A Chevy II wagon looks this big when you load it up and this big when you gas it up

That, in the eyes of most Chevy II wagon
 owners, is just about the size of it.
 A king-size appetite for cargo. But a dainty one for gas. And this, we hardly need add, is just the kind of wagon we planned it to be.
 Taut and trim as it is on the outside, we went to great lengths to keep it BIG where a wagon should be BIG. The load platform extends a full nine feet from the back of the front seat to the tip of the lowered tailgate.

And for all the pepper we packed into that 6-cylinder engine (there's also a choice of an even thrifter 4 in most models), we were careful to keep it simple, easy to service—
 and a real stickler on economy.
 Feel in a traveling mood? Well—happy coincidence—this is the time of year your Chevrolet dealer feels in his most generous trading mood. Looks like it's high time you two got together.

NEWS ITEMS FROM PUTNAM

FIRST & SECOND GRADES
We have been working very hard the last few days of school. We have been working many problems in numbers, spelling many words and reading many stories. Some students have read new stories to our class. Carolyn Johnson had guests over the week end, Mary Bennett.

Tim Ferguson visited his grandparents over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ivey in Baird. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson in Eula.

Jerry Foster had quite an experience last week with a calf, but we are glad he wasn't hurt seriously.

Linda and Brenda Nettles had guests over the week end, the Floyds from Big Spring. We were very proud of Buddy Waddell for his splendid music both at the audition and in Mrs.

Waddell's recital. We enjoyed his songs, too.

Buddy Waddell visited his Aunt Ora Clinton Sunday. We hope she soon feels better.

Ivan Hurley told our class that his brother got a nail in his boot. We hope he soon feels a lot better.

THIRD & FOURTH GRADES

Roy Foster's aunt, Mrs. Lillie Belle Day and daughter, Jerreanna from San Antonio visited here recently.

Last week our class went to Baird to visit the Callahan Co. Library and Museum, where Mrs. Rosa Ryan graciously showed us all the items of interest. We also were taken on a complete tour of the jail and courthouse by Sheriff Price, and we appreciate the courtesy of Mrs. Ryan and Mr. Price very much. On the way home we stopped at the Ivey Packing Plant where Mr. Poin-dexter conducted a tour. We all had a very good time seeing everything.
