School Annuals Must Be Purchased by 14th

Annual sales for the 1963 Rankin "RED DEVIL" are underway and will continue through Monday, January 14, according to Mrs. Raymond Roycroft, annual advisor.

Annuals cost $3.57 if paid for in full or the purchaser may make a deposit of $2. or $2.08 and pay the remainder when the annuals are delivered in the fall.

It is necessary that those who wish to purchase a 1963 yearbook do so by January 14 because the order must be placed with the publishing company during that week. Extra annuals will not be ordered.

Interested parties should contact Mrs. Roycroft at the high school not later than Jan. 14.

Certificates Issued To Rankin Schools

Rankin Schools were the recipients last week of three engraved certificates that more or less put the finishing touches to a long quest for accreditation in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Three of the certificates were received, one for each of the three schools. Approximately 10x12 inches in size, they are to be on display at the various school buildings. Reproductions in reduced sizes, of the three awards appear in this issue of The News.

were mailed to 152 businesses in Upton County. He said figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1963 totaled 152 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers in this area as compared with 151 in January, 1962—an increase of 1 per cent for the period.

Using the Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book listings as a guide, it is interesting to review what has happened in the principal Upton County communities during the past year:

McCamey: reference book listing in January 1963—106. Reference book listings in January, 1962—110. Percentage loss: 4 percent.

Midkiff: Reference Book listings January, 1963—8. Reference Book listings in January, 1962—5. Percentage increase: 60 percent.

Rankin: Reference Book listings in January, 1963—38. Reference Book listings in January, 1962—36. Percentage of increase: 6 percent.

During the past year, Hemphill added, 120 changes were made in the reference book listings of Upton County businesses, including 33 names added, 32 names deleted, and 55 changes in the ratings. (Continued to Page 5)

District Play Starts In Basketball Jan. 11

Mid-term exams will put the slow-down on basketball in Rankin schools for the next week with only one major contest set. That will be the opening of district play Friday night, January 11 when the boys A and B of RHS host Iraan. Gametime is at 6:30 p.m. in the high school gym. No further games for this group will be played until Jan. 22.

In junior high, the 8th grade boys play in the Wink Tournament Thursday, Jan. 10 and both the 7th and 8th grade go to McCamey on January 14.

On the 10th, the 7th and 8th Grade girls go to McCamey and on the 14th, the match is returned to Rankin.

Last week was not exactly a good one for Rankin ball clubs, the high school boys and girls having lost two each in the Big Lake and Lakeview tournament. On Tuesday night, the girls won over Sterling City while the boys dropped their decision.

The hottest team going, the 8th Grade boys, suffered their first defeat of the year at the hands of Iraan last Monday in a double overtime. The 7th graders were also beaten by Iraan. Eighth graders now hold two wins over Crane, one over McCamey and Ozona for a 4-1 record.

Harlem Stars Slated For Jan. 14 Show In Rankin Gym

Something a little different in basketball will be staged in Rankin on Saturday, January 19.

On that date the Upton County All-Stars will meet the Harlem Stars in a game that may look a little like basketball but should provide a high score in laughter for the spectators. Time will be at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Gym under the sponsorship of the Rankin Booster Club. Admission will be $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for students and 50-cents for all under 12-years-of-age.

The Harlem Stars are a combination of Negro players who tour the world, making laughs. They never try to run up a huge score against opponents. It is their policy to keep the game close, devoting much time to comedy stuff.

Their star is Boid Buie, a one-armed player who is a former Harlem Globetrotter. He spent 16 years as a professional and is the one-arm player in the profession.

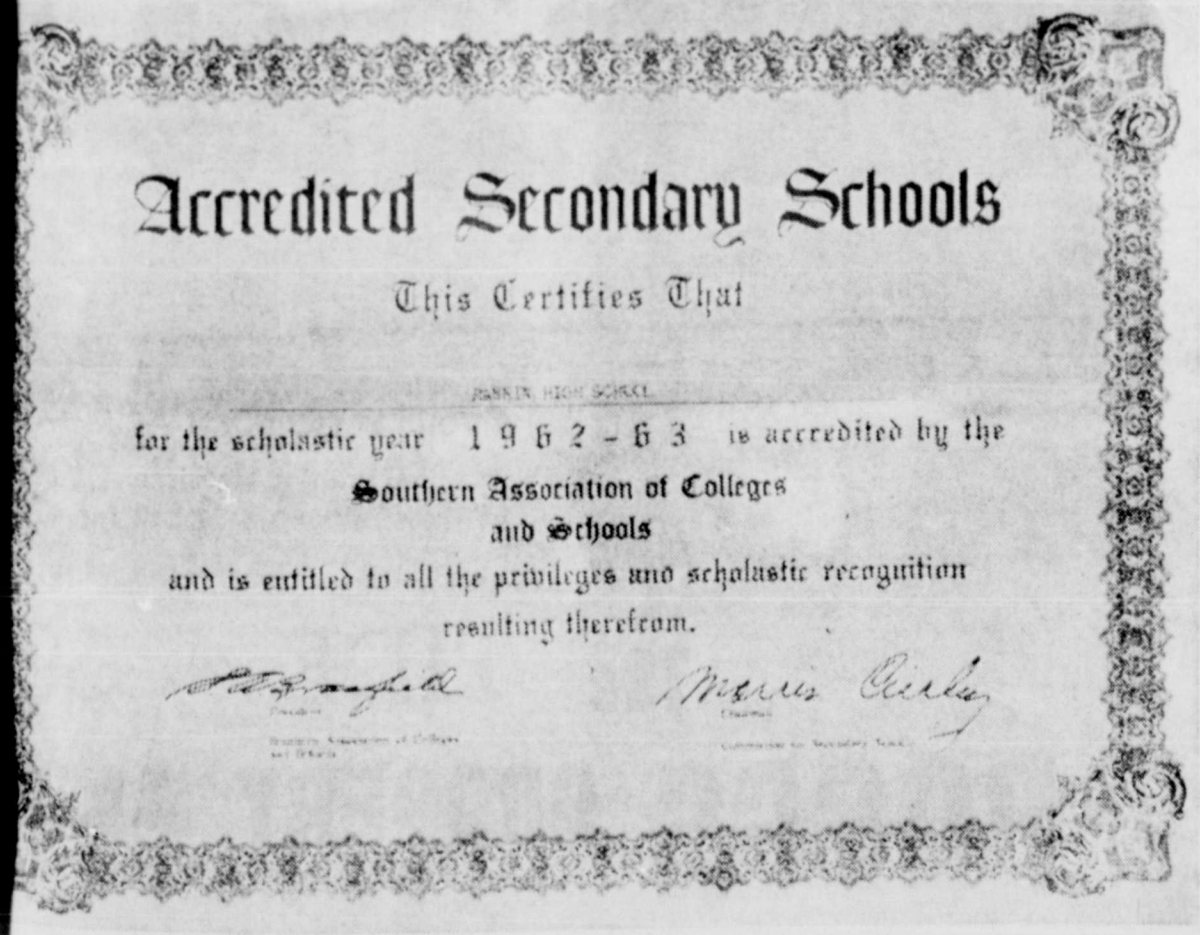

The Upton County All-Stars is to be composed of local adults—not necessarily chosen for their ability as basketball players.

Sponsors of the game have assured spectators of an enjoyable evening of laughs.

Tickets are now on sale by the members of the Rankin Booster Club.

Type II Vaccine Has Fewer Participants

Participation in the Type II Sabin Oral Vaccine program fell below the expectations of the program coordinators with only 1100 residents taking advantage of the second phase of the three-phase program last Sunday. Approximately 1300 participated in the first phase and Dr. James D. Gossett, physician in charge of the local program, had anticipated (Continued To Page Five)

THE LAM-A-RAMA—

Saturday the 4-H Club is going to hold their first Lam-A-Rama—whatever that is. But, according to Dub Day it's going to be well worth while for cooks and housekeepers to attend, along with any one else who might be interested.

The object of the game is to get us all into the mood for eating more mutton. And if we eat more mutton, the price for same will go up and the sheep business will be better. All of which is a fair and reasonable proposition except for one thing.

Suppose you acquire a taste for a leg of lamb. Where do you get it? If you are in the sheep raising business, I suppose you just go out into the pasture and grab off a leg of a lamb but if you're not in the sheep raising business, you best not follow this procedure for there are laws that frown on appropriating property to which you do not hold clear title.

And as far as I know, there has never been much offering of mutton in local grocery stores. This is not to say that the grocery stores are at fault for if people want steak—they sell steak.

It's just one of those things. We live in the midst of some of the world's best oil and gas fields and pay a higher price for our gas and oil than they do almost anywhere else in Texas. We have a fair number of sheep in this area but just you try to buy a piece of mutton.

Anyway, perhaps the Lam-A-Rama will start things in the proper direction.

IT'S OFFICIAL—

In this issue of The News are three pictures of the awards to Rankin schools showing that we are now fully accredited in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

They are only pieces of paper but they represent a vast amount of work on the part of a lot of people and are something that a very few schools in Texas can display.

They should—and no doubt will be—displayed in prominent positions in our schools and we can all justly regard them with pride.

They are worth the efforts it took to get them—they are also worth the future efforts it will take to keep them.

CAT COUNTRY—

A month or so ago, a report was printed in The News about our cat population—big ones that is.

Since that time, a goodly amount of space has been given to the tale in a number of newspapers and it's still going on. Now it appears that every county in West Texas is trying to come up with a cat act.

Well, that's O. K. if they want a part of the action but it should be remembered that Rankin has the honors in this match, having started the first cat tail and so far we haven't been topped.

Who knows—what we might should do is seed the county to big cats and turn the place into a big game hunting ground.

If big cats are anything like little cats—the household variety—all we'd need would be a puss and a tom and we'd be in business in short order. Rabbits are supposed to be fast on the population explosion bit but from what I've seen around our hood, rabbits are still at the horse and buggy compared to a pair of modern day cats.

But I guess there's a mouse that. With all the new mouse traps, rat killers, etc. is very little work for a hunter these days so he has a red blooded cat for pasttime?

McCamey Methodist To Hear Al Badger

Al Badger of Dallas, organizer and Chairman of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, will speak at the eleven o'clock service Sunday morning, January 13, at the First Methodist Church in McCamey. Members of the commission are appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

Badger is a former resident of McCamey, having run the Burleson Hotel there in the 1920's. Since leaving McCamey, he has managed leading hotels of the state and at the present time has the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

A member of Alcoholics Anonymous, Al Badger is in great demand as a public speaker and continuously fills speaking engagements throughout the United States. He is well known in AA circles. When he had the Golden Pheasant Restaurant in Dallas a number of years, he held open house every morning for the AA's and he has been the focal point of education in alcoholism in Dallas and the state.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services Sunday a. m. and hear Mr. Badger.

ed a greater turn out for number two since there had been no medical repercussions from the first and since the entire program received another endorsement by the government health service and the American Medical Association.

Dr. Gossett announced that there would be no formal make-up session for those who were unable to get the vaccine Sunday, but such folk could come by his office any time this week and the immunization would be given.

This service will be financed in the same manner as was the program at the Park Building, by recipients' making a donation to help defray the cost of the vaccine.

The doctor again expressed his appreciation to the Beta Sigma Phi sororities, the Lions Club and the hospital staff for their assistance in administering the vaccine.

The third and final phase of the oral vaccine program will be given in about six weeks. The date will be announced through the schools and in the local and area newspapers.

ing of continuing businesses. The changes occurring in Upton County are lower with the rest of the country where a change of business significance is counted every five seconds.

According to Mr. Hemphill, each January business concerns in all parts of the United States are asked by Dun and Bradstreet for copies of their financial statements. This year requests are being sent to approximately three million business concerns—to the corner grocery store worth a few thousand dollars as well as to businesses worth millions.

The Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book lists those manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit but it does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figure for total business in the United States would be higher than the three million quoted above.
