LIONS PPANCAKE SUPPER

All area residents are invited to be on hand at the school cafeteria between the hours of 5:00-7:15 p.m., Tuesday, March 7 for the annual Rankin Lio. s Club's big pancake supper.

The annual affair, served with sausage, syrup, butter, pancakes, milk and coffee, has become quite popular with local school patrons and always draws a good attend-

There is some speculation that the good turn-out is a result of the food served and the minimum charged. On the other hand, some feel that it's worth the price to get service in the chow line for such a distinguished group.

"Come on out folks," said a Lion member today. "We give the very best and don't charge any extra."

The Lions use the pancake supper as one of their fund raising projects. They sponsor a number of local programs including support to such groups as the Boy Scouts and numerous individual undertakings.

With the deadline still open at press time in the city and school races, local "politics" took a big hop early this week whith a rash of candidates for the non-paying jobs. Prior to Monday, pickings were pretty slim and prospects for a live-wire race appeared dim.

With the final cut-off to come at 12 midnight Wednesday, March 1, the candidate list as of Wednesday a.m. stood as follows:

City: for Mayor- J. B. Pettit, and Leslie McFaddea; for Alderman: M. O. Price, Ruben Peterson and James Covill, Jr. Two seats are open on the City Couneil aside from the Mayor's post. Pettit and Price are incumbents in the race. Of the new faces, McFadden is manager of the Ranchers Wool & Mohair and Secretary-Manager of the AJRA with headquarters in Rankin; Peterson operates the Enco station on Highway 67, and Covill is employed at Red Bluff Lumber Co. and is local agent for Curry Motor Freight Lines.

Voting in all three elections will be on Saturday, April 1.

Cans, Bottle Money to Boy Scout Effort in Clean-Up Drive

As a fund raising project and as a means of helping to keep the area clean of bottles and cans, the Rankin Lions Club and Boys Scouts have erected a gathering pin on the lot north of Mary Lou's Drug and are asking residents to drop off aluminum cans and redeemable bottles at the site.

Certain firms, primarily the Brewing Associations, will pay the Scouts for the return of these items. All cans must be aluminum and no broken bottles will be accepted. In addition to cans, there is a refund on aluminum foil plates and items of this nature.

Anyone who has such goods are asked to deposit them in the bin or they may call on the Boy Scouts and have them picked up. Bill Johnson is heading the local Scouting program.

At Comanche Relays and in Wink Junior --

Rankin Track Teams Sweep Two Meets

Making perhaps their biggest showing ever for this early in the season, the Rankin Red Devil track teams whipped to two big win last week-end in area track meets. For the boys competing in the senior division, it was a Division III win of the Comanche Relays in Fort Stockton. They posted a substantial margin of victory- competing against Class B, A and AA schools-when they notched 115 points to 86 for their closest opponent, Ozona.

For the Junior (freshman) division, it was an equally impressive win at Wink as they swept past all comers with 129 points to second place Wink's 84. Third place team was O'Donnell at 60.

In Junior High events, also at Wink, Rankin found the competition more even and finished 1/2 point out of second in 8th Grade affairs and were 4th in the 7th Grade. Twenty-six teams were in the Junior meet with 12 entered in the Freshman class.

In the 8th Grade, Wink won it with 72 points, Plains was 2nd at 601/2, Rankin and O'Donnell had 60. For the 7th Grade, it was a win for Plains at 78, O'Donnell at 2nd with 72 and Rankin had 68.

This week-end, the Red Devils will be favorites to win the Wink Senior Track Meet. They have accomplished this fete several times in the past.

CHINA-

Every time you pick up a news paper or turn on the tellie these days you get a feeding of first one and then another "China expert" giving his or her views on the results of President Nixon's visit to that country. You can get all sorts of opinions as to whether the trip will turn out good or bad and what loss or gain will eventually be garnered by the US of A.

None of these things worry me much for over the years I've noticed that what is said to be true today is not necessarily true tomorrow — that we change our friends and our enemies about as often as a country editor changes his shirt.

That doesn't mean, however, that I'm one to shirk my duties in the worry department, I worry about several things concernThursday, March 2, 1972 The Rankin (Tex.) News — ing Mr. Nixon's trip. For instance, who's going to pay for all that expensive television equipment that was sent to China just so we could watch a bunch of folk shoveling snow or a group of Red G. I's standing at attention for a hour or so in freezing cold?

The first public school in Rankin was established in June, 1912, by action of the Upton County Commissioners Court. In February of 1913, action by the 33rd State Legislature, created the Rankin Independent School District and boundries for said district. The newly created district approved bonds, for the construction of a two-story brick building in 1915, and that building remained intact until 1948.

The Rankin Independent School District boundries included the entire Upton County area, until the creation of the McCamey Independent School District in 1927-28, and new boundries for the two districts were set by the State Legislature and these boundries remain the same today.

In March, 1928, bonds were approved for the construction of a new school building, ($80,000.00) and this building is still in use today; as it now houses the junior school students. Mr. Secrest served the Rankin I.S.D. superintendent from 1927 until 1942, and during his nure, the Rankin School became fully accredited with O()) the Texas Education Agency in 1929, and became fully accredited with Southern Association of Colleges and cols in 1931, and it remains so today. The Rankin Eleentary school became fully accredited with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1962, and it was one of the first elementary schools accredited with this agency in Texas, and is still one of the few state schools accredited with this agency.

In 1949, a bond issue was approved for the sum of $425,000.00 to build a new elementary building, a new gym and a new band hall, and in 1952, $550,000in bonds were approved for the construction of a new high school. In 1960 the last bond issue was approved for $750,000.00 to renovate the junior high building, remodel the cafeteria and gym dressing rooms, and to construct a bus barn, track and practice field and add a new administration building. Only $375,000 of the $750,000 was used in these last improvements.

On February 8, 1972, the Board of Trustees ordered the issuance of $335,000 of the last bond issue, of which $170,000 in bonds will be sold to replace the 20 year old heating systems in the high school and elementary school and add a cooling system to all classrooms, improve the lighting at the football field and construct a practice field west of the high school to eleminate students having to cross the highway and railroad to use the present facilities. Other added equipment and minor improvements are planned.

With the $170,000 improvement program, Rankin will have one of the most modern, best equipped school plants in West Texas. The present enrollment now stands at 500. Due to present educational trends in the State and Nation, it is difficult to predict the future of Rankin Independent School District, however with continued good local support this community will always maintain an excellent school program for its young people.

One of these will feature the annual Lion's Club Pancake Supper in which you will get personal service from that most distinguished body of men. For some of you ladies, this might be a rare opportunity of getting a meal and service - off your husband. If he's like most of us menfolk, he never dabbles much in the kitchen at home.

And, in addition to the eating, there will be programs, look-ins, etc., all told abount elsewhere in this issue.

Right at about this point in their history, our local school system as we have known it for many, many years, has probably never been in more danger. There are those in high places who see another chance - perhaps their greatest - to centralize one of the very basic concepts of Americanism - the Little Red School House-

With reasoning that states that to gain control of a child is to gain control of his mind, once we have centralization, the one-worlders, the promoters of group living - as opposed to individual freedom in thought and action will be in a much more sound position from which to build their cockeyed world.

It may all sound far - fetched but did you really think ten years ago that we would have anything as unbelievable as bussing or the rule that taxing of personal property to support education - on the local level-is unconstitutional and violates a student's civil rights because he lives in a poor district? Not many of us would have believed in 1962 that today's realities could be anything but a bad dream.

Using this reasoning of saying the unequal wealth in a school district violates a students civil rights, isn't it just as logical to say mine or your civil rights are violated because we don't have law enforcement equal to Dallas or Houston, that we should have a civic center equal to San Antonio, that Odessa's swimming pool is larger than ours.
