THE MAXWELL CASE.

The Culprits's Counsel Move For a New Trial.

The Machinery Set in Motion to Delay the Administration of Justice-An Allegation Against a Juryman Indignantly Denied.

St. Louis, June 11 .- The attorneys for Maxwell have filed their motion for a new trial. The motion contains twenty five points. Some of these are not material but there are many that are decidedly strong, and one in particular that is serious. This last is an objection to mittee.

1. A refusal to quash the indictment and England.
3. That the jury list was incomplete and incorrect.
4. Not permitting the jurors to be questioned as to their opinion whether death 6. Sustaining and overruling objections to 7.
