Local Church Sets Youth-Led Services

Special services will be conducted at Faith Assembly of God Church in Rankin on Sunday, September 21. Youth of the congregation will be in charge of the services.

Youth Evangelist David Crispin of Odessa will be the guest speaker for both the morning worship at 10:45 a.m. and the evening services at 7:30. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m.

An invitation has been issued to the public to attend.

Each of the six poles has 20 units to the pole, all set by computer, and only one of the new standards is said to give more illumination on the field than all of the old ones together.

Visitors from New Mexico Make First Trip To Rankin --

Red Devils Open Home Stand with Jal Panthers

In a game that saw goal line stands by both teams and which was, primarily, a show of defense on both sides, the Red Devils — with only 42 seconds left on the clock, saw their five-year hold on the Upton County Championship slip away last Friday night in McCamey. In a clean, hard-hitting game, Rankin tied the score at 6-6 with some 3 minutes left but missed the go-ahead extra point. The Badgers then went on to ice the game 6-13 for their first win since 1967.

As usual, the Red Devil side of the field was filled with a batch of supporters who never gave up on their teams' chances of pulling the game out over their AA in-county rivals.

Still winless, due primarily to the lack of a scoring punch and being able to sustain a drive, the Red Devils will host the Panthers of Jal, New Mexico Friday night, the first home game for the Maroon and White and the first time they have ever hosted the New Mexicans.

Last year, in Jal, the two met for the first time and Rankin had a 33-6 win at the expense of the perennial power of their class in New Mexico. Scouting reports on the Panthers would indicate that they are as good or better than last year's club.

They will field a well experienced team consisting of seven seniors, sixteen juniors and seven sophomores and have good size in all positions. Presently they have a 1-1 record, having lost last week to a strong Lovington unit—but not until they had made a strong battle of the game.

B-Team, 7th Graders to Play on Thursday

Rankin B Team, sporting a 2-0 record and having given up only one touchdown thus far, will host the Wink B Team at 7 p.m. tonight, Thursday, Sept. 20. Last Thursday they edged past Iraan by a 7-6 mark with all the scoring coming in the last two minutes of play.

The public is invited to attend the game free of charge.

Rankin Junior High's 7th Grade, in a change of dates, will play at Imperial at 5 p.m. Thursday. The 8th Grade will be open.

Where's My Blockers

Tommy Gray, 82, and Jim Mathews close in on a Badger

For the Red Devils, looking much improved in all departments over their opening performance at Eldorado, it will be a night with some new faces in the line-up. Lost for possibly four games in last week's conflict was Mark Russom, a 173-lb. junior. Suffering a leg injury, it is reported that he has no internal injuries; but more of a strained situation. He has been advised to rest the leg several weeks.

Another doubtful starter will be senior Brad Winn, a 150-lb wing-back, suffering a knee problem.

In workouts this week, the Red Devils were making a good effort toward improving their offensive blocking assignments and putting still more polish on their passing game.

Traditionally a running team, the Devils have looked good this year in the passing department and indications are that they may have to take to the air to score on the Panthers.

Something Like This Can Be Fun

AMENDMENTS —

As most readers are probably aware, we are going to have an election comes November 6. It will deal with nine proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. A short recap of these proposals was published in last week's issue of The News and again this week. These two times are the only required publications of the amendments that will be made between now and the day of voting; however, space permitting, we will try to carry them one more time just prior to November 6.

It might be a good idea to put aside one of these two issues — in case there's not room for any later publication — so that you may better understand what you are voting for or against comes election day.

As you will note, the publication of the amendments is in a somewhat different form than the ones that have come up in past years. They are shorter and are a little easier to understand. Also, every legal newspaper in the state will publish the proposals; whereas, in the past, they have been parceled out—in the case of Upson County— half being printed.

NOTICE

OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

At its meeting on September 11, 1973, the governing board of The Rankin County Hospital District passed a resolution that effective September 11, 1973, The Rankin County Hospital District would be operated on a nondiscriminatory basis in accordance with The Civil Rights Act of 1964. This means that effective September 11, 1973, and thereafter, all facilities and services of The Rankin County Hospital District will be available to all patients, and employees, on a nondiscriminatory basis. Waiting rooms, public toilets, dining facilities, recreation rooms, therapeutic rooms and room accommodations will be available without regard to race, color or national origin. This action will enable The Rankin County Hospital District to continue receiving Federal funds necessary for operation.

The Board urges all public users and employees of The Rankin County Hospital District to cooperate in this program so that the transition will be smooth and we can continue our mission of serving the ill of our community.

the purses of newspapers at the expense of Texas taxpayers."

Not so—not by a jug full. Baker's bill, while requiring total publication, reduced the number of times from four to two and cut way back on the wording to be printed. Actually, in the case of the Rankin News, income from publishing these amendments in the form set up by Baker will bring in only about a third of the revenue it would have brought in under the old method. Probably overall, the cost to the state will be cut in half or better so,

Norway to Work

Fred Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore of Rankin and an RHS graduate, is now stationed in Stavanger, Norway, where he is an employee by an oil field service company as a welder.

Working offshore in the North Sea, his tour of duty is to be 90 days after which time, if he likes the work, he can have his family sent over. Presently, they reside in Odessa.

Memorials Noted

Recent Memorials received by the Rankin Hospital Auxiliary include the following:

IN MEMORY of Mr. Porter Johnson, from Mr. and Mrs. Leon Feuge, Joe Lee Family;

IN MEMORY of Mrs. Floy Havnner from, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McSpadden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boggs, Joe Lee Family,

IN MEMORY of Lawrence Collins from Mr. and Mrs. Leon Feuge, Joe Lee Family.

as it turns out, Baker's bill was not a special interest thing— and he was accused of this at the time he proposed it— but a considerable savings to the tax payers while giving better coverage on the proposals.

Even though it hit me in the pocket book, I think George Baker is due a bouquet or two for his efforts and moneywise — his bill is going to mean a mighty big savings over the years ahead. We could do with a lot more of that type of lawmaking.

And now, do you want to make a little wager? I'll bet you three Bob Lilly bubble gum cards to two Bob Hayeses that, comes November 6, you will run into at least a half dozen people who will say: "What? Are we having an election today? What for? I didn't know about it."

ON YOUR OWN TWO

* Dedicated to the proposition that '73 is the "Year of the Red Devils."

WATCH IT —

Now folks, we all know that we laugh and joke about the Dallas Cowboys in this column once in a while, for example, they won a great victory last Sunday over a team that can't throw the ball as well as the Red Devils and when you play a pro team that can't pass, why that's about like having a can kicking contest with a one-legged man. It's not much fair. This week, the Boys play a team that got waxed sixty something to hardly nothing Sunday. Now that's some kind of schedule.

But to get to the business at hand, 4th & 10 has discovered that some clown has gone and put a Cowboy sticker on the pumber of my pickup. That's sneaky. At first, one guy suggested that it was probably the doings of Skinny Taylor but since those stickers cost money, that pretty well puts him in the clear.

Somebody else said it might be the work of Roger Bains but I sorta doubt it. Ole Roger would have put it smack in the middle of the windshield, then smashed his fist through it to make sure it was stuck good.

Right now I don't have any good leads on the guilty party but let him or her be forewarned: I'll find out and when I do they had better get a good lawyer for I've got 'em dead cold on defamation of character and I'm going to haul them into court and hit them with a habeas corpus, an in articulo mortis, two or three legme faceres and some no com- prendes. As you can see, they are not fooling with just any ole country editor—I'm hep to a lot of these legal terms, too, and the way I got it figured, tagging anyone as a Dallas Cowboy fan is enough character assassination to get damages of as much as $49.98 in any court in the land. So just watch it out there.

THEY WON —

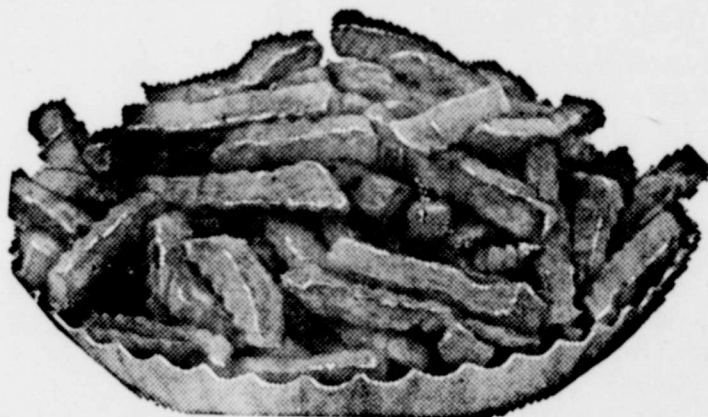

It took them six years but the Badgers now have the Upton County championship firmly in hand.

Candy Stripers Get Capped and Pinned

Members of the Rankin Hospital Auxiliary and guests were present at a meeting in the hospital's Conference Room September 13 to honor Candy Stripers who had earned their caps and pins for fifty hours of volunteer service to the hospital during the summer program.

Mrs. F. W. Payne, Chief of Nurses, presented caps and pins to Pansy Peterson and Ann Warren, two of the girls in the program who had earned the honor this year.

Vickey Hill, who had received her cap and pin last summer and who has put in approximately 50 hours this year, is eligible for her 100 hour bar. Vickey will be presented this bar upon her return from Houston where she is presently hospitalized for a physical check up.

Mrs. Eddie Hyatt, chairman of Candy Stripers, gave each girl a personal gift in appreciation of their efforts. Mrs. Payne and Mrs.

The Rankin (Tex.) Thursday, Sept. 20,

Travis Bley also expressed appreciation for a job well done.

Guests present for the occasion were Mrs. J. R. Warren, Ruben Peterson, Mrs. Gertrude Kauf, and brothers of Candy Stripers.

PUBLIC NOTICE SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 6, 1973

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 8)

Article III, Sections 5, 24 and 49a and Article VIII, Section 6 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Provide for regular annual sessions of the Legislature. The regular session in each odd-numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 180 days. The regular session in each even numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 60 days and would be limited to consideration of fiscal matters and any emergency matters submitted by the Governor. The 60 day session could be extended by the Governor for a period not to exceed 30 days;

Provide an annual salary for members of the Legislature not exceeding $15,000 per year and a per diem not exceeding $18 per day for each day of each regular session or special session;

Provide that no appropriation of money shall be made for a longer term than one year and direct the Comptroller to make annual estimates of anticipated revenue rather than biennial estimates.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for annual regular sessions of the legislature; and to provide an annual salary of $15,000 and per diem for the members of the legislature, effective in January, 1975."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 7)

Article XVI, Sections 50 and 51 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses.

Presently a single adult person is not entitled to claim a homestead exemption and a married man can abandon a family homestead without the consent of his wife.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses."

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)

Article VIII, Sections 1-a and 1-b of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the residential homesteads of unmarried adults.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homesteads of unmarried adults."

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 1)

Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Subsection (e) which:

Provides that no law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless a copy of the proposed law is delivered to the commissioners court of each county and to the governing body of each incorporated city or town in whose jurisdiction said district or any part thereof is or will be located. Each such commissioners court and governing body may file its written consent or opposition to the proposed law with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives. Each special law creating such a district must comply with general laws then in effect relating to consent by political subdivisions to the creation of such districts.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment establishing certain requirements relative to the enactment of laws creating certain conservation and reclamation districts."

NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 12)

Article XI, Section 7 of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide that all counties and cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico are authorized to levy a tax to pay for bonds issued for the construction of sea walls and breakwaters upon a majority vote of the resident property tax-payers. Counties and cities are presently authorized to levy such taxes and this amendment only changes the required vote from a two-thirds majority to a simple majority.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing counties and cities bordering on the Gulf of Mexico to issue bonds for the construction of sea walls and breakwaters upon a vote of the resident property tax-payers."

NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 26)

Article V, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new paragraph which:

Provides that the district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court and in a probate proceeding shall also have the jurisdiction otherwise conferred on it by law. It also provides that the legislature may increase, diminish, or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, may adopt rules governing the filing, distribution, or transfer of cases and proceedings as between the courts having jurisdiction of probate matters, and may provide that all appeals in probate matters shall be to the courts of civil appeals.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment stating that the district court concurrently with the county court shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and providing the jurisdiction thereof, and further providing that in any probate proceeding the district court shall also have jurisdiction otherwise conferred upon it by law, and further providing that the legislature may increase, diminish or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, and further providing that the legislature shall have power to adopt rules governing the filing, distribution and transfer of all such cases and proceedings as between district courts, county courts, and other courts having jurisdiction thereof, and further providing that the legislature may provide that all appeals in such matters shall be to the courts of (civil) appeals."

NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 6)

Article III, Section 49-b of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund. This amendment increases the present $400 million authorization to $500 million;

Remove the present provision which permits buying of land only by those veterans who served between September 16, 1940 and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the armed conflict in Viet Nam. This amendment would allow all veterans who serve after September 16, 1940 to buy land from the Veterans' Land Fund, provided they are otherwise qualified;

Provide that, in the event of the death of an eligible

Texas veteran after the veteran has filed with the Board an application and contract of sale to purchase through the Board the tract selected by him or her and before the purchase has been completed, then the surviving spouse may complete the transaction.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund."

NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 29)

Article XI, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 5(a) which:

Authorizes and requires incorporated cities, towns, and villages, regardless of population and notwithstanding the constitutional limitations on total tax rates, to levy such annual ad valorem taxes on the taxable property in the city, town or village as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest on, when due, the general obligations hereinafter issued by the city, town, or village. The legislature is empowered to limit by general or special law the total principal amount of general obligations which may be issued, but unless and until the legislature acts to do so, the limitations established by statute with respect to the total principal amount of bonds which may be issued by independent school districts shall apply as the rate limitation on cities, towns, and villages.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it appears on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and villages to levy such ad valorem taxes as are sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on their general obligations hereafter issued subject to the restrictions provided by law."

NUMBER NINE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 25)

Article VIII of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 2C which:

Allows the Legislature, by general law, to exempt all real and personal property used by non-profit water supply corporations or cooperatives from all property taxes. The exemption would apply only to such property as is reasonably necessary to conduct the business of a non-profit water supply corporation or cooperative.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from property taxes certain property used by a non-profit water supply corporation or a non-profit water supply cooperative."
