SERVING THE INTERESTS OF RANKIN AND UPTON COUNTY

VOLUME XXXVIII—NUMBER 8

RANKIN (79778), UPTON COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1974

Candidates Scarce in City, School and Hospital Races

March 6 filing deadline is two weeks away, candidates for the school, city and hospital races were not exactly showing up in line. At the city race, M. O. Price and Ruben Peterson, and Mayor J. T. Weaver, Jr. have signed up for the race.

Rankin Schools, so far, has only one candidate, Dr. James Gossett, for the two seats that will be filled. At the Rankin Hospital, the filing deadline is March 21. Dr. Price and Dick Brandt have been named for two-year terms, and T. Weaver for one year.

Those interested in filing may contact City Secretary Mrs. Patricia Foye for the city race; W. O. Weaver, business manager for the Rankin Hospital; or by contacting Patricia Foye, administrator at Rankin Hospital.

Opening Date Nears for Rankin Museum

Work toward the official opening of the Rankin Museum in its new home in the Yates Hotel is progressing nicely, according to Public Relations Chairman Mrs. Ann Clark. A tentative opening is planned for the middle of March.

Curator Mrs. Jack Smith says the Museum will be kept open one day each week, on Fridays, from 3 until 5 p.m. It will also be opened by special request at various times; such as a request for a visit by a school class or any interested group.

"We want the people of Upton County to be aware that the Museum is there for their use and benefit," Mrs. Clark noted.

Rankin High Students Honored at All-Sports Banquet

practically every seat in the auditorium filled, those in attendance at the All-Sports banquet Thursday night were treated to approximately forty minutes of both amusing and interesting highlights in the life of "China" Gilstrap, both as a player and coach. He was the principal speaker at the annual event.

Other highlights of the evening were the presentation of awards and the naming of the football sweetheart and the football beau. Dub Day, long-time honoree at Rankin home games, was awarded a jacket for his more than 20 years service. Dr. J. D.

Gossett was also awarded a jacket for his support of the team.

Named as the 1973 recipient of the coveted "Fighting Heard" Award was Brad Winn, a senior, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Winn. Winn played both offense and defense for the Red Devils and was noted for his hard hitting and consistently good performance.

Named Sweetheart of the 1973 Red Devil football team was Miss Sheryl Loftin, a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garner Loftin of Rankin.

Picked as Beau of the 1973-74 RHS Girls Basketball team was Jimmy Joe Mathews, also a senior, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mathews of Sonora, former Rankin residents. Both Jimmy Joe and his father played football and other sports under the Red Devil banner.

Shucks, Everyone Knew That All Along --

Rankin Schools Named Outstanding

In a letter to Mr. A. C. Copeland, Superintendent of the Rankin Public School System, Mr. Ben Dowd, Director of Planning, Governor's Office of Educational Research and Planning, Austin, has revealed that the RISD is one of 42 schools in Texas to be selected as "Exemplary" in each of six categories of quality of education.

Dowd further noted in his letter that Rankin was one of only seven school systems chosen in its category. In an earlier telephone conversation, he told Mr. Copeland that the Rankin School System had, along with all others tested, been "run through" a computer in three different testing categories and had "come out on top" each time; indicating that the District is highly regarded for its educational program by persons connected with the educational field.

Method of selection was nomination by 1500 school superintendents across the state and Texas Education Agency and Texas State Teachers Assn. staff personnel. Of the original 1500, the field was narrowed to 150; then the final 42 districts were chosen.

"Schools that were finally selected have been given a compliment of the highest order," Dowd has noted.

"The analysis," Dowd explained, "will be used to define 'quality' in terms of school financing to present to the governor and to the legislature at its next regular session."

"We feel education should be child-centered," Dowd said, "and that the money flow should be directed to the needs of the children—and one way to do this is with a weighted pupil approach."

"We asked these people (those making the selections) not to be hypnotized by the amount of money a school district spends," said Dowd.

Findings about the methods used by the 42 chosen districts will be used by the state planners in designing recommended curricula and educational programs for all the schools of Texas in the future.

Rankin Tracksters in Comanche Relays

Coach Bob Johnson and his Red Devil tracksters will make their initial start of the 1974 track and field season when they enter the 29th running of the Comanche Relays in Fort Stockton this week. Over 1000 high school athletes are expected to be taking part in the event which traditionally kicks off the spring track season for West Texas.

And, as they have been over past years, the Red Devils are expected to field a well balanced track team this year. Perhaps not as strong in some departments as in the past, the Red Devils will, however, have the services of several outstanding event performers. Rankin won their division in 1972 in the Comanche Relays.

This year with upwards of 50 teams expected, the big meet will (Continued to Back Page)

Red Devil Golfers Keep Win Streak

Starting with the McCamey Invitational Golf Tournament last year, Rankin High School linksters had never won a golf tournament in the 15 or more years that they had participated in the UIL sanctioned sport. Then they won the 1973 McCamey tourney with a score of 313.

And since that time, participating in ten tournaments, the Red Devil shotmakers have lost only one tournament to a Class A opponent—that in Robert Lee last year when they finished second to Sonora—and are currently the State Class A defending champions, having set a new record in Class A along the way.

Last Friday the 1974 version of the RHS Golf Team made their first attempt at defending their record of last year and were a success as they again won the McCamey affair, and again, with a score of 313. Sophomore Gary Varnadore was low scorer for the Rankin effort with a 74. He was followed by Tommy Gray at 79 and Terry Lester and Russell Wimberley, each with an 80. Tom Wimberley carded a 90 for the fifth position on the team. Only the four best scores out of five are used for team totals.

Other teams saw old rival Iraan at 325; Alpine, 326; McCamey A, 327; Ozona, 333; Crane, 345; (Continued to Back Page)

Roof Climbers Are Cautioned of Danger

Bill Johnson, head of the maintenance department of the Rankin Schools, this week issued a warning of danger involved to persons who have been climbing onto roofs of school buildings and tampering with high-voltage heating and air conditioning equipment.

"I'd rather stick my hand into a cage of rattlesnakes," Johnson said, "than to tamper with this equipment, not knowing anything about it. At least, you know that the rattler is going to bite you and you can get medical treatment. Touch one wrong thing in the heating or air conditioning units and there won't be any treatment in the world that can save you."

Johnson was very emphatic in stressing the very real danger that someone might be killed in the practice of climbing onto the roofs and tampering with this equipment. "We're not trying to scare anybody. The danger is extremely great," he said.

REAL EASY —

From what you read in newspapers and hear on the tv, you get the impression that Congress has a vague feeling that people are a little up-set with the shape of things at this time. The main reason you get this feeling is because the Democrats keep saying that the country's going to the dogs because of the Republicans and the Republicans say it's all the fault of the Democrats.

And between erasing tapes and finding more "forgotten" campaign contributions, the administration keeps coming up with plans to regulate this or that. It's sorta like the old Army saying, "if it moves, salute it; if it doesn't paint it." Anytime somebody yells "crisis" on any subject, the first thing Washington does is come up with a plan to regulate it.

If I was to make a guess, I'd say that Nick the Greek would put the odds at about 5-2 that sooner or later the Federales are going to find an excuse to use all those pretty little gas rationing coupons they have printed up. You can't hardly pass up an opportunity to get something like that cranking if you can manage to find any excuse at all to put it into operation.

However, I've got a very simple solution to the whole mess — especially this gas bit and the 55 miles per hour speed limit. In fact, it's so simple and such an obvious solution that I can't see how Congress has missed taking

 Instead of paying $1.49

 out about $3.60 for one
 the red meat and that set too well with a lot
 so I guess that must be
 we are still using the old gallon and mile measurements.

A little sidelight on this business of the U. S. going on the Metric System — which they say is coming: I read somewhere the other day that the first time this idea was brought up in Congress was back when either George Washington or John Adams was President. Since that time, it has taken small steps toward adoption from time to time.

So you can see that, contrary to the notion some of us have that Congress is not really very effective in dealing with important matters, they get right with it and in another 200 years may well get around to adopting the Metric Ssystem for the U. S. Also, I'll bet you two bits to a hole in a donut that that first Congress that brought up the idea appointed a committee to look into the matter. That, at least, would explain why it's still hanging fire after almost 200 years.

When a Congressional committee starts an investigation, they don't like to rush to any hasty conclusions. But, ye gads, that brings up the possibility that they'll still be kicking Watergate around in the year 2174.

NATURALLY --

Our good buddy over in Mc-Camey, Senator H. L. Wheat, the Superintendent of the McCamey Schools, was on the last evaluation committee that looked over the Rankin School System and in his address to the closing session of the accreditation group, he said that Rankin had a mighty good school. In fact, he said that the only one better that he knew anything about was in McCamey.

Now comes the report that goes a long way toward proving that the Senator knew what he was talking about—at least in part.

As was announced to all the daily newspapers — the people in Austin don't consider weeklies as newspapers even though we may devote half our reading space to school activities — that Rankin School System has been picked as one of the 42 best schools in Texas for study on how a school ought to be operated. The only other school in this area so honored — and the news release said that being selected was an outstanding honor, was Fort Stockton.

Now I don't want to rub it in on the Senator and the good folk in McCamey for they do have a fine school. Probably next to Rankin, it's about one of the best I know anything about.

under the Crime Control Act of 1973.

Previously, the Governor had "granted" Upton County approximately $4200 for a study prior to putting the plan into action.

Austin Report

BY TOM CRADDICK
State Representative
68th District

Many of the substantive committees of the Constitutional Convention are nearing completion of their revision efforts. Each committee is considering one article of the proposed constitution and will make a report on its article to the full convention. The committees have completed hearing testimony and studying reports and proposals in an effort to report out a final draft proposal.

In a short session of the convention as a whole this week, the delegates sent back to the Rights and Suffrage Committee for revision the voter qualification and elections article which had been scheduled for debate. The article is now scheduled to be debated by the Convention late next week. There was some difficulty in the technical language of the report.

The members of the Committee on the Executive late last week finished tentative wording for Article IV of the proposed state constitution. Some of the matters considered included the tentative approval of an automatic 10-year legislative review of the need for each state agency, voting to give the Railroad Commission constitutional status and rejecting a state utility commission.

The Committee endorsed language giving the Governor the power to remove citizen appointees on state boards and commissions. The removal procedure, endorsed in testimony by several ex-Governors, would consist of a chief ex-
