County Agent Dub Day announced this week that the Rankin County 4-H Club Livestock Show, originally set for Saturday, January 14th, has been postponed until Friday, January 28th.

For the show call for use of the new bus barn at Rankin schools and this structure will not be ready for the January 14th showing. Contractors on the job have assured the interested parties that the building will be ready by the 28th, however.

Rankin Has Quite a Day Week-ends

Rankin and Upton County made the most of the recent holiday period without any serious highway accidents. Only one car wreck of any consequence was reported by the highway patrol in Upton County that involved a car and a truck near Midkiff around Christmas. McKenzie sustained the only automobile when his car caught fire on the Care highway and Christmas and was a total loss. The Rankin Volunteer Fire Department answered the call about the blaze on what was a clear day.

Highway patrolmen were active in the area and the usual holiday violations were marked up. No disturbance of any kind were reported by may come as a surprise to the folks in Upton County is that it's time once again to pay poll taxes. Deadline is January 31, less than 4 weeks a-ing to the office of H. E. Eckols, Upton County Tax poll tax payments thus far this year have been every- where booming with only 15 re- ceiving been issued thus far in 1961, although an "off- politics, should be a good poll tax payments, it is since there will be the special election in Tex- the U. S. Senate seat being by Lyndon B. Johnson. Daniel, governor, has not set the date for this voting but it is expected to come soon after Lyndon Johnson becomes vice-president and the election itself will likely be held in early spring. Other items of interest to voters will be the school and city elections here in April—both requiring a poll tax. In addition, other special elections such as bond issues, could be called during the year by city, school or county officials.

Poll tax payments and exemp- tions for the past several years in Upton County have been as follows:

Past December Gains Over Year Ago --

Postal Receipts Register Slight Decline For Year

Postal receipts for the Rankin Post Office were off slightly for the year just ended as compared with receipts for 1959, according to Grace Roach, Rankin Post Mas- ter.

Total receipts for 1960 amounted to $16,911.04 as compared to the 1959 receipts of $18,546.83—a net decrease of $1,635.79. This was the second year in a row that gross receipts for the Rankin Post Of- fice have shown a decline.

However, the December mailing for 1960 was well over that of the month of December, 1959. In De- cember just past, the total gross was $1,549.00 as compared with a gross of $1,316.87 a year ago, indi- cating that the local office has experienced a rise in business for the past several weeks and which is believed to be continuing thus far into 1961.

Cancelling machines recordings of first class mail cancelled from December 1 through December 24 for 1960 was 30,340 pieces and for the same period in 1959 was 30,- 870 pieces, a reduction of some 530 pieces under last year mailing even though the gross volume of money collected was up for 1960. These figures do not include large flat manila envelopes, bulky let- ters, unusually small envelopes or metered mail, all of which does not go through the cancelling ma- chine, the Post Master has explai- ned.

Thursday Services Set For G. P. Howard

Funeral services are schduled at 3:00 p.m. Thursday, January 5th in Carizzo Springs for G. P. How- ard, father of Larry Howard of Rankin. Burial will be in the Car- rizo Springs Cemetery.

Howard, 63, and an employee of the Walter Dunlap ranch near Sheffield, died Sunday of a heart attack at the ranch.

He is survived by sons Larry of Rankin and Tony of Crane; two daughters, Nancy Carrol of Odessa and Lora Alice of California; four brothers including Harry Howard of Rankin; three sisters and 7 grandchildren.

School Teams Back To Basketball Play

Basketball play for the Rankin School teams resumed following the holidays with both the Boys A and B teams going to Big Lake on Tuesday night, January 3, for a pair of games which started at 6:30 p.m.

On Thursday, Friday and Sat- urday, the Boys returned to Big Lake for a three-day stand in the Reagan County Invitational turna- ment in which they are not ex- pected to post too high.

On Monday, January 9, the girls A and B will go into action for the first time since December 19 when they host McCamey here (Continued to Page 5)

McKenzie Motor Co. Opens In New Location

McKenzie Motor Company this week announced that they are now open for business in a new location at the former Hogan Motor Company building located on Main Street just north of the Cashway Grocery. McKenzie was formerly in business on Highway 67.

At the same time, they stated that they were enlarging the ser- vices offered the public with the employment of Mr. Harold Miers who will be in charge of their new wheel and front-end alignment de- partment. They will be equipped with the proper tools for this type of work. In addition to Miers, there will be Morris McKenzie and Earl King for mechanical work and Larry Phillips for radiator repair and overhaul.

The firm, which has been in business for about a year in their former location, specializes in all types of automotive repairs and overhaul work with a special de- partment for GMC diesel units.

All of the employees are exper- ienced mechanics in their lines of work.

"We made this move in order to offer our customers better and faster service," McKenzie has said, "and we want to welcome them to our new location."

Upton County Marks Business Gains in '60

According to a report released this week by Dun & Bradstreet from their Fort Worth offices, 244 manufacturers, wholesalers and re- tailers are now operating in Up- ton County.

During the past year, 139 changes were made in the records of the company as related to this county. Forty-nine names were ad- ded, 37 deleted and 53 changes in the ratings of continuing busi- nesses. The changes occurring in Upton County are about even with the rest of the country where a change of business significance is counted about every five seconds, according to Dun & Bradstreet.

Upton County has managed to mark up a slow but steady gain in the number of businesses in operation over the past several year. In 1956, the count was 134 and in 1958, it was 184.

THE SCOOP by Scoop

J. B. Hutchens, Jr., Editor

1961—

It's here—this brand new year of 1961 and somehow, it looks a lot like 1960. The weather is still cold, the bills that were not paid last year are still not paid this year, the old cat still has a sore tail from getting stepped on during the Christmas rush around the house and a couple of my favorite football teams got themselves trampled in the bowl games.

Outside of that, it's a bright and shining new year—the month and the year when we will get a new president, the year in which the U.S. will again try to put a man in orbit around the earth—if you exclude the ones who almost made it new year's night—a year in which the Texas Legislature will dream up some new taxes, a year in which the Red Devils will improve their last year's mark—since that's about the only way they can go, a year in which I hope to have the opportunity of repaying all the duffers who beat me in golf last year, and a year in which we may all get a little raw in places from sitting on pins and needles while the cold war get slightly hotter.

On the 20th of January, Mr. JFK will be moved up to the highest job in the nation. He has already set a record of more promises made than any previous president and will now have the task of producing on them. It's to be hoped that he is in good standing with his church which was a big issue in the election for he is going to need all the help—both spiritual and from the human element—that he can get.

Back when I was just a kid, I can remember a president who had promised "a car in every garage and a chicken in every pot."

Like most political promises, he was not able to keep it and consequently, was cussed soundly by one and all. The strange part of this is that nowadays it is not at all uncommon to see at least two cars in most garages and even more in some and people have become so uppity that they no longer consider chicken a delicacy—but still we cuss the office holder and cry bad times.

Maybe we just don't recognize a fulfilled promise when we see one.

THE DISUNITED NATIONS—

Another thing that we may witness in the year ahead could very possibly be the end of the United Nations, or at least, the end of its influence on world affairs. As to the desirability of this taking place, I can't feel that we would be much worse off without the services of this body. It has been a huge cost to the people of the United States and has done little if anything to bring about any sort of peace in the world. They have been able to do some relief work to needy areas but this could be carried on by some other type organization that was not so wrapped up in politics.

Since its formation, the United Nations has been used for little more than a place in which the Communists and the Free World could word scrap about every sort of issue that came up. Small nations—some only a few years or months old—have been voted into membership and given authority and voice right along with others that have proved themselves for centuries. The United States has supported this organization almost to the point of letting them take over our entire foreign affairs and the results have amounted to almost nothing. The best that we have done about stopping the spread of Communism since we became members has been to establish a policy of containment that has settled with trying to keep the world situation as it was at the close of World War II. We have not forced Communism to withdraw one foot. In fact, it has now spread but even where we have taken action, it has been only a holding action.

This sort of thing is not going to get us anywhere. If you have a mad dog loose in town, you don't go around just trying to keep him from biting more people—you do something about getting him out of existence. We'll never get rid of threats of atomic war until we get rid of those who desire world wide conquest—in this case, the Communists. We will never get the Castros out of the Cubas—and the indications are that more are on their way right here in our own back yard—until we take action to eliminate the mad dog. Here, again, we are not taking these steps but rather, are waiting to see if the dog will not die of his own accord. That could be a long and costly process.

1961 will be the time when the United States Will be forced to take action on its own, to display some of this world leadership that we hear about. Again, it leaves one in doubt as to whether this is good or not but it's a question that is going to have to be faced. We can either decide to take the offensive against Communism on our own, or we can dally along with the UN and see the Communists slowly but surely gain more and more ground until we are standing all by ourselves. It's a sad choice any way you look at it.

WASHINGTON—J. M. Swing, commissioner of immigration and naturalization, announced Saturday that all non-citizens must report their addresses in January under the U. S. Law.

Rankin area aliens can report their addresses by getting a card at the Post Office.

The legal requirement applies to all aliens admitted for permanent residence who have not been naturalized and to all aliens temporarily visiting the United States. The only exceptions are: Non-citizens in diplomatic status, foreign representatives of which the U. S. is a member, and those admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers.

Swing also stressed that no address card should be mailed. He said the alien should return the card to the clerk who issued it.

Swing said 2,948,000 aliens reported their addresses last January. The 1961 figure will be about 3,000,000, he predicted.
