IDEAS MADE TO WINNERS IN PREVENTION POSTER CONTEST

★ Rose ★ ROSE ★ West Shankle

presented a $2 check by Omicron Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Each first-place winner in various classes received $1 checks. Winners and runners-up were, 1st Grade: Mike Pruett, Todd Ratliff, Quad Midkiff and Larry Pyeatt; 2nd Grade: Bo Rose,

Little Spookers will be out in Doves --

Annual Hallowe'en Shindig will be Major Attraction on Saturday

Saturday will be spook day in Rankin. On tap is a downtown parade, complete with floats and bunches of goblins, etc., that Good Ole Red Devil Band, the annual Hallowe'en Carnival and, very likely, a little trick or treating. One of two water balloons may get tossed in with the excitement.

Sponsored by the Xi Epsilon Chi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, the parade is to form at the parking lot at the football field. Those who plan to enter floats or otherwise participate in the parade, are requested to be at that location not later than 5:00 p.m. Saturday.

Prizes will be awarded to the best costumed "spooks" and to 1st and 2nd place winners in the float division. These awards will be handed out at the Junior High School where the parade will terminate.

Led by the pride of Rankin High, the Parade will leave the football field area with the band in the lead, cross Highway 67 up Main to Twelfth Street, then West to Upton and North to the Junior High.

Shortly after the termination of the parade, activity will pick up at the School Bus Barn, site of the Hallowe'en Carnival. This event is sponsored by Omicron Tau of Beta Sigma Phi and will offer a wide variety of entertainment for all ages.

Trick or treaters generally use the occasion of the Hallowe'en Carnival to get out and do a bit of door knocking. Motorists are cautioned to drive with care at night over the week-end as some of the small spooks are a bit hard to see and pop up in the dangest places.

Girl Scouts to Hold Hallowe'en Carnival

Girl Scouts of Rankin will sponsor a Hallowe'en Carnival at the Girl Scout House, 1007 Haff Street, Saturday, October 30 from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.

A drawing for a free turkey is to be held at 9 p.m. and the winner must be present in order to receive the award.

A number of games will be offered including musical chairs, a grab bag, bean bag, ring toss, witch's brew, country store, a candle squirt and a sidewalk cafe. All games will be ten cents.

Tickets will be sold at the door and the Girl Scouts are inviting one and all.

Rep. Tom Craddick is Rankin Visitor

State Rep. Tom Craddick of Midland was a visitor in Rankin Tuesday. As things now stand under the redistricting plan announced last week end, Upton County will now be in Craddick's district. Previously, Upton was in the 62nd District and was represented by George Baker of Fort Stockton.

Craddick, 28 years old, was the Representative who filed the law suit against the redistricting plan adopted by the last session of the Texas Legislature. His contention that it was unconstitutional was upheld by the Texas courts.

Although the present plan is also headed for court tests, Rep. Craddick said Tuesday that he did not foresee any changes in the present alignment that puts Upton County in his district. He further stated that he would be a candidate for re-election in 1972 and was making the rounds to get acquainted with his new constituents. (Continued to back page)

Three Ball Games on Tap Tuesday

It will be another three-game series Thursday night for Rankin football fans when they host the Wink Wildcats for 7th, 8th and B-Team games. Action is to get underway with the 7th Grade affair at 3:00 p.m. with the other two to follow.

This is a departure from the original schedule that called for the B game to be played Saturday morning.

All fans are urged to be on hand and lend their support to the Rankin cause.

In meetings between these three teams earlier in the season, the B Team played to a 0-0 tie, the 8th Grade was defeated by a 6-26 mark and the 7th Grade had a 6-6 tie game.

Fan Migration to Head West --

Rankin to Van Horn for Showdown will be shoot-out day, and D-Day all rolled when the hard hitting Rankin Red Devils sharp talons of the Van Hornes in the latter's own Kickoff time will be at 7:30 p.m. CST.

in a large school move-up, Class AA competition next week. The Red Devils has lost only one game; strong Alpine team. To them, the Red Devils squad containing only three sophomores and freshmen. Thus far in the season they have gone down three times while winning three. Both teams are two conference play with the Red Devils probably having met the Van Hornes in their win over the Eagles.

of which will have little bearing on Friday's game. The Red Devils, regardless of their performance or team material, the Red Devils and the Eagles have slugged it out toe to toe with most of the games—especially the last two—never being decided until the final gun had sounded.

Winner of Friday night's affair will be in the favored slot to win the championship in District 6-A.

This will be the 14th meeting of Rankin and Van Horn in the current eleven-man series. Starting back in 1952, the Red Devils and the Eagles have now played to a tie in the series—each having won six each and one tie in the previous 13 meetings. It is, perhaps, appropriate that Friday's encounter is expected to settle the series winner for the present since Van Horn will not be on the Rankin schedule starting next season.

Following are results from the series:

- 1952, Rankin 18, Van Horn 12
- 1953, Rankin 6, Van Horn 13
- 1954, Rankin 20, Van Horn 20
- 1955, Rankin 20, Van Horn 19
- 1956, Rankin 20, Van Horn 51

Karen Black, Laura Stone and Lisa Leyan; 3rd Grade: Phillis West, Gwen Johnson, Lesa Yocham and Rex Surber; 4th Grade: Ronda Shankle, Caye Whatley, Mark Sides and Kim Ratliff.

Judges from Omicron Tau included Jeorrie Glidewell, Barbara Stephens, Beverly Nance and Kay Pipes.

14 games

- 1957, Rankin 13, Van Horn 46
- 1958, Rankin 6, Van Horn 0
- 1959, Rankin 26, Van Horn 6
- 1960, Rankin 0, Van Horn 25
- 1961, Rankin 22, Van Horn 0
- 1968, Rankin 20, Van Horn 0
- 1969, Rankin 14, Van Horn 16
- 1970, Rankin 8, Van Horn 15

Coach Turner said this week that the Devils were in good physical shape overall for the encounter and that he felt the boys would give a good account of themselves. He noted that Van Horn was a very capable team, but, overall, might not be quite as strong as in the previous two years.

"They're a good ball team but then the Red Devils are pretty good themselves. I look for a fine ball game," he said.

This sentiment is evidently shared by a big majority of the Rankin fans for from the talk about town, a migration to the West is being planned Friday that may well mark one of Rankin's largest contingents ever in Van Horn.

THANKS—

A bouquet to those of you who took the time to come by or call in last week on your orders for the Upton County Historical Book. It was appreciated.

It's not that we're going to make any big hunk of money from the sales—there won't be that many and the profit is not much when the shipping charges are paid out of it. The point is, the News has never been in the book business of this nature before and I had no idea whatsoever about how many to order. Now I do have and maybe I won't have to be eating a bunch of them this winter.

Incidentally, I picked up an order or two from readers who no longer live in Upton County. I guess they still have a little of that good ole Upton dust in their Rankin and was looking the place over with the thought in mind of going into a business in which you might make a buck or two. What sort of business would you go into?

Well, it's a proven fact that newspaper editors are relatively short on smart, else we would have tried boll pulling or sheep herding for a profession, put, I, for one, would never have decided to put in a bakery in Rankin.

But ole Leo did down at the Tumbleweed did and he's not doing so bad at it. He reports that his last two sales, a cake sale and a pie sale—went over rather well in that he sold all he had and you can't improve much on that.

At any rate, aside from having the convenience of the service offered, we in Rankin can be just a bit chesty about having our own bakery. As far as I know, they don't have one in McCamey or Big Lake and that puts us one up on them—which is where we stay most of the time. (Prepare for incoming flack after that one.)

WELL GOODY—

We now have the Red Chinese seated in the U.N. and that's about par for the course. It was something like 20 years ago that we were fighting them in Korea and as you knew, we always get around to rubbing noses sooner or later with our former enemy. And maybe that's the best way.

In my opinion, there's little that could be done to the U.N. that would make much difference so why not have the Reds in it. And even if we don't like the Chinese Commies, I don't think there's much use trying to ignore them. After all these years, it is a pretty well established fact of life that they're here to stay.

Let's just hope that we don't now put them on the foreign aid list.

PASS THE PILLS—

A news article in one of the daily papers the other day noted that shortly we can expect the state politicians to start bombarding us with political talks as they jockey for positions at the starting gate in next year's elections. Now how's that for something to which we can look forward?

And as if all this guff we have been getting from Austin for the past eighteen months has not been political. It wouldn't take much imagination to get the idea that political meandering is about all we ever get out of Austin aside from a tax raise every two years.

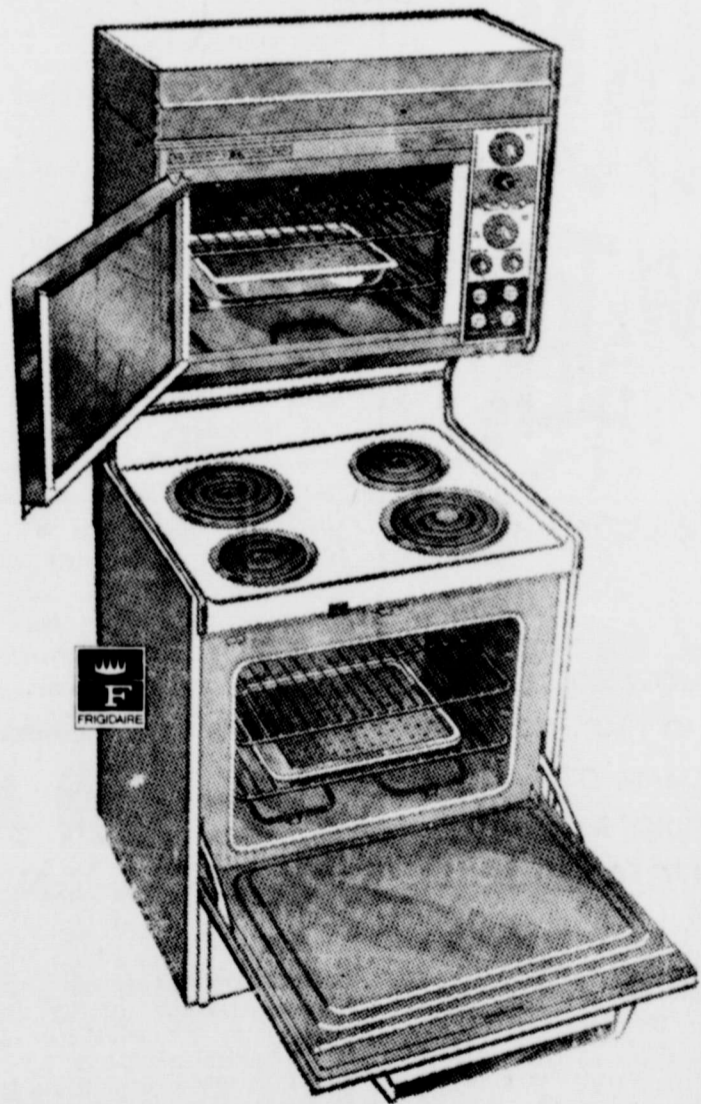

You would think that in a state with as many folk as Texas has residing within its borders we could, from time to time, get some new blood in the races for political offices; but no, it's the same old faces, year after year, with images, if not smeared by egg, at least tinted with scandles and hints of scandles. There's something sad about any form of government that has to fall back on its Smiths, Barnes, Yarboroughs, et al to get men to run for office. Not only sad, but there is something very much wrong.

Either we, the people, are at fault in refusing to consider new people in the few times that they do venture into political races or else there's a built-in mechanism in our political process that—once a man is elected—he's set for the rest of his life. Once in a while we see politicians discarded by the public but as a whole, they are around for about as long as they want to be in one place or another.

No wonder the younger generation gets upset. I get pretty sick of the whole mess myself at times.

ON YOUR OWN TWO

* Give a fan the ball and he'll run for a touchdown every play—in the stands.

THAT'S THAT—

Playing with a pretty hot hand last Friday night, the Red Devils could do little wrong against the hapless Clint Lions when it came to putting points on the board. Most of Rankin's plays come off like a Wednesday evening workout and on defense, they never made any killer misques.

But to say they played a great game would be stretching a point pretty far. When you give up 100 yards in penalties — especially when you're winning—you have played anything but a great game. Against anything like a strong team, you are beaten.

And most of the penalties were assessed away from the area of the ball and on offense — the worst kind. Such antics are a sure sign of not using the old noggin.

But, as 'tis said, "all's well that ends well" and, certainly, Rankin has to be pretty well satisfied with the overall outcome. The hard truth of the matter, however, is that we won't stand much of a chance of winning any more ball games this year if we spot Van Horn, Iraan or Sanderson 100 yards via penalties. They're too tough for that.

And, oddly enough, should we not win any of the remaining three games, we'd wind up right where we were picked at the beginning of the season—last. As it now stands, either Clint, Socorro or Sanderson would join us but that is not much consolation.

Is it now stacks-up, final district standings—including the winner—are going to be determined from these last three games. Sanderson, Clint and Socorro are about out of it but a win by any one of them could have a great bearing if against Iraan, Rankin or Van Horn.

Things are fixing to get real interesting.

THE OLD PROS—

Almost half—12 out of 25—of the 1971 Red Devil varsity are Freshmen or Sophomores, and — most of them are regulars and all are in the game one time or another. These are at a tender age in today's football.

A senior ball player is generally in his sixth year of competition in today's high school football—seventh year in schools that start them playing in the 6th Grade. If he's been a regular player, he's participated in some forty-three regulation games by the time he begins his senior year, not counting a possible half dozen game-type scrimmages.

The Rankin (Tex.) News — Thursday, Oct. 28, 1971

That adds up to a lot of experience. By the same token, the Sophomore has played in only a possible twenty-three games at the start of his year—the freshman perhaps has had 13 or so junior high games. When you look at it in this light, you can easily see why the team with the large number of seniors is always figured to be tough.

And you can also see what a truly remarkable job this year's Red Devil squad has truned in. When most of us older types had a hand in the game, it was pretty simple. If you were a lineman on defense, you lined up seven across, nose to nose and toe to toe and if you were bigger or faster than your opposite, you ran right over him. If that didn't work, you could always throw a little dirt in his face when the ball was snapped—then you had better be bigger and faster.

But it's not a simple game anymore. Depending on a step the quarterback may take—or any of the backs or an end, a lineman's responsibility can change at almost any time in the play. Today's linebacker has to almost be a walking computer. In fact, no position on the team be it offense or defense, is a cut and dried assignment any more.

It's a thinking man's game today and I have nothing but admiration for those who play it well. But I sure am looking forward to the time when we can have twelve or fifteen of these "old pro" seniors on our starting line-up. And it's coming.

THIS WEEK—

So we come once again to the big shoot out. For the third year in a row, the Rankin-Van Horn game very probably will decide the final outcome of district play. The Eagles are well coached and Government positions pay high starting salaries. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service has helped thousands prepare for these tests every year since 1948. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

have considerable talent although possibly not as strong as last year or the year before.

Without a doubt, it's going to take an effort equally as good as the McCamey or Sonora game for us to win it. And, from reading the Van Horn newspaper, it appears that the Eagles know that they, too, will have to put on their best show of the year.

This will surely be one fine ball game. See you in Van Horn.
