ed on Main Street. Some eighteen months ago, fire sacked an adjoining building and did considerable damage to Masonic property. Although the Lodge's building program was well under way at that time, the fire did make it necessary for added emphasis to be placed on speeding up the new quarters.

Calls have been issued at various time for assistance from the membership and friends of the Lodge, a substantial amount of materials and time have been donated; with the results that the Rankin Lodge now has one of the nicer Temples in the immediate area. Paving and curbing work, along with landscaping, has continued up until recent days. A large parking area has been paved to the north of the building and additional efforts to improve the immediate area are planned.

Among these will be the paving of the street, Rankin Avenue, that passes in front of the building. The site immediately south of the structure has been donated for construction of the Upton County Museum at a later date.

First order of the day Monday will be the cornerstone leveling at 4:00 p.m. The general public is invited to attend this portion of the ceremony. This will be followed by the Dedication Ceremony which will be, in turn, followed by a barbecue at 6:00 p.m. The dedication and barbecue is open only to Masons and their families and other invited guests.

Presiding over the leveling and dedication ceremonies will be H. W. Fullingim, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Texas.

Invitations have gone out to a number of area Lodges and a large gathering is expected.

Request Issed for Unused Bicycles, etc.

Dr. J. D. Gossett this week issued a call for old bicycles and bicycle parts. Gossett has undertaken a project of rebuilding and repairing old bicycles for Otto's Boys Ranch west of Odessa.

Anyone having any such items is requested to please contact the doctor or leave them at his bus barn immediately behind his office on Elizabeth Street. The bikes will be repaired, repainted and donated to the Boys Ranch where they will find many delighted warm.

To Highlight Annual Upton Livestock Show--

Lamb, Horse Shows Set Saturday for Rankin

With the exception of the recent Odessa show, Saturday will mark the beginning of the season for Upton County 4-H Club members and what they hope will be their prize-winning lambs. The annual Upton County 4-H Club Livestock show brings all club animals together and into competition against one another, giving both the exhibitor and the county agent a pretty good idea on how the Upton product will stack up against the big-time competition.

School Censue Nears Completion; Dennis to Leave Faculty

School census trustee Mrs. Stella Hughes, reports that most of the present students of the district have been enumerated at this time.

While Mrs. Hughes has not completed her personal visits to all camps and residences, she asks that anyone knowing of children who will be six years of age by next September 1, next year's first graders, please notify her of the names and addresses of the children.

Mrs. Hughes can be reached at MY 3-2445 during the school day or at MY 3-2337 after 6:00 p.

In other school activity, Supt. Bill Hood revealed that the resignation of Mr. Carroll Dennis, assistant coach and high school social studies teacher, has been accepted and that a replacement has been hired. Hood also said that three new students were enrolle dthis week in high school.

Present enrollment at Rankin Schools is at the 550 mark with expectations of more students to come.

First Aid Course Opens in McCamey

A five-week Standard First Aid Coure was started in McCamey last Tuesday night, January 18. Classes under the direction of Mr. Glen Crites will be held at 7:30 p.m. each Tuesday at the McCamey Park Building.

Anyone needing to fullifil a requirement for a First Aid Course is invited to attend these sessions. The course is an accredited first aid program.

In many instances in the past, winning lambs from the County Show have gone on to stand in Grand Champion circles in some of the biggest sheep shows in the nation. And, oddly enough, sometimes in the past, lambs that did not place well in this show have taken the fancy of judges in the other exhibitions and have been awarded high honors.

Although Saturday's event will be a full fledged show with a sale of lambs, it is still, primarily, a proving ground for both the youthful club members and their entries. Experience gained Saturday will make better showmen of them when they go big-time latin the year.

County Agent Dub Day has requested that all members have their lambs at the Rankin School bus barn, site of the attraction, at no later than 2:00 p.m. Saturday. The show proper will begin at 5:00 p.m. and will be followed by the sale at approximately 8:30 .m. All events are open to the public free of charge.

HORSE SHOW

An additional attraction to this year's show will be a 4-H horse show starting at 1:00 p.m. Saturday at the same location.

Halter classes only will be considered with catagories being as follows:

Class I: Geldings, all ages.

Class II: Mares, all ages.

Class III: Pony Class, 13 hands and under (52-inches). This class will be composed mostly of the Shetlands.

Awards will be made to all winners and again, the public is invited to attend without charge.

Appoints Advisory Group --

Housing Authority Completes Application

Housing Authority of Rankin this week completed paperwork on their application for 75 low rent housing units. All the necessary forms were dispatched to Fort Worth this week.

In action completing the organization of the Authority in Rankin, a Citizens Advisory Commission was appointed, representing civic, religious and organized bodies and minority groups. This commission will assist the fiveman Authority board from time to time on questions affecting the community.

Seven members make up the advisory group. They are:

Bill Johnson, employee of the Rankin School District.

Mrs. Boyd Cox, member Rankin Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Rev. Billy J. White, pastor of Rankin Methodist Church and member Rankin Lions Club.

Mrs. Ray Boggs, member Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Charlie Hale, president Rankin Golf Club, member Little League Association.

Mrs. Sam Holmes, member of Rankin Study Club, member of Upton County Historical Society. George Smith, representative of local minority groups.

The Authority also appointed one of its members, J. B. Hutchens as its general manager.

Since the time in which Rankin has undertaken the effort of securing a low rent program here, two neighboring towns, Big Lake and McCamey, has indicated that they, too, will seek such assistance. The low rent program is not a "hand out" from the Federal government. Money is advanced in the form of a loan at no interest with repayment being made from operation of the units. Shoud the units fail for a time to return enough revenue to repay the loan, the Federal government keeps up the payments. The program has been in effect since the late 30's and was a companion plan with FHA; the FHA program being for those who desired to own their own homes while the low rent program gave assistance to those who could not afford to do so.

Anyone who thinks they might be interested in living in one of the units may get information at the City Hall.

FLAKE OFF-

Adult supervisors at the Rankin Youth Center say that they have been having a recurrence of a problem that has been more or less typical at one time or another with practically all place where youths have gathered. A few seem always bound and determined to do their experimenting with strong drink at the expense of others. In this instance, the problem is being corrected at Rankin Youth Center. The thing is, it should not have started in the first place.

Now I'm not going to set out to preach on the evils or danger of hooch drinking. It has been pretty generally agreed by vote, fist fights, yelling, hollering and other assorted means of interhuman communication that each person is going to have to decide this question for himself. In the case of teenagers, the decision may well be influenced one way or another by the parents—and then again, they may not give a hooch—er, hoot.

I do not believe any human alive is born with a taste for beer or whiskey. I believe it must be acquired. Some of the biggest lies—and Academy Award worthy performances—that I have ever seen have been put on by people taking their first belt of firewater. As they stand there gasping, eyes rolling and tears running down their cheeks, they pound their chest, stomp their feet and say, "Man, that's shore good."

Those first experiences with giggle water have to be experiments. For those who have been doing their experimenting in the area of the Rankin Youth Center, it might well be said that they are flakey characters who ought to grow up a little. Rules and regulations are necessary for the operation of the Youth Center—and the Park Building. One of these rules is that there will be no drinking on the premises. The rule applies to adults and to teenagers alike.

Like they say, it's a free country but the person who goofs up the rights and privileges of others is not contributing anything toward keeping it that way.

Get the hooch out of the Youth Center. There's plenty of room for such elsewhere. Minors are prohibited by law from buying intoxicants. If you must break the law, be big enough to involve only yourself and those who join you voluntarily.

Besides that, I note in the newspaper where some learned scholar has proposed that drinking be taught in school-beginning in junior high. Now there's a proposition that suggests a vast number of possibilities—one, that said learned person must be pretty well wrapped up in his work himself.

Can't you just hear the thunder of size 11 shoes across the floor when Junior breaks out a fifth from his book satchel and says, "Hey, Pop, how about helping me with my home work?"

And then there would be the teacher who presented his credentials, BA, MA, and BT-Bachelor, Master and Bar Tend-

Yes sir. If that little practice is ever taken up, there's going to be a big rush to get adult education classes in a lot of schools where the subject is now passe.

I'a say that snowball's chances were at least a hundred precent better than the chances of adoption of this fellows proposition.

IT FIGURES-I THINK-

In the last week we have heard and seen figures on budgets that defy understanding with most of us. When a government head says that they are going to spend eight point ought three billion dollars on this or that program, about all most of us get out of such a figure is the point. All we know is that that's a great big heck of a lot of bills.

I don't know how many billions point so much they plan to spend on the moon program this year but one chap has broken it down to something we can all understand. He says that it will cost 20 cents for every man, woman and child in America.

Having always been more or less a Buck Rogers fan. I have felt that the exploration of space is worthwhile. The vast amounts of money needed have, however, given me moments of doubt that it is worth the effort. But when the calculators can put it on a basis of 20 cents per year, I believe that I'm willing to take a couple of bucks worth just to see if they can get the rocket off the ground.

And there might be a reduction in finger nail biting if all budgets were reduced to costper-person figures instead of billions point millions. At least we could then understand better the cost.

After all, private enterprise has more than just a little luck with the theme of nothing down and only $2.98 a week. And then, you can always find a deal that will save you $900 on a new car.

HINTS for the HOMEMAKER

By Mrs. Louie S. Jeffers, County Home Demo. Agent

WHEN WATER IS OVER 10 GRAINS HARD-

Ten homemakers in the Midkiff area brought samples of water to the Laundry Demonstration, Friday, January 14. All the samples tested 15 grains or more hard. Mrs. T. O. Midkiff had the lowest count, fifteen grains. Mrs. Gene Braden and Mrs. Charles Flanagan have water with oil seepage. This condition makes it difficult and often impossible to use for laundry.

Enough is enough. Mrs. Midkiff found that measuring detergent to the amount of water being used and to the degree and kind of soil would give better results.

"Leaving soap or detergent in clothes makes them ideal dust cloths," the agent told the mem-

A load of clothes that had been washed and dried in her regular laundry was used as a demonstration on conditioning.

The recipe for conditioning is: 1 cup of calgon

1 tub of hot water Load of pre-washed clothes

Run full cycle.

If detergent is left in the laundry, the suds will form. If not the hot wash will stay clear.

In no demonstration in either county has the agent found no

Conditioning clothes may remove grey, dull stains, yellow stains, stiffness and harshness from fabrics.

Work out your own recipe and stay with it.

For help on laundry problems call or come by to see your Home Demonstration Agent.

Horehound is growing vigorously on many ranches this time of the year, reminds county agent Dub Day.

Horehound is a noxious plant on sheep and goat ranches. The burs cling to wool and mohair with the result that buyers pay a lower price for the products.

One of the most successful methods of control is repeated treatment using solutions of 2,4-D or 2,4-%-T applied with a hand gun or with a broadcast, boomless nozzle, the agent states.

Spraying should not be done when the day temperature is less than 40 degrees. A light frost will burn the terminal growth, but after a few warm days, the plant will begin growing and spraying can be continued. Spraying needs to be done before the plants begin to mature seed. Several spray-

Exciting news from FRIGIDAIRE

*ELECTRI-CLEAN OVEN!

- Q. What happens to the dirt?
- A. The Electri-clean oven heats up to about 900°. At this temperature oven soil is turned into a locse ash and vapor. The vapor is vented thru a special air purifier.
- Q. How can it clean the racks & drip bowls? A Frigidaire uses a special heat-resistant porcelain enamel for both the oven lines and cooking unit drip bowls. The racks get cleaned right along with the rest of the oven.
- Q. Is there any hand cleaning left to do?
- A. Possibly there will be a small amount of loose ash that may remain after cleaning. This can be whisked out easily.
- Q. What about safety features?
- A. As soon as the temperature rises above broiling heat, oven double-locks itself. It can not be re-opened until the temperature returns to conventional oven heat. Frigidaire uses extra insulation and its electrical system and high heat process are UL approved.
- Q. How expensive is it to operate?
- A. This full-size oven cleans itself for about the price of a cup of coffee-much less than the cleaning cost of special chemical oven cleaners.

This unique Frigidaire Range may seem too good to be true. But, true it is and you may see it at your nearest WTU showroom.

News of Servicemen

News was available on several local servicemen this week. Chas. (Tadpole) Hale was on his way this week for a new assignment in Maryland. Previously, he had been at Ft. Polk, La. and was in Rankin for the past several days on leave.

A3C Charlie Shockley was to arrive Wendesday in Saln Angelo from Bolixie, Miss. He has been assigned to Goodfellow Air Base for further training. He is in a code department of secur-at 2406 Shell Street in Madland with their children Gene. 6: Sandra, 4 and Steven, 2. They are members of the Presbyterian Church.

"My stand is and always has been for sensible and economical government, local, state and national, with primary controls at the local level," said Senator Snelson. "In this connection it is vitally necessary that states responsibilities be teamed with states rights; we must actively and courageously face up to the problems which confront our rapidly growing state."

Pvt. Robert Browning has recently completed a course of training in Virginia and expects to be sent to Korea. Another Rankin soldier, Teddy Johnson, is said to be in Virginia. They are with missile groups.

Pvt. Eddie Houchins recently arrived in Okanawa. He reports the facilities there as excellant. He is with a truck company.
