and

STRAIGHT TALK

Truman Nix, new head football coach in Wink must be a man who believes in speaking his mind. The following is a part of an article, carried last week in the Wink Bulletin and quoting Nix:

"I sincerely ask, and will appreciate the cooperation of all Wink Wildcat football fans.... I promise you I will do my best, and that no boy trying to play football will be mistreated in any way. You will never hear me direct profanity toward any boy. I do not cuss.... I will not be out in the oil field trying to tell you how to do your job, nor in the offices or businesses, telling you how to run your business.....and I believe we know more about football than you do.... so unless you have never made a mistake in your business, please do not come up trying to tell us how to coach.....We want all the fans to attend the workouts. It shows the boys you are interested, but the stands will hold a lot of people and if you get out on that field, you're liable to get run over."

Although we can't say that we've heard any other football coach put it just that way, we'd bet that they just about all feel the same way.

Taxpayers pay a good salary to a man who is trained to coach football and who has made a profession of its instruction—then, often, turn right around and try to tell him how to run team. We're all guilty of this.

We have a new coach this year—lets let him earn his money. His is just like any other business—unless he can make it pay he can't keep it open and we're sure Don Leach is going to do his best. And nice fellow that he is—he'll listen to you when you want to tell him how to run the team.

But just remember—that gives him the privilege of telling you how to handle your affairs.

LOUIS BLOWIE ANDERSON

Following is a letter from Waggoner Carr, speaker of the House of Representatives.

 Dear Mr. Hutchens:

I am pleased to announce that I have appointed Representative Louis H. Anderson as a member of the Committee to advise in Studying the Fiscal Aspects of Texas State Government.

Representative Anderson has been a very fine public servant for the people of his district and deserves this important assignment. Even more important, however, is the opportunity he now has to render outstanding service to Texas by helping determine legislative policy for future sessions of the Legislature. I am sure he will be outstanding in his work.

The Rankin (Texas) News

My congratulations to you and the other people of the district for electing such a man to represent you.

Yours very truly,

 Mr. Carr certainly made a sound flowery and he is expressing his own opinion about Louis H. Anderson. And we're proud of you and yours.

TITSWORTH MOVES IN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Titsworth and children moved into the club house this week. They will be the new caretakers of the building and the golf course.

Your cooperation with them in keeping the rules and regulations covering use of the course and grounds is requested. Green fees should be paid to them and they will keep on hand change for use in the Coke machine, etc.

Heavy play on the course over the past two mnths plus the fact that it has not rained since the grading
work was done, has left a number of "soft" spots in fairways. The condition of the greens is still excellent and will improve with regular dragging.

Now that the time of high winds
is approaching, players are requested to make sure they replace the flags so they will stand up. No one likes to shoot at a green with the flag laying across the hole. Put some weight on those poles when replacing the flag after play.

Golfers expected to make the trip to Del Rio this week end include
Mr. and Mrs. Dub Day, Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs.
Ray Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shaffer,
Mr. and Mrs. Grimm Taylor, Jack
Marshall and Joyce Buckway, Mr.
and Mrs. W. C. McSpadden of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Titsworth that they will attend if they can worth. Several others have indicated make arrangements.

Mrs. W. O. Adams and son Kyle
are spending the week in San Angelo.

Mrs. Zack Monroe and Mrs. Callie
Henley were visitors in San Angelo
last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. White of Odessa were recent visitors in Rankin.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS
KAY McEWEN AUGUST 26

Kay McEwen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. McEwen, and bride elect of Tommy Hudson, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor Monday afternoon August 26th.

The serving table was laid with a white cut-work linen cloth. The wedding motif was pictured by using a miniature bride and groom underneath a flower-covered archway placed on a reflector edged with brown net. Plate favors were miniature bags of rice tied in brown and gold.

Guests were registered in a musical brides book which when wound by the lucky coin played the traditional wedding march.

A lovely array of gifts showered the honoree. Ice box pineapple cake and coffee were served to a large number of guests.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Clay Taylor, Mrs. T. L. Stephenson, Mrs. Ross Wheeler, Mrs. Hubert Dishman, Mrs. Cecil Merriman, Mrs. Andy Mitchell, and Mrs. H. D. Shaw.

The couple plan to marry September 1, 3 p.m. in Rankin Methodist Church. Friends are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Houchins and family returned last week from a two-week's vacation. They visited friends in various parts of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson will visit Mrs. Mark Grimm who is in a Dallas hospital this week end.
