Qualified Voters in Upton County Head Toward 2250 Mark

With still some eight hours to go, voter registration had reached a total of 2,006 at 8:00 a.m. Wednesday morning in Upton County, according to the office of H. E. "Gene" Eckols, Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector. Of this total, 893 had been counted at the courthouse in Rankin and 1,113 at the sub-station in McCamey.

Certificates were to be issued at both the Courthouse in Rankin and at the McCamey sub-station until 5:00 p.m. Wednesday.

Estimates of the number of eligible voters in the county who would register had ranged all the way from 2000 to 2550. Mrs. Edith Windham, chief office deputy in the Tax Assessor's office, estimated that between 200 and 250 more would take out their "rights to vote" on Wednesday—that last day for registration—putting the final county-wide voting strength at about 2250.

Interest on a local level picked up some this week with the announcement by Mr. E. W. Love that he would contest with Commissioner H. Wheeler for that seat. Only one county-wide race has developed thus far with Monday, February 5, being the last day for candidates to file for a place on the ballot.

First voting will be in the city, school and hospital district elections on April 6. The City Council, School Board and Hospital Board of Directors are expected to officially call their respective elections at their February meetings early this month.

Local Telethon will be on February 22nd--

DORSEY B. HARDEMAN ASKING FOR RE-ELECTION AS STATE SENATOR

DORSEY B. HARDEMAN

... asks re-election

State Senator Dorsey B. Hardeaman of San Angelo, whose four-year elective term won in 1966 was shrunk to two years by statewide legislative redistricting, expectedly announced today his candidacy in the 25th Senatorial District for a full four-year term.

"I am deeply grateful to the people of the 21-county district for electing me in 1966 to a four-year term and respectfully ask their continued support," Hardeman said. He was one of 15 senators who drew a two-year term following senatorial redistricting which was done in state compliance with the "one man, one vote" decision of the United Supreme Court. Election this year will give Senator Hardeaman a full four-year term.

Hardeman said he will counsel, as he is accustomed to do, with the people throughout the district before the Democratic commentators for the same reason and also because he was born an Englishman.

"He would be opposed by the Methodist Board of Prohibition, the Southern Baptist, the Lutheran Synod and the Women's Temperance Union because he believed in life, in liberty and in the pursuit of happiness, and kept the best wine cellar in Virginia. He would be opposed by the Catholic Church because he was a mason. He would be opposed by the NAACP, the Lulac, PACO, and the Civil Liberties Union along with all the other various minority groups because he owned slaves.

"He would be opposed by the communists, the socialists and other left wing groups because he was an aristocrat and a capitalist. He would be opposed by the United Nations and other International organizations because he warned of entangling foreign alliances. He would be opposed by all the right wing organizations and the isolationists because he entered into a treaty of alliance with France and welcomed LaFayette and other foreigners as allies. He would be opposed by the war on poverty and the big government spenders because he believed in rugged individualism. He would be opposed by the capitalists and the aristocrats because he believed in the rights of the common man.

"And finally, if George Washington was alive today, he would be opposed by the Soil Conservation Service, the National Park Service, the Sportsman's Club, the various Wildlife Organizations and the Amalgamated Fruit Growers of America . . . because he cut down the cherry tree."

So said Gene Hendryx, a man who has a way of putting things in their true light.

And considering all the above, I wonder what party George would belong to today? Certainly not the Democratic—and that would put him out of the reach of the "straight party ticket" people. Not the Republicans because he wasn't much of a "me too" man.

About all that leaves is Geor.

February programs of the club are in memoriam of Mrs. C. A. Shaffer, long-time member of the organization, who passed away a year ago last February.

Rankin Study Club lists a club roster of twenty-four, two associate members, two guest members and one honorary member.

ge Wallace's party—whatever it is. At least, they are both named George.

And in light of all this—saying that George Washington was alive today and had not established himself as a patriot—would you vote for him for public office?

Having been raised in a society that is desperately afraid of "rocking the boat", I doubt that I would.

Times do change—not only things but people and their outlooks.

personnel, as well as necessary to protect the investment the state now has in their training and experience." He will continue to work for the establishment of Permian State College and for the creation of dental and medical schools in the West Texas area. He was successful in passage of the bill providing for a Regional College District for the Permian area.

"I am disturbed by the threat to the security of our homelife and streets by increasing crime," Hardeman said. "We must tighten the halter on professional criminals and those who advocate violence in our streets." The expansion of Mental Health and Mental Retardation programs also have been of great interest to Hardeman. He said he considers water development and public health projects of air and water pollution among essential developments necessary for the state's economic growth and well being.

"It is clear that we must continue to support improvements in these areas and in promotion of tourism which," the Senator said, "has become a billion dollar a year industry in Texas. I feel development of park areas, and recreational facilities, together with restoration of forts and historical sites, are highly important to a successful tourism program."

Hardeman said he will continue the principles of government which have guided him as a lawmaker.

"To give people the services they need and require at the least possible cost; and to operate the government economically and efficiently."

State Senator Hardeman is an honorary member of the Texas State Historical Association. He was accorded this high honor in recognition of outstanding service rendered to Texas, which is the highest honor the Association bestows. He also has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal by the Texas Heritage Foundation in recognition of "Distinguished Meritorious Public Service in Preserving the Texas Heritage."

Senator Hardeman is a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Republic of Texas, Order of the Knights of San Jacinto, Sons of Confederate Veterans, American Legion and Elks Lodge. Hardeman served as Mayor of San Angelo after which he was elected to the House of Representatives three times. He resigned following his re-election in 1942 and volunteered as a private in the U.S. Air Force. Upon graduation from Officer Candidate School, he was commissioned in the Judge Advocate General's Department and assigned to the Second Air Force in WW II. He was honorably discharged with the rank of Captain in 1946, after which he re-entered politics and was elected

Rankin Speech Class Scores in Midland

Rankin was well represented by five high school speech students last week-end in Midland. All five placed high in the "big time" event which saw Rankin as the only Class A school entered in a field composed of Amarillo High, Amarillo Caprock, Odessa High, Lubbock High, La Mesa High, Dimmit High, Snyder High and other large enrollment schools.

Placings for the local students were as follows:

Rhonda Sproul, second in poetry reading.

Kyle Adams, reached finals in informative speaking.

Joyce Scott reached finals in informative speaking.

Roy Lee Stacy reached finals in poetry.

Peggy McBee reached semi-finals in persuasive speaking.

For the past number of years, Rankin High School has been a strong contender in the literary field with the speech department having a record of wins all the way to state championships.

"Although it's a long way off at this time, we're looking forward to seeing all five of these students in state competition this year," said A. C. Copeland, principal of Rankin High School.

ABC Play Made into Two-day Event

Six teams found the weather

the ABC play at Rankin Golf of Dub Day, Bryan Edmiston and J. B. Hutchens. Tied at one-

 The Brown, Cranfill and Nichol-

On Sunday afternoon, with the weather still holding clear, six two-man teams again competed with Day and Hutchens at three

 Brown and Cranfill, Nicholson

The goal of Texas Farm Bureau members in forming their own insurance companies was to provide members with the best insurance available, at the lowest possible cost. This is still true today and now members have all lines of insurance available from their own companies.

The job of providing this service is big today. The people necessary to keep pace with Farm Bureau growth are increasing. The companies now have 41 men around the state to handle the claims of members. As agriculture changed, it became important to have trained specialists to oversee some of the complex insurance needs of members, we have added 13 Field Underwriters to do this.

The Agency force, full time dedicated men who contact members about their insurance needs, has grown also.
 These 20 years have seen this group increase from 11 to 275.

 bership organization dedicated to pre-

MONEY MANAGEMENT—

Income is a family affair. Unless all members work together for making the best of the income, some members in their selfishness will be cheating the other members of their fair share.

There are many financial obligations a family has to meet on a regular basis. Some of them, like taxes and payments for insurance are almost as basic as food, clothing, and shelter in the complex world of ours. Others, like personal allowances or savings for a vacation, may allow more room for maneuvering.

In any case, most families have learned—or should learn—that a system is needed to govern family money in order to keep from "going overboard" in any one spending category; whether it be clothing or anything else, at the expense of others. A good money management plan will provide just such a system by helping the family keep a close check on fixed expenses and to determine how large the food allowance should be every month, how much may reasonably be allocated for clothes or personal allowances, and so on.

Do you live on what you make? If you are open to ideas and suggestions, you might be interested in a Management Correspondence Course. It will be six lessons on the different phases of management. There will be a charge of $1 to cover your reference materials.

Interested? Write Mrs. Lou Jeffers, CHDA, P. O. Box 86, Rankin, Texas 79778. Give your name, mailing address, and enclose your enrollment fee. You will receive your correspondence course on Mondays, beginning February 19, March 4, March 18, April 1, April 15 and April 29.

General Motors unveiled to HemisFair officials a model of the building which will house scientific and educational exhibits, plus latest automotive safety devices, at the San Antonio HemisFair '68. The modern design retains the architectural flavor found in the Southwest. It will be constructed of quartz stucco and plywood with painted battens above the stucco, mounted on steel framework. Tinted glass will frame the entrance and exits and the entire building will be air conditioned. The grounds surrounding the exhibit building will have three planting areas with architectural block parapet illuminated with ground lighting. At the entrance will fly the American flag, the HemisFair flag and the Texas State flag. The structure will have more than 8,600 square feet of exhibit and office space and is scheduled to be completed prior to the opening of HemisFair on April 6.

SUBMIT SOIL SAMPLES NOW FOR TESTING

A new crop year is dawning and farmers and home gardeners are busy planning for the new season. Foremost in these plans should be soil testing.

Soil samples can presently be processed and reports returned within one week after receipt.

In planning a program of fertilizer use two factors are of utmost importance. These are the present fertility level of the soil and the desired or expected yield.

A soil test is the best way to determine the soil's present fertility level. Such a test shows the levels of major plant nutrients to produce the desired yield in line with water and general management practices.

Soil testing is especially important in determining the need for phosphate. Here is where the soil test can save you money. If phosphate is needed, it should, by all means, be used. However, if it is not needed, a substantial saving in production costs can be made by leaving it off.
