Candidates Hard to Come By --

School, City Races Form As Filing Deadlines Near

With one deadline due to have passed at midnight, Wednesday, March 4, and another due for the same fate on Saturday, March 7, it appears that candidates for the school and city elections are not going to be as plentiful this year as in the past. Last year thirteen candidates filed in the school contest.

As of Wednesday morning, only four were seeking election to the board's two open seats. These included the two incumbents, Dr. J. D. Gossett and Carl Shaffer and contesters Leslie McFadden and Billy S. Brown. Deadline for getting a name on the school ballot was midnight Wednesday.

In the city race, only the two incumbents, Mayor E. B. Bloodworth, and Councilman Marcus Price, had announced for re-election. Deadline in the city vote is Saturday.

Gossett is the local doctor, Shaffer owns and operates Red Bluff Lumber Company, McFadden is owner of Rankin Drug and works for the Wool House—plus assorted other jobs, while Brown is an oil company employee. All have children in Rankin Schools and are well known in the community.

WTU to Pass Taxcut On to Customers

Savings resulting from the reduction in Federal income taxes will be passed on to West Texas Utilities customers according to plans for system-wide rate reductions announced today. These reductions in rates will save customers about $1 million annually, approximately 2.8 percent at this time. Savings will be even greater as electric sales grow.

E. L. Edgar, WTU Local Manager, announced that the Company plans to pass on the full benefits of the tax reduction which it will receive under the new tax law. Under the new law the income tax on corporations will be reduced in two steps of 2 percent each. The corporate income tax will go from 52 percent to 50 percent in 1964 and from 50 percent to 48 percent in 1965.

"We are giving customers the benefit of both the tax reduction already established for 1964 and the tax reduction scheduled for 1965," Cal Young, WTU President said.

Lower rates for Rankin users are to take effect in the early fall, according to Edgar.

MOTHER OF MRS. BLUE BURIED IN SHAMROCK

Richard C. White is Candidate in 16th Congressional Dist.

Democratic Congressional Candidate Richard C. (Dick) White of El Paso announced this week that he is planning a strenuous campaign which will take him to nearly every community in the 16th Congressional District of Texas between now and the May 2 primary.

In carrying on his campaign for the Congressional seat now held by Republican Ed Foreman, he said that he has become firmly convinced over the past two years that the 16th District is suffering because of completely inadequate and ineffective representation.

White is a native West Texan having been born in El Paso in 1923, the son of Lela M. White and the late James C. White, prominent farm and ranch realtor. His grandfather, Captain James H. White, a Confederate veteran from Virginia who served with General Robert E. Lee, came to El Paso County in the 1870's and was elected to the first El Paso County Commissioner's Court. He was also an early sheriff, tax-assessor and police chief of El Paso.

White attended El Paso schools where he was Cadet Colonel of the ROTC and was one of two graduating high school students chosen for the 1940 Citizen's Military Training Camp at San Antonio where he won the Best 3rd Year Man Award.

He attended Texas Western College and received his B. A. from the University of Texas in 1946 in history and government. He took his L.L.D. Degree from the University of Texas Law school in 1949. During his college career

MURDER—

For the last thirty or forty years the American public has been subjected to an outrage that has grown in intensity each year. For the last fifteen, they have had this felony compounded. long permit a newspaper to blot up their columns of reading matter with advertising. Yet we allow broadcasters to get worse and worse at this practice and never say a word.

It's true that radio and television make their profits from advertising in the same manner as newspapers but there is no reason why they should try to force their viewers and listeners to hear and see a message in which they may not be at all interested. If these are such great mediums for selling a product, then why do they not set aside a certain time and program their advertisements just as newspapers put theirs in their papers in a manner which lets the reader have a choice—he can read the news and the ads or he can skip one or the other.
No sneaking in of advertisements is done—as per this example.

The American public is about as big a bunch of chumps as has ever come along. There is no call for such things when a letter now and then to the advertiser who permits his name and product to be forced into the middle of any so-called program — telling him that such tactics are not appreciated, would soon bring a halt to the whole sorry mess.

And don't go and get mad at the three advertisers used in this column. They were only trying to help prove a point.

A CAT TALE—

ED: The following is a note received this week that proves that the west can still be wild.
It's simple title is "Cat Invades Mule Train".

Heads for the manager wife who climbs over bar, kinda upset.
Cat slowly, gently walks in door passing three customers. When noticed, Mrs. Carrol climbs over bar, screams. Her husband trying to keep her quiet all the time.

Customers get scared and leave, all but one who held the light for manager J. C. Carroll to shoot the cat after of begging it to go.

Nevertheless, the cat left a slight odor.

Would have shot sooner but thought he was a politician.

LETTERS To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I always read the Scoop in your paper and usually agree with you, but I read your article in the February 20 edition and decided it should rate a comment or two.

After living in the Rankin trade area for a period of better than five years I feel I should be slightly qualified to comment on Rankin business. There seems to be a gentleman—a business man in Rankin—who thinks Rankin Schools should pay one cent a dozen more for local eggs than they have to for shipped in eggs.
I for one don't think so. I do think Rankin Schools should buy from the local man, but the local man should sell at or below the price of shipped in eggs or meet competition without complaints.
His cost of feed, chicks, fuel, electricity, and packaging should not be out of line with the other fellow, and transportation from his farm to Rankin cannot possibly be as high as from Garden City, as you suggested in your article, therefore it seems his price of one cent above shipped in eggs is out of line and a business operated on tax payers money should not have to pay it. Of course we could raise the meals from .35c to .50c and probably pay him .05c a dozen more.

While we are on the subject of Rankin trade I will comment further: practically every year the town has put on a so-called drive for out of town business.
To my observation this has been a farce to the public both in and out of Rankin. The business men of Rankin have made very little or no effort to bring their prices within range of their competitors in other nearby towns and until they do they can expect a very small percent of the oil field people buying or spending their pay checks in Rankin. I for one buy ninety percent of my groceries in Rankin and have for five years only because my wife refuses to go to Odessa or Midland. All my neighbors do go to Midland or Odessa and their payrol per month would amount to $4,000 or more that Rankin merchants never have a chance at. Multiply this by the number of other oilfield people who do the same and it is a considerable loss to Rankin merchants. I know they can't operate like the government, they have to make a profit to stay in business. But there are two ways to make a profit, sell one item at a high percent profit and a low volume or sell the same article at a low percent profit at a high volume. The last way is the only way oil companies have found they can stay in business and grow. Competition with us is fierce.

Your truly
G. A. Thompson

P.S.—This is not to criticize you or Rankin. I enjoy being a part of the community . . .

ED: Thank you very much for your straightforward remarks in this letter. I always admire a person who will put his thoughts in writing. I wish I had a dozen letters each week. As for not agreeing with me—think nothing of it. I don't always agree with myself.

In commenting on your letter, it brings to mind the old question: Which came first — the chicken or the egg? Do we have support of local institutions in order to get prices down or do prices go down first in order to get customers. I know for a fact that not too many years ago a so-called chain supermarket passed up locating here because they felt that people in the trade territory were not supporting the town.

If we are ever to see progress in Rankin, it is going to take support from all those who are interested in a better community. The key to that support is what local merchants have been seeking—and have not yet found. As you say, a business must show a profit in order to stay open and you can't do that if you sell below cost.
P. S. — Bless your wife.

Benefit Dance Is Financial Success

Some 125 persons attended the Benefit Dance Saturday night at the Rankin Park Building given by Rankin Beta Sigma Phi. The Benefit for Sue Ellen Mabry was termed a huge success by the Sorority.

"All people of the area will be more than pleased we know to learn that contributions were overwhelming. Omicron Tau want to express their appreciation and commend everyone who was responsible for the fund reaching such a peak," a spokesman for the group said to-day.

Where Have We Missed

By Merle Brown

Our democracy seems to be fading. We as citizens have definite civic responsibilities. If we can not find the time to maintain our freedom through our time and thought, to help when asked—then we are just plain poor citizens and will lead to an enslaved people. Democracy and freedom works on the brain power of all the people and cannot live on ignorance and indifference—therefore, our freedom is not free but requires much from us.

"The institution of free government can not long endure without the attention and participation of EVERYONE", one statesman has said.

Some three years ago we were asked to view the school budget and to help the school board to decide whether to accept or reject the proposed budget for the coming year. At that time we were told—by one man—that if the budget was passed it would mean:

Omicron Tau Meets In Jay Lane Home

Omicron Tau, Rankin chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, met Monday, February 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jay Lane. Mrs. Ann Deel served as hostess for the evening.

Mary Fagan introduced Mrs. Lane to the chapter and she presented the group with a very delightful program on Art. The members were shown through her home and saw displays of paintings in oil, charcoal, and hand painted china.

All members answered the roll call naming their favorite song or poem about nature.

Pauline Gossett, President, conducted the business meeting and plans for the Sue Mabry Benefit Dance, February 29, were discussed. Several of the chapter's spring pledges were present and Mrs. Shirley Stokes, transferee, was introduced to the group.

Those pledges present were Tommye Reeves, Barbara Barton, Polly Helms, and Darlene Batchelder. Unable to attend were Edra Owens, Nancy Porter and Selley McBee.

The Executive Board met at the close of the meeting and discussed plans for the Preferential Tea in March and the Rituals for the group's new members.

Refreshments of coffee, kokes and cookies were served to the members present.

The Executive Board met at the close of the meeting and

McCAMEY LIONS TO SELL MULBERRY TREES SAT.

The Piasano Lions Club of McCamey plans to sell the popular Fruitless Mullberry trees Saturday, March 7 in McCamey next door to the Post Office. Trees are to be about 10-foot size and will sell for $3.95 each.

Fruitless Mullberry is said to be well adapted to this particular area and the club hopes to improve the shade tree situation of the county through their efforts.

1. We would probably need some state aid to meet the building obligation already made.

2. We would probably have more teachers with less than 10 years experience to cut down salaries.

3. We would see some noted improvements in the playground and looks of the schools.

4. We were told that to pass on the budget would mean that taxes would have to be raised.

It was evident that some did not think all of this necessary so the tax payer was asked to give his suggestions. The taxpayer was not too well represented and the ones who did attend were more interested, I suppose, in the buildings and physical properties than they were in the educational program. This is all fine but I have my doubts that the appearance of the schools in Rankin is going to help my children in any way to enroll in a college or help them pass if they do enroll.

Soon after this budget was viewed and passed upon, we began to be told or led to believe that the Rankin School District had a much better affiliation than before. We had been evaluated and met the better standard.

Now here seems to be a good time to stop and take a good look. This always hurts, but at some point it usually becomes necessary.

In 1960 our oldest girl finished Rankin High School and was an honor student, having managed to successfully go four years without learning English and very little math. She did have one good year of a foreign language and two years of the best business training I think one could have.

At the same time our boy was in the 4th Grade. He had gone to school five years and could read very little and knew very little spelling. (He had learned what he knew at this time from extra help he had one summer.) When I investigated, I learned he was trying to memorize division problems. After some hours in the class and in analyzing the problem, it was decided he must learn his multiplication tables and be taught the principle. This was done at home.

This sort of thing is fine, I suppose, but when we spend some $40.00 per month and the taxpayer spends the amount it costs to send a child to school, it seems to me that we are all entitled to a little more explanation in class. We have studied many nights until 2:00 a.m. but have not had to resort to No-Doze tablets or apologize to a teacher for something she did that was wrong, but have. About the child started experience same with I say this in really question school was new and installed, forced. I know on textbook class. Facts are 1. Do we and price we want a little of things 2. Is it they know many things 3. Funeral services were held at 3:00 p. m. Sunday, March 1 at the Iraan Christian Church for Mr. Fred Seals, a Rankin resident for the past nine years. Mr. Seals, an 81-year-old retired pumper of Marathon Oil Co., died Friday, February 28 in the McCamey Hospital following a short illness.

Survivors include his wife, Cora, a son, Wayland Seals of Rankin; two brothers; one sister; and three grandsons.

Mr. Seals had lived in Iraan for 23 years before moving to Rankin in 1956. He was a Baptist, a Mason, an Oddfellow and a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Crites Funeral Home was in charge of services with burial in Restland Cemetery in Iraan.

Tax Refunds May be Taken in US Bonds

Federal income taxpayers were reminded recently by Dunn Lowery, Savings Bond Chairman for Upton County, that the Treasury is again offering them the option of taking refunds in U. S. Savings Bonds. The savings option, first introduced last year, is in addition to the two standard options of taking tax refunds in cash or applying them to the next year's tax.

"By electing to take his refund in Series E Bonds," Lowery said, "the taxpayer holds onto his money conveniently, through a secure, risk-free investment which pays interest at a guaranteed rate. He avoids seeing his money absorbed by household expenses, vanishing completely in day-to-day spending. And he learns what millions of other Americans have already discovered—that U. S. Savings Bonds are one of the finest possible ways to save for a secure future.

"And, of course, every citizen should realize that every dollar he invests in U. S. Savings Bonds makes our economy stronger and our whole nation more secure."

Taxpayers taking their 1962 refunds in Savings Bonds swelled the 1963 Bond sales by $19.2 million and raised the number of Bonds issued by 237,455. This year Lowery says the Treasury hopes the plan will further increase the sale of Savings Bonds, and encourage more citizens to develop regular savings habits.

"Nothing could be more convenient than getting your Savings Bonds through the tax refund plan," Lowery points out. "All it takes is a check mark in the Savings Bonds block on either tax form 1040 or 1040A. The tax instructions give all the information you'll need."

Legion Post Backing New Boy Scout Troop

The American Legion Price Pool Post 421 voted to sponsor a Boy Scout Troop at a recent meeting. Ray Burt Norris is to serve as Scout Master and the Rev. Lloyd Kincaid will be assistant. Elected to serve on the Troop Committee were C. Smith, Bill Darby, Walter Campbell, Bill Cogley, H. L. Swanson and M. R. Clary, chairman.

All are from McCamey where the troop will be located.

Clary, Commander of the Post, stated that the Scout Troop would give the post a well-rounded youth program. The Post is presently sponsoring a Little League ball team. Also, the Post sends four boys to Boys State—two from McCamey and one each from Rankin and Iraan. The Auxiliary helps sponsor sending two girls to Blue Bonnet Girls State in Austin each year.

Boys State is held at the University of Texas each June with the Rankin Lions Club joining the Legion on sponsoring the Rankin representative. The Blue Bonnet Girls State is held at the School of the Blind in Austin. Both consist of one week training in city, county and state government.

The Post and Auxiliary present 12 Americanism Awards each year in Rankin, Iraan and McCamey Schools.

There are 134 paid up members in the Post.

HINTS for the HOMEMAKER

By Mrs. Louie S. Jeffers, County Home Demo. Agent

Making your own curtains and draperies is easy—and one of the most satisfying achievements in home sewing.

Draperies can do wonders for your room. You can use almost any fabric and carry out almost any color scheme. You can repeat the color of your rug, match your sofa, echo one of the colors in your chairs.

Draperies can change the appearance size of your room. Repeating the color of the walls in the drapes gives a feeling of vastness, or a bright or contrasting color calls attention to the windows.

Draperies can help sound-proof your home. We have inside and outside noises today that need to be softened.

Draperies may cut your heating or cooling cost by insulating windows.

Draperies may be the most expensive item of decorating your room.

You can save 50 percent or more of your drapery cost in two ways:

1. buy less expensive fabric
2. make them ourself

Training in the skill of No. 2 is being offered you with no charge through your County Extension Service.

The Rankin Workshop will meet in the Commissioners' Courtroom on March 19 and 20 from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The Benedum workshop will meet in the clubhouse on March 9 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and on March 10 from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon.

STRAWBERRY GROWING IN UPTON COUNTY

Several people have been wondering if it is possible to grow strawberries in Upton or Reagan Counties.

The Extension Horticulturist states "Strawberries can be grown in this area but I would like to emphasize that it is not an easy matter to produce them. I would recommend the Everbearing type such as the Gem. This variety is also known as Superfection.

They are one in the same variety even though they are sold quite often as separate varieties. Good sturdy Everbearing strawberry plants can be planted in March in this area or even in early April. All blooms that attempt to appear on these young plants during April, May and June should be removed. They then can be fruited heavily during the fall. A few plants given excellent care will give more satisfactory results than a large number that are neglected.

THURMAN REDDEN SALES COMPANY

"Distributor of Schlitz and Falstaff Beer"

Thurman Redden Sales Co. is located at 503 N. Front in Fort Stockton, phone ED 6-3291. The Schlitz or Falstaff on a beer marks it as a superior product. Beer quality is a thing to define and difficult to explain. While it is true most brews are made from the same basic ingredients of hops, cereals and ferments, it seems that by following the same technical routine, the finished product would be identical. But such is not the case with Schlitz and Falstaff, the most popular beers you can buy! In making this delightful beverage, a very simple procedure is followed, and yet, it is so full of technical points that it is exceedingly complex. Each stage of its production calls for the watchful care of highly trained experts, men who are not only technicians, but also experienced in the delicate task of tastemasters. The brewers of Schlitz and of Falstaff know how to bring out the full flavor, just as a good cook knows how to bring out the full flavor in food. In making this Good Neighbor Review of Fort Stockton, we are pleased to compliment Thurman Redden Sales Company upon the superior quality of beer which they are distributing.
