Shirley Campbell is seeking Upton treasurer's office

On January 6, 1970, Mrs. Shirley Campbell announced her candidacy for the office of County Treasurer of Upton County.

In seeking this office she stated that she feels qualified to hold this office due to the fact she has had 14 years banking experience, several years as assistant cashier, and has been an employee of the City of McCamey Water Department for the past two years as an accounting clerk.

She has been a resident of Upton County for the past 20 years and this is her first time to seek a county office. She has been elected to serve two terms on the City Council of McCamey and has served one term as President of the McCamey Chamber of Commerce. She has also served her community in many different organizations in the past years.

She and Mr. Campbell are parents of two daughters, Joan Shannon of Tittusville, Florida, and Kathy, a student in Junior High School. They are members of the United Methodist Church and Mrs.
Campbell has taught a Sunday school class.

In seeking this office she stated that with her qualifications for the County Treasurer, which requires an accurate record of the receipts and disbursements of the County funds, she will be able to keep the records correctly as they have been kept in the past.
She stated that she is honest, dependable and qualified and seeks your vote and influence.

Lions Barbecue will be in evening --

Upton Stock Show Slated Saturday

With snow flakes falling and a chilling wind from the north at midweek, the weather gave every indication that it would be in its usual grumpy mood for this weekend's annual Upton County 4-H Club Livestock Show.

Held each year in January for the past 18-20 years, the show is generally the victim of wintery weather. However, since the erecting of the bus barn at Rankin Schools and moving the show inside, such things as inclement weather has hardly been noted by the youthful exhibitors and the good crowds they draw each year.

Saturday's show is expected to run according to the usual forecast with the lambs to be in the barn by not later than 1:00 p.m.

Judging will start shortly thereafter and will be completed at about 5:00 p.m. when champions in several classes will be named.
The county show does not have a grand champion or reserve but rather picks winners by classes only.

BARBECUE

At between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. the Rankin Lions Club will serve a barbecue. This is the second year for the barbecue and the success of last year's event has prompted the Lions to make an even bigger push this year. They have acquired a large portable barbecue pit, a more detailed account on it appearing on Page 2, and will be offering barbecued lamb and chicken with all the trimmings.

Price of the meal is $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students.

Bill Sherrill, a popular barbecue chef in Rankin, will be in charge of preparation of the meal.

Following the barbecue, the sale of the show lambs will be held. Exhibitors usually get a good price for their lambs that make the sale and buyers come from a large area to participate.

All show activities are free to the public and all who are interested are invited to attend. Many of the lambs shown in past county shows have gone on to become champions in some of the largest and most renowned livestock shows in Texas.

est and most renowned live-
stock shows in Texas.

With one reserve championship already under their belt for 1970, the Upton Club apparently is again fielding a group of first-class show animals.

Mrs. Lu Gean Carr is candidate for County Treasurer

MRS. LU GEAN CARR

Mrs. Lu Gean Carr announced she is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Upton County.

Mrs. Carr is a member of the First Baptist Church and has been a resident of Upton County 42 years. Married to Jack Carr, they have two sons, Eldene Jack Carr II, a student at San Angelo State, and Paul D. Carr, a junior high student.

In making her announcement, Mrs. Carr said, "I feel I am qualified to handle this office as I have worked for the telephone company 27 years, 23 years as chief operator. In this position, I had experience in payrolls, billing, collecting and working with people. In addition, I have served as bookkeeper for several types of business.

"For the people who do not know me or have doubt as to my qualification, business experience, friendliness — plus faithfulness to assume obligations—I would refer you to any of the people who have known me for any length of time.

"I ask for your vote and solicite your influence on by qualifications and general reputation as a sound citizen and responsible member of the community.

"If elected, you can be assured of friendly and courteous treatment plus energetic attention to the duties of the office."

Brotherhood backs fund raising drive

The Men's Brotherhood of Rankin First Baptist Church has agreed to sponsor this year's fund drive for Muscular Dystrophy in Rankin. Plans for a door-to-door canvass of the town were announced for Monday, January 26, to begin at 7:00 o'clock.

Phillip West, chairman of the effort, also said that posters and containers had been placed in the local business houses. In addition, in the Monday night drive, envelopes will be left with residents in order that they make their contribution in that manner if they wish.

"People seem always willing to give to a good cause and certainly this is a cause worthy of support," the chairman stated.

West also promised that the results of the drive would be made public once it is completed.

Southwestern Bell Manager

WET BACK—

Last Monday I had a wet back looking character come by the office who said he lived in Alpine.

Said that he used to live here in Rankin and that his name was Ed Guy Branch.

Never heard of him. Any of you know anything about somebody by that name who used to live in Rankin?

EXTRAS—

Last week mention was made in this column about getting a little free coffee off the many candidates running this year. As it turns out, pickings could be even better than first expected.

With a number of women in races, I see no reason why we couldn't be able to collect a few cups off their husbands. I caught up with Bert Browning and Chesley Campbell the other day and put the bite on them but they both balked.

Now, what I recommend is that the wives give these boys an "allowance" and then they can join right in the sport. That, or—provided they trust them not to pad the account—reimburse them each day for their "politicking" coffee expense.

BOUQUETS—

A tip of the ole helmet is in order to three Rankin Red Devils for their selection to the All-West Texas Class A football team.

New York has granted a temporary 33% increase to Associated Hospital Services of New York following a court order recinding the approval of a 43% increase by the New York Insurance Department.

Africa in which she put in a plug for her papa, Bill Sherrill, and his race for re-election as J. P. in Precinct No. 1. In addition to being a very nice gesture on Mrs. Stanley's part, it must set some sort of record as being about the longest distance from which an Upton County candidate has ever received support.

By the same token, it's probably the longest distance from which has come a plug to Upton residents to take full advantage of their right to vote. As I recall Mrs. Stanley, she wasn't what you would call an overly dedicated proponent of "get out the vote" when she lived in Rankin. On the contrary, like most of us, she pretty well put such things on a take it or leave it basis.

What a difference it makes when you get far enough away from the forrest to where you can see the beauty of the trees. It's very possible that our voting privileges today never looked more enticing to many in far lands and under such circumstances as Mrs. Stanley speaks of.

It's not time to vote yet — but you have to register first and the end of that time is awfully close. Are you signed up?

FREE STAMPS—

For the past week, we've had a big flap about some chap who says he has millions to give away. Needless to say, he's having no trouble finding plenty of folk ready and willing to do their good deed for the day by taking some of it off his hands.

The only hitch is that while he says he has millions, his banker is saying he has very little spot cash. After having had experience trying to convince bankers that I had a little money in my account which they said I'd already spent, it would be my guess that somebody's getting rubber checks off the young man.

However, the saddest part of it all seems to me to be the way this whole thing has been played up and the way we, the public, have taken after it. Here we have quite obviously either a boy who is mentally off his recliner or who is so hooked on dope that he can't tell what's for real. His every move and word is reported in the press and, saddest of all, he was paraded before the nation on a tv show.

Instead of being treated in a hospital for whatever ails him, he is used as a drawing card to sell newspapers and get people to watch a second-rate tv show. It wouldn't work if we, the readers and viewers, weren't a bit freaked out ourselves to have such a rabid interest in such a sorry situation.

When we look at ourselves as we really are, there seems to be some question as to whether we're truly aiming for the stars, don't you think?

Lions Barbecue to be first-class affair at county lamb show

This year's Lions Club barbecue, to be served beginning at 5:30 Saturday evening at the Upton 4-H Livestock Show, will be prepared on what must be the largest—and most elaborate portable barbecue grill ever seen in West Texas.

"A visit to the bus barn just to see this rig will make it all worth while," said H. G. Adams, Rankin Lion's Club member this week.

Adams borrowed the one-of-its-kind barbecue grill from a friend in Alpine who designed it and has been used to feed up to 1,000 people at a time. Mounted on a four-wheel trailer chassis, the unit is made of heavy tank steel and is fired by butane. Burners are individually controlled by jets and a venting system enables the operator to maintain any desired temperature. Provisions are also made to add wood coal to give the meat the proper barbecued flavor. It is large enough to prepare an entire beef at one cooking.

In addition to the meat-cooking compartments, there is arrangements on the front portion where large pots of beans and coffee can be prepared. The entire operation can be carried out inside a building or it can be used equally well outdoors.

Constructed in such a way that the operator never has to stoop to tend to the cooking fires or the meat, the unit takes much of the tiresome labor out of the task of preparing for large groups plus the added advantage of operating inside during bad weather. Meats prepared with the controlled temperatures are said to be fully as tender as those cooked in home ovens.

A number of local people have visited the bus barn this week to inspect the unit and there is considerable talk about building one for use in barbecue work that is carried out in Rankin from time to time on a community-wide basis.

C.C. retains officers; to plant pecan trees on January 27th

Rankin Country Club held their annual election of officers meeting last Monday night at the club house. Vice-president Red Weatherbee presided in the absence of Dub Day, president, who was out of town.

After the financial report was given by the secretary, Mrs. L. Z. Titsworth, the nomination and voting for officers were held. All were returned to office by unanimous vote.

On the Board of Directors, one seat, a three-year term held by Bert Browning, was up for consideration. Browning was re-elected by acclamation. Other directors are C. E. Winn, Dunn Lowery, Charles Wheeler and David Binkley.

PECAN TREES

The president has issued a call for volunteers on Tuesday, January 27 to assist with planting of the pecan trees. Holes for the trees have already been dug and all that will be needed is assistance in seeing that the trees are properly planted and watered.

Approximately thirty-six pecan trees are to be set out.

A Note from Tripoli . . .

Each week I receive a letter with a closing remark such as: "Well, Sugar, time to hook up the horses to the buck board and drive over to Tuson for supplies," or "guess I'll ride out to the south forty and look things over." Now I know that these little sayings do not mean a thing to you, but to me they are a part of a man with a big smile on his face, and love in his heart for all his fellow men.

To you citizens of Rankin, he has done what he said he would in 1966, and today I read in The Rankin News where he has announced that he will seek a second term of office. For this I am glad. I only wish that he had entered into this field a long time ago.

He has studied his textbooks well, and still does. I have seen him go through book after book trying to find the right answer to a problem. He has given you the very best that he has within himself, and states that he will continue to do so if re-elected.

I will not be with him this year to drink coffee and wait for the returns to come in. To him I say, you have done a fine job, and if the people so wish it, I know that you will continue to do so.

Yes, this is my father, Bill Sherrill, and your Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, of whom I am very proud. And no matter if you vote for him or not, go to those polls and vote. Do not be like the people of this land in which I live and wake up one morning and have a new government with a mountain of new laws of which they know nothing about. Say to yourself, "I AM AN AMERICAN" with the right to have a say who governs my City, County and Country.

Housing Authority has annual meeting

Members of the Housing Authority of the City of Rankin met last Monday for their annual meeting and examined the statement of operating receipts and expenditures for the ten-month period in which the low rent housing program has been carried on in Rankin. Members of the Authority are Travis Bley, chairman, L. Porter Johnson, vice-chairman, Dunn Lowery, Charile Wheeler, and Dean Nicholson, members. J. B. Hutchens is secretary to the Authority.

The statement reviewed was in the form of a report made to the Federal Housing Authority (HUD) and covered operations through December 31, 1969, in which the budgeted amounts as set up at the beginning of operations were compared with actual income and expenditures.

Favorable in most aspects in relation to budgeted amounts, the report showed that $30.08 per unit on the 10-unit project had been expected whereas the actual income had been $32.53 per unit.

Total operating expense had been put at $25.25 per unit and the Authority had actual expenditures of only $20.37 per unit. The only item that ran over the budgeted amount was water where $4 per unit had been anticipated and $4.57 per unit was expended. This was believed to be due to the fact that an entire new landscape system had to be established this past summer.

Net operating receipts had been set at $5.75 per unit in the budget whereas the Authority actually turned in $12.18 net per unit for a profit of $731. Of this amount, the Local Authority is authorized to retain $400 with the balance of $331 going to the Federal Housing program.

Currently, all units at the local project are filled except one, a two-bedroom dwelling.

Rankinite's father buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held at a chapel in Cross Plains at 3:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 20 for Virgil Clyde Walker, father of Ted Walker, Rankin Junior High principal. Full details were not available to The News.

Mr. Walker died Monday. Ted had been in Cross Plains for the past several days prior to his passing.

Superintendent's report included in school board minutes

Minutes of the last meeting of the Rankin School Board include the superintendent's report on operations of the school cafeteria. The report covered a 17-day period and contains the following information:

Income, $3,223.73; expenditures, $2,555.93; balance, $677.90; unpaid bills, $661.84.

Half-pints milk purchased, 6,788, lunches served children, 3,060.

Special lunches served, 997; income, $476.57.

Breakfast: daily average, 60; total served, 1019; income, $291.04; expenditures, $248.32.

Other information contained in the report included the revelation of Extension Classes offered by Sul Ross State University for teachers in Rankin Schools. These classes began January 15 and are held at 7:00 p.m. Some nineteen Rankin teachers are enrolled.

The report also revealed that Rankin Schools have been approved as a G.E.D. (adult education) Test Center. G.E.D. tests for the High School Equivalency Diploma are to be given January 30-31 and will include students from surrounding towns. Rankin has twenty enrolled in the current local program, which is to end January 27.
