"Practice makes perfect" is a saying that we have heard all our lives, but the longer we live. the more we see the truth of this. We are creatures of habit and, of course, Jesus knew this, for He knows what is in man. We deceive our fellow man, we sometimes deceive ourselves, but we cannot deceive God, for He knows even our every thought.

We have a storehouse called our "sub-concious" where our habits and thoughts, good or bad are stored up to take over when our "conscious" fails us. (A pastor, Rev. E. C. Martin, brought this thought to a group at a prayer meeting recently.) What we have in our sub-conscious is most important, then, for Jesus said. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

What are your thoughts about? Do you meditate on the good, beautiful mysterious, majestic, things of God?

The joy and hope that is mine

as a child of God; the thought of the gift of eternal life for me made possible by Jesus; the wonder of living forever; the thoughts of what the "upper room" of life may be; the desire to let Jesus use me to tell you about this gift of eternal life for man and what a price He paid to purchase it for you and me in the only way it could be obtained for man; to give to us, life not because of our goodness, but hecause of God's love for man that He had made in His own imagethese thoughts with the guidance of the ever present Holy Spirit of God are what makes the way after Jesus so delightful even as a "pilgrim" in thi world.

"Pray without ceasing" -prayer habits are important. Brushing our teeth once a week is better than no brushing at all. But, what that amounts to is that our teeth would look better on the outside for at least that day of brushing, but the decay of deposits through the other six days would damage the inside of our teeth, until finally it would begin to show even on the outside

But that same kind of brushing, daily, protects the inside as well as the outside appearance of our

Living with Jesus day by day, hour by hour, minute by minute, not just onee a week, is important, too. The devil, the spirit of evil, is more powerful than any mere human being, so all of us need a greater Power in order to live as God wants His children to live here in this preparation time for our reigning with Him. Even Jesus prayed much to the Father while on earth.

We know each other better the more time we spend together; so it is with God, in our case: the more time we take to read His Word, to think on His way, to listen to His voice, to pray in faith believing His promises to us, the better we know Him. To know Jesus is to know the Father. for Jesus said He and the Father were one. To know Him is to love Him, because He first loved

Even in our sin, even in all our ugliness, Christ loved us and died that He might save us into everlasting life with Him-like Him! So, take Jesu, live for Him, for He is the only hope you and I have to live an abundant happy, peaceful, eternal life. This hope in Jesus makes us "perfect" in heart now, as we must be, if we are to be like

So think about those trips to the beach this summer, those bright sunny days and balmy moonlit nights.

And besides, looking at it from a very practical point of view, it's Trade 'N' Travel time right now at your Chevrolet dealer's. He's got some beautiful buys.

But you had better hurry before somebody muscles in ahead of you. Spring's here. Summer's coming fast. And with these sporty good-looking Corvairs selling the way they are, he who hesitates will want to kick himself.
