Country Club Loan Hits Snag with Federal Agency

Continuing their year old battle with beaucratic red tape, Rankin Country Club this week called a meeting of all its members for 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 1 to discuss the latest requests from Farm Home Administration concerning the club's application for a $75,000 loan from the Federal agency.

Last Tuesday Mr. Bob Edwards, county supervisor for the FHA was in Rankin with proposals received this week from the head office of FHA in Temple. This request involves adoption of a new set of by-laws by the club and deletion of two paragraphs from the current lease between Rankin Country Club, Inc. and Upton County covering a major portion of the property on which the golf course is located. This marks the third time that the FHA has requested a change in the lease agreement.

Feeling among club members is somewhat mixed in the current situation. Several times before, the FHA has indicated that all necessary requirements had been met by the local organization, only to return at a later date requesting still further paper work. This has led some to feel that these tactics are purely a stalling procedure on the part of FHA and that they are reluctant to make the loan.

Others point to the fact that the same agency has already approved a loan to a Stanton group for a country club, in approximately twice the amount requested by Rankin and that, eventually, the loan will be approved.

Those who are becoming somewhat disenchanted with the FHA are of the opinion that the club should proceed with their planned improvement program without the assistance of the Federal money.

Cards notifying the membership of the Tuesday meeting are to be mailed later this week and a definite decision is expected to be reached at that time on how the club will proceed from this point.

Sunday Roping set at Dub Day Arena

Rankin will again host a team-tying roping event, Sunday, March 30. Starting time will be at 1:00 p.m. at the Dub Day Arena with Rankin Lions Club sponsoring the event.

Admission price is 75-cents for adults and children under 12 admitted free. The Lions will also be operating the concessions.

The roping will feature a two-steer average with two go-rounds. Following the regular team tying, a possible jackpot roping may be held.

In their last roping affair, held last month, Rankin hosted a good selection of some top talent and attendance was reported to have been satisfactory.

VICK IS BIG GUN AS DEVILS WIN IN COAHOMA RELAYS

Jim Vick was the high point getter for the Rankin Red Devils as they won the Coahoma track-meet last week with a total of 114 points. Vick, a sophomore in RHS, placed first in the high jump and the high hurdles and had a second in pole vault and intermediate hurdles.

Close on his heels was the speedy junior, Booker T. Dixon. Dixon had firsts in the long jump and the 100-yard dash, and a second in the 220 dash.

John Kidd, the heavy on the local squad, posted seconds in the shot put and the discus while teammate Billy Bearden was third in the discus.

Other point-getters for Rankin included the 440 relay team which finished second and is composed of Sproul, Vivk, Dixon and Holder. Dwayne Holder who had 4th in the 220 and 100 yard dash, and Bill Routh, a 4th in the shot put. Other teams entered included Lubbock Cooper, Big Spring Junior Varsity, Roscoe, Coahoma, Plains, Seagraves, O'Donnell and Wink. They finished in the order listed above behind Rankin.

Friday and Saturday, March 28 and 29, the Rankin squad will be in San Angelo for one of the biggest field and track events in West Texas.

Philip West Makes Statement on Race

Philip West, 28 year old candidate for a seat on the proposed five-man city council, told the News this week that he is making an active campaign, both in his own behalf and to encourage voters to support the Aldermanic change in city government. West is seeking a one-year term as alderman.

A resident of Rankin for almost three years, he and his wife and two children moved into Rankin from the Union Texas Petroleum plant where he is employed. They are active in the First Baptist Church and Mr. West is Scoutmaster of Troop 56 in Rankin.

"I am seeking this office purely in the hopes that I can be of some assistance in making a better Rankin," West told the News.

"I definitely feel that the new five-man city council could help bring more people into an active interest in civic improvements and cooperation in these efforts," he stated.

Country Club Plans Sunday Dinner

Members and invited guests of Rankin Country Club are reminded of game night each Friday at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse. Prizes are given to winners in forty-two, bridge and other amusement games.

On Sunday at 12:30 p.m., the members and their guests will have a covered dish dinner. Each member is to bring a dish and the silverware for the people in his company.

Absentee Voting Slows in Elections

After an opening burst of activity, absentee voting in the upcoming city, school and hospital district elections has dropped off. Deadline for absentee voting in the April 5 election is next Tuesday, April 1.

Rankin Schools have reported a total of 28 absentee votes cast as of Wednesday morning while the City had had nineteen.

Somewhat left out of the action has been the Rankin Hospital's election of board officers—all unopposed. No absentee votes had been cast up until Wednesday.

All absentee voting must be done during regular office hours at the three respective polling places.

Interest in the school board election continued to increase this week—as indicated by the absentee vote—and the placing of advertisements on behalf of T. J. Kendrick, a write-in candidate who would appear to have good support in an effort that is considered to be difficult.

"We find many people who are favorable toward Mr. Kendrick's write-in race," said one of his supporters this week, "and we are hopeful that others will join us in our support for a man we believe to be well qualified to hold a seat on the board."

WARDELL HALLIBURTON of Roby will be the evangelist of a Gospel Meeting series starting on April 14 at Northside Church of Christ in Rankin. Services are to be held twice daily through April 20. Halliburton is a former pastor of a Big Lake Church of Christ.

THE GOOD LIFE—

As old folk go, The Scoop isn't exactly in the gray hair league—and yet—looking back over forty-plus years, it seems that I've been knocking around for a goodly time. Perhaps it has something to do with my birthdate that put me into this world when it was in the process of making its gratest changes in the shortest period of time since the serpent hissed into Eve's ear.

I can well recall riding in a wagon to make the Saturday trip to town, and in that same wagon, my dad pulled over in the bar ditch and outran a Modle T Ford flat out. That may well have been the first drag race.

I recall the first time an aircraft came over our area—they were said to be looking for bootleggers—and we all stood in the yard and wondered whether or not it had propellers.

A Sunday evening could be spent at one of the more well-to-do neighbors who could afford a phonograph—with the big horn attached—and the first radio in Levelland drew a crowd in off the street to listen—somewhere in all the stattie—to a baseball game.

I recall moving day in a wagon and—this you may not believe, I have rode in round-ups, ate at chuck wagons and slept on the ground — all in the span of about forty years.

Now, it's his and her cars and you can jet to California before you leave Midland, — considering the time change. Nobody walks to the corner of the street and black and white tv is fast becoming old fashioned.

In fact, it's getting to the point where I believe each member of a family will have to have his own tv set. With three stations and a variety of programs, it is getting harder all the time for me

You see the Governor, along with a good number of others elected to public office in Austin, made a campaign promise to the Texas State Teachers' Association—the strongest union in the state—to get them more money if elected.

I don't particularly blame the teachers—I'd like to find some way to raise my own wages—but I don't think too much of the good Governor making all the rest of us pitch in and help him pay off his campaign promises. Naturally he has an eye out toward getting re-elected and being a first-time governor, you can bet that he's going to insist that we put something in the pot.

The big thing that hacks me is that I voted for the Republican—whichever he was.

AN ORIGINAL—

Spring has sprung
And robins sing;
Flowers bloom
And trees are green . . .
Then how come I'm sitting here shivering?

QUESTION—

Does it or does it not seem just a wee mite fishy that Cassius Clay can go about the country speaking at state supported colleges when he is a convicted draft dodger who has yet to serve his first day in either the army or jail?

Can't you just imagine how long any boy from Rankin would have lasted running around free who had refused induction into the armed forces? It would seem that—contrary to what a lot of people are saying, race doesn't make much difference in the U.S. If you've got a million bucks you can just about buy your way to anywhere — regardless of race, color or creed.

Clarification --

Information received by the News last week concerning the death of Rev. Joe Bickley may have been misleading by not stating the burial site.

The former Rankin minister was laid to rest in Iraan where he had resided for a number of year following his retirement from the ministry.

REPORT FROM AUSTIN

BY GEORGE BAKER
State Rep., 66th District

Major actions in the House this week included passage of the "Torts Claim" act, another "law and order" bill, and a comprehensive reform program for the liquor control laws.

The "Torts Claim" act does away with a long-held premise of law commonly called sovereign immunity. It goes back many centuries to original English law which held that the monarch, or sovereign, could do no wrong, and that no subject had the right to claim damages based on an act of the sovereign or his representatives.

It has carried forward to this day, requiring that before any citizen can bring a suit against the state—even for damages caused by negligence of an agent of the state—he must obtain legislative consent before bringing suit.

I agree with the theory of the bill—that the rights of a citizen in our society of free men are more important than the immu-ity of the state to careless action. However, the limits provided in the upper levels of liability insurance were so great that I voted against the bill.

The high insurance coverage provided is an invitation to any plaintiff to sue for the top dollar. In time this will lead to a feeling on the part of many people that any damage suit against a taxing agency is a $100,000 to $300,000 matter.

It is true that a school, city, school district, water district, hospital district or other municipality can carry the maximum coverage for only a little more cost than a lower limit liability policy, but not all municipalities will keep insurance in force at all times, and eventually some may have trouble buying insurance as a result of judgments and costs of claims. Then there may be real problems in payment of claims.

Had the limits been kept to $25,000 for one accident and $50,000 for a multiple accident, I would have voted for the bill.

The liquor reform bill had support from widely divergent positions on the question of beverages and consumption. It tightens the requirement and qualifications of license holders of a beverage dealer permit, ups penalties for violations, and simplifies some of the requirements presently prohibiting persons under 18 from even sacking or carrying sealed bottles or cartons of wine or beer in a supermarket.

Much of next week's action will be devoted to hearings on major school bills — HB 300 by Hale, which tracks the plan of the Governor's Study Committee on Public Schools and HB 240 by Hinson, which would carry out many of its idea in increasing pay for the teachers and providing better support for schools, but would do it under the present machinery of the school foundation programs.

The Hinson bill does not require enforced consolidation, and does not require centralized tax assessment at market value on real property.

The Hale bill likely will be modified, it was indicated Thursday to this writer and another house member, Joe Hubenak of Rosenberg, by Mr. Hale himself, who said he felt that an amendment would have to be accepted on this point.

Regardless of the fact that the original proposals of the Governor's committee have been modified, there are certain to be near capacity crowds on hand next week for the hearings.

Chairman George Hinson promises that the education committee will provide ample time for hearing both supporters and opponents of either bill, with both afternoon and night sessions likely on Tuesday.

One of the five committees on which I serve—Conservation and Reclamation—is expected to have an extremely busy week, with more than 30 bills scheduled for hearing, and a double session ordered for both Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Bug Time --

By the time you read this article you may or may not have any fruit left on your trees. However, if you check and find some little peaches or fruit in the bloom, now is the time to start your insect control program.

When about 75 percent of the petals have fallen off the bloom, a spray with the following insecticides would be in order to spray on the trees. In 3 gallons of water put the following: 3 tablespoons of 50 percent DDT wettable powder and 9 tablespoons of wettable sulfur. Then 10 days after petals fall, use the same spray.

Then a month later use 1 1/2 tablespoons of 80 percent Sevin and the same amount of sulfur as in the first spray. This simple spray will take care of most of the insects that effect fruit. The sulfur will stop scab and brown rot. If you do not start early you will have no success on controlling scab and brown rot of peaches and other scab susceptible fruit.

For the control of aphids and red spider on your rose bushes, now is the time to work Dy-syston into the ground around the rose bushes at the rate of 2 lbs. per 100 sq. feet of ground area. The results of this systemic insecticide is also cleared for aphids on pecan trees, but must be put around trees at least 80 days before harvest of the pecans. Always follow directions on the package of any insecticide and don't use more than the directions call for.

We have leaflets in the office on controlling insects and diseases of all plants. If you can't come by the office, drop us a line and we will be happy to mail you one.

Golf Team to El Paso for District Play

Kicking off the spring UIL Literary and Field meets, the Rankin High School golf team will head west for El Paso this week end for a one-shot chance at winning the district championship in their event. District 7-A is one of the few districts in this area that has only a one-time palying of their golf championship and quite often, the host team has a decided advantage. In this instance Clint, near El Paso, will be the host team with matches to be played at Horizon City Country Club.

The RHS linksters have been in training for about two months and hold a win over the McCamey club, a loss at a Big Lake affair and finished a strong third behind Class AA Crane and Class AAA Monahans in an Iraan meet that saw Rankin outclass the District's defending champions, the Iraan Braves.

The Red Devil linksters have also played practice rounds at O-zona and the Chandler Guest Ranch course.

Coach Bill Anderson will take six of his golfers, leaving Rankin at 6:00 a.m. Thursday in order to arrive in El Paso in time for a practice round before the Friday tournament. Probable line-up will be No. 1, Dean Titsworth; No. 2, Lester Titsworth; No. 3, Jimmy Weatherbee; No. 4, Bub Sullivan; No. 5, Dwayne Holder. Playing for medalist will be Biff Yo-cham.

Library Notes

Quite often, area news is much more interesting and certainly more timely than any other.

With that in mind, we subscribe to the San Angelo Standard Times, the Rankin News, the McCamey News and the Big Lake Wildcat. We keep the last two months of the Standard Times, and the others are kept for two years.

Keep this in mind if you need to refer back to any local happening.

Legion Holds Joint Meeting March 24

The American Legion and Auxiliary held a joint meeting Monday night at the Legion Hall in McCamey and were honored by a visit from the District 16 Commander and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Austin White of Midland.

Commander Larry Bowen called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. White who spoke to the gathering on the constitution and by-laws of the Legion. Following his address, Bowen presided at a question and answer session.

Following a lengthy discussion, the group voted on a motion that carried by a two-thirds vote.

Mrs. Frank Knox and Mrs. Garland Smith were hostesses at a refreshment hour that followed the session.
