Opinions Mixed Over City Trash Order

...have done this long... a good thing... first... represent only a... many overheard last... the city council's... ordinance requiring... trash can with lid and... back to put it on... have indicated... comply with the... that it is a worth-... ward improvement of... in the city. On the... there are those who... they will not go a-... they will haul their own trash, some saying a few choice words that are not printable. Only a very few apparently were not aware immediately of the new move.

Principal objection seems to be that the 31-gallon can will not be big enough to handle trash of an average family; however, one city alderman has pointed out that the ordinance does not limit the number of cans a family may use. Two of the 31-gallon cans would have greater capacity than one of the oil drums in use now by most residents.

Several local business firms have indicated that they will stock the required cans and at least one plans to have racks for sale. The prices for metal cans will probably be between $4 and $5.

A check of the residential area Wednesday morning showed that some have already taken steps to meet the requirements of the new ordinance which requires that the new cans be in place by

Junior Partnership Here on May 10th

A Junior Partnership low ball golf tournament will be held at the Rankin Country Club Saturday, May 10. Tee-off time is 9:00 a. m. with high school students playing 27 holes.

One flight will be made up of boys 12 years old and under playing 18 holes of golf.

Entrance fee is $5 per team. Trophies will be awarded to each winner of a team, as well as each runner-up winner in all flights.

Entries may be mailed to the Rankin Country Club or phoned in at 693-2834.

In Junior Tournaments held last year, Rankin drew some of the top young players in this area. Spectators are invited to watch the proceedings.

District 6 and 7 Contestants Here Saturday

Rankin Hosting 4-H Group

Even with the Red Devil Band on an excursion to Enid, Oklahoma, Rankin won't be short of teenagers over the week - end—due to the gathering of some 125 4-H Club members from Districts 6 and 7 who will be here for a Horse Judging Contest, Saturday, May 3. Judging will be held at the Dub Day 4-H Arena in Rankin.

One Junior Horse Judging team and one Senior team from each of the 22 counties in Extension District 6 which runs from Del Rio to Andrews and Big Lake to El Paso will participate. Also, 4-H teams from District 7 with headquarters in San Angelo, will join to decide their winners for the state contest.

Les McFadden will be in charge of helping with the contest, along with District Agents Ray Siegmund from Fort Stockton, and Roy Huckabee from San Angelo.

This will not be a horse show as such, but it will be run on a similar basis with four animals in each class. These animals will be judged by 4-H members at the arena and oral reasons will be given on two classes when the contestants appear before a judging panel that will sit in the commissioners courtroom at the Upton Courthouse.

This will mark the first time that Rankin has been the host to a contest of this size and nature. The public is invited to watch the proceedings.

Hospital Planning Conference Room

At their next regular meeting May 8, the Board of Directors of Rankin Hospital will open bids on a 600 square foot addition to the facilities of the hospital. The new expansion will be in the form of a conference room to be used for staff meetings, board meetings, tax hearings, voting and other meetings of the board that require the gathering of a number of persons at one time.

Presently, the board meets in the kitchen dining room, approximately a 10 by 10-foot space requiring close order drill just to get into. Elections are held in the lobby and tax meetings are moved to the courthouse.

The addition will be paid for out of funds on hand and no new money will be needed in the form of taxes or bonds.

When completed, the structure, to be erected on the northwest side of the hospital, will contain a conference table and seating capacity for approximately 30 persons.

New Sea Scouts

Formed in Rankin

Something new has been added to the Scouting program in Rankin. In a meeting held last week, a Ship was formed in a Sea Scout program here. A "ship" in Sea Scouting is equal to an Explorer Post in Boy Scouts.

For boys 14-18 years old, the Ship is skippered by Roy Dirickson and is sponsored by the Rankin School Board. Jim Vick was elected Bosin—or president—at the organizational meeting. Bob Parham is Yoeman, J. C. Surber is ship committee chairman and H. G. Adams is institutional rep.

STEADY—

From some of the angles heard about the coffee shops, one might be led to think that the City Council had just passed another crazy law when they moved to install some sort of order in the most hot situation in Rankin.

Suddenly, some of those who were gathering the audience for a change in city hall so that "we can get something done" aren't so hot in something as they once were. It seems reminds me of the conservative attitude of some about federal give-away programs—they ought to be cut off but not immediately else not one.

So what's all the fuss about? The council is requiring the installation of a thirty-gallon trash can with lid. They don't say you have to have more than one; they don't say you have to build a stand for it—that's only a suggestion.

So what does a 30-gallon—incidentally, they're 30-gallon size—trash can cost? One local retailer says he expects to sell a metal one for less than $6. You can get plastic ones for less—or I guess you could build your own in any case. It's no big expense.

Now for the stand—and if you want to hang onto your car you had better get something to hold it down when the sea breeze rolls in West Texas—there again you can get by pretty easy as you can get first class. In fact, I have figured out a standard one can be for the small family two cans for the average and three or more for prestige.

Getting back to the rack, make a study and it cost me exactly two hours labor—no money due to a little scrounging. But you say you don't want to put out even that much work. Well, now at it this way . . . working around the house is about the only kind of labor you can do and not be tired of it.

friends and influence people but to do some good along the civic improvement line.

TURNOVER—

The thought comes to mind that if American politicians stepped out of office everytime they failed to get a vote of confidence from the public—as they do in France—some of the seats would look more like a game of musical chairs than anything else.

ONE CENT—

Notice is taken of the Republican administration's request to Congress for another penny increase on postage stamps—before we've hardly got the last raise licked. This step is being taken, so tis said, in order to "benefit the economy and the financial condition of the post office department and—get this—to improve postal service."

Now for an old boy who can remember when post cards were a penny, this old tripe about getting the post office out of debt and improving service is getting just a little old. The post office, as it's now run, will never be out of debt nor will service ever get any better—despite the loyal efforts of some employees who are dedicated to the task.

If the rate goes to 7c cents—and there's no reason to thing it won't—some bright, enterprising youngster here in Rankin ought to work himself up a pretty good business delivering statements around town on the first of the month for—say—5c each. I dare say that the right person could pick up some pretty good pocket changt this way.

But just one penny, you say.
"Oh, I don't mail over a dozen letters a month so it wouldn't hurt me any."

That's what you think. Let's look at something I know something about. What did your newspaper subscription cost you ten years ago when postal rates were relatively stable? What does it cost you today? In the case of The Rankin News, the increase has been almost 100 percent—or about the same as the post office rate increases.

Sure, it doesn't cost that much more to mail The News but cost of statements, second and third notices on subscriptions, redemption of return letters, etc. do add up and pretty soon we're in a rate race with you paying more for the same product and me paying it out to the government and the government going deeper in the hole.

And this is a chicken-feed op-

REPORT FROM AUSTIN

BY GEORGE BAKER

State Rep., 66th District

After the heaviest week of legislative output, things slowed in both House and Senate. Last week's big push was to complete work on a group of nine constitutional amendments to be submitted in a special August election, and most considered of emergency nature.

In the current week much of the time for debate in the House was given to two bills—one involving insurance company reorganization, and so complex in its various aspects that it twice has been postponed for further study and amending. It comes up still again on the April 28 calendar.

The other slow-moving bill was passed after lengthy debate and many amendments Tuesday. It would limit and restrict the guessing games and matching games currently in vogue among oil company retailers, good stores and some others.

Admittedly the idea has been run into the ground in many areas, and has served little useful purpose in any overall increase in business. But I voted against it because it is a restriction of free enterprise in business, and will soon run its course anyway. Some other fad in promotion will come along any day to take the spotlight, and we will have areas.

Daylight Saving Time is now the order of the day in Texas.

A vast majority of West Texans are against it—in fact West Texas has had a version of DST for many years because of time zone overlaps. It is so far west that it should have been in Mountain time for many years.

While sentiment runs strongly against DST in most of West Texas—a fact recognized by numerous West Texas Legislators who joined Rep. Doran in sponsoring a bill and a constitutional amendment to keep Texas out of DST. I was among the sponsors, and still hope that it may come up so we can vote on the matter this year. There is strong sentiment for the measure in the cities and in the easter parts of the state, however, and passage will be difficult.

The big highlight of Thursday's proceedings was the lop-sided vote by which the House adopted H.B. 157 in amended form.

It provides that the long-sought upper - level school for the Permian Basin be established as the University of Texas of the Permian Basin.

Final action was an organized tribute to Ace Pickens, Odessa member, and his colleague Dick Slack.

I supported the bill in the belief that it will help to broaden educational opportunities in the Permian Basin counties surrounding Odessa-Midland.

RANKIN HAS TWO WHO FOLLOW UNUSUAL OCCUPATION PARTTIME

Tommy Sheffield

ED: The following item is from the March 27 issue of the Sweetwater Reporter. Sweetwater, Tex as and concerns two Rankin-ites. A picture of Jim Pettit An oil company tells this one a-was not available for presstime.

about a sweet young lady who had inherited stock in the company and attended a stockholders' meeting.
 "Mr. Chairman," she shriped, "one thing has always bothered me.
 When you build a station on a corner, how do you know you will find oil there?"

A disgruntled teacher somewhere in the United States is said to have handed in her resignation with the following statement attached: "In this era of time, our teachers are afraid of the principal, the principal is afraid of the superintendent, the superintendent is afraid of the school board, the board members are afraid of the parents, the parents are afraid of the children, and the children are afraid of nobody."

One of the most dangerous, exciting and critical jobs in rodeo performances is that of the clown.
 During the 1969 Junior Rodeo Jim Pettit and Tommy Sheffield will be facing danger and even possible death, if necessary, in order to save young cowboys from serious injuries when they are thrown or, if lucky, dismount from the Brahma bulls.

It is a well known fact that when a rider is thrown the bull will turn around and run him down. If he gets away with it once, he will again turn and trample a second, or even third time. With well trained clowns in the arena the fallen rider has a chance to get up and escape.

"We don't try to outrun the bulls," a clown will tell you. "you just can't do that." The clown runs between the bull and his victim crossways. In this way it is a little harder for the bull to maneuver.

Ikie Wilson . . . superintendent of the Rodeo, has this to say about the clowns and bulls. "Bulls are raised on milk. I've heard it said that anything raised on milk won't hurt you." Then he grins.
 "But don't you ever believe it!
 If it wasn't for the clowns, we couldn't have Junior Rodeos."

What do you suppose a clown is thinking about when he tries to draw the attention of a mad, 1500 pound bull to himself? You can be sure its not of his makeup or how funny he runs. These things are incidental to clowning. He's luring the bull away from the rider with the idea of getting away himself as soon as possible.
 After it's over, he may become very funny—switching his big britches around or romantically bowing to a pretty girl in the grandstand.

It takes a special talent and an unusual personality to make a successful rodeo clown. He must be agile as an acrobat and serious-minded as a professor one minute, then clumsy and happy funny the next. In Peppy Jim Pettit and Swingy Tommy Sheffield Sweetwater's Junior Rodeo is fortunate to have such spectacle people.

Pettit and Sheffield, both graduates of Rankin High School, are students at Sul Ross College and have established themselves as two of the best clowns in rodeo today. One of them has performed in every major APRA rodeo as well as the 1968 national final in Odessa.
