THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1963

NUMBER 31

WOODWORK BY DALTON

THERE is a new law passed by the state legislature in its last session which many persons call the "Loan-Shark" law. This labeling probably got a lot of support for the law from people who looked no further than the name, and who felt that the loan companies are all basically crooked and ought to be slapped down.

What many probably didn't realize is that the so-called "Loan Shark" law allows for a much higher rate of interest for lenders, an exact opposite to what most of us persons would prefer.

The law is supposed to saddle the companies with stiffer licensing requirements, however. The Texas Press Assn. reports that more than 2,000 companies already have announced the intention of applying for licenses (which must be done by Nov. 21).

The reason given for such a big response is that most automobile financing companies want to increase their interest rates, too, if they can qualify under the new law.

That's just great. Already, the auto loan companies have stuck in so many hidden charges (under some other label than interest), that they charge you around 20 to 30 percent for the money you borrow.

I think it's real nice of us to pass a law which will keep the poor, struggling loan companies from going broke.

AFTER WATCHING football on all levels for many years, I believe I can point out the primary difference between average or mediocre players and the professionals. It's not so much a matter of age, ability, conditioning, or frame of mind; in fact, it's a lot simpler. The basic difference: professionals all use Vitamins, and everyone else uses that greasy kid stuff.

AS a ball picker, I might do better as a ball picker. But in spite of missing 7 out of 13 last week, my season percentage is .615 on 24 right guesses and 15 wrong ones. Last week, I missed a bunch of close games, like Fairwell-Morton, Arkansas-Missouri, Sudan-Sundown, Kress-Hart, and missed some not so close, like Amherst-Bovina, A & M-Ohio State, TCU-Florida State.

This week, it looks like this Plains 20, Sudan 14; Amherst 12, Lubbock 7; Denver City 36, Littlefield 14; Idalou 19, Springlake 6; Hart 28, Anton 13; Priona 40, Happy 6; Morton 20, Sundown 14; Arkansas 13, TCU 7; Texas AGM 24, Texas Tech 10; Portales 22, Fairwell 14; Hale Center 14, Petersburg 13; Silverton 20, Kress 6.

HORNET ANNUAL STAFF NAMED THIS WEEK

Members of the Hornet Hive annual staff of Sudan High School have been named and include: editor, Linda Williams; assistant editor, Rue Jean Hancock; business manager, Sharon Walter; art editor, Kandy Miller; assistant art editor, Brenda Drake; sports and photography, Al Alexander and James Williams; classes and organizations, Kay Baker, Sharon Beauchamp, Andiea Ritchie and Wanda Maxwell.

Scout Drive Mapped Out

Plans for the coming annual campaign for funds for the Boy Scouts of America in Sudan were discussed and workers organized at a meeting at Sudan Community Center Tuesday morning.

Heading the local campaign scheduled for Nov. 7 is D. W. Williamson. Majors chosen are Lester Shanks and Bud Provence; Joe Salem is advance gifts chairman; Kenneth Burgess is district campaign chairman; Mrs. Williamson is head of the arrangements committee; Mary Bowman is auditor; and Dalton Wood is publicity chairman.

Several area scout officials were present, including Caesar Buzitsa of Littlefield.

Members of the South Plains Council were present including Bill Clark, Bob Brummal, A. W. Bemmer, Jack Bonds.

Kids' Pictures To Be Taken For Publication

Once again, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give our readers a look at the children of the community today, who will be our leaders of tomorrow.

Pictures of children in this area will be made free of charge to parents and published in the newspaper. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures, they must all be of uniform size and quality; therefore, only those pictures taken by Winston B. Lucas of Irving will be used in the series.

An expert in child photography with all specialized equipment will take pictures at the Sudan Beacon-News office from 2 to 6 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 15.

There is absolutely no charge to parents, and no obligation to parents to buy any pictures, although they may do so if they desire. Those who bring children in do not have to be subscribers to the paper.

TO MARRY - Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Powell announce the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Powell, above, to Charles Thomas Boone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boone of Abernathy. The wedding will be at 8 p. m. Oct. 17 in the First Baptist Church of Sudan, with Rev. Wayne Perry officiating. All friends and relatives are invited.

Trades Day, Auction Set Here

90TH BIRTHDAY - Mrs. Lillian Fulcher, seated, a resident of Sudan since 1926, was honored on her 90th birthday with a family reunion and dinner at Sudan Community Center Sunday. All of her children were present, and a total of 82 persons were counted during the all-day event. Mrs. Fulcher, widow of the late Henry Fulcher, who died in 1947, has 54 grandchildren, 127 great-grandchildren and 27 great-great grandchildren. She was 90 Monday. Shown above are Mrs. Fulcher, and her children, from left to right, Auk, Fulcher, Sudan; Davis Fulcher of Willis, Calif.; Bruce Fulcher of Sudan; Mrs. Lee Hardy of Sudan; John Fulcher of Mullin, Texas; and Charlie Fulcher of LaFeria, Texas.

Establishment of a monthly "Sudan Trades Day", complete with an auction of miscellaneous items brought in by the citizens, was among several projects given the go-ahead sign last week by members of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Fifteen persons attended the meeting last Thursday in the First National Bank of Sudan, and every committee reported it was working on various projects for the benefit of the community.

The committee on trade development not only is making plans for the auction and trades day, but also was authorized to get exact cost estimates on modern attractive Christmas lighting for Sudan. Lester Shanks, head of the committee, said the cost of the lights and installation designed for permanent use would be presented at the next CCA meeting.

The CCA meets regularly on the last Thursday of the month, and any interested persons are invited to attend.

Shanks' committee, which also includes Dean Slaughter, Dear Heard and Bill Turner, said a date for the first auction and details on it would be released soon. Tentative plans are to have it in connection with a trades day in which merchant offer special bargains once a month.

Ken Burgess, chairman of the industrial and business development committee, reported that his group has been in contact with representatives of an alcohol manufacturing concern which considering building a new plant somewhere in the southwest. In addition, A. A. Pinkerton reported that a pump company has shown interest in a Sudan location, and a Littlefield concern reported interested in putting a machine shop here.

Calvin Jordan, president of the CCA, spoke on how to attract business to Sudan.

Signs reading "Did You Shop In Sudan?" will be erected along U. S. 84. A. A. Pinkerton and the First National Bank of Sudan having eight signs made which promote Sudan. This was part of a report by Guy Walden, chairman of the committee on community education and public relations. It also was noted the new families in the area are being welcomed through the Sudan Beacon-News in a new feature called "Welcome, Newcomers!"

With an eye on the property damage usually incurred at Halloween, the CCA appointed committee to meet with school officials and with the student council to ascertain what can be done to prevent vandalism at Halloween night. This committee includes Walden, Jordan and Nolan Parrish.

Marvin Tollett, chairman the membership committee, said a membership drive will be launched as soon as materials arrive.

With fullback Howard Phillips running for miles and miles through the Sudan Hornet line, Sundown's Roughnecks outlasted the Hornets 26-20 last Friday night at Sundown.

The Hornets kept it close by scoring on the last play of the first half and on the next to last play of the game, but Phillips definitely made the difference in the game. Even so, it was close enough that Sudan could have won it had just one or two plays turned out differently.

Phillips actually carried the ball 20 times for 162 yards, an average of 8.1 per carry. With him doing most of the work, and with the other Sundown backs occasionally getting in on the act, Sundown controlled the ball most of the time, giving Sudan not enough chances to crack the game open with a sharp passing attack.

Sudan passed 15 times, completing 8 for 11 yards, and could have made more by air had Sundown not controlled the ball so much with Phillips' lunges through the line. Top rusher for Sudan was Pat Brown, who carried 11 times for 47 yards.

Phillips made his longest gain early in the first quarter, on Sundown's first play from scrimmage, as he burst free and ran 42 yards to the Sudan 40, where he was overhauled from behind by Danny Masten.

Masten dived on a Sundown fumble on the next play, and Sudan drove deep into Sundown land only to be halted on downs on the one-foot line. In this drive, Mike Smith connected on passes of 20 yards to Masten and 29 yards to Danny Allen. But on fourth down, Thomson gained from the 3 to the 1-foot line and Sundown took over. Sudan got it right back two plays later when Roy Roberts pounced on a fumble at the Roughnecks' 2, and, following a penalty, Brown went around right end 5 yards for a touchdown. A pass was incomplete and Sudan led 6-0 at the end of the first.

Sundown came right back to drive for a touchdown with QB Jimmy Morgan going over from a foot away. A kick was no good, and the score was tied 6-6 early in the second quarter.

After the kickoff, Sudan made one first down, then had to punt with Allen getting off a 57-yard beauty that sailed over the heads of the deep men, to be killed on the Sundown 13. The Roughnecks' Dale Scott then raced into the clear to go 37 yards to the Sudan 44, where he was derailed by Marcy Cantu. From there, Scott and Phillips teamed up to drive relentlessly down near the goal line, where Morgan scored again, this time on a 14-yard run.

Randall Decker ran for two points and Sundown led 14-6.

Sudan got the ball at midfield with 13 seconds left in the half, and here Mike Smith gave the Hornet fans something to cheer about. Smith went back to pass, found everyone covered and started running. After a lot of dodging and changing directions, he covered 45 yards to the Sundown 5 where the clock was stopped with 1 second left. On the last play of the half, Thomson passed to Masten in the end zone for a touchdown. Smith then passed to Brown for 2 points and it was 14-11 at halftime.

The third quarter saw Phillips and company eat up yardage and the clock, as Sudan had the ball for only four plays in the entire period. Phillips carried the ball

Welcome, Newcomers!

(The Sudan Beacon-News, in conjunction with the Sudan Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, is beginning a series welcoming newcomers to Sudan, beginning with the new teachers who came here in September.)

ROGER C. HEBEBRANDS - Shown here are Mr. and Mrs. Roger C. Hebebrand and daughter Kathy Sue, 2, who came to Sudan to teach in the school system. Hebebrand, an ordained Southern Baptist minister, teaches speech and history in high school. He attended high school in California, attended Biola College at Los Angeles and San Jose State, and graduated from Baylor University in 1962. His wife, Suzanne, teaches second grade, and formerly taught in Louisville, Ky., where Hebebrand attended Southern Baptist Seminar. Mrs. Hebebrand graduated from Hoover High School, Lindale, Calif., and from Baylor.

Youngsters Signing For Football Contest

Twenty-one boys have signed for Ford's Punt, Pass & Kick competition to be held in Sudan Oct. 12.

Sponsor of the local competition is Gatewood Motor Co., where entries will be accepted through Oct. 11.

"We need more entries in all divisions, particularly the 10-year-old group", Benny Arnold said Tuesday.

Boys age 8 through 11 may enter, and each competes in his own age group. In other words, there are separate divisions for 8-year-olds, 9-year-olds, 10-year-olds and 11-year-olds. So far, eight boys have entered in the 9-year-old group, there are six age 11, five age 8 and only two age 10.

Local prizes will be awarded in three places in each division. First prize in each division is a top quality jacket with a professional football team emblem on it. Second prize is a football helmet, and third prize is a football.

Each contestant passes the football, punts it and place kicks it, and gets a total score based on how far the ball travels in the air, and how straight it goes.

POWDER PUFF BALL GAME PLANNED BY SENIORS

Among school activities planned include the sponsoring of a Powder Puff football game by members of the Senior Class to be held Oct. 22; and the Student Council is planning participation in the "World Wide Clothing Week" when the committee members for planning for the event will be Kae Baker, Brenda Drake, Leta Warren and Richard Rogers.

Best Line For Bass
Puzzled as to which weight line is best for bass fishing? The heavier line is hard to cast.

Consensus of opinion leans toward the 12-pound line as the heaviest to use for good casting. The lighter your line, the easier and farther you cast, all else being equal.

NOT QUITE OVER - Tommy Thomson of Sudan was stopped just short of the Sundown goal line in his fourth down play in the first quarter. Thomson is somewhere in the middle of the pileup. (Staff Photo)

You can have your cake and protein, too, when you top that cake with a delicious, easy-to-make Peanut Butter Frosting. Peter Pan Peanut Butter, high in protein and full of flavor, blends with Carnation Coffee-mate, the unique new instant non-dairy coffee creamer. It's a perfect combination: both products are wonderfully convenient to use; both are economical; both are grand for any number of cooking uses.

Your very next cake should be spread with Peanut Butter Frosting. Dad and the kids will appreciate lunchbox slices. For after school snacks, it's ideal. When friends drop over, it enlivens the coffee break. And when you offer coffee, always add its first mate, delicious Coffee-mate.

PEANUT BUTTER FROSTING

(Frosts 9-inch layer cake)

1/2 cup Carnation Coffee-mate	3 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup hot water	1/4 teaspoon grated lemon peel (optional)
1/2 cup Peter Pan Smooth Peanut Butter	4 cups sifted confectioners sugar

Dissolve Coffee-mate in hot water. Cool. Cream together peanut butter, butter and lemon peel. Add dissolved non-dairy coffee creamer to peanut butter mixture alternately with sugar, beating after each addition. Beat until thick enough to spread.

Scripture: Ezekiel 18:30-32;
12:37-50; Romans 10:

Therefore turn yourselves,
and live ye."

"The communication line is broken... the wires are down, and we cannot get through."
Have you ever tried to make a phone call and heard the operator say these words? It is a frustrating feeling to need to give a message, or hear one, from someone and not be able to communicate with them.

How about the communication line between God and You? Have you heard from Him, or is the wire down and He cannot get through to you? How about your communication with your fellow-man? Can you tell the true thoughts in your mind to your fellow creatures?

Someone said to me that the real problem of our world was the problem of communication. This person said that if, for instance, I could truly project (communicate) to another person (and another) what I meant when I said words like faith or hope, our problems could be solved. But, he said, we cannot really be sure we are communicating exactly in concrete things (for instance, do you and I see the same things as we look at a cup?), much less in abstract things which are unseen.

This I agree with on one condition, as he agreed, also. All communication must be based on reality of God, and therefore communication with Him. For, we are more than mental — the mental or the brain is only the machinery through which the real you operates — for we are spiritual, created in God's image.

Jesus Christ knew this communication problem! He knows man, for He made Him. Complete communication between man and man may be impossible, yet in Jesus Christ and through Him all things are possible. For Christ knew He could communicate to man His Spirit of eternal love for you and me in this way (here we may learn how to communicate):
by His words fulfilled in action;
His death on the cross, His resurrection and ascension. Spirit can witness (communicate) with spirit.

As we talked, this person speaking of our lack of communication, said, "I, too, have the problem of communicating, but I just hope I can live so that somebody will notice." And, as I listened, he had communicated without any difficulty to me that Jesus lives in Him. Later, in a situation where some of us were falling to "communicate" properly in our witness for Christ, again in his inner calm I saw the spirit of my Lord and Master, and I, too, pray that somebody will notice, I am trying to written for Jesus in my daily living.

By His death on the cross, Christ showed the world that God truly loves us with a love that is past all human understanding. Such an act of love brings man to take a look at Jesus then at himself.
And then, in repentance for sins committed which must be paid for in death, and in humble, grateful, appreciative love, accept the gift of life God offers you and me through the shed blood of Christ. God, through Christ, is able to communicate with man! But He must first get man's attention!

So now, before it is forever too late, I am trying to communicate this to you: that God is trying to get through to you! Is the line open? Are the wires down?

What is this line of communication between man and God?
The communication is basically prayer. Jesus was a man, and He prayed much to the Father.
How does the two-way message get through? The line between you and God is your faith. Your faith to believe God's Word, to resolve to commit yourself to Him as His child in obedience, and your act of acceptance and confession of Christ before men will let Christ into your heart and He will save you from your sins into eternal life. Your faith to believe that God hears and answers the prayers of His children.

Stop and listen! Give God your attention. If you could know, as I know, of the danger you are in of spending eternity in the darkness and pain of hell, without Christ. If you knew the peace and joy and delight of His presence, His loving forgiveness, you would leave off all business, all recreation, clubs, fun or social affairs, all things, until you had accepted the gift of eternal life from God, through His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

These are my thoughts. Have I communicated to you that it is joyful to take up our cross daily and follow Jesus? Have I made clear that in the midst of all things of this world, things that would fill our time, that hold on to us and keep us from ever hearing from God or thinking of Jesus — in and with all this, we can keep our soul anchored to Jesus! Our faith can bring us joy.

Our witness for Jesus may not be as good in sickness as in health, in lack of communication as in communication, in unemotional moments as in emotional ones, but our anchor holds steadfast and sure. For our faith is based on none of these things, but is based on Jesus, and on God's word of promise that Jesus saves! I know God loves me, forgives me, and will never leave nor forsake me. Do you know this, too? Mend and use your faith line — turn yourselves and live ye.

11 times in a Sundown drive which started early in the period and used up the entire quarter, as Morgan scored from the 3 with 20 seconds left, climaxing a 75-yard drive. This made it 20-14 at the end of the third.

A play which could have won it all for Sudan was called back in the fourth as the Hornets, facing fourth down and 5, had Allen running from punt formation for a gain of about 10 yards, but the officials ruled that Sudan did not have seven men on the line. So, after a punt down to the Sundown 8, the Roughnecks drove all the way again, with Phillips finally scoring one himself, from 2 yards out. This made it 26-14.

Sudan took the ensuing kickoff back on a drive to another touchdown, scored by Thomson from the 5 with just time for a Sudan kickoff before the game ended.

Smith completed 5 of 9 passes for 69 yards and Thomson connected on 3 of 6 efforts for 42 yards. Sudan had no passes intercepted. Sundown tried only 1 pass during the game, and it was incomplete.

Defensively, Sundown's Mi, 28, Dab Holly, a linebacker, was up the Hornets, and has yet to be blocked out. For Sudan, Howard, Carley Baker and Kennerl May turned in good work.

Springlake bounced back strong last week to take over the lead in winning among district teams. The Wolverines walloped New Deal 46-6. While Sudan was losing, Hale Center also lost, 20-6 to Olton, and Kress was tied 6-6 by Hart. Farwell edged Morton 27-21.

New Pontiacs Go On Display Today

Pontiac Motor Division's regular series lineup for 1964 has been completely restyled, yet retains a strong Pontiac identity. The new Pontiacs go on display today (Thursday) at Robinson Motor Co. in Susan.

The Catalina, Star Chief and Bonneville models appear longer, lower and wider without any significant change in exterior dimensions.

Catalina models and the Grand Prix sports coupe have a 120-inch wheelbase while the Star Chief and Bonneville models have a 123-inch wheelbase. All station wagon models have a 119-inch wheelbase.

All 1964 Pontiacs are one inch longer overall. The Catalina and Grand Prix measure 213 inches while the Star Chief and Bonneville series are 220 inches. Station wagons are 213.8 inches long.

The Catalina, Pontiac's volume series, is available in seven models — two and four-door sedans, two and four-door hardtops, six and nine-passenger Safari station wagons and a convertible.

A four-door hardtop and a four-door sedan are offered in the Star Chief series.

The Bonneville is available in four models — two and four-door hardtops, a six-passenger station wagon and a convertible.

"Important advances and refinements in body construction and engine design will enable Pontiac to strengthen its third-place sales position in the industry," Lloyd Robinson declared.

Pontiac's Tempest for 1964 emerges as a new and different breed of car with all-new styling, new engines, new frame, new bodies and new interiors.

The 1964 Tempest is 8.7 inches longer than previous models and has design changes that include a more powerful six-cylinder, in-line engine, a perimeter frame and restyled bodies. The wheelbase has been increased to 115 inches for an overall length of 203 inches.

LETTER TO EDITOR: Halloween Hoodlums Hit

Dear Editor:

Last year driving down the main street of a small town I saw a mob scene that really shocked me. Teen-age boys and girls were on a rampage of destruction that I would not have believed if I had not seen it. Buildings were sprayed and smeared with paint, and soap, obscenities were scrawled on windows, buildings and sidewalks. All manner of trash and obstructions were being thrown in the streets and some of it was ignited. Tires were punctured on machinery and cars stored on open lots with the result that cost of damages done ran to hundreds of dollars for some businesses unfortunate as to have been located in the maelstrom of vandalism which swirled there that night. Where, you say, did this scene occur? Well, it wasn't Birmingham, Ala. or Jackson, Miss. and the participants weren't racist agitators or New York juvenile delinquents having a rumble. No sir, the place was Sudan,

Texas; the time was Halloween night, 1962, and the vandals were girls (that's right, girls) and boys who live right in the Sudan community with a preponderance of Sudan High School ball jackets identifying members of the Sudan ball team supported on Friday and Tuesday nights by Sudan as destructive vandals on a spree of destruction in downtown Sudan on Halloween night. These were children from good homes whose respectable parents were home watching TV and passing out trick and treat, treats to little tykes now in training for their turn at Halloween destruction a few years hence.

Perhaps a clue to the cause of this deplorable scene which left county deputies and local night watchman helpless was to be found comments of the parents to each other the next day: "Did you see the way the kids tore up the town last night?"

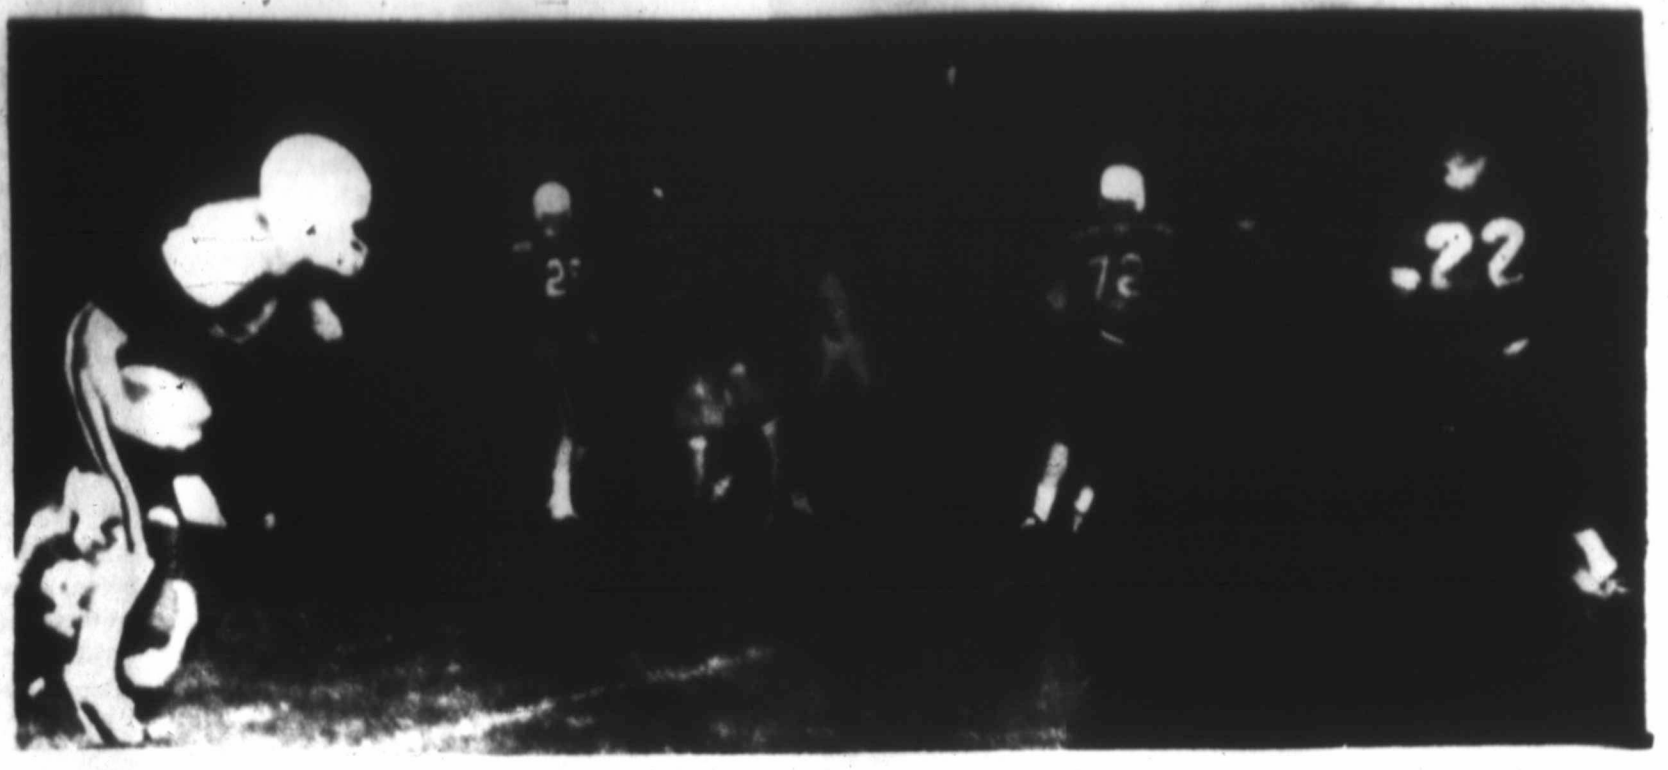

Such apathetic tolerance probably wasn't expressed by the car dealer whose damages ran into the hundreds of dollars or the implement dealer whose damages exceeded a thousand dollars.

This wave of vandalism is a symptom of moral deterioration; of warped values which is nationwide. I know other parents who witnessed the same shocking scene I saw and they, like I, are determined that their children will be at home this Halloween night and not out destroying the property of someone else. This has assumed proportions that cannot be considered childish pranks — such wanton destruction is wrong, not right.

The answer is for each parent to take the matter up with his children in such a way that leaves no doubt where he stands on this matter of Halloween vandalism.

The county deputies and town marshal don't want to have to arrest the child of some life-long neighbor, and no business man wants to have to be a witness in some court action resulting from vandalism and involving a neighbor or customer's child. We parents must share the responsibility for asserting ourselves before another Halloween comes around. That will be easier than having a child removed from school to answer for his actions on Halloween night.

In this matter I would hope that anyone having some comment to make might make such comment in a letter to the editor in the same column. Whether they agree or disagree, this matter needs to be brought out in the open and given the attention it demands. If there be those who think this vandalism is defensible I sincerely hope they will defend it. I for one think such vandalism is indefensible.

This matter was recently discussed at a Chamber of Commerce meeting and I would like to see expressed some views by business men, school officials, coaches, teenagers, ball players, teachers, and above all, parents. A good thorough discussion and look at this problem might go far toward solving what has become a blot on our school, our ball team, and our community.

A "Now-To-Do-It" PAINT POINTERS

Paint chemists, who predict that water-thinned emulsion house paints will, to a considerable extent, supplant conventional oil-base paints, have given this prophecy added weight by developing a "universal" exterior emulsion. This new formulation is ideal for all standard kinds of home exteriors — brick, reconstituted wood siding, asphalt and wood shingles, stucco, masonry, concrete block, and, of course, wood. Called "Lacrite" house paint, it is superior to oil base paint on many counts. These include 30-minute drying time, milder resistance, ease of application, ease of clean-up, as well as greater durability.

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

'64 Chevrolet Impala Super Sedan

Besides looks, ride and power - what's so special about it?

(It's so reasonably priced)

Kind of leaves the high-priced cars some explaining to do, wouldn't you say? Long and luxurious—with a fresh-crested look. Richer roomy interiors with subtle new blendings of colors and fabrics. Like the ultra-soft vinyl upholstery in the new Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Series.

A choice of seven engines, no less, with output all the way up to 425 hp.* And a choice of four smooth transmissions to go with them. And underlying it all, the opulent feel of this '64 Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride.

Matter of fact, the most noticeable difference between this beautiful new 1964 Chevrolet and the high-priced cars is the price itself.

Let your dealer show you how much luxury that reasonable Chevrolet price now buys.
